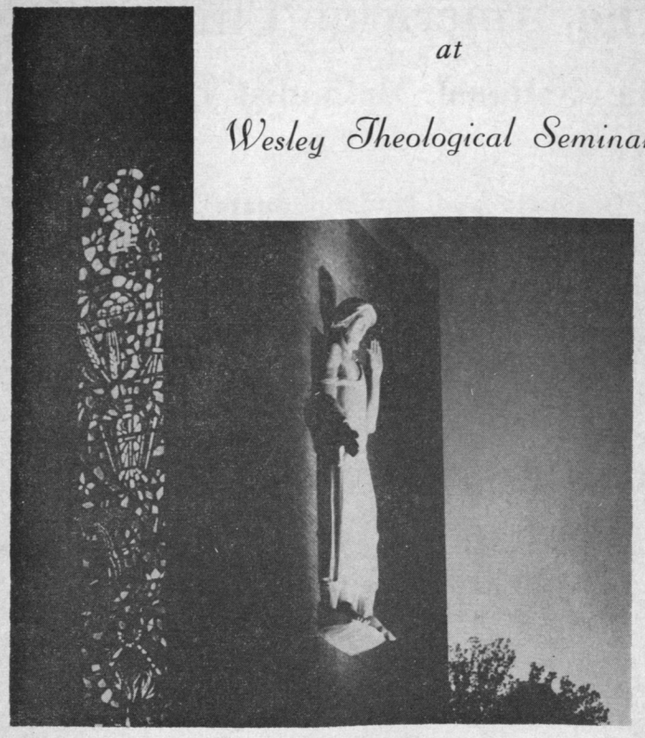
A New Ministry For A New World

at

Wesley Theological Seminary



Uniting heart and mind in the tradition of the Wesleys . . . seeks to keep in lively balance . . . FAITH and LEARNING . . . to serve the present age.

To develop an adequate and dedicated Christian leadership for the 20th century Church, a faculty of twenty-four combines scholarship, Christian commitment, and practical experience.

The emphasis is on sound scholarship, spiritual depth and practical training for the parish ministry. A counseling program provides personal guidance for each student.

Robert W. Helms	Laurence E. Staton

RULES GOVERNING ELECTION OF DELEGATES: In accordance with paragraphs 22-25, 501, 517-18, Discipline of 1964, the Peninsula conference may elect four Ministerial and four Lay Delegates to the General Conference and five additional Ministerial and five additional Lay Delegates to the Jurisdictional Conference.

The additional delegates to the Jurisdictional Conference are the Reserve Delegates to the General Conference in order of their election.

In connection with these elections I now move the following procedure and rules:

1. That after all the delegates to the General Conference have first been elected on a separate ballot, the delegates to the Jurisdictional Conference as reserves to the General Conference be elected by balloting.

2. That there shall also be elected three Ministerial Reserve and three Lay Reserve Delegates to the Jurisdictional Conference.

3. That every member entitled to vote shall be ordered within the Bar of the Conference and those not within the Bar of the Conference shall not be entitled to vote except the treasurer, the statistician and their assistants, whose ballots shall be received by the tellers.

4. That any ballot containing fewer or more than the number of names to be voted for shall be rejected.

5. That where there are two or more members of the same name, only such ballots as containing the Christian name or initials of the person for whom the ballot is cast shall be counted, but such omission of the Christian name or initial shall not affect the other names on the ballot.

6. That a majority of the legal ballots cast shall be required. A majority of the legal votes cast on any ballot shall elect except when a larger number of members receive such a majority than are to be elected; in which case the persons receiving the highest vote shall be elected to the total number of places to be filled. A tie vote between two persons when but one place remains to be filled shall be disregarded and another vote shall be taken.

On the recommendation of the District Superintendents and the Board of Lay Activities I nominate the following as tellers:

Ministerial:

SECOND SESSION—THURSDAY AFTERNOON

OPENING: Conference convened at 2:30 p.m. with Bishop John Wesley Lord presiding. The Conference joined in the singing of a hymn and Bishop Lord led in prayer.

PETITION TO THE UNITING CONFERENCE: The following petition to the General Conference was presented by Edwin C. Thomas and approved by the Conference:

"WHEREAS the Peninsula Annual Conference and the churches of the former Delaware Annual Conference of the Central Jurisdiction located within its geographic boundaries entered into an historic merger in May of 1965 thus increasing the total membership of the Peninsula Annual Conference by approximately 25%, and

WHEREAS two full years of uniting experience have now been completed since this merger with all district and conference activities being well integrated so that Negro and white Methodists are learning to know one another as Christian brothers even in areas of the Conference where customs and attitudes of social separateness had long prevailed and where the percentage of Negroes to whites in the general population is high, and

WHEREAS these renewal experiences of the merger are deepening the spiritual life of our local churches as our members face up to the challenge of the Christian Gospel to all human relations on the local level and are thereby strengthening the Methodist witness for Christ in a relevant way,

BE IT HEREBY RESOLVED that the members of the Peninsula Annual Conference meeting in session in Wilmington, Delaware, in May of 1967, hereby petition the Members of the Uniting Conference of The Methodist Church and The Evangelical United Brethren Church to take immediate action to make the structure of The United Methodist Church consistent with Division I, Article IV of The Constitution (Inclusiveness of the Church) be enacting whatever may be necessary to assure that the separate Negro Annual Conferences and the separate White Annual Conferences with overlapping boundaries will be merged no later than the close of the Jurisdictional Conferences of 1972 so that racial distinctions in the structure of The United Methodist Church will be eliminated."

RESOLUTION: The following resolution adopted by the 1966 Special Session of the General Conference of the Methodist Church was presented by Bishop Lord and approved by the Conference:

THE RESOLUTION for the elimination of racial structure and the development of greater understanding and brotherhood in The Methodist Church; and For the transfer and merger of the Conferences of the Central Jurisdiction into the regional Jurisdictions. (As adopted by the 1966 special session of the General Conference of The Methodist Church.)

RESOLUTION: The following resolution was presented by Edward R. Wilkins and adopted by the Conference:

WHEREAS the shortage of ministers for our conference continues to be critical year after year, and

WHEREAS we are not raising up from among us a sufficient number of young persons to supply the ministerial needs of our Conference as illustrated by the fact that,

first—every year several of our pulpits would have to be left unfilled except for the availability of student pastors attending college and seminary in our Area, and second—many of the young men now in process of preparation for future membership in this Conference have come to us from geographical areas outside the peninsula, and

WHEREAS the observance of Ministry Sunday is one of the significant ways in which we may be able to aid the Holy Spirit in presenting to young persons in our midst the call of God for the Christian ministry, and

WHEREAS the day set apart as Ministry Sunday in the calendar of The Methodist Church almost always falls on the Sunday when the Peninsula Annual Conference is in session, necessitating the absence of our pastors from their pulpits on this crucial day,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that we establish the fourth Sunday of January as Ministry Sunday within our Conference.

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we urge every local congregation of Peninsula Methodism to observe this day, or one very close to it, and encourage not only our pastors but also our laymen to lend their efforts to the kind of observance which will be most effective in each local situation.

AND FINALLY BE IT RESOLVED that we ask all of our Conference agencies who have a concern and program responsibility in this area to pool their resources for an effectively coordinated celebration of Ministry Sunday.

REPORTS

(a) District Superintendents

COMPOSITE REPORT

Bishop Lord, ministers, and laymen of the Peninsula Annual Conference, our hearts are filled with gratitude to Almighty God for the guidance, protection, strength, and wisdom He has given us as we have sought to execute the work of a district superintendent. We rejoice in the fact that God has blessed our efforts and the Gospel is bearing fruit and expanding throughout the Conference, thus enabling us to present this composite report.

While it falls my lot to read this report, each superintendent has shared in collecting data and in setting forth some of the goals which must claim our attention in the days which lie ahead.

We have prepared for distribution, as has been our policy in former years, individual district reports for your information and edification. Hence, this report will attempt to highlight some of the achievements of the past year and express appreciation to you and the countless dedicated laymen throughout the conference. We also desire to share with you a bit of our faith and hope for the future.

Wedding bells rang during the year for the Rev. William H. Kohl of Hebron and Mrs. Mabel Ellis of Laurel, Delaware, on October 15, 1966; Rev. James Swartz and Miss Frances Parker of Wilmington on August 20, 1966; and Rev. Edward P. Wimberly of Wilmington and Miss Ann Streaty of Columbus, Ohio, on June 4, 1966.

We welcomed into our parsonage families the following: Jill Lynn Cohen, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Conrad Cohen; Michelle Elizabeth Trail, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Gary W. Trail; Devon Lee David, son of Rev. and Mrs. Ronald L. David; Cecelia Michelle Johnson, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. A. Wayland Johnson; Laurie Lee Gordy, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Howard L. Gordy, Jr.; Benjamin Ware Starnes, son of Rev. and Mrs. Ronald Starnes; Laura Lynne Staton, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. L. E. Staton; Charles E. Covington, Jr., son of Rev. and Mrs. Charles E. Covington; Laura Ann Stookey, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Lawrence H. Stookey; Joseph Davis Bergman, son of Rev. and Mrs. Ronald W. Bergman; Mary Beth Godfrey, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. George Godfrey; Catherine Elizabeth and Jennifer Lee, twin daughters of Rev. and Mrs. Jerrold W. Knotts; Martha Lee Stapleton, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. J. Gordon Stapleton.

In the midst of life we also were faced with death. The roll of our honored dead was read this morning as a part of the Memorial Service. "These all died in faith and now 'rest from their labors' and their works do follow them."

During the year it became necessary to make some interim pastoral appointments. They were: Rev. Isaac H. White, retired supply, was appointed to Chester-Stevensville; Rev. Ralph B. Thompson, retired minister, to Centrevlile-Gouldtown; Rev. Lawrence Wimbrow to North East-West Cecil; Rev. A. Wayland Johnson, Minister of Education at Wesley, Dover; Rev. Dale Pruett to Wyoming; Rev. William H. Staten to Milford-Harrington; Rev. John T. Randolph to St. Michael's-Neavitt; Rev. Charles P. Spencer to Trappe-Easton Circuit; Rev. C. Martin Stafford to Cordova-Earle's Chapel; Rev. Chester E. Wilcox to Trappe-Faith Chapel; Rev. Vinton D. Shufelt to Christ, Salisbury; Rev. Harold E. Walton, Minister of Education, to St. John's, Seaford; Rev. Alston L. Brittingham to Girdletree-Stockton; Rev. William H. Greene to Snow Hill Circuit; Rev. Dr. John N. Link, retired, to Dagsboro; Rev. Dr. Jackson Burns to Grace, Wilmington. Mt. Lebanon was left to be supplied at the last conference session. It later became yoked with Aldersgate and the Rev. James R. Hughes was appointed pastor with the Rev. Paul Thomas and Rev. Richard Hamilton, associates.

Three ministers are retiring at this session because of age. They are Rev. Isaac W. Wallace, Rev. Daniel T. Pritchard, and Rev. William C. R. Mills. The Rev. Charles C. Thomas is retiring because of health. The Rev. Allen C. Budd and Rev. C. Richard Cox are requesting sabbatical leaves. We pray God's blessings upon these men in their new relationships.

Christian Vocation and Ministerial Recruitment

We are pleased that there is renewed effort on the part of the Conference Commission on Christian Vocations to enlist and guide persons of promise into vocations of the church and its agencies. This year a "Consultation on Guidance" for pastors, and public school guidance counselors was held. A workshop for district secretaries was sponsored in December. The Commission hopes to arouse local church secretaries and commissions to greater involvement in recruitment. The urgent need of the hour is for Christian ministers. The supply of available men is growing smaller. Unless some relief is found in a short time, your Cabinet may be forced to ask the Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications to review its policy relating to supply pastors.

We solicit the support of our Methodist families in recruitment also. Because the attitude of the family toward the church and its minister will determine to a large extent the number of young men and women who choose a church related vocation and the parish ministry in particular. Attitudes are contagious. Children soon discover when their parents really love to go to church. They also know when parents go to church as though they have been sentenced to a year of hard labor.

It is in the home that Christian virtues are learned; such as, gratitude, thoughtfulness for others, forgiveness, understanding, cooperation, responsibility, stewardship, reverence, love, appreciation, and respect for the church and its ministers. We cannot hope for our sons to become ministers and our daughters to marry a minister if we are going to serve "roast preacher" for Sunday dinner.

It is also our belief that we may be overlooking a very basic element in a successful program of ministerial recruitment. Namely, that the local church and the home must maintain, at all times, a warm, vital, spiritual atmosphere.

Jesus frequently used illustrations from farm life in His teachings. He spoke of the sower and the seed; the vine and the tree; the shepherd and the sheep in proclaiming the great truths of the Gospel. If one were to use an illustration from agarian life today to point out the importance of spiritual warmth in recruiting or inspiring young men to become ministers, he might very well use that of the chick hatchery. Scientists tell us that a warm temperature and a favorable humidity are necessary for the successful incubation of eggs and that the eggs must be turned every day. Our homes and churches should be incubators where Christian nurture and development produce the motivation necessary to lead some of our children to choose a church related vocation. To this end we encourage each home to build a family altar and each church to improve the warmth of its worship, fellowship, and service, in the hope that a few preachers will be "hatched", kept alive spiritually, and growing toward Christian maturity.

Charge Realignments

In the light of the acute shortage of ministers the Cabinet is recommending the following charge realignments:

Chestertown District: Millington-Crumpton Charge discontinued and its churches assigned as follows: Mt. Pleasant to the Millington-John Wesley Charge; St. Daniel's to the Church Hill-Mt. Zion Charge; Boyer's Chapel discontinued, members will join Mt. Pleasant.

Dover District: Leipsic and Little Creek will be placed under the pastoral care of ministers of Dover, Wesley. Bethel Church, Farmington Charge, will be added to Burrsville Charge, Easton District. Sand Hill Church, Harbeson Charge, will be placed under the care of the pastor of Grace Church, Georgetown. Bridgeville Circuit, Trinity and Bethel Churches, will be realigned with Mt. Calvary, Bridgeville, to form the new Bridgeville Charge.

Easton District: St. Michael's-St. Luke's becomes a station charge. Neavitt Church becomes a part of the Tilghman Charge.

Salisbury District: Cokesbury from Salem-Pocomoke to Antioch in Princess Anne; Marion Station-Marumsco Charge to be discontinued; Ebenezer Church with Metropolitan-Princess Anne; Liberia Church with Marion Station-Handy Memorial; Waters Church with Shiloh, Crisfield; Mariners from Mt. Pleasant, Crisfield, and realigned with Marion-Trinity-Quindocqua.

Wilmington District: New Castle Madeley Minquadale Charge discontinued. Madeley Church has merged with Asbury, New Castle. Minquadale and Asbury will constitute the New Castle Asbury-Minquadale Charge. St. Georges-Summit Charge will be discontinued. St. Georges Church will be realigned with Delaware City. The Delaware City-Kirkwood Charge will be discontinued. The churches are to be realigned to form the following new charges: St. Georges Church-Delaware City; Middletown-Bethesda and Summit; Kirkwood is to become a station served by a part-time supply.

Christian Unity

It is encouraging to note the dialogue that is taking place in the Christian community. As Methodists we have participated in several ecumenical ventures this year. Among these are the Pacem en Terris Conference, Urban Convocation, Week of Prayer for Christian Unity, Co-Cu Group (Consultation on Church Union) and Church Women United. Truly God is at work in our midst creating a climate of Christian understanding. At this point in the development of church history it is imperative that Methodist ministers and laymen become involved in ecumenical activities.

You must be aware of the action which was taken by the 1966 adjourned session of the General Conference last November. A plan of union was approved to merge the Methodist Church and the Evangelical United Brethren Church to form the United Methodist Church. The consummation of the plan of union establishing the United Methodist Church will require in both churches a two-thirds affirmative vote of the aggregate number of members of the several Annual Conferences present and voting. This matter will be brought before us at this session of the Conference. The Cabinet hopes you will vote in favor of the proposed plan.

Evangelism

Evangelism should have a two-fold emphasis—the renewal of the individual and the reconstruction of the social order. This being true the Board of Evangelism calls us to "A Venture In Faith" during the year 1967. As stated in a letter to each minister of the Peninsula Conference by our resident Bishop John Wesley Lord, "This new venture will require that we rethink and reactivate a great resource of the Christian faith, the power and purpose of a free God in contemporary life."

In cooperation with the Department of Urban Work of the Board of Missions and the General Board of Evangelism, a Mission to Wilmington will be held June 18-29. This is a program where young seminarians will receive training in evangelism. Special emphasis will be placed upon evangelism as it relates to the "Inner City" of Wilmington.

During the year the Board promoted evangelistic rallies in Salisbury, Dover, and Wilmington. A group from "Teen Challenge" conducted the rallies. Approximately 2100 persons (mostly youth) were in attendance.

A New Church Organized

The organizing service for a new church was held on Sunday, September 25, 1966. The church became known as The Skyline Methodist Church. It is located in Pike Creek Valley near Newark, Delaware. Since there is no church building, services are being held in the Skyline Junior High School. To date the membership is 105.

It is felt that the growth of the church has been somewhat hampered by the "tight money" market which curtailed the construction of new homes in the area.

Much credit for the growth so far goes to the Rev. James Maxfield, New Church Developer of the Board of Missions, and to the Rev. Ronald W. Bergman, who began his work as pastor there last June. Other Methodist churches in the area have cooperated commendably in the project. For this we are grateful.

Christian Education

The program of Christian Education in the local church undergirds the total program of the church. We are grateful to the Rev. Walter Stone, Executive Secretary, and his staff for keeping the districts and local church staffs alert to the changing trends in Christian teaching.

In this report we highlight only a few activities sponsored by the Board of Education. The Camping Program at PecoMeth is increasing in popularity among the adults as well as children and youth. Our camping facilities provided 16,953 camper days this conference year.

The "New Day" Seminar for ministers under the guidance of Bishop John Wesley Lord and Dr. Paul B. Maves gave new insights on the theme "The Pastor as Christian Educator". Two hundred and thirty-six ministers participated.

As in the previous years support for our Campus Ministry program has been growing. This ministry touches most, if not all, of the institutions of higher learning within the bounds of the Conference. Our appreciation goes to the churches involved in this program.

Drayton Methodist Center shows a growth in the quality of programs and the number of persons served. We believe that if given time this Center can develop into an integral part of our program of education and spiritual enrichment. If the present rate of growth continues, the operational cost for the Conference will be $4,000 less for 1967-68. The Rev. Omro Todd, director, and his wife deserve much credit for the way in which they promote the work of the Center.

Wesley College

We point with pride to the growth and development taking place at Wesley College. Under the dynamic leadership of Dr. Parker and the faculty Wesley College has risen to a position of prominence amid the institutions of higher learning. To assure the continued growth of this institution, we must give it greater financial support and encourage more of our young people to matriculate there.

Hospitals and Homes

The construction of the Manor House in Seaford, Delaware, has been completed. It increases the facilities now available to a larger number of the aging who need the loving, tender care of the church.

The Country House is living up to its tradition of giving and providing gracious living for its residents. The site is conducive to bringing a quality of joy and happiness to those who live there.

The Towne House is a unique project in that it will provide a complete package of housing for the older citizens who desire to live in downtown Wilmington. Its facilities will provide for health, recreational, social and religious aspects of living for its residents.

On Friday at 2 p.m. you are urged to join us at the site at 6th & Walnut Streets for an appropriate ceremony conducted by Bishop Lord.

The excellent leadership of the Rev. George H. Pigueron, Jr., executive director of The Country House, and the Rev. Milton H. Keene, administrator of the Manor House, is deeply appreciated. Our gratitude goes to the Board of Hospitals and Homes, the Trustees, and Auxiliaries of Methodist Homes, Inc., and the local churches for the manner in which they are providing this arm of the church's ministry.

Missions and Urban Ministry

The Conference Board of Missions has done an excellent job in trying to meet the urgent mission needs of the Conference. However, the board must be frustrated at times when the needs are growing faster and greater than there are resources to meet them. Thus, our benevolent giving of necessity should be increased. The main projects of the board this year have been in the areas of Church Extension, Urban Work, and Promotion and Cultivation.

The challenge of the city is still with us. Many have little interest in the city and its problems. They seem to feel these problems do not touch them directly. But, contrary to this belief, the urban mind affects us all in that it reaches out through the media of the press, radio, and television and touches the remotest hamlet within our Conference.

In an effort to meet the challenge of urbanization at the last Annual Conference, the Rev. Richard C. Stazesky was appointed director of Urban Ministry. Under his leadership the community outreach of seven churches in the inner city of Wilmington has been strengthened.

A program called MAP (Methodist Action Program) has emerged as the result of the re-organization of the Methodist Mission and Church Extension Society. One of the actions growing out of this program has been the re-acquisition of Old Asbury Church, the cradle of Methodism in Wilmington. Much credit for the acquisition of Old Asbury goes to Mr. Samuel McKay, Jr., executive director of the Church Extension Society and members of the Finance Committee who worked so ardently to secure funds.

Christian Social Concerns

World Peace, Affluence and Poverty have been our major Christian Social Concerns this Conference year. Through the use of written materials, speakers, and study groups the Conference Board has shared these concerns with the local churches. As a result of many of the study action groups on Affluence and Poverty, some people have been led to see that the mission of their local church is next door as well as in far away lands.

Lay Activities

The Board of Lay Activities continues to enhance the mission of the church. Under the leadership of Mr. Maurice Hancock, conference lay leader, several activities involving the men of the church have been held. Emphasis has been placed upon "Christian fellowship". Through the media of retreats, district lay banquets, and local church communion breakfasts, men have come to know and respect each other better. The spiritual life of the lay people has been deepened and enriched.

Woman's Society of Christian Service and Wesleyan Service Guild

The faithful, loyal Methodist women of the Conference continue to make an impact upon the lives of women and children through the work of the Woman's Society of Christian Service and the Wesleyan Service Guild. Through study-action programs, retreats, the School of Christian Missions, and special projects they are able to some degree, help others to grow in the knowledge and experience of God as revealed in Jesus Christ and thereby deepen their own spiritual life.

Conference Council

The Conference Council has been faithful in the discharging of its responsibilities. It has evaluated the conference program for the past year and is scheduled to meet in June as a planning session. The Council will present at this session of the Conference a resolution to reduce the number of districts from six to five. Your Cabinet hopes that you will enthusiastically endorse this resolution.

Financial Giving

We dare not close this report without mentioning the importance of our practicing Christian stewardship. We did not raise 100% of our budget this year. We were able, however, to reach 98.2% of the total budget. This is an improvement over last year's giving. We solicit your support for the coming year and perhaps we can reach the total askings.

Conclusion

The achievements of this year have been glorious. Your superintendents are grateful to all whose sacrificial labors have made them possible. But we cannot rest on the accomplishments of the past. We must press on to even higher levels of Christian service.

Bishop and Mrs. Lord, we are especially thankful to God for having you as a part of our fellowship.

Bishop Lord, we are grateful that you have chosen us to be members of your Cabinet. It has been a pleasure for us to serve with you. We have found you to be unselfish, kind, understanding, and brotherly.

As we look forward to another conference year, we are aware that there will be many challenges to face and decisions to make. We would call our laymen and pastors to pledge themselves anew to the business of kingdom building.

The pastor of the local church is the key man in the execution of Conference policies and programs. Therefore, we plead for the loyal support of each individual pastor. For unless he gives these policies and programs his undivided loyalty, his local church certainly will not.

We call our constituency to renewal, greater commitment and involvement as we face the future. And as we do so, may we find in Phillip Brooks' philosophy of strength, our courage:

"Do not pray for easy lives. Pray to be stronger men. Do not pray for tasks equal to your powers. Pray for powers equal to your tasks. Then the doing of your work shall be no miracle. But you shall be a miracle. Every day you shall wonder at yourself; at the richness of life which has come to you by the grace of God."

Humbly submitted,

May 18, 1967 JOHN R. SHOCKLEY

SUMMARY REPORTS BY DISTRICTS

CHESTERTOWN DISTRICT

DANIEL L. RIDOUT, District Superintendent

The Chestertown District has evidenced further signs of growth spiritually and materially in this the second year of its existence. We are profoundly grateful to the loyal pastors and faithful laymen and women of our churches who have made this report possible. (Three churches not reported to date.)

Church Membership: Present total membership 11,672, an increase of 591 over last year.

Finances: General and Annual Conference Benevolences and Administration: Paid $144,173 (an increase of $19,000 over last year); Camp PeCoMeth $5,039; Methodist Youth Fund $637; Methodist Student Day $509; Rally Day $1,041; Race Relations Sunday $370; Advance Specials $3,918; Board of Child Care $3,012; Fellowship of Suffering and Service $1,011; Mother's Day Offering $1,721 (for Methodist Country House); One Great Hour of Sharing $726.

Paid for ministerial support $230,681; Paid on indebtedness $114,432; Building and improvements $67,457. "Together" magazine subscriptions 953.

District Activities

Our fellowship has been greatly strengthened through the activities of our District groups. The ministers and their wives hold (separately) monthly meetings. A retreat for pastors was held at Drayton Manor last summer and will be held again in July of this year. The laymen's banquet in the fall and communion breakfast during Lent, and week-end retreat at Drayton Manor, as well as training course for lay speakers, all proved richly beneficial and stimulating in every respect. Despite the loss of its president in mid-year, the Woman's Society went on to have a banner year and is a strong unit in our District total program. Our District education staff has planned and promoted workshops, Interboard Schools, and training sessions of various kinds that deserved much better attendance. Mayor Theodore R. McKeldin of Baltimore was guest speaker at our District-wide inspirational meeting in September 1966.

Physical Improvements

Centreville has dedicated its new educational building which serves the congregation as the first unit of its proposed new church structure. Centreville-Gouldtown has thoroughly renovated its parsonage. The new parsonage of First Church, Chestertown is practically completed. Baldwin Church (Elkton-Cherry Hill Charge) held the opening services for its new building on November 6, 1966. Providence Church, Elkton-Port Deposit Charge, has been given a much needed "face lifting", as has Bryan Church on the Queenstown-Carmichael Charge. St. James (Worton-Fairlee) dedicated its parish hall during the year.

The Union Church (Chester-Stevensville Charge) was destroyed by fire on February 25, 1967. Space forbids the mention of other improvements to property on our charges. We commend all for their achievements.

DOVER DISTRICT

HARTWELL F. CHANDLER, District Superintendent

Church Membership: Received on Profession of Faith 476; received by transfer or restored to rolls 317; total received 793; lost for all causes 682; net gain of membership 111; total present membership 14,585. No new members reported in four charges. Those receiving 10 or more were: Bridgeville Circuit; Camden-Whatcoat; Cannon; Cheswold; Clayton; Dover-Leipsic-Little Creek; Dover-Wesley; Farmington; Felton; Frederica; Georgetown-Wesley; Goldsboro; Harbeson; Harrington-Asbury; Harrington-Trinity; Houston; Lewes-Bethel-Grome; Lincoln; Lincoln-Wesley Chapel; Middletown-Bethesda; Milford-Avenue; Milford-Calvary; Milton; Milton-Nassau; Smyrna-Asbury; Townsend; Wyoming.

Financial Summary: Paid on Annual Conference apportionments $178,394. The following charges (24) met their askings in full: Bridgeville Circuit; Bridgeville-Union; Camden-Whatcoat; Camden-Woodside; Clayton; Dover-Wesley; Dover-Whatcoat; Farmington; Felton; Frederica; Georgetown-Wesley; Goldsboro; Harbeson; Harrington-Asbury; Harrington-Trinity; Houston; Lewes Circuit; Lincoln-Wesley Chapel; Magnolia-Hartly; Milton; Milton-Nassau; Odessa; Townsend Circuit; and Wyoming. Several other charges made substantial gains in their giving on apportionments.

Other contributions were: Camp Fund $5,943; Advance Specials $5,445; Other Special Days $4,677; Board of Child Care $3,307; Mother's Day $1,292.

Together subscriptions 825.

Other Financial Items: Paid on Building and Improvements $236,361; Debt Reduction $151,298; Present Indebtedness $588,553.

These major projects were completed: (New Parsonage) Felton; (Church Renovations) Georgetown-Wesley, Middletown-Dale's, Smyrna-Centennial, Odessa-St. Paul's (New Hall) Townsend-Lee's Chapel. Other projects were completed at Bridgeville-Union, Cannon, Cheswold, Clayton, Dover-Wesley, Goldsboro, Greenwood, Harrington-Asbury, Lincoln Circuit, Milton, Lewes Circuit, and Townsend-Immanuel (Parsonage). Renovations and projects presently under construction: Bridgeville-Bethel; Camden-Whatcoat; Camden-Woodside; Milford-Calvary. New properties near the present church location have been purchased at Frederica and Middletown-Bethesda. Dover-Whatcoat has purchased a site for the location of their church. This has been a good year on the Dover District. My appreciation goes to Mrs. I. C. King who finishes her term as District WSCS President for her devotion to her work and her cooperation. Also, a hearty thanks to our District Lay Leader and all other District officers who have helped to make this report possible.

EASTON DISTRICT

HOWARD M. AMOSS, District Superintendent

We are grateful to God and to the ministers and laymen of all our churches. In this second year of merger, we observe a generous and healthy response to the many district and sub-district activities.

Church Membership: Total members 15,419. Received this year 611; lost this year 601. Zion and Grace of Cambridge and St. Mark's of Easton lead in the number of accessions. Other charges that received ten or more members are: Cambridge Circuit; Cambridge-St. Paul's; Cambridge-Waugh; Choptank; Denton-St. Luke's; East New Market; Easton-Miles River; Federalsburg-Union; Hurlock-Unity-Washington; Preston-Bethesda; Queen Anne; Ridgely Circuit; St. Michaels-Neavitt; Secretary; Trappe; and Wingate. Fruitful evangelism is a real need of our times.

Administration, Benevolences, Other Contributions: $187,961 given to Administration and Benevolences. 28 charges paid their askings in full: Cambridge-Grace; St. Paul's; Waugh and Zion; Choptank; Church Creek; Crapo; Denton-Burrsville; Easton-St. Mark's; Federalsburg-Christ, Concord and Union; Hooper's Island, both Hurlock Charges; both Oxford Charges; Preston-Bethesda; Preston Circuit; Queen Anne; Ridgely Circuit; both St. Michaels' Charges; Tilghman; Trappe; and Wingate. Many other charges have labored hard without reaching full payment. We salute them, too. But apart from their victory, our Conference cannot meet the Budget.

Giving to PeCoMeth was $5,800; to Advance Specials $4,563; Rally Day $905; Board of Child Care $3,210; other Benevolences $3,850.

Payments On Debt: $99,355 with these churches leading the way: St. Mark's $29,560; Zion of Cambridge $17,977; St. Paul's of Cambridge $9,906; and Vienna $8,914. The following churches paid off their debt: Hurlock-Unity-Washington; Preston-Harmony; Union of St. Michaels; and Vienna. The remaining debt is $319,896.

Building and Improvements: Expenditures are $119,572. A new parsonage is ready for Cambridge-Choptank Charge. Major parsonage improvements are reported for Cambridge-Waugh; Denton-St. Luke's; Hurlock-Unity-Washington; Preston-Bethesda; Ridgely Circuit; and Union of St. Michaels. Cambridge-Zion displays a church parlor; St. Mark's, Chapel pews; Preston-Bethesda, a new Chapel. Major church renovations are seen at Cambridge-St. Paul's, Milton of Church Creek; both East New Market Charges: Easton-Miles River; all three Federalsburg Churches; Hooper's Island Oxford; Queen Anne; Ridgely; Secretary-Dorchester; Sherwood-Bayside; St. Luke's of St. Michaels; and Trappe.

We commend the District Board of Lay Activities, Samuel M. Cannon, Jr., the Lay Leader, and the District Woman's Society of Christian Service, Miss Nina Pink, the President. We are grateful to all the District Secretaries and all the Directors of Church School work—and all those who have labored most effectively in this second year of Conference Merger.

SALISBURY DISTRICT

ALTON S. MILLER, District Superintendent

As I endeavor to fulfill my responsibility in reporting for the District, I am reminded of the experience of the good pastor who was conducting a membership training class for his young people. They were studying the Methodist Discipline and the Parables of Jesus. In one of the class sessions the pastor confronted his students with this question: "What are the duties of a District Superintendent?" A young lad replied, "It is the duty of the District Superintendent to pray every day, 'O God, be merciful to me a sinner." I suppose in his heart this pastor may have echoed a fervent, "Amen".

I confess that what the little boy said has great truth in it. But there are also other responsibilities, one of which is to compile a District report for the Annual Conference. This has truly been a great year for the Salisbury District. Both pastors and laymen have worked fervently throughout the year in a united effort to make an effective witness. Therefore, I rejoice in the worthwhile accomplishments outlined in this report.

Church Membership: Once more we are happy to note that every one of the 45 charges report accessions for the year, totaling 760. Of this number, 520 are on profession of faith; 196 by transfer from other Methodist churches, and 42 from other denominations. The present total membership for the District is 16,863, a net gain of 160 over that reported a year ago. Charges receiving ten or more new members are: Asbury, Salisbury 70; Wesley Temple, Salisbury, 53; St. Stephen's, Delmar 49; Asbury, Crisfield 48; Pittsville 44; Bethesda, Salisbury 38; St. John's, Fruitland 32; Trinity, Salisbury 32; Powellville 32; Hebron 31, Antioch, Princess Anne 27; Immanuel, Crisfield 26; Oriole 22; Mardela 20; Grace, Salisbury 17; Christ, Salisbury 16; Shiloh, Crisfield 16; Smith Island 14; Hebron-Quantico 13; Willards 13; St. Andrew's, Salisbury 12; Parsonsburg 10; and Whaleysville 10.

Stewardship and Finance: The churches of the District have reported payment of $222,168 for World Service and Conference Benevolences. Indeed, most of our charges met their askings in full. All are striving toward this goal, and the record shows a definite improvement over last year's report. Contributions to other causes are as follows: Camp Fund $7,181; Advance Specials $15,624 with 24 charges participating; Board of Child Care $3,502; Christian Education Sunday $969; Methodist Youth Fund $583; Methodist Student Day $457; Fellowship of Suffering and Service

$1,060; Mother's Day $1,077; Race Relations $261; and One Great Hour of Sharing $1,024.

Ministerial support was increased as follows: Salary $7,900; Travel $650; and Utilities $750.

Capital Improvements and Debt Reduction: A total of $106,072 has been expended this year in buildings and improvements. An additional amount of $109,091 has been paid toward debt reduction. Extensive repairs have been made to the following parsonages: Pittsville, Powellville, Mt. Vernon Circuit, Upper Fairmount, Whaleysville-New Hope, and Whaleysville Circuit. 25 charges report extensive remodeling of church buildings. On Palm Sunday the Ewell Church, Smith Island, broke ground for a new educational unit. Mortgage burning ceremonies were held on the following charges: Antioch, Princess Anne; St. Paul, Deal Island, and Whaleysville Circuit.

Of Special Note: Throughout the District we are endeavoring to continue the program of the "Twelve", and many areas report that they have generated much interest. Both the Board of Lay Activities under the direction of Mr. Vernon Downes and the Woman's Society of Christian Service, Mrs. Robert Cleland, President, have had a busy and successful year. Likewise, we express thanks to our Youth Counselors and District Secretaries for their able guidance in these areas.

It has been said that the work of the Church is to make God real in every generation. We pray that our efforts have contributed something worthwhile toward the achievement of this goal. Our thanks to the people of the Salisbury District, both clergy and lay, whose consecrated labors have brought us to this hour.

SEAFORD DISTRICT

PAUL E. MCCOY, District Superintendent

The following very brief report is presented on behalf of the ministers and churches of the Seaford District:

Church Membership: 766 new members were added to the rolls during the year; 565 were removed for all causes. The total membership for the district is 14,962.

Stewardship and Finance: The apportionment for Administration and Benevolences was $211,291. According to the reports sent to me by the pastors, the amount raised was $200,577. There were thirty-two charges which paid this apportionment in full.

The amount paid on debt was $115,565. The present debt on the district stands at $441,404. The amount paid for Buildings and Improvements was $88,953. Most of the other offerings were generously supported.

Some of the more significant improvements were made on the following charges: Woodland and Galestown Churches; Bates, Snow Hill; Snow Hill Circuit parsonage and Ebenezer Church of the same charge; Whatcoat Church of Snow Hill has purchased property for development into a parking lot; parsonage improvements on the Pocomoke City Circuit Charge; parsonage improvements at St. George's, Clarksville; Newark-Bowen Church has made extensive renovations in its Fellowship Hall, and Trinity Church of the same charge has made improvements; the Frankford Church has begun construction of a new Educational Building; new pews have been ordered for Harmony Church of the Millsboro Charge; additional church school rooms have been built at the Taylorville Church on the St. Martin's Charge; extensive new furnishings were purchased for the parsonage on the Reliance Charge; and improvements on the parsonage at the Girdletree-Stockton Charge, and on the churches of the Girdletree-Coolspring Charge.

A word of sincere appreciation must be made to the Seaford District Woman's Society of Christian Service, Mrs. Charles Hudson, President, for the outstanding work done by this group. Also, to Mr. James R. Webb, District Lay Leader, and his associates for the fine work they have done over the past year. The same can be said for the District Youth Staff and all other groups on the District.

Finally, to the wonderful parsonage families on this District, I express my deep thanks and appreciation for their loyalty and consecration. It has been a joy to be a part of this fellowship.

WILMINGTON DISTRICT

JOHN R. SHOCKLEY, District Superintendent

The persevering pastors and laymen of the Wilmington District have labored together in a beautiful manner this year to achieve the following results:

Evangelism

1,979 members have been received, while 1,291 members have been lost this year. This gives the district a net gain of 688. The total district membership is now 26,377. Charges reporting a net gain of 25 or more are Aldersgate 23; St. Paul's 143; Skyline 105; Newark 93; Kingswood 49; Hockessin 45; St. Mark's 37; Asbury 36; and Ebenezer 26.

A new church, Skyline Methodist, was organized during the year. It is located amid the rolling hills of Pike Creek Valley near Newark, Delaware. The church was organized on Sunday, September 25, 1966 with 62 charter members. The present membership is 105. Our thanks go to the Rev. Mr. James Maxfield, new church developer from the Board of Missions, and the newly appointed pastor, the Rev. Mr. Ronald W. Bergman, for their efforts in bringing this project to where it is at the present time.

Financial Summary

We did not meet our full apportionment for Administration and Benevolences this year. We did, however, raise $341,729. Among those churches failing to raise their full apportionment, some missed by a very slim margin. We would have them know that their efforts and sacrifices are deeply appreciated. Those paying the apportionment for Administration and Benevolences in full are Red Lion-Glasgow, Christiana-Salem, Hockessin, Buttonwood-Christiana, New Castle, Ebenezer, Newark, Aldersgate, Calvary, Cedars, Chester-Bethel, Christ, Eastlake, Ezion, Grace Harrison Street, Mt. Joy, McCabe, Mt. Lebanon, Peniel, Peninsula, Richardson Park, St. Mark's, and St. Paul's.

Contributions received for other causes are Camp Development $12,137; Advance Specials $35,135 (of which $14,419 was contributed to MAP); Christian Education Sunday $2,041; Student Day $899; Methodist Youth Fund $573; Race Relations Day $887; Fellowship of Suffering and Service $1,856; One Great Hour of Sharing $1,679; Board of Child Care $4,498; Mother's Day Offering $6,211.

Paid on Building and Improvements $225,362; Applied toward debt reduction $427,572. Peniel and Hockessin each has built a new parsonage during the year. New Castle has preliminary plans for one they hope to complete during the coming year. Most churches are seeking to provide comfortable homes and adequate support for their ministers.

Appreciation

I wish to express thanks to the Rev. Dr. George H. Pigueron, Jr. and Mr. Robert L. Warner, Local Preacher of Ebenezer Methodist Church, Newark, for their help during the year in providing ministerial leadership for churches where and when needed. I shall be forever grateful to the loyal parsonage families of the District for their support. The Christian commitment of our lay leadership is truly wonderful. Especially is this true of our former district lay leader, Mr. Aubrey Norton; his successor, Dr. A. Frank Chapman; the district president of the Woman's Society of Christian Service, Mrs. Milfred Keen and her district officers; the lay workers in the cause of Christian Education; the committed laymen involved in our Missions and Church Extension Program. To the Rev. Mr. Richard C. Stazesky, Director of Urban Ministry, and Mr. Samuel McKay, Jr., Executive Secretary of Missions and Church Extension, I am also grateful. To all who have in any way shared in making this report possible, I express sincere thanks and appreciation for their loyalty and devotion. I am deeply indebted to our office secretary, Mrs. Daisy Boyer, for all that she has contributed toward the efficient operation of the District program.

To Bishop and Mrs. Lord we are grateful for the help and inspiration that they have provided. To my colleagues in the Cabinet I would say, "It has been wonderful being a part of the brotherhood of burning hearts."

As I evaluate my term as District Superintendent, it has been a happy and rewarding experience for me simply because of the lovely people it has been my privilege to know and with whom I have worked. I solicit for my successor an equal experience of joy and pray God's blessings upon all.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF CHILD CARE

Our Children

Accomplishments of the year include twenty-nine infants placed for adoption in homes of Methodist couples, and twenty-two final adoptive decrees issued, with a total of fifty children served in adoptive homes. Sixty-six unwed mothers have been influenced by the care and concern they found at their Church-related Child Care Agency. Eleven older children have lived in foster homes. Seventy-six teen-age boys and girls have been in residence at the Child Care Center.

We are pleased with the adjustment by recent high school graduates. Wayne and Dale are in the Marine Corps and Air Force. Mary works for the Post Office Department. Sharon is attending beautician school and helping to support herself by part-time work. Donna has a position with the Telephone Company; she is married.

Several of our alumnae are making noteworthy achievements. A former Strawbridge boy is studying for his Doctorate in the field of education. Another will be graduated from Johns Hopkins University in 1967, after having studied there for four years on a full scholarship. Paul has been accepted for a teaching position in a nearby county. Phyllis has completed one year at Salisbury State College.

Other children, as may be expected in normal families, are achieving along more average lines. One youngster, who came with many problems, stayed with us for two years. He withdrew from the 9th grade at age 17, feeling himself somewhat a failure. He entered the military service, has learned a trade skill, studied and received his high school equivalency diploma, spent thirteen months in Vietnam, paid us a visit recently and casually told us the above about himself.

Evaluation of Program

A thorough study of our program was completed in 1966 by State Department of Public Welfare which is responsible by law for giving license to the services of this Board. The study concludes with: "The Board of Child Care is conscientious in providing a progressive and qualitative program of services". Attention is called to increased needs within the communities we serve for group homes for children, services to unwed mothers, and adoptions, as well as to foster care.

Dedication of New Wing

In April the F. Reid Isaac Administration Hall was Dedicated "to the highest service of which we are capable, to the glory of God and the upbuilding of a Christian Society". Erected to further loving care for children in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Hall is named for that minister who gave twenty-seven years that children might have a home.

Bishop Lord gave the Dedicatory Address. Clark Hobbs presented historical highlights.

Affiliation With National Board of Hospitals and Homes

The General Conference of 1964 enacted legislation which authorized establishment of a Certification Council by the National Board of Hospitals and Homes. Goals of the Council include:

1) Implementation of basic standards for organization, administration, operation, staffing and financing of Methodist Homes.
2) Review and improvement in quality of services.
3) Acknowledgement of accomplishments of qualified personnel within Methodist-related hospitals and homes.
4) Attesting that the quality of services provided meet basic standards for professional health and welfare services.

The Board of Child Care has been accepted for affiliation with the National Board, thus achieving the first of three stages toward full Certification.

The contribution of Methodist people through the Board of Child Care is far-reaching. From the Evaluation of Eligibility by State Welfare heretofore cited:

> "The Executive Director has had much to contribute to the programming of children's services beyond the confines of his agency through his participation in committee work state-wide and on a national level. In addition to the agency's participation in the study of methods of cost analysis conducted by the U. S. Children's Bureau and the Executive Director's work on the standard-setting committee of the Methodist Board of Hospitals and Homes, the agency was one of the facilities filmed in a nation-wide documentary for use in interpreting Methodist services. Besides his activity in behalf of federal funds for medically indigent children in institutional care, the Executive Director has chaired the Department's Committee on Training for Institution Personnel, which developed an over-all plan of training and instituted the present program of courses and seminars for child care workers."

Our Executive Director served with Olin Oeschger, Director of National Board of Hospitals and Homes as a representative to the National Council of Churches Interfaith Staff Consultation on Social Welfare Under Religious Auspices; and was a delegate to the International Conference on Social Welfare, meeting in Washington October '66.

Staff

Twelve houseparents, including five couples and two single persons have left our employ this fiscal year. This represents a complete houseparent staff. Houseparents are responsible for the daily care and supervision of their respective groups and individual children in the group. They influence children for better or worse by what they say, do and think. They are the backbone of an institution. Our Board is quite naturally looking at why this turnover exists and at what can be done to create working conditions and employee benefits which will attract and hold secure Christian couples for our children.

Two caseworkers joined our staff, filling existing vacancies. Miss Dorothy Chance, a '66 graduate of Western Maryland College, is assigned babies awaiting adoption and their foster parents. Mrs. Barbara Maslin, a graduate of Drew University, is a part-time caseworker assigned our junior high girls. Formerly, Mrs. Maslin worked as a church and community worker in Upstate New York; and as an employee of the Board of Missions of The Methodist Church in Georgia.

Woman's Auxiliary

Our Woman's Auxiliary continues its record of achievement in providing the extra dividends for our boys and girls. During the past year it purchased new bedroom furniture for one of our cottages, new hair dryers, and aided in furnishing the new F. Reid Isaac Administration Hall. The women underwrote the summer camping trip to the Allegany State Park and Niagara Falls, established the Ruth S. Jones Memorial Fund for the Educational and Cultural Advancement of our boys and girls; gave Christmas gifts and graduation gifts to the children, and made their usual contribution to the annual operating budget. The collection of all kinds of trading stamps continues to provide special needs for the children.

Special recognition is due Mrs. William A. Scheig who has just completed her four-year term as President of the Auxiliary. During her administration, summer vacation trips for the children were begun, and other achievements realized. National recognition of her leadership came when she was asked to appear on a panel in the Woman's Auxiliary Section of the National Association of Methodist Hospitals and Homes Convention. Last year she served creditably as Chairman of the Woman's Auxiliary Section of the National Association of Methodist Hospitals and Homes.

We look forward to her continuing influence in our Auxiliary in the years to come.

Appreciation is expressed by the Executive Director to Lewis F. Ransom whose term of office as President expires this year. Many advances have been made in our church's work with children during the period of Dr. Ransom's presidency. We also acknowledge the very fine support given to this agency in the past year by our District Superintendents, Ministers of the Baltimore and Peninsula Conferences, and individual persons throughout the Washington Area of the church.

LEWIS F. RANSOM, President
CLAUDE F. LIBIS, Executive Director

CHRISTIAN SOCIAL CONCERNS

The overriding issues confronting mankind today have to do with peace and world order. The Board of Christian Social Concerns, therefore, has continued to give priority to this aspect of its work while trying not to neglect its other areas of responsibility.

In the summer of 1966, the Rev. Robert P. Whitlock, vice chairman of the Board for its Division of Peace and World Order, took part in a six weeks study tour in Africa sponsored by the General Board of Christian Social Concerns. Since returning from this tour, which studied matters in regard to world order and general welfare, he has spoken about his experiences and findings to 42 groups involving 3400 people. The Rev. Howell O. Wilkins and the Rev. Richard C. Stazesky, who took part in world peace study tours in Eastern Europe in previous years, continue to be called upon to report on their trips.

The Peninsula Conference can feel honored that one of its members, the Rev. Mr. Howell O Wilkins, was elected as a member of the Executive Committee of the United States Committee for the Christian Peace Conference, serving as chairman of the Committee on Economic Problems of the Developing Countries. This group has been relating the work of the Christian Peace Conference to the national church bodies. It has also been sending representatives to world meetings of the Christian Peace Conference. Rev. Wilkins represented the United States Committee of the Christian Peace Conference at Radenvormwald, near Cologne, West Germany, where plans were developed for a World Christian Peace Assembly to be held in Prague late next winter. He also attended the meeting of the Committee on Economic Problems of Developing Countries held in Hochst, near Frankfort, West Germany. There the discussion centered around the economic efforts that can be made to diminish tension in the world, and the proposal was advanced to develop Peace Institutes to inform more people of efforts that can be made for peace.

Furthermore, in regard to peace and world order, the Board made possible the attendance of some people at a China Seminar in New York and later, in the same city, at the Annual Meeting of the United States Committee for the Christian Peace Conference. Two Annual Conference seminars were held in regard to the Viet Nam War and the Draft, featuring Dr. John Swomley of the St. Paul's Methodist School of Theology as the speaker and resource leader. Because the military draft question is of such immediate and crucial concern to all people of the nation, especially to its young men, the Board purchased the film "Alternatives", which deals with alternatives provided in the federal law to combatant military service and has urged its use in the churches. The Board has reminded the ministers of the Annual Conference that they are charged with the responsibility of rendering "every assistance to the individual who conscientiously objects to service in the military forces" (par. 1823, 9b, 1964 Discipline).

Another major emphasis of the Board has been on the theme "Affluence and Poverty". The Board has encouraged study groups on this theme in the local churches. It will continue to hold up this issue before the churches in the next conference year.

Recognizing the great value that comes from participation in regional and national conferences, the Board made possible the attendance of one minister at the Churchman's Seminar in Washington, several at the Northeastern Regional Briefing Conference in Social Concerns, and one at the National Convocation on Theology and Medicine. The purpose of the latter was to establish deeper relationships between the medical profession and the church in the concern to deal more effectively with the whole person.

The Board regrets that the Pastoral Counseling Program will be dropped from the conference program for an indeterminate period of time. Because of the pressure of other work, the Area Director, Dr. Berkley Hathorne, will be unable to supervise a program in the Peninsula Conference another year. The Board is now studying various ways in which this needed service and training opportunity can be continued. During the five years that the Annual Conference has had a Pastoral Counseling Service, innumerable persons, both laity and clergy, have been helped through the ministry of Dr. Hathorne. The Board of Christian Social Concerns wishes to commend him for his pioneering work, for the counseling he has provided for many in our conference, and for the assistance he has given in helping many ministers to be better counselors. The Annual Conference has benefited greatly by his leadership. Fine leadership was also rendered to this program during the last two years by Dr. Donald Douglass of Wesley College and to him the Board also expresses its appreciation.

Resolutions

(1) WHEREAS, millions of Americans suffer from economic deprivation due to age, physical disability, and other personal and social factors and whereas the federal government is now going through a review of the Social Security Act, which covers all areas of public assistance,

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that the Peninsula Annual Conference calls upon its churches and members to study seriously the proposed Amendments to the Social Security Act and to express their convictions to their Congressmen to the end that the aged, needy families with dependent children, and the physically disabled may receive greater economic assistance and services from public funds.

(2) WHEREAS, needy children, the indigent aged, poverty-stricken families and individuals are a large part of our national social problem, a challenge to the mission of the Church and a responsibility of our respective State Welfare programs,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Peninsula Annual Conference calls upon the States of Delaware and Maryland to enact legislation for the development and maintenance of fully adequate child-welfare facilities and programs which will meet the needs of children through school and housing facilities, day care for children of working mothers, and other essential social services.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that The Peninsula Annual Conference calls upon the States of Delaware and Maryland to remove categorical public assistance restrictions and grant-ceilings which limit the support for adequate standards of living.

(3) WHEREAS, the gap existing between affluent and poor countries is growing wider and, whereas, Christians cannot ignore human misery and poverty,

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that the Peninsula Annual Conference urges that an adequate portion of our gross national product be provided for carefully supervised development assistance from our country to underprivileged or undeveloped countries.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Annual Conference requests its constituents to write to their congressmen urging them to increase federal assistance and further requests our local churches to make contributions to the Methodist Committee for Overseas Relief.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Annual Conference calls upon the President and the Congress increasingly to make United States contributions on a multilateral basis, especially through the United Nations.

(4) WHEREAS, unfair employment practices, unfair housing sales and discriminatory practices of many kinds still prevail as social evils that confront us in our social responsibilities and our mission as a Church,

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that the Peninsula Annual Conference calls upon its boards, agencies, institutions, offices, churches and members to exercise fully their moral obligations in their hiring policies, that equal opportunities for all qualified persons shall be the standard for all of the Annual Conference enterprises.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Peninsula Annual Conference calls upon its Boards, agencies, institutions, offices, churches and members to refrain from patronizing any company, bank, or agency that does not practice equal opportunities in its hiring, services, and marketing services.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Peninsula Annual Conference calls upon its agencies and local churches to practice equality in the sale and rental of all church properties, including cemetery sales and services.

(5) WHEREAS, recognizing in the Viet Nam War the threat of a third World War and feeling the anguish of a people subjected to the ravages of war for fifteen years, being keenly aware of the present escalation of the war by the United States and noting the description of the war by the UN Secretary-General as 'one of the most barbarous wars in history', and recognizing that many governments, including that of the United States, have made genuine efforts to achieve peace, yet acknowledging that war is not the answer to man's dilemma and that the present war in Viet Nam raises serious questions in regard to Christian morality to which the Church has a responsibility and obligation to speak,

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED, that the clerical and lay leadership of the Peninsula Annual Conference of the Methodist Church, representing 100,333 members, gathered in session May 19, 1967 in Wilmington, Delaware do,

Call upon both sides to begin a phased withdrawal of troops; that an Asian-African police force under the United Nations take over South Vietnam until stability is achieved and South Vietnam may have free elections to choose its own government.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the secretary of the Annual Conference send copies of this resolution to: the Secretary General of the United Nations; the President of the United States; the Secretary of State and the government of North Vietnam.

Respectfully submitted,

RICHARD C. STAZESKY, Chairman

THE AREA PASTORAL COUNSELING PROGRAM

The purpose of our area pastoral counseling program is threefold: to provide a confidential and creative counseling relationship for ministers and their families; to establish and supervise pastoral counseling centers which the local pastor may use as a referral resource to help persons who have spiritual concerns and emotional needs; and to develop training and continuing education opportunities in pastoral care and counseling for the parish clergy. During the past year each of these phases have been further developed and refined as follows:

1. Clergy Counseling

The Area Director has counseled with 29 ministers, 26 ministers' wives, 2 directors of Christian education, and 3 children of Methodist ministers in the Baltimore and Peninsula Conferences for a total of 287 interviews during the past year. In addition to the above the Area Director has counseled with 11 clergymen, 3 wives, 2 children of ministers, 2 directors of education, and 4 lay employees of churches from the Virginia Annual Conference and three other denominations for a total of 98 interviews. The totals for this phase of the area program are 82 persons for 385 counseling hours.

In addition group counseling has been provided for 6 ministers and their wives (12) for a total of 41 weekly (1½ hour) sessions . . . a total of 738 hours of group counseling. Two three-day retreats for ministers and wives of the Baltimore and Peninsula Conferences were held at Drayton Manor in November with 15 couples from the Baltimore Conference and 6 couples from the Peninsula Conference. The Area Director and his wife were assisted by the Rev. and Mrs. Omro Todd, Director at Drayton Manor, and Dr. and Mrs. Foster Williams, Area Director of Counseling in Indiana, in providing leadership for these retreats.

2. Pastoral Counseling Centers

During the past year the four Centers (Baltimore, Dover, Salisbury, and Washington) have served over 500 persons for a total of over 2500 counseling sessions. Twenty-two part-time pastoral counselors have served in the four centers during this year. Group counseling is now a regular feature of the Washington Pastoral Counseling Service and will be introduced in the other centers as soon as possible.

3. Training

Regular weekly training and supervision sessions are conducted at the two training centers, Dover and Washington. Eight parish ministers have been in training under supervision this past year, with psychiatric consultation as a structured part of the training-supervision experience. Doctor Bill, psychiatrist, Dover Mental Hygiene Clinic and the Rev. Donald Douglass, Ph.D., Dean of Wesley College, have assisted the Area Director in the training program in Dover. In November and December a series of five one-day workshops were held in Dover for parish ministers to learn some of the recent developments in mental health and to share with each other in clinical case conferences.

The Area Program of Pastoral Counseling is completing its fifth year in the Peninsula Conference. It is an intensive ministry to individuals seeking to combine the resources of the Christian faith with the methods of psychotherapy in order to promote personal growth and spiritual maturity.

BERKLEY C. HATHORNE, Area Director

THE COMMISSION ON CHRISTIAN VOCATIONS

Your Commission on Christian Vocations functions to give leadership in developing a philosophy of christian vocation and to correlate on the Annual Conference level effective plans to enlist and guide persons into vocations of the church and its agencies. Briefly summarized are the efforts your Commission made this year toward the realization of these objectives.

Guidance Consultation

The Commission on Christian Vocations has long realized the need to develop a closer working relationship between the church and the public schools in the area of guidance education and counsel. With the consultative help of the Inter-board Committee on Christian Vocations, the support of public school administrators, and the superb leadership of the Rev. Howard A. Bailey a "Consultation on Guidance" for pastors and public school guidance counselors was held October 7-8, 1965 at the Drayton Manor Retreat Center.

The speakers and their topics were as follows: The Reverend Arthur Hopkinson, Associate Executive Secretary of the Inter-board Committee on Christian Vocations in Nashville, addressed the group on "The Status of Counseling in the Church." Mr. H. Thomas Welch, Director of Guidance at Wesley College in Dover, spoke on "The Status of Counseling in the Schools." Mr. Richard Connell, President of the Delaware Personnel and Guidance Association, spoke on "Counseling, A Guidance Technique." The keynote speaker, Dr. Earl Furgeson, Professor of Preaching and Pastoral Theology at Wesley Theological Seminary in Washington, D. C., made presentations on "The Theological and Biblical Meaning of Vocation" and "Concern for Persons and Selfhood."

A continuing effort to develop and deepen the liaison between guidance counselors and pastors in their common desire to help a young person to the fullest realization of his particular gifts and skills is being pursued through the Maryland Council of Churches and the Delaware Council of Churches.

A District Program of Christian Vocations

By action of the 1964 General Conference, provision was made for a District Secretary of Christian Vocations. The essential task of the District Secretary is to carry forward at the district level the basic program of the annual conference commission.

A workshop for District Secretaries was held on December 7, 1966. At the workshop, the secretaries devised a job model and formulated a district program that moves in two directions: (1) The development of a record keeping technique which makes more effective the program of careful follow-up necessary for nurturing the decisions of persons committed to areas of church-related work, and (2) Helping local church secretaries and committees to function on a local church level.

A Two Year Program

Steps were taken to effect long-range program objectives for the Commission on Christian Vocations. A two year program was the first step in this direction. In 1967-68 the program will focus on the philosophy on Christian Vocations and will have two thrusts. First, District Secretaries will be responsible for working out training programs for local church secretaries to be oriented in our philosophy of christian vocation and develop an understanding of the purpose of the local church committee. Second, a conference wide colloquy for local church secretaries, youth workers, and pastors on the philosophy of christian vocations will be presented by the Commission.

In 1968-69 the program emphasis of the Commission will be on recruitment. Again, it will have two thrusts. First, district secretaries will devise training experiences to equip local church secretaries to recruit. Recruitment dynamics, techniques and tools will be the subject of the training programs. Second, a major conference wide recruitment effort will be made in the spring of 1968. Specific personnel needs of the church will focus the program.

Regional Training Seminar

A Regional Training Seminar conducted by the Inter-board Committee on Christian Vocations was held in early March at Roanoke, Virginia. Representing our Commission was the Rev. Thomas Pendleton, vice-chairman of the commission.

Literature Distribution

The Conference Commission seeks to be acquainted with the title and content of available printed leaflets, booklets and audio-visuals. In keeping with the new emphasis on district work, the promotion and distribution of literature is being channeled through this structure. The Methodist Church-Related Vocations Service Project booklet is also being distributed in the summer camping program.

Conclusion

Appreciation is expressed to all those who have worked hard to make this report possible.

Respectfully submitted,

LELAND B. HALL, Chairman

THE CONFERENCE COUNCIL

The Conference Council met four times during the conference year. An average of 33 of the 44 members of the Council attended the meetings.

As per page 748, 1966 Peninsula Annual Conference Journal, the Conference Council approved the proposed project of the Peninsula Methodist Homes and Hospitals, Inc. for downtown Wilmington.

The Council endorsed the idea of the establishment of a Credit Union by interested ministers of the Annual Conference.

GUIDING PRINCIPLES

The Conference Council worked out and adopted the following Guiding Principles by which to conduct its affairs.

Membership

The Council is to be composed of the bishop, the district superintendents, the conference secretary, the conference and district lay leaders, th chairmen of the conference boards and agencies and the principal executive or promotional officer of such groups. The Council shall be elected by the Annual Conference on nomination by the Conference Nominating Committee. Nominations may be made by the listing of office rather then by name. Council membership shall be listed with that of the other boards and agencies in the conference journal. (Par. 679, 1964 Discipline).

Meetings

Four regular meetings will be held each year the third Saturday of June, October, February, and April.

Purposes

The Council is organized for the following purposes:

(1) To correlate the planning and promotion of the program of the church (Par. 679).

(2) To promote the program of world service and conference benevolences in the pastoral charges (Par. 755).

(3) To be a sounding board for ideas.

(4) To evaluate existing conference programs.

(5) To be a clearing house for dates and to maintain a conference calendar.

Guidelines

(1) The June meeting shall serve as a planning session. Boards and agencies shall be requested to submit written plans for the work of the conference year. These will be sent to the secretary of the Council at least ten days prior to the date of the June meeting.

(2) To implement purpose 2, the Council will name a Committee on Promotion and Cultivation. This committee will take its direction from paragraph 755, 1964 Methodist Discipline, and shall be responsible to the Council.

(3) The April meeting of the Council shall be used for an evaluation of programs of the present conference year and a study of long range goals of the boards and agencies of the Annual Conference.

(4) Conference groups shall submit dates for programs and projects to the council secretary.

(5) Each member of the Council is expected to inform his board or agency of any actions or deliberations in the Council that have a bearing on his group.

Officers

Chairman, who shall be the resident bishop.

Vice-chairman, who shall be the chairman of the Cabinet.

Secretary, who shall be elected annually at the June meeting of the Council. (The chairman shall appoint a Nominating Committee at the April meeting to nominate the secretary in June.)

RECOMMENDATION

Be it resolved that the Peninsula Annual Conference establish the number of its districts at five, to become effective for the 1967-68 conference year.

The district boundaries shall be as follows:

Chestertown; Cecil, Kent, Queen Anne Counties, Maryland (39 charges).

Dover: Kent County, Delaware, south of Townsend; Sussex County, Delaware (58 charges).

Easton: Talbot, Caroline, Dorchester Counties, Maryland; the three Sharptown charges (53 charges).

Salisbury: Somerset, Worcester, Wicomico (except the Sharptown charges) Counties, Maryland (62 charges).

Wilmington: New Castle County, Delaware, down to and including Townsend (48 charges).

Respectfully submitted,

BISHOP JOHN WESLEY LORD, Chairman
RICHARD C. STAZESKY, Secretary

COURTESIES AND RESOLUTIONS

Bishop Lord; members and friends of the Peninsula Annual Conference:

In the 14th chapter of the Acts of the Apostles an account is given of the Apostles Paul and Barnabas who on a particular missionary journey preached the gospel, "strengthening the souls of the disciples, exhorting them to continue in the faith, and saying that through many tribulations we must enter the kingdom of God."

The Apostle Paul may not have had annual conferences in mind when he spoke of tribulation, but it is just possible that if he were our contemporary he would appreciate the patience and courteous demeanor of our Bishop, John Wesley Lord, as he carried us through the parliamentary jungle of amendments to the amendment, and the juggling of committee reports intermingled with balloting for General and Jurisdictional Conference delegates.

Paul would probably commend also the lively debate engendered by the thoughtful minds of ministers and laymen alike. It may be, despite differences of opinion, that this 28th session of the Peninsula Annual Conference has succeeded in bringing us all further into the kingdom of God.

It is with gratitude that we acknowledge the inspiration received from the address of the Reverend Dr. J. Harry Haines, General Secretary of the Methodist Committee for Overseas Relief. He is of the opinion that the Christian Church can help to alleviate much of the suffering of the world through practice of compassion in a competent, continuous and cooperative manner.

We owe a debt of gratitude also to the Reverend Dr. Charles D. Whittle, Director of Local Church, District and Conference Evangelism for the General Board of Evangelism. Speaking on Thursday evening he pointed out that man's chief problems are those of the heart and that Christians are not to start a revolution but rather, share a revelation.

On Friday the Reverend Dr. Roy Nichols, Minister of Salem Methodist Church, New York City, gave an inspirational address at noon and again in the evening. Dr. Nichols insists that the validation and proof of the Christian faith lies in what it can do in a practical way. We are truly grateful for his insight into the relationship existing between our faith and our practice.

We acknowledge the warm reception extended the Conference by the Aldersgate Methodist Church; by our host Pastor, the Reverend James R. Hughes and his staff. Our thanks go also to the Superintendent of the Wilmington District, the Reverend Dr. John R. Shockley.

Delegates have taken advantage of the morning devotions ably prepared and conducted by the Conference Commission on Worship. As we worshipped we have noted with appreciation the Altar flowers given each day by the Minister's Wives Association in memory of the deceased members of the Conference ministerial families. We have been inspired also by the talents of Mrs. Richard Cotton, the Aldersgate organist, and the Reverend Charles D. Davis, the Conference organist.

Special recognition was given during the opening session of the Conference to the work of Dr. Berkley Hathorne. He expressed his appreciation to the Peninsula Conference for the opportunity of working with the Conference Pastoral counseling program and regretted the necessity for his withdrawal from that work.

The Conference gratefully acknowledged also the contribution of the Methodist institutions of higher learning within the bounds of the Washington Area. Dr. Hurst Anderson, President of The American University; Dr. Lowell Ensor, President of Western Maryland College; and Dr. Norman Trott, President of Wesley Theological Seminary received our thanks for a work well done. Dr. Robert Parker, President of Wesley College also was praised for the continued growth of that institution. We are truly grateful to all who support the cause of higher education so ardently as these.

On Friday afternoon a special dedication service was held on the site of the future Towne House Complex in which the Mayor of Wilmington, religious leaders, and other representatives of the community participated.

We acknowledge with gratitude the interest of all citizens who look expectantly to the work of the Methodist Church in this city.

There have been a number of dinners given for ministers and their wives recognizing students, alumni, chaplains, and those in the retired relationship. We express our appreciation to the various churches and restaurants, as well as The Methodist Country House for their accommodations.

To the Ushers and Tellers; to the District Superintendents; to the Committee on Conference Program and Entertainment; to our Conference Secretary, Treasurer, Statistician, and Business Manager; to the local Police department; to all coverage by mass communication media; to the Aldersgate ladies who have served refreshments so graciously; go our deepest appreciation.

Recognizing the persuasive power of pictures and the printed word we gratefully acknowledge the displays of the boards and agencies of our Church; the Methodist Publishing House; and the able work of the Reverend Kenneth Jones, Director of the Washington Area Methodist Information Service.

To all the persons who have added to the significance of this session of the Peninsula Annual Conference; to all whose support through their prayers, their presence, and their personal Christian witness have made this a rewarding and memorable event; we express our heartfelt gratitude.

Above all we give our thanks to God, our Father, who through His Son, Jesus Christ, has brought us into the fellowship of the saints. To Him be glory in the Church and in Christ Jesus . . ., forever and ever.

DEACONESS BOARD

The Conference Deaconess Board having been formed in our Conference for the first time in March 1965 will this year have a working budget. Unfortunately, few people understand the work of the Deaconess. Yet here is an Office to which women may be recruited to serve in a significant way in the Church. Below is quoted a working paper which was prepared by The Commission on Deaconess Work, January, 1967. Through it, you may come to a clear understanding of the work and office of Deaconess.

"THE OFFICE OF DEACONESS IN THE METHODIST CHURCH

—as perceived in terms of the present and in looking toward the future

The Commission on Deaconess Work recognizes with appreciation and gratitude the historic role women have played in the life and mission of the Church. Especially is it cognizant of the contribution which has been made by deaconesses whose commitment, pioneering spirit and resourcefulness have initiated ministries which are now an integral part of the outreach of the Church.

The Commission on Deaconess work reaffirms:

1. That lay women have a witness and service to offer in the continuing and emerging mission to which God calls the Church.
2. That the Office of Deaconess is a relationship through which the lay woman, in response to God's claim on her life, makes herself available to serve under the appointive power of the Church where there is a recognized need.
3. That it has a commitment to the International Federation of Deaconess Association, and other ecumenical relationships which provide wider opportunities for involvement in mission.
4. That it is willing to surrender whatever hinders persons from being responsibly involved in the life and mission of the Church.
5. That it has a responsibility for enlisting a task force of women, professionally competent, joyfully committed, and readily available to go where needed.

* * * * *

God calls the Church to a ministry of reconciliation, reconciling man to God, his neighbor and to himself wherever conditions in society and in the heart of man impede, block or distort his sense of wholeness as a person.

In an age characterized by change, fragmentation and restlessness, every Christian is called to a life of witness and service. The Church in its ministry has the responsibility to prepare and equip persons for conscious participation with God in the events of history. This ministry calls for individuals who are able to provide spiritual and theological guidance, and educational leadership to every human being in his search for life's meaning and fulfillment within the context of life as it is lived each day. Such a ministry is shared by the ordained and the unordained and persons called forth by the Church to accept particular continuing responsibilities.

Through the office of deaconess, women have an opportunity to share in this ministry serving as an agent of change and as an enabler. In assuming the office of deaconess a woman makes visible a personal commitment, and in disciplined obedience signifies an availability to serve under the appointive power of the Church.

The deaconess acknowledges that it is only through God's redeeming grace that she is free to participate in the proclamation of the good news of God's eternal love through the ministry of word and deed. She acknowledges her humanity as a person but in accepting the office of deaconess she is entrusted with the message of reconciliation, going forth in confidence in the certainties of God's grace, judgment, and in humility.

The office of deaconess, at its best, implies a readiness to enter crisis-centered situations where decisions and actions must be decided upon in terms of the Gospel. It implies also a willingness to serve in designated areas providing creative witness and service where continuity is important, aware that the conditions under which she often works and lives calls for physical stamina, emotional maturity, and spiritual resources found only in a personal experience of a vital faith."

Miss Myrtle Zicafoose, who has been serving well as a Group Worker, at the Neighborhood House, Wilmington, will retire in July. She has been a dedicated worker and we shall miss her efforts. We wish her God's blessings as she enters into this new phase of life. This will leave us with only one full time Deaconess working in the bounds of our Conference. Mrs. Daisy M. Cabean will continue to serve at the Neighborhood House. Miss Louise Whitsett, who retired last year has been doing volunteer work at Asbury Church, Wilmington Manor, and will continue there.

The need for women trained in the service of the Church, who are eager in mind and spirit to be servants of Christ, is ever present. This need and challenge is before us; you are urged to help meet it.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLARD L. ROBINSON, JR.

DELAWARE STATE COUNCIL OF CHURCHES

Increased cooperative activity marked the work of the Delaware State Council of Churches in 1966. Going beyond the inter-church approach of the previous year as seen in the Delmarva Ecumenical Committee, the Delaware Council joined in organizing the Delaware Inter-religious Committee on Social Justice. Representing the major portion of the religious community in the state, the Delaware Inter-Religious Committee on Social Justice has as its other members the Catholic Diocese of Wilmington and the Jewish Federation of Delaware. Its purpose is "to provide the Delaware religious community with an effective voice in matters of social justice and to stimulate its congregations to become involved in areas of social concern." The first interest of the committee was in the anti-poverty program in the state. It has also begun to plan for a state-wide study and action program to improve Department of Public Welfare programs for needy families with children. The connection between this and the current mission study on "Affluence and Poverty" can readily be seen.

The area of cooperation with other councils of churches has been widened. Within Delaware this is shown by frequent meetings of the staff of the Council of Churches of Wilmington and New Castle County and the Delaware State Council of Churches. This has been valuable to both councils in keeping the lines of communication open, in avoiding duplication of effort, and in a clearer focus for Christian cooperative work. It is the hope of many that this may be the first step toward unified council work in Delaware.

Together with the Maryland Council of Churches, a Consultation on Research and Development—CORD—has been set up for the Eastern Shore and Delaware—especially the area below the Chesapeake and Delaware

Canal. The Rev. Robert Ball of the Department of Research and Survey of the Maryland Council meets regularly with this group and helped to organize it. Its purpose is to get the facts on church resources in the area, study the socio-economic trends of the region, and then consider on a joint basis what the Christian response should be. The Rev. O. G. Brewer, Jr., chairman of the Board of Missions of the Peninsula Conference, is a member of the Consultation. In addition several of the District Superintendents have attended each meeting since the organization of the group.

The Delaware State Council served as one of a large group of sponsors for a Delaware Conference on Equal Opportunity in Housing. Help from the federal level came from the President's Committee on Equal Opportunity in Housing. Attended by over 500 Delaware citizens, the conference provided a forum for varied points of view. The stand of the Council for open housing legislation was thus re-enforced.

A new series of Sunday morning services was started in the summer to help provide additional opportunities for worship among vacationers—especially campers—on the beachlands. The need for such services was pointed out by the Rev. C. C. Herrman, Jr., a member of this conference, who also served as chairman of the local committee. The services—with state permission—were held at the pavilion just south of Indian River Inlet, at 8 o'clock. The early hour was chosen in order to make use of some of the nearby pastors who were already involved in two or more Sunday morning services. The cooperation of several other ministers of the Peninsula Conference in leading services was very much appreciated. A survey made of campsites in a 3 - 4 mile radius of the Inlet indicated a possible week-end population of about three thousand. On the last Sunday—Labor Day week-end—125 people attended. An informal poll on the last few Sundays indicated general appreciation for this ministry.

The Executive Board of the Council has recommended that the Department of Pastoral Ministry explore the possibility of obtaining summer staff in the beach areas to provide more continuity of service and a ministry of more depth.

For its member churches involved in the consultation on Church Union, and at the request of one of them, a series of discussions was arranged in the Dover area. The series provided the opportunity for an involvement of laity in face to face encounter at a different level than is usually the case.

Ongoing programs of the Council continue. Among these the year-round chaplaincy at Boy Scout Camp Rodney continues to reach large numbers of youth in the area. Here the Rev. Thomas C. Short of this conference has carried out a very effective ministry ever since the chaplaincy was started. Both the summer camping season and week-end camping during the rest of the year see good responses to the work of the chaplain employed by the Delaware Council. On some occasions, during the fall and early winter there were more than 200 in the early Sunday morning services.

The Legislative Committee of the Council has become increasingly active. One of its major projects was a questionnaire sent to all candidates for the Delaware General Assembly before last fall's election. The purpose was to learn and publicize among churchmen the stands of potential legislators on issues of moral and social importance on which the Council had taken a position. There were many requests for the tabulation of replies which was mimeographed.

The Department of Ministry to Migrants, of course, continues as the most extensive program of the Council. There was a total staff of 13 this past summer. Five chaplains were among this group; 2 worked with Negro migrants and 3 with Spanish-speaking. Five of the staff were at the Staytonville Child Care Center which had a total enrollment of 31 infants and toddlers for a 6-week period. Two R. N.'s and one part time office secretary were on the staff of the Delaware Migrant Health Project. This operated again with funds available through a grant from the U. S. Public Health Service. This is the third and final year of the initial period. The project has made it possible to meet some of the most urgent health needs of Delaware's migratory agricultural workers.

For the partnership of the Peninsula Conference in helping to meet the calls for Christian witness in Delaware, we are grateful. The Rev. Howell O. Wilkins has finished a term of 3 years of dedicated service as president of the Delaware State Council of Churches. Besides his help we have had that of Mr. James C. Hardcastle, a layman of the Peninsula Conference, as treasurer and are glad he continues in that office. We also are glad for those other clergy and laity of this conference who serve on the Executive Board and as chairmen of departments. It is ever more clear that only as we pool the Christian resources available can appropriate Christian responses be made to some of the most pressing challenges our day presents. As we go forward together to be faithful stewards of the Gospel, the possibility of a ministry matched to the urgencies of our time increases.

SAMUEL A. SNYDER, JR.

DRAYTON MANOR

Drayton Manor, our Retreat Center at Worton, Maryland, is meeting a very real need in our Conference. This fact is evident when we study the statistics of this year's operation. Since May 1, 1966, sixteen hundred persons have participated in programs at the Center. Of these, 1136 have been with groups from our Conference; 169 have come from other Methodist Conferences; 183 from other denominations; and 112 have come in groups not directly related to the Church.

We are pleased to note that all kinds and sizes of Churches are sending groups to Drayton Manor, from the smaller rural Churches to the largest urban and suburban Churches.

Programs of a wide variety have been conducted. Probably the greatest use, thus far, has been the Retreat offered by a local Church for its own people. However, we are pleased with the response to programs such as the Center initiated retreat for laymen with Dr. Lowell Hazzard, of Wesley Theological Seminary, as leader. Twenty-five adults from across this Conference attended. A preaching seminar is scheduled for ministers in June under the leadership of Dr. Harry Taylor and Dr. Earl Ferguson, both of Wesley Theological Seminary. An advance registration of twenty speaks well for the interest in this type of program.

Several Retreats have been scheduled for District Boards of Lay Activities. The Chestertown District has held its retreat and the Easton District will meet in June.

Groups such as the Area Cabinet, the Wesley College Faculty, and an Ashram led by Dr. E. Stanley Jones indicate other types of use made of the Center.

Examples of non-church groups using the Center would be a three-day workshop held by a State Board of Public Welfare for Child Welfare Workers and a retreat held by an Alcoholics Anonymous Group.

Most of those who come to Drayton Manor indicate a desire to return. We have only two open weekends between this writing and late November. Some groups are scheduled as far ahead as the Fall of 1968.

We are seeking to develop new kinds of programs which will increase the use of the Center during the week. Great interest has been expressed by retired people, Senior Citizens, etc., in such opportunities to participate in worthwhile programs.

From the beginning we have sought to keep the cost of room and meals at a level to assure maximum use. After a careful study we introduced a new set of rates on January 1st. The small advances were necessary in view of cost of living increases.

The increased use of the Center and our growing experience in management has enabled us to ask the World Service and Finance Commission to reduce the subsidy already voted for the year 1967 - 1968 by ten per cent from $40,000 to $36,000. Our request for the year 1968 - 1969 is for a further reduction to $32,000.

While it may be assumed that some subsidy will be required in the continued use of the Center, we can expect this to be further reduced as our experience increases and the Center is used to its full capacity.

We are delighted with the response to the Center and with the growing appreciation for its many and varied uses. We appreciate the support of this Conference and the very fair spirit which has assured us of a proper interval of time to study the value of such a Center to Peninsula Methodists.

Our director, The Reverend Omro M. Todd, and his wife are giving excellent leadership to the Center. They are not only gracious hosts to all visitors and groups using the facilities but they are astute managers of the property and business affairs of the enterprise. Mr. Todd is finding many opportunities for a dynamic and creative ministry in planning programs, counseling groups in residence and in promotional contacts on behalf of the Center. We are very fortunate to have this dedicated and attractive couple as resident leaders of Drayton Manor.

Our new brochure is available for distribution at this session of the Conference. It contains pictures and descriptions of the Center as well as rates and other information relative to the use of your Retreat House. We urge you to make full use of this valuable resource.

Respectfully submitted,

R. JERVIS COOKE, Chairman

THE BOARD OF EDUCATION

Children's Work. The program involving the Christian education of children has been directed by Mrs. G. Steele Phillips assisted by district and sub-district directors. Local churches have been visited, training has been provided for Nursery Home Visitors, vacation church school leaders, and additional assistance rendered to other district and sub-district programs. A Retreat for Leaders of Children, attended by 110, was held March 4, Wesley College, led by Dr. George E. Koehler of the General Board.

Youth Work. The Conference Youth Council, under the guidance of The Reverend H. Kirby Krams, Director, has planned all conference-wide enterprises for youth. Programs have included a Sr.-High Weekend and Sr.-High Week at PeCoMeth, support of Jr. and Sr.-High Mission Weeks and the College Bus Tour to six Methodist-related colleges, the Fall Youth Conference at Fruitland—attended by 250—considering the theme, "A New Day in Christian Education for Youth," and the Spring Conference at Smyrna, making a study of "The Moral Implications of Vietnam." Two New York trips were sponsored with full quotas. Benjamin A. Bryan, member of Elkton Church, a second year student at Wesley College and student representative to the Conference Board of Education, was appointed by Bishop John Wesley Lord as Washington Area representative to World Youth Conference, Bath, England. Upon his return, Ben has spoken to many groups throughout the conference including many sub-district youth meetings. The trip was financially supported by the Youth Council.

Adult Work. The Reverend George C. Godfrey, Director, has been supported by district and sub-district directors emphasizing "The New Day in Adult Education." Programs included an Adult Weekend, 14 workshops on new curriculum (April unit) with an enrollment of 401. 27 from Peninsula attended the Adult Convocation, Buck Hill Falls, Pa.

Leadership Development. (1) 150 attended district workshops for newly-elected church school superintendents. (2) Planning session for conference and district staffs with District Superintendents. Dr. Carl Stocking, General Board representative was the resource leader. (3) Church School Leaders' Weekend with 60 persons was held at Drayton with Dr. Paul B. Maves giving leadership. (4) Seminar of Ministers was held Nov. 28-30. The theme, "The Pastor as Christian Educator" was explored in relationship to 'The New Day' under the guidance of Bishop John Wesley Lord, Dr. Paul B. Maves and the conference and district staffs. 236 ministers participated.

Other opportunities undertaken are as follows: 24 persons were enrolled in Northeastern Jurisdictional School of Christian Education and Church Music, Lycoming College, Williamsport, Pa., Aug. 14-19—The Reverend Walter H. Stone served as Dean and The Reverend Howard A. Bailey as Registrar and Treasurer; 4 delegates from Peninsula were enrolled in the Northeastern Jurisdictional School at Lebanon Valley College; Christian Workers' schools were held by Easton District at Preston with 162 enrolled, at Mardela with 47, Wilmington District at McCabe Church with 202, and Wesley Church, Dover with 47; all district staffs with District Superintendents have met regularly to plan the work for the various districts; visitations to well over 150 churches and charges, aside from conference, district, and sub-district meetings, express the concern on the part of the conference staff for the local church.

PE CO METH—Off Season: During the fall, winter and spring, over 50 weekend groups came to camp for retreats, workshops, etc.—Summer Schedule: In 1966, the main camp area accommodated 96 campers each for six junior weeks, two junior high weeks, and two senior high weeks. Many of the weekends were used by adults or special groups such as church school workers, young adults, Methodist men, etc. The Barn area is still being used as a small-group camp, housing about 24 at a time. The pioneer site, several miles from PeCoMeth, was 'home' for two ten-day sessions. Tripping is becoming more popular each season and included this year canoe trips and travel camps to the Blue Ridge Mountains. Total attendance for the 1966 conference year was 16,953 camper days. This is an increase of 3000 camper days over the previous year. Personnel: Those working on a year-round basis are: Mr. Wallace Smith, director; Mrs. Hazel Mears, registrar; and Mr. Glen Grimes, maintenance manager. Both Mr. Smith and Mr. Grimes are living on the camp property all year.

The Committee On Higher Education. The Rev. Wm. H. Revelle, Jr., Chairman, has continued to support the campus ministry program as set up in previous years. In this program the work has been related to a Methodist church in the community where the school is located. For some time the General Board of Education has been conducting a study of the effectiveness of the campus ministry throughout the nation under the leadership of Bishop James K. Matthews. This report became available to the Committee so recently that opportunity to make a complete study or recommendations based upon it will require more time. Appreciation is expressed to the Newark Methodist Church; Christ Church, Chestertown; Metropolitan Church, Princess Anne; Whatcoat Church, Dover; and Asbury Church, Salisbury, for the facilities and assistance provided for the campus ministry. We are grateful to the Reverends Leland Hall, Ralph Minker, Clayton Hammond, and Elijah Davis, and to Mrs. Phyllis Gruber, for the leadership they have given.

The Family Life Committee. Olin Shockley, Chairman, during the year has been instrumental in getting persons (14) from the conference to attend the National Family Life Conference in Chicago in October.

The Music Committee. Charles D. Davis, Chairman, reports: On Nov. 13, 1966, the Conference Music Committee sponsored Hymn Festivals on various districts of the conference. A total of 2,500 persons participated, and the new hymnal was introduced significantly in all of these programs. The National Fellowship of Methodist Musicians was also highlighted and an offering for the NaFOMM Scholarship Fund was also received totaling $610.81. The conference staff has also worked with Other Boards and Agencies including TRAFCO, which has made available to our board the use of a new 16 mm motion picture projector. The staff has also worked jointly with the Departments of Christian Education of both the Maryland and Delaware Councils of Churches and a close relationship with the Delaware personnel and Guidance Association of the public schools.

Certification of Workers. The Peninsula Conference Board of Education, on the recommendation of their committee on Directors of Christian Education and Church Music, approve the certification of the following persons for the 1967-68 conference year.

Directors of Christian Education

Miss Doris Hoover, Newark Church, Newark, Delaware
Miss Mary G. White, Wilmington, Delaware
Miss Jessie V. Stevens, Mt. Olivet Church, Seaford, Delaware

Educational Assistants

Mrs. Conrad Travers, Avenue Church, Milford, Delaware
Mrs. Wallace Smith, Centreville, Maryland
Mrs. Carolyn Thompson, Salem Church, Pocomoke, Maryland

Directors of Music

Mrs. Wanda L. Ewing, Union Church, Federalsburg, Maryland
Mrs. H. Graham Hayman, Jr., Trinity Church, Salisbury, Maryland
Mrs. Genevive R. Palmer, St. Luke's Church, Denton, Maryland
Mr. Joshua Tyler, St. Stephen's Church, Delmar, Delaware

Camp PeCoMeth Director

Mr. Wallace P. Smith, Jr., Land's End Road, Centreville, Maryland.

Respectfully submitted,

HOWARD A. BAILEY,
DONALD O. HORNUNG,
WALTER H. STONE.

CONFERENCE EDUCATION SOCIETY

The Society made twenty-seven scholarship grants totaling $3,475.00 during the past conference year. The grants ranged from $50 to $200 and, in accordance with the Society's practice of long standing, the larger grants were made to those students who are planning to enter the ministry or other full time Christian vocations.

In addition to the individual grants, the Society was able again last year to give $1,000 to Wesley College which was allocated by the administration to deserving Peninsula Conference students.

For the first time in many years, the Society had a request for a scholarship grant from a student of the Peninsula Conference attending the Theological School at Drew University. We were happy to be able to make a grant of $500 to the applicant. Under the terms of the Riddle Domestic Fund, scholarship aid therefrom can be given only to students from this Conference. We were also able to make a $400 scholarship grant from the Riddle Foreign Fund to a student from Japan attending Drew Theological Seminary.

The Society was happy to be able to help seven more students last year than we helped in the previous year. However, the requests for funds greatly exceeded our available resources. It is sincerely hoped that the churches will take to heart the crying need for scholarship aid on the part of many of our deserving students in the Conference and that increased support will be made to the annual Student Day Offering.

Respectfully submitted,

THOMAS S. LODGE, President.

THE CONFERENCE BOARD OF EVANGELISM

It has almost become trite to say this is an age of rebellion or revolution. We, in the Church, have experienced and are experiencing the "shock-wave" from the upheavals of many social and cultural changes, if not a direct confrontation, and encounter with them. Most particular, the Board of Evangelism and Evangelism itself, has been brought under the scrutiny of those who challenge the purpose and motives of the Church. It is one thing to offer a critical observation, but quite another to present a constructive, workable alternative to ways of doing the task the Church has given us to do. When the term, "Evangelism" is used, many minds are galvanized into responding in a negative way.

In order to help overcome this reactionary attitude, and to help build a "new image" for Evangelism, we offer the following two statements:

"THE OBJECTIVE OF THE CHURCH . . . is that all persons be aware of and grow in their understanding of God, especially of His redeeming love as revealed in Jesus Christ, and that they may know who they are and what their human situation means, increasingly identify themselves as sons of God and members of the Christian community, live in the spirit of God in every relationship, fulfill their common discipleship in the world, and abide in the Christian hope." (from Design for Methodist Curriculum.)

"EVANGELISM IN FOCUS . . . Evangelism is so to present Jesus Christ that, by the power of the Holy Spirit, men may accept Christ as their Saviour from the guilt and power of sin, may come to know, love, and trust God through Him, may grow in grace and in the knowledge of Jesus Christ, and serve and follow Him as Lord in the fellowship of the Church, in the world-wide redemptive work of His Kingdom, and in the vocations of the common life."

The Year That Was

With the "Objective of the Church", and "Focus" of Evangelism in mind, let us share with you some of the activities in which your Board of Evangelism has been involved this past Conference Year.

Calendar—A year of evangelism in the local church calendar was sent to every pastor of the Conference. On this calendar, there were several suggestions for each month pertaining to the work of evangelism in the local church. We trust this proved not only to be a useful tool in planning this past year, but may continue to be used.

Summer Services—During the months of July and August, under the leadership of the Dover District Secretary of Evangelism, special services were held each Sunday Evening at 7:30 P.M. There was an average attendance of 82, and $300 was turned over to the Historical Society from the offerings. Plans to continue such services this year are being finalized. Barratt's Chapel which served as the meeting place for these meetings will again be used this year.

National Council of Evangelism—Dr. Kermit Long was the keynote speaker for the annual meeting of the National Council of Evangelism, held in Nashville, November 29 through December 1. Dr. Long raised five "issues" to which the Methodist Church "must give itself in the next five years".

Methodists, he said, should:

1. "Discover the joyful purpose in worship"
2. "Learn and share the meaning of our faith"
3. "Continue to develop a more functional relatedness between the Methodist boards and agencies"
4. "Hasten the march toward the unity of the Church"
5. "Count it a privilege to be unashamed and enthusiastic evangelists"

In attendance from our Conference was John E. Jones, Roy Phillips and Howard Amoss.

Teen Challenge—With Dr. Vincent O. Eareckson as project Chairman, the Board brought to our Conference on April 4, 5, and 6, Rev. Delmar Ross and former Night Club Singer, Louis Velez. The film "Youth in a Fix", which deals with drug addiction, was shown as part of the program. In Salisbury, over 1500 were in attendance; in Dover, over 600, and in Wilmington, about 125.

March on Washington—Bishop Everett W. Palmer and the Northwest Pacific Conference requested the General Board of Evangelism to sponsor an evangelistic mission for that area, recruiting 300 ministers and laymen from across the nation. Concern arose when it was discovered that about 70 percent of the persons living in that section of the nation have no affiliation with any Church. The March on Washington was held April 6-12 and the guest leaders participated in preaching, evangelistic visiting, dialogue groups, Bible study, youth groups and "public evangelism beyond the walls of the Church". Members attending from our Conference were Gerald Henderson, Bob Wheatley and Irving Pusey. The Salisbury District helped to defray the cost of their attendance.

The Twelve—Units of The Twelve continue to grow in our Conference. In the Jan.-Feb. issue of The Twelve Newsletter from Nashville, a letter from Mr. Douglas Causey was published. In part, his letter said ". . . I believe if we are truly to witness for Christ and to win others for Him, we must change the half-hearted and to some extent, the negative way that I feel Christianity is being presented. We need to not only tell, but to live and display Christ in our lives. This is what our Twelve is trying to do, and I can tell you that it will not only change your outlook on life, it will also change the outlook of others." You are urged to establish The Twelve in your Church if you have not already done so. For further information, contact Mr. Vernon Downes, Willards, Maryland 21874, or the Conference Secretary of Evangelism.

The Year That Is

A Venture In Faith—This is a plan. What is suggested is not a step-by-step procedure to follow in visiting. It is rather to help you better understand what it is you are trying to do when you go calling in the name of Christ and His Church. In this ministry of witness, God has promised the guidance of His Spirit. It is not possible therefore, for us to offer you a "package deal" of set procedure guaranteed to bring results. Trusting the Holy Spirit to help you know yourself, the person you visit and the witness you give; you move into this venture.

In this plan, there is an opportunity for personal spiritual renewal for ministers, as well as for laymen. As renewal comes, outreach begins, in order to share the Good News, that others might come to know and love God through Christ. The theme of this plan seems to be apt to our needs—"Christ Calls Us to a Concern for Persons, Let It Begin With Me".

We are mid-way in this plan which started in January and runs till October. As the ministers continue to cultivate their Spiritual depths, local congregations will become involved in a like experience. As the Holy Spirit leads us in a "concern for persons", we shall WANT THEM, FIND THEM, LOVE THEM, WIN THEM, and INCLUDE THEM for Christ and His Church.

The Year That Is To Come

Mission To Wilmington—On the local level known as "Urban Training Conference", this Conference will bring to Wilmington 100 to 125 seminarians and ministers and their wives in their first appointment, for training and work. They will be here the last two weeks in June, coming from all parts of the nation, as well as some from other countries. Grace Church, 9th and West will be the training center.

The theme of this Urban Training Conference is "The Church Plans for Mission in Wilmington". The object is in response to an invitation from the Council of Churches and the Catholic Diocese of Wilmington to make a study of the Church in Wilmington, planning for mission and carrying it out. In scope, we will deal with (1) Sociology of the City (2) Methodology in the City (3) Theology of the City. The method to be used will be dialogical worship, discussion stimulated by situations related to newspaper stories and the Bibical account, lectures and discussions dealing with planning, sociological date, theology, etc., service-task groups which will explore ways in which the Church should minister in the inner city, and living in the inner city.

We feel this Mission To Wilmington is indeed a new break-through for our Conference Board of Evangelism, in that it has not only become an Innerboard project, by receiving funding from the Boards of Missions and Social Concerns, but also by receiving cooperation across denominational lines, including the Roman Catholic Church. Richard Stazesky is serving as executive director, and an innerdenominational committee is coordinating the program. Direction from the General Board of Evangelism was begun by Lawrence Lacour, but now is being given by Ed Beck.

Conference On Evangelism—Held at Drew University each year; this year will be July 3-7. Dr. Charles D. Whittle will be the director, and the purpose will be twofold: (1) to deepen personal faith and religious experience (2) to exchange evangelistic "know-how" (3) to strengthen the program in the home Church (4) to adventure in evangelism. The cost is $40.00; for further information, write or call the Conference Secretary of Evangelism.

Germinating Ideas—Sponsor "A Mission to Young Americans", under the leadership of Bill Peckam, conduct schools of prayer, increase summer ministries at State Parks and beaches, greater use of Drayton Manor in retreats, studies of evangelism, prayer, etc.

Conclusion

The Conference program of Evangelism has been successful only as it has been related to the needs of people in relating them to God in Christ. This endeavor has been supplemented by the many efforts of the local Churches throughout the Conference. To all who have helped, we say "thanks". With the Apostle Paul, we close with these words of encouragement: ". . . be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that in the Lord your labor is not in vain."

GOODWILL INDUSTRIES OF DELAWARE, INC.

Members of the Conference:

During the year 1963, the campaign period during which Goodwill Industries raised funds to purchase its present building, the agency's goal was to acquire larger facilities and thus to increase the number of persons employed from 59 to 125. The goal as stated in our campaign of 1963 was reached in 1966. As a matter of fact during the past 12 months on several occasions the number served on a daily basis reached a figure of between 125 and 130 persons employed.

In terms of the number of different persons employed during the year, the total reached a new all time high at 196.

All workers and trainees were referred to Goodwill Industries through the Division of Vocational Rehabilitation and in some particular cases through the Delaware Commission For The Blind.

Handicapping conditions encountered during the year were grouped in four major categories i.e.—physical, mental retardation, psychoneurotic and advanced age. As is usually the case, the workers classified as physically handicapped (orthopedic, organic, visional, hearing, speech, etc.) were in the largest majority.

$193,000 was paid to handicapped workers in wages during the 12 month period representing about 63% of Goodwill Industries total earned income. It is interesting to note that instead of being dependent on the community for welfare payments and other means of public assistance Goodwill Industries workers were tax payers themselves. They paid during the year 1966 a total of $29,511.00 to their State and Federal Governments in the form of withholding taxes, State Income Taxes, and Social Security payments. In addition to these payments to their State and Federal Governments Goodwill workers also returned the $193,000 they earned in wages back into the local community in the form of purchasing power.

As a rehabilitation program, Goodwill Industries is interested in the development of its workers' full personality, which means that we were concerned not only with economic, social, and physical progress but also with growth in the spiritual area of the workers' life as well. In this connection, 30 minute Chapel Services were conducted three days in each week. Visiting ministers representing various denominations participated in our Chapel Program. While attendance at the Chapel Services was entirely voluntary on the part of our workers, we can report that a certain degree of interest and attendance was evidenced by the workers.

Because of the nature of Goodwill Industries program much emphasis is placed on industrial operations, work situations and business methods, never-the-less, the primary purposes and procedures, methods, activities and the like performed during the year being reported served only as supportative measures in furthering our primary purposes. The need for an even greater service for a large number of severely handicapped people was experienced during 1966 and continues to grow as the current months come and go, it's felt that we can report progress in our aim to provide a more accurate and efficient service in our community. It remains for Goodwill Industries to be constantly alert to, and conscious of the ever increasing needs.

Goodwill Industries feels a deep sense of gratitude to the churches and membership of the Peninsula Conference for the support they provided during the past year. We sincerely hope that we shall continue to merit this confidence and interest in the years to come.

Executive Director

HISTORICAL SOCIETY

The 186th Anniversary of Barratt's Chapel was held Sunday afternoon November 13, 1966 in the Chapel. At this service the Museum and Curator's Residence were dedicated. Bishop Lord was unable to be with us and in his absence Rev. Hartwell F. Chandler, District Superintendent of the Dover District conducted the Dedication Service. The speaker for the occasion was the Rev. William O. Hackett who had so much to do with the completion of the Museum and Curator's Residence.

Probably because of bad weather during the winter months the average number of visitors has been somewhat less than usual. During July and August evangelistic services were held every Sunday evening with an average attendance of about 80. It is proposed to continue these meetings in 1967.

At the suggestion of Bishop Lord we have been cooperating with the State of Maryland Hall of Records in their effort to collect church records. To that end we wrote to every minister in the Peninsula Conference within the bounds of the State of Maryland asking them to send to the Hall of Records Commission, State of Maryland, Annapolis, Md. whatever church records they have. We also sent to the Hall of Records the names and addresses of all ministers in the Peninsula Conference within the bounds of the State of Maryland. We urge complete cooperation in this matter.

Our Vice-President, Rev. Charles E. Covington, has been much in demand telling of his experiences as a Saddle-Bags Rider in connection with the Bicentennial Celebration. He has also prepared a "Treasure Hunt" circular urging all to search out and present to the Museum records or articles of historical Methodist interest. The Chamber of Commerce of Rehoboth Beach, Del. presented to the Peninsula Conference Historical Society a framed picture of our Saddle-Bags Rider which is now on display in the Museum.

Other interesting acquisitions now on display in the Museum are:

Two spindles from the altar rail of Garrettson's Chapel, Michaelsville, Md. (Perryman) which was the early home of Freeborn Garrettson.

A pulpit from First Methodist Church, Sardis Chapel, in St. Michaels, Md. which was organized in 1779 but had been an appointment since 1777. Freeborn Garrettson was their pastor when he was sent 'like an arrow' to call the preachers to the Christmas Conference of 1784, which organized the Methodist Episcopal Church in America. It is said that Francis Asbury, Thomas Coke and most of the early itinerants preached from this pulpit.

At the request of the Peninsula Conference Commission on Worlds Service and Finance we have listed our financial needs as:

Restoration of Barratt's Chapel including fire-proofing and improving the south and west exterior walls $35,000

Acquiring land and moving a building to a new location and building a garage $10,000

We are happy that the Chapel and Museum are being visited by more and more people. Visitors are always welcome but we do appreciate groups making advance arrangements.

CLINTON H. BROWN, President

HOSPITALS AND HOMES

The Board of Hospitals and Homes of an Annual Conference has as its primary function the promotion of a religious ministry in the name of Christ to the aged, to the orphans or needy children, and to the ill.

Annually at Christmas time the churches in the Peninsula and Baltimore Conferences contribute to the work of the Board of Child Care. So far in 1966-1967 our Conference has given approximately $19,706. This is far short of our goal of $25,000.

The Methodist Country House continues to serve as one of the finest retirement homes in Methodism. There is a lengthy waiting list for admittance and the mortgage is near liquidation. Both the Country House and the Manor House continue to need our support through the Mother's Day Offering. Remember, 25% of the residents in both homes cannot pay the full monthly operating cost, and the Mother's Day offering is used for the purpose of trying to meet the difference.

The Methodist Manor House received its first guests October 18, 1966. The building was formally opened and consecration services were held on January 15, 1966. Bishop John Wesley Lord preached the consecration sermon. Approximately 3000 attended the ceremonies and toured the new facility under the direction of residents who served as tour guides. It is anticipated that the Manor House will reach capacity in the reasonably near future.

From the arrival of the first residents, a complete program of spiritual, recreational, and social activities has been provided including regularly scheduled Sunday evening chapel services at which visiting clergymen officiate. An auxiliary has recently been organized for the purpose of stimulating interest in the Manor House, interpreting the services provided by the facility and assisting the conference in procuring funds to help underwrite the financial assistance program offered by the Manor House to persons in need. Churches are urged to make use of the facilities of both the Manor House and the Country House.

The work and the planning for the Towne House Complex in central Wilmington is progressing very well and you will hear more about this in other reports.

We strive as a Board to promote these various causes. But we depend solely on you for the continuing interest and the financial support that we so urgently need.

THE COMMITTEE ON JOURNAL

The Committee on Journal makes the following report to the Peninsula Annual Conference for the year 1967:

1. We recommend the elimination of Circuit Reports as previously printed on Pages 919 to 925 of the 1966 Journal, and that Statistical Table 2 be carried by churches as is Statistical Table 1.
2. We recommend that the cost of the Journal be increased to $1.50 per copy when ordered by local churches or church agencies, $3.00 to all other purchasers, and be sent to all fulltime retired ministers and their widows at no cost.
3. We recommend that the Alphabetical Roll and Directory beginning on Page 698 of the 1966 Journal carry the wife's name in parenthesis immediately after the member's name.
4. We recommend that a period be put after the word "excluded" in Rule 20, Page 953 of the 1966 Journal, deleting the rest of that rule.
5. We recommend that each board, agency, or committee preparing a report for inclusion in the Annual Journal should be charged at the rate of $50.00 per page for each page or part thereof in excess of a total of three pages, and that this be effective for the 1967-68 Journal.
6. We recommend that some agency of the Conference be instructed to compile a Pastoral Record for approved supply pastors, and that such record be included in the 1967-68 Journal, if possible.
7. We recommend that the Secretary be granted more staff to facilitate his work and that this staff give special attention to better proofreading.

CONFERENCE LAY LEADER'S REPORT 1966-1967

As I endeavor to prepare this report, I find myself wondering just where to begin. This brings me to the conclusion that there would not even be a report if I had not had the splendid co-operation of all those with whom I have been privileged to work.

I extend, therefore, to all pastors as well as laymen who have given unsparingly of their time and assistance to the work of the Board of Lay Activities, my heartiest gratitude and sincere thinks. Most of all I thank God for His sustaining Grace in times of great need, for I know of no one who could more readily attest to His great Mercy than I during the year immediately past.

I am pleased to report that "The Twelve" movement as a lay activity program will soon be two years old. All across our conference these groups are contributing in many ways to the spiritual life of so many of our people. It is through the power of prayer and the acknowledgment of our need to pray that we are ushered into a relationship with our Lord Jesus Christ which we could not otherwise know.

One of the high-lights of our retreat at Camp PeCoMeth this year was the presentation to the Camp of one hundred new Methodist Hymnals by Mrs. C. J. Kern of Denton, Maryland, in memory of her husband who passed away almost eleven years ago. Mr. Kern had been a faithful and loyal adherent of our Board of Lay Activities. At his death Mrs. Kern pledged the sum of one hundred dollars per year to the Board of Lay Activities, to continue for the period of ten years. This money had been held in reserve until a suitable and appropriate use could be found. The difference between the cost of the Hymnals and the sum total of one thousand dollars is being applied to the purchase of an ice making machine. We thank God for people like Mrs. Kern. Our program centered around an evangelistic theme and was well attended.

Methodist laymen banquets continue to occupy a prominent and popular place in the program of our lay work. Much effort goes into these affairs which is largely responsible for their success. Larger facilities are being required in many districts in order to accommodate the increasing number of reservations each year. Well planned programs, with inspirational speakers contribute immeasurably to the success of these occasions of good wholesome fellowship.

The Northeastern Jurisdiction Board of Lay Activities held its convocation in Atlantic City, October 21-23. In my opinion, the program was one of the best, having as its theme, "My Witness In The World." Prominent members of the General Board of Lay Activities were present and featured in the program. We were indeed fortunate to have as the presiding Bishop, our own Bishop Lord. So successful and well-received was the program that next year the convocation will be planned along a similar theme. The place will again be Atlantic City. Our Peninsula Conference as usual was well represented.

Lay speaking schools of instruction were held on a district basis across the Conference in the last year. Some districts report as many as thirty-five to forty received certificates of certification. The plan is to provide again this year for such a school for those who are seeking certification for the first time. For those already qualified, refresher courses will be offered. It is the desire of the Board to provide sufficient laymen for lay speaking needs wherever they might arise, to the end that no church need ever have an empty pulpit at any time.

The Lenten season is one of the highly significant times of the Church year. In order to make this season more meaningful, the Board of Lay Activities has endeavored in its programming to provide means whereby the spiritual life of our people might be deepened and enriched. Although the idea of Lenten Communion breakfasts is not a new one, nevertheless, there seems to be an ever-increasing interest in these experiences which provide men an opportunity to come together around the Lord's table and there partake of those elements which are intended to reconcile not only our relationship with our Lord but with our fellowmen and ourselves.

As I look back across the conference year that is fast coming to a close, I am keenly aware that time has a unique way of "waiting for no man", reminding me in particular that there is in the affairs of man no reservation for lost time. We must continue then to work toward those goals in which we believe and which will be for the betterment of all mankind. I encounter many experiences which I do not understand and I suppose everyone does likewise, but we have the promise of God in His Word that we shall never see "the righteous forsaken, nor his seed begging bread."

As I look to the days ahead which are filled with uncertainty, I can make no better contribution to my church, my fellowmen and my God than that of re-dedicating my life to a more firm faith in our Lord Jesus Christ and the principles upon which He has said His Church is founded. To this end I would commit myself.

To our Bishop, his cabinet, to the ministers throughout the local church whom we have come to know personally and with whom we have enjoyed working, to the laymen on the Board of Lay Activities, and also, to the laymen who are working so diligently behind the scenes, to everyone who has so generously remembered us in their prayers, I again extend gratitude and sincere thanksgiving and pray God's richest blessings upon all these for whom I have grown to have a deep respect and admiration, and trust that it is within the realm of God's Will that we be privileged to serve and witness together as long as He sees fit, as we share the responsibilities so incumbent upon us.

Respectfully submitted,

MAURICE M. HANCOCK, Lay Leader

REPORT OF THE MARYLAND COUNCIL OF CHURCHES

The ecumenical spirit, so long limited to the executive divisions of the churches, is springing to life on the local levels. Laymen and clergymen from across denominational lines are confronting the issues of the day on all fronts in the name of the Church. Simultaneously the dialogue on the denominational level is setting a faster tempo with new hope of accomplishment. This enthusiasm is contagious and the new day dawning seems filled with potentialities.

Program Developments

The expanding challenges coming to the Maryland Council of Churches from the inner city have found a responsive chord in our Executive Board and the Business and Finance Department. We will enter fully into a program of urban work which will enable churches in the various communities to cooperatively involve their resources in a direct effort to reach the masses beyond their congregations. A carefully selected staff will give leadership to this program. Many of our churches will literally cease to exist unless they can be undergirded with a new purpose, renewed leadership, and additional resources. In addition, a large percentage of the people in the cities are outside the church and we must recognize our responsibility for them.

Clothing Collections for Church World Service were entered into this year by the Council to create a new interest in Maryland for such a worthy program. Local churches in various sections served as collection points for over 80,000 pounds of clothing. We will continue to expand this project.

The Migrant Ministry is again the front of our concerns. Two child care centers and Chaplains in four major areas of the state carried the banner of the Church to 4,000 agricultural migrants. The greater need for better housing, education and job security is high on the list of priorities in this field. Continuing financial support and such leadership as have been shown by members of your denomination will make this work even more significant.

Interfaith Relations

A highlight of the ecumenical life in Maryland was reached in January, 1967 when not only were 150 ecumenical services of worship sponsored by the Maryland Council of Churches and the Archdiocese of Baltimore held in Protestant and Catholic Churches, but the entire offering of $11,000 was sent to feed the hungry in India. Added to this experience have been clergy dialogue groups, shared sponsorship of innumerable conferences, workshops, legislative actions and other cooperative efforts which brought together members from the Orthodox, Catholic and Protestant traditions. We are now encouraging local church participation on community based projects to enable more laymen to participate in ecumenical experiences.

Columbia Community

A new town, Columbia, is being planned in Howard County to house 100,000 persons. Denominations have been working together to create a Cooperative Ministry and a Religious Facilities Corporation for the Community. Twelve have signed a Covenant Agreement making this a cooperative venture and have pledged $1,750,000 in loan funds for use of the Religious Facilities Corporation. The first of nine villages is being constructed and the churches are making plans for new approaches to the total life of the Community. Staff is already at work developing the Cooperative Ministry aspect of the project.

Churches Relate To Social Needs

Being a channel through which the churches may come together to study, plan and act has been one of the objectives of the Maryland Council of Churches. Conferences, seminars and workshops on such subjects as peace legislation, employment, education, crime, housing, race and police enforcement have been held this year. Clergy and laymen have been given new insights into their role in the community. As we learn to join our resources as a religious community, the needs will more effectively be met and the results of our "faith in action" will be even more significant.

Projections

(1) We, as Christians in a community, must pool more of our resources with our fellow Christians. Roman Catholic, Protestant and Orthodox must walk and work more closely together. (2) The inner city ministry of the churches can be more effective if we increasingly share the best of our human, material, and spiritual resources. (3) The opportunity for the Church in educational and commercial television has too long been considered as a side issue. We must recognize it as a major media of outreach and develop a department to utilize this form of mission. (4) Stewardship is a key to open the hearts and lives of our people to the herculean task of continuing to demonstrate the relevance of the Gospel of Jesus Christ in the 20th century. Churches, strong in their traditions and faith, must look with high anticipation to the sharing of their affluence with their brethren in expending efforts to reach their fellow man.

The Maryland Council of Churches requests your continued support as together we seek the direction of the Holy Spirit.

DONZEL C. WILDEY
Executive Director

THE MERGER COMMITTEE

A.

It was indicated in the 1966 report of the Merger Committee (page 827, 1966 Journal) that all but two of the agreements set forth in "The Plan of Merger" of the Delaware and Peninsula Conferences had been met. These two agreements have to do with the transfer of the historical records and memorabilia of the Delaware Conference to the Peninsula Conference repository at Barratt's Chapel and the merger of the Delaware Conference of The Methodist Church, Incorporated with the Trustees of the Peninsula Annual Conference of The Methodist Church, Incorporated. The Rev. Joshua E. Licorish, secretary of the Delaware Annual Conference, has informed the Merger Committee that Mr. William C. Jason and he are working on a history of the Delaware Conference which, it is expected, will be published in 1968. After the publication of this history, the historical records and memorabilia of the Delaware Conference will be turned over to the Peninsula Conference Historical Society. In view of this situation the Merger Committee has decided to schedule the merger of the two corporate bodies for the 1968 Peninsula Annual Conference session.

B.

It can be stated again, as it was in the Merger Committee report of 1966, that the merger is working very well at the conference and district levels. For the most part, organizations and activities at these levels are well integrated. The Merger Committee is concerned, however, that there has not been greater progress in integration at the local church level. In order to stimulate the process of integration at the local church level, the Merger Committee submits the following suggestions for the careful consideration of the annual conference and its churches:

(1) That future alignments of churches into circuits be made on a geographical rather than a racial basis.

(2) That pastoral appointments be made without regard to race. Integration works both ways and so this means that white pastors will serve Negro congregations and Negro pastors will serve white congregations.

(3) That church extension in predominantly Negro areas be as carefully studied and carried out as that in the predominantly white areas. Although racially integrated churches are the goal of the conference, as long as segregated housing patterns persist there will be residential areas wholly or predominantly Negro or white. It is imperative, therefore, that church extension in regard to both areas be stressed and that existing churches which relocate to serve better such areas, whether white or Negro, be given support by the conference based on demonstrated need.

(4) That all ministers of the Peninsula Conference give energetic leadership toward the complete integration of the conference—at conference, district and local church levels. Some suggested steps that should be taken by local pastors toward achieving such integration are:

(a) The development of team ministries for the purpose of realistic and inclusive program planning on the local level.
(b) The consolidation of church schools, vacation church schools, resources and teaching staffs where such consolidation will cause the better utilization of existing facilities and improve the quality of Christian Education.
(c) Implementation of the N-1 Program as adopted by the General Conference for the current quadrennium (par. 1825, 1964 Discipline).
(d) Interracial exchanges of pulpits, Woman's Society of Christian Service groups, Methodist Men's groups, MYFs, commissions, etc. These exchanges and joint meetings should not be limited to Race Relations Sunday and Brotherhood Week. Interracial summer pulpit replacements are recommended.

(5) That all types of evangelistic outreach and recruitment for church groups be done without regard to race.

(6) That every pastor seek to create in his congregation those attitudes which would facilitate the appointment to that church of a minister of another race.

These suggestions are not meant to be exhaustive. Imaginative and concerned pastors and churches will discover many other ways in which to further the purposes of racial integration in the church and in its ministry to the world.

C.

Finally, the Merger Committee would draw the attention of the Annual Conference to the need for continued renewal in all aspects of the life of the local churches. The committee notes with concern the failure of many local churches to witness and serve in new and dynamic ways. The stabilized or declining statistics in regard to church and church school membership are only one kind of indication of the flagging zeal and effectiveness of the churches. Equally important is the manifest failure of the church to effect profound changes in social and personal attitudes and actions which would produce a more just society populated by more mature and loving persons. Every local church, every conference board and agency should be earnestly at work in regard to the whole task of renewal, of which racial attitudes and relationships are only one part.

RICHARD C. STAZESKY, Chairman

THE METHODIST COUNTRY HOUSE

As we approach the 1967 season of the Peninsula Annual Conference, we are pleased to report the unpaid balance on the mortage of The Methodist Country House has now been reduced to $35,000. For the excellent leadership of our Executive Director, Dr. George H. Pigueron, Jr., and for the kindness and faithfulness of many people who have and continue to be our friends, we are deeply indebted.

We continue to love more and more each day those who live in The Country House and Manor House and enjoy the fellowship of "like believers."

The scholarship program (adjustments of costs for those unable to meet their full financial responsibility) continues to go well, which amounts to something in excess of $9,000 per month.

We deeply appreciate the keen interest and good work of our Executive Committee, the Board of Trustees and the various members of The Country House Auxiliary in promoting this ministry of care to God's older children, and also for the outstanding Fall Festival held last September.

The Gift Shop and Beauty Parlor continue to be operated in a very fine manner by the Junior Board of The Country House, the proceeds of which are most kindly contributed to the benevolent program.

The Methodist Manor House opened its doors in the late fall. It now ministers to a number of people who call Manor House "home." While we still have some vacancies, we hope they will be filled in the not-too-distant future. As with The Country House, The Manor House employs the same percentage of scholarship grants—namely, for every three people who are able to pay their way in full, we take one on an adjusted or scholarship basis. The administration is very well pleased by the work done by The Reverend Milton H. Keene, administrator of The Manor House. He is using his many talents to make possible the loving, tender care of our senior citizens.

The Towne House complex, to be erected in center city Wilmington, should be one of the greatest projects of its kind in the country. The Towne House, like The Country House and Manor House, will be open for all who choose to apply regardless of race, creed, or national origin.

REVEREND BROOKS E. REYNOLDS,
President, Board of Trustees

MINISTERIAL TRAINING AND QUALIFICATIONS

The question of the hour is recruitment. The Peninsula Conference does not have enough full time, fully trained ministers.

"The first thing the Church must do," writes Bishop James K. Mathews, "is to assume responsibility for a shortage of ordained ministers."

Recruitment has to do with motivation and it should be admitted by all of us that this is a question which extends well beyond an initial decision to become a minister. The president of General Electric was asked," If, this year, you take the top graduate of M.I.T. into your corporation, how long will he be useful if he doesn't continue to study?" The president replied, "In 10 years, after that it would pay us to retire him." Older ministers, i.e. from age 30 on up, who have not "kept current" help to create an image of the ministry which does not attract able young men who are seeking a relevant vocation.

I have heard both clergy and laity excuse a shortage of men studying for the ministry today by saying that old fashioned idealism is being eroded by the smog of a secular society. As Bishop Dwight E. Loder has pointed out, at the same time that there is a decrease in interest in the parish ministry, the Peace Corps is receiving at least 500 inquiries a week and is having to turn away eager and qualified candidates. Van A. Harvey adds this suggestive comment, "It is just because we do not have such a conception of the clergy that it is increasingly being regarded by the most thoughtful and idealistic young people as a vocation unworthy of their aspirations and abilities."

There seem to be at least three reasons why nothing much has been done by or in the Peninsula Conference for recruitment. (1) no money has been budgeted; (2) we have been preoccupied with other matters; (3) we have managed to get by in filling our pastoral appointments. The way we have managed to get by, of course, is to reduce the qualifications. But the standards of the Methodist ministry should be just as high in our field as the standards of the American Bar Association for law, the American Medical Association for medicine. We do Negroes and/or country folk a grave injustice if we assume that they don't need or deserve a first class minister. These very same people do themselves a wrong, and they retard the religious education of their children, when they fail to consolidate weak churches to develop strong churches, strong enough to afford and to challenge a first class minister.

Last quadrennium your chairman was the author of a program of scholarships and low interest loans which was adopted by the Peninsula Conference to help ease the financial strain for students in theology school.

At the beginning of this quadrennium your chairman made a decision to work for the upgrading of the minimum salary schedule. I am happy to report a raise across the board of $500 for the next conference year and a procedure for annual review in the Board of Missions and Church Extension. We dare not stop with a consideration of minimum salary at the beginning of a career in the ministry, for it is necessary also to give more realistic support to men who have been 10 and 20 years in the ministry.

For two years a subcommittee of J. Gordon Stapleton, chairman, David W. Baker and Leland B. Hall, has been working to bring in an effective program of recruitment for the Peninsula Conference. The program developed borrows from the tested recruitment procedures of business corporations such as duPont and is designed to operate at a maximum annual cost to the Peninsula Conference of $3,450. The program was approved unanimously by the Board of MT&Q but was rejected by the Commission on World Service and Finance. They rejected an item which would amount to .24% of the 1967-68 budget. Presumably they have decided that the question of recruitment will blow away in the night.

THE CONFERENCE BOARD OF MISSIONS

Mission needs in a rapidly changing society are growing faster than the resources available to meet the needs. Thus your Conference Board of Missions is constantly evaluating these needs with the goal of allocating our available resources where they will do the most good and make the greatest impact. Our work has dealt mainly with Church Extension, Cultivation, and Urban Work. A summary of our year under these headings is as follows:

1—Church Extension:

We have continued to provide Incentive Grants or Loans, Mission Aid or Salary help, and Parsonage Aid during the year. These are not listed here but will be listed in the Treasurer's report that will appear in the Journal.

2—Cultivation:

A portion of the report of our Conference Missionary Secretary, the Rev. Richard D. Bailey, is as follows:

"The area of cultivation and promotion is made up of the Conference Missionary Secretary and the six District Missionary Secretaries. We plan and work as a team. This includes the promotion of World Service, Advance Special giving Schools of Missions (Summer, Conference, local church), and other areas of missionary education. Our District Missionary Secretaries are:

Chestertown District:	Charles Huffman
Dover District:	Alvin Willink
Easton District:	Wayne Cuff
Salisbury District:	Howard Evans
Seaford District:	William Owens
Wilmington District:	Romie Payne

These men have done excellent work in promoting the work of missions on their Districts. They have traveled many miles, served as instructors, conducted workshops, itinerated missionaries and have given many hours of their time. A summary of their work follows:

District	Miles Traveled	Money Raised for Cultivation	Attendance Cultivation Week
Chestertown	628	$ 72.59	300
Dover	374	160.18	530
Easton	200	127.39	280
Salisbury	300	40.00	550
Seaford	247	373.55	487
Wilmington	217	119.00	545
Total	1966	$892.71	2692

This year our ministry included:

1. New audio-visual supplement prepared for the Audio-Visual Guide.
2. Twenty-six attended the Silver Bay Conference on the Christian World Mission.
3. Assisted in planning the two Youth Schools of Mission and the Conference School of Missions.
4. Operated the Board of Mission Film Library, which had 428 bookings (273 16mm, 137 filmstrips, 16 LP records, 2-35mm color slides).
5. Itineration of six missionaries in our Conference.
6. Visited the Board of Missions offices in New York along with our Conference Business Manager, Ted Briggs.
7. Attendance at the China Seminar in New York by Rev. Wayne Cuff.
8. I represented the Board of Missions on the Town & Country Commission, TRAFCO, Christian Vocations Committee, Inter-Board Committee on the Missionary Education of Youth, Planning Committee for the Conference School of Missions, Conference Council, as well as representing the Board at various functions.

World Service—one major area of our work is the promotion of World Service, the basic body of support of all benevolences. Since the film "AND ON THE 8th. DAY" has been in our Film Library it has been used 70 times. This film deals specifically with the support of World Service.

Advance Specials—without Advance Special gifts one-half of the missionary work of Methodism would shut down—schools, hospitals, medicine, world relief would be cut back. Of special interest to our Conference in the area of General Advance Specials are (1) the Protestant Hospital, Montevideo, Uruguay, where our monies, $25,000, will be used to specialize in treatment of burns; (2) the building of a parsonage for a Chinese pastor in Malaysia, $5,000; and (3) the building of a church and parsonage in the Rio Grande Conference, $8,000. It is our goal to complete these projects. Conference Advance Specials are: (1) Goodwill Industry; (2) Church Extension; (3) Migrant Ministry; (4) Neighborhood House; and (5) World Student Scholarship Fund. Under the World Student Scholarship Fund, a second student, Solomon Thande, Kenya, will begin his studies at Wesley College this September. Our first student, Udoka Johnson Udoka, is in his second year of studies at Delaware State College, Dover.

India Relief—to date our Conference has raised $7,580 for the India Relief Fund.

Audio-Visual Library—continues to increase in use. Beginning July 1, our Conference Business Office will handle film bookings. Selection of films, preparation of the Audio-Visual Guide, promotion, will still be done through this office.

Visits of Nationals, Missionaries, and Board of Missions Staff—this year the following were in our Conference:

Dr. Eugene L. Stockwell, Assistant General Secretary, World Division
Dr. E. Stanley Jones, India-U. S. A.
Rev. & Mrs. Borje Persson, South Africa
Dr. J. Edward Crothers, General Secretary, National Division
Rev. & Mrs. Louis Dennis, Southeast Asia
Dr. Francis L. Brockman, Secretary for Education, MCOR
Mrs. Gerhard Hennes, Treasurer, MCOR
Mr. Kenneth Darg, Panama
Mr. Harry Greenberg, Mozambique, Assistant Treasurer Board of Missions.

Now Under Preparation—is a booklet for ministers and Commission on Mission chairman which coordinates ideas used in our Mission File and other ideas used in the last few years, along with new ideas in Missionary Education.

Week of Cultivation—the General Board has asked each Annual Conference to rethink the approach to the week of cultivation ideas of itinerating missionaries throughout each District. Next year we plan to be more flexible, using several different ideas."

3—Urban Work:

There is an Urban Work Committee under your Board of Missions. The report of the Chairman, the Rev. George W. Goodley, is as follows:

"The past year has been a year of significant development in the Urban Ministry within our Conference. The recognition of the need for and the appointment of a director of Urban Ministry were important steps in themselves, but also mark the beginning of a major effort on the part of our Conference to provide a dynamic and relevant ministry for the rapidly growing Wilmington and New Castle County Area.

A significant forward step was the re-organization of the old Wilmington District Church Extension Society, which had served so well for the past decade, into the new Mission and Church Extension Society, Incorporated. A strong board of directors with clearly defined lines of responsibility has already set in motion a greatly expanded program in which many are participating and sharing.

The Director of Urban Ministry, the Reverend Richard C. Stazesky, has done an excellent job of studying and evaluating the situation, and in organizing a staff of workers for the performance of an effective and efficient ministry. The task of reaching the great throngs in the city is so great that additional help must be secured, both professional and volunteer. Mr. Stazesky senses the need for training indigenous leadership for each community church center and for involving community people in planning and carrying through programs. We have been involved chiefly in programs for children and youth. Now we must move more into the area of adult activities. Urban life is involved and complicated. We dare not lose sight of the intimate relationship between the basic urban ministry of the Church and community social action.

An important project for the immediate future will be the restoration and revamping of Old Asbury, at Third and Walnut Streets in Wilmington, to serve the present surrounding community and the new housing projects soon to be under construction. This may be a most strategic center for the Methodist Inner City Program.

Cooperation with the Council of Churches, with civic and social agencies, and with other religious groups and agencies, is a most crucial factor in a constructive Urban program. A very excellent atmosphere of cooperation prevails in the Wilmington community. It makes possible a number of programs which attract national attention. Our Methodist Action Program is contributing significantly to the total spiritual ministry in Greater Wilmington. The Larger Parish Program and Neighborhood Projects are operating effectively. Our Mission and Chuch Extension will be working closely with the National and Conference Board of Evangelism in projecting the Mission to Wilmington, June 18-30, 1967.

We are pleased with the progress and growth of the Pike Creek Project, now called Skyline Church, and believe that it will be a strategic center of Methodist Ministry in a great new residential area. We note and commend the fine ministry being carried on at Neighborhood House, under the able leadership of Miss Mary White and her dedicated staff.

We appreciate the continued support of the Bishop, the Cabinet, the National and Conference Boards of Missions, the ministers and laymen of the Wilmington District, and the people of the Churches throughout the conference, which have made all of these things possible in so short a time."

4—Recommendations:

1—That the month of February be designated as Missionary Cultivation Month.

2—That the Rev. Richard D. Bailey be appointed Conference Missionary Secretary.

OTHO G. BREWER, JR., President

THE CONFERENCE BOARD OF PENSIONS

Your Board of Pensions of the Peninsula Conference takes pleasure in presenting its annual report for the Conference Year 1966-67.

The total assets of the Board of Pensions as of March 31 reveal that the book value of the fund is $1,892,705.00 and the market value is $2,275,298.00. During the past year we have paid in pensions to our retired ministers in full connection $215,204.00; to widows $176,205.00; to retired supply ministers $30,230.00; to widows of supply ministers $21,774.00; to children $2,832.00; and to the General Board for the payment needs to other conferences $30,962.00; for a grand total of $477,207.00.

The sources of the income necessary to pay these pensions are as follows: Peninsula Annual Conference $308,508.00; from investments $92,372.71; General Board of Pensions $30,737.00; N. E. Jurisdiction Equalization Fund $35,346.23; others $14,235.00; for a grand total of $481,198.94.

In addition, your Board distributed $10,564.00 from the Necessitous Fund.

The Board continues to retain the Lionel D. Edie and Company as its investment counselors for the Endowment Fund.

Every effort is made to promptly and thoroughly investigate the needs of all emergency cases as they arise. Whenever and wherever possible, the investigation is made by a member of our Board to maintain and strengthen the relationship between the Board and its annuitants. The present Board strongly feels that its true purpose is its personal ministry to all the servants who now rest from their past labors.

Complete service records of all ministers are being compiled from the information received from the questionnaires mailed to all ministers. The service years will be checked and certified. The Board appreciates the cooperation of all the ministers who responded.

The Board requests that the World Service Commission grant for the Conference Year 1967-68 be $370,000.00 and that the amount for necessitous cases be continued at $10,000.00.

This report contains two recommendations:

1. The Board recommends that the rate for the Conference Year 1967-68 be continued at $85.00 per year of service for retired conference members; 75% of the full rate to be paid to widows of conference members and to retired approved supply ministers; 75% of the supply rate be paid to the widows of approved supply ministers; and 25% of the father's rate be paid to the surviving children.

2. The Board recommends that the rate of the minister's contribution to the Endowment Fund be continued at 1½ % of all monies received as salaries.

We would express a word of appreciation to all the board members who have served through the year and a special word of thanks goes to the secretary, The Reverend Omro M. Todd, and to the treasurer, Mr. Ira S. Pruitt.

Respectfully submitted,

HAROLD MORROW DAVIS, Chairman

THE COMMITTEE ON PUBLISHING INTERESTS

"The Methodist Publishing House has accomplished a great deal, and has behind it a good heritage and a wide tradition. While we report our accomplishments in terms of business operations, we must never lose sight of the fact that our main purpose is to assist spreading Christianity through the medium of the printed word."

The above quotation from an address by Dr. Lovick Pierce, president and publisher of the Methodist Publishing House, emphasizes anew the policy that has been consistently followed by the Publishing House since its beginning in 1789. That the church has used it is attested by the growth to the largest denominational publishing house in the world. It is here to serve, and for upward 178 years it has played a strategic part in the making of better ministers, better laymen and a stronger church.

The Methodist Church is justly proud of its church school publications. We are looking forward with keen anticipation to the new curriculum course for adults, scheduled to appear in the fall of 1967, and the new curriculum courses for youth, in the fall of 1968.

The new Methodist Hymnal has received a fine reception with orders of more than 2,650,000 copies as of December 31, 1966. The two millionth copy of the hymnal was shipped in February, 1967.

And Together, our church magazine for Methodist families—it would be impossible to estimate the influence for good this publication exerts. If it is not increasing in your own local church, we urge you to look into the matter and make the fullest use of this magazine which can be of such value to your people. Together agents are now established in more than 15,000 Methodist churches.

During the past year, a number of Together promotion campaigns have been conducted. Total circulation of Together now stands at 690,000. The Together Area News Edition program, now in its sixteenth year, lists 32 supplements. The program is an important service of the Methodist Publishing House, designed to communicate news and information at the Episcopal area, Annual Conference, District, and local church levels of our church.

Abingdon published 105 new books during the year; thirteen were book club selections. Noteworthy books include The Interpreter's Bible, The Interpreter's Dictionary of the Bible, History of American Methodism, Book of Worship, and new curriculum materials for children. Continued interest in and use of these publications is exemplified by the fact that 81,555 volumes of The Interpreter's Bible, published nearly fifteen years ago, were purchased by churches and individuals in 1966. The distribution of the Abingdon weekly church bulletins amounted to 84,245,100.

You will be interested in other highlights:

1. Combined new sales of the Publishing House were $33,827,447—an all-time high.
2. Conference claimants appropriations, $700,000. This year our Conference will receive $9,635.13.
3. Circulation of church school publications average 7,454,738 pieces per quarter in 1966.
4. More than 170,000 copies of Young Readers Bible have been purchased.
5. More than 11,000 church libraries are now registered with Cokesbury. Your committee encourages the establishment of a library in every church to promote reading and study among church members.
6. Graded Press received an American Film Festival Blue Ribbon Award for "Dealing with Conflict," a preferred children's filmstrip.

We have said nothing about the Christian Advocate, Religion in Life, Music Ministry and other periodicals; but they, too, are products of the Publishing House, as well as the Vacation Church School materials, all of which play a vital part in the life of the church. We wish that we might tell the whole story of the Publishing House, but that would be impossible in a report of this nature.

Again we ask you to remember that in a real sense the Publishing House is your business, and you share in its profits. We urge you to encourage your people to patronize the Publishing House, promote in every way possible the circulation of Together and to use all Methodist materials in your local church.

ROBERT E. GREEN, Chairman

THE COMMITTEE ON RELATIONSHIP TO CHAPLAINS

The world situation and the active warfare in Viet Nam has made all of us more acutely aware of the role of the Church in world affairs. The Church may, and indeed must, continue to explore theological implications of war and the involvement in Viet Nam in particular. We do, however, face the immediate reality that boys and men are fighting and dying today in Viet Nam and they perhaps as never before are in need of the services of the Church. The military chaplains that come from the ranks of our ordained ministry are the extended arm of the Church to serve the spiritual need of the men and women in uniform. Regardless of the arguments for or against the military, people are there and the Church must be there if it is to follow in the footsteps of Christ to serve all men, where they are, and when they need help the most.

Increasingly we, as a Church, are becoming aware of the challenge to the ministry to serve people beyond the confines of the local church building and parish. There are many in great need of spiritual services in institutions, hospitals, and even industry whose needs cannot be met by the local parish. The ministry, to be effective, must go to them and provide the spiritual guidance and succor they seek. The Methodist Church is increasingly providing this greater service through institutional chaplains.

It is well for us to remember these men, wherever they serve, are an integral part of the traveling ministry of Methodism, and though they may be separated from us in the Annual Conference, they are a part of our fellowship.

Your commission on relationship to chaplains would suggest that you include the following into your ministry.

(1) Take time to write and keep in contact with those from our Conference serving in the Chaplaincy.
(2) Set aside a Sunday to inform your congregation of the work of Methodist Chaplains, both military and institutional.
(3) When an opportunity presents itself, use a chaplain as a guest preacher in your church.

We also need to recognize the increasing number of men in our own Conference area who are extending their parish ministers to serve as chaplains to institutions and agencies on a part time basis within the confines of our Annual Conference. These men are going the "second mile" in providing the services of the Church where it is so much needed.

At the present time eight members of our Conference are on active duty as military chaplains, and one member on full time duty as an institutional chaplain. Thirteen of the members of our Annual Conference are serving as part time chaplains to institutions.

The annual luncheon for chaplains will be held on Friday, May 19 at 1:00 P. M. at the Dutch Pantry, Concord Pike, Wilmington, Delaware.

TELEVISION, RADIO and FILM COMMISSION

In a recent letter the Director of Research for General TRAFCO in New York said, "there are experts among us who are saying that television is now exerting a more powerful moral influence on the American people than the Church is."

If this is so (and who doubts it?) an old saying would seem to fit most appropriately here: "When you can't beat 'em; join 'em."

Too long the churches have treated the ministry of reaching the hearts and minds of the man on the street through broadcasting as a poor stepchild to the other communicating media of the Church. But if we are really sincere in saying we want to reach "the people", and not just the select few who attend church, we are going to have to have our message where the eyes and ears of the people are. And, let's face it, they are tuned to the radio in the day and to the television at night.

With an almost minuscule budget your local TRAFCO commission has tried to do what it could to assist the Church in integrating the spreading of the Gospel with the listening and viewing habits of the people.

We began our year in August with a special training institute held at Lycoming College in Williamsport, Pa. For eight days six of us attended seminars and lectures in the latest developments and theories concerning the art of communicating in a world with a million voices screaming for every ear. The main resource person was Dr. Wesley C. Meierhenry, Assistant Dean and Professor of Education at the University of Nebraska.

From this seminar the Peninsula Conference has received new resource people in the field of audio-visuals—both on a local church level and on a mass media level. We welcome inquiries from any church which would like to have a workshop in the use of visual aids. This would even make an excellent program for some regularly scheduled meetings. Every teacher —Church School, WSCS, Youth Group, etc.—needs to be as wise in the ways of making his points as the secular teacher is wise in the making of theirs.

We also solicit from local pastors and laymen that are interested in using the radio facilities of their community for broadcasting their particular witness. The Methodist Church has an excellent format—including script and records—which can be used in each listening area by a local personality. It is entitled "The Word and Music" and has been well received across the country.

In the Peninsula Conference we so far only have the Rev. Donald Hurst who is broadcasting the program over WDMV in Pocomoke City, Md. We have the personnel in our conference TRAFCO who have had formal radio training and experience who will be glad to help train you to be effective in this field. Most small town radio stations are looking for quality religious programming.

Our main undertaking in the fall has been to get the widest possible audience for the specially produced Bi-Centennial motion picture "Methodism's Living Heritage." We contacted the two television stations operating within the bounds of the Peninsula Conference.

Our efforts in effecting this programming gave us some insight into the attitudes of selectively endowed television and the station supported by the economic power of the whole community. Certainly there has been much just criticism of the station that caters only to the lowest common denominator in cultural interest. But I have found the opposite can be equally frustrating—the station that couldn't care less about balanced programming or about cooperating with responsible organizations that also have some worthwhile program ideas.

After months of trying to even get a smile out of this station they finally agreed to schedule "Heritage" on Thanksgiving Day at 7:30 p. m. This pleased us very much. "Heritage" has been acclaimed by sophisticated stations throughout the country as a very professional type program—well worth their free time. There was an added appeal for our local stations in that it covered the birth of Methodism on the East Coast—with special emphasis on Philadelphia and Delaware.

Your local TRAFCO commission spent much money in newspaper advertising and in advertising the program in every local church. When the program finally went on the air Thanksgiving Day—with what we imagine to be a considerable listening audience—the station had transmission difficulties after the first ten minutes and did not resume normal programming until our time spot was over. I begged the management to run the program at a later hour but they said they could not interrupt their regularly scheduled guitar lessons, etc.

We had exactly the opposite results with WBOC-TV in Salisbury. The management was most courteous and appreciative of our supplying high quality programming of an educational and historical nature and they ran the program free of charge with much preceded promotion.

Without question, however, the major project of the year has been the preparation of a special film-strip requested by the Commission on World Service and Finance. This commission has said that they have had a need for sometime for a visual aid to illustrate the many conference projects supported by a major share of the local church's benevolent dollar.

After discarding the possibility of making a motion picture due to excessive cost and personnel problems, TRAFCO was very fortunate in securing the services of the Rev. Kenneth Jones from the office of Methodist Information in Washington, D. C. Mr. Jones has had considerable experience in the making of filmstrips and while most of the photography was left to the boards and agencies receiving conference funds, Ken took care of all the additional photography plus writing the script.

We now have the finished product and it has been approved and endorsed by the Conference Council. We hope to preview it to the entire conference at the annual session Thursday afternoon May 18th.

Because the price of the filmstrip has been kept so low it is hoped that every charge in the conference will purchase a copy and use it freely among their various organizations. Many, no doubt, will for the first time really understand the power of their "Almightly Benevolent Dollar"—the title of the filmstrip. Exact details as to the cost and securing of the filmstrip and record will be given out at conference time.

Turning from the past to the future, Peninsula TRAFCO is looking forward to participating in what might well be the mightiest force yet to upgrade the quality of commercial television. October is to be known as TELEVISION VALUATION MONTH. The General Board of TRAFCO has worked out a plan where every Methodist in the United States can express meaningfully his opinion of current television fair. During this month post card questionnaires will be given to Methodists (and others willing to participate) on which they will be asked to indicate their reaction to different aspects of the programs they watch. These cards will be sent directly to the local station screening the program. The impact could be most challenging.

Because this TELEVISION VALUATION PROGRAM will require the endorsement of each annual conference and the cooperation of a maximum number of local churches, Peninsula Conference TRAFCO is submitting the following resolution (also being submitted to every other annual conference,) for adoption:

WHEREAS, the General Television, Radio and Film Commission of The Methodist Church has launched a TELEVISION VALUATION PROJECT designed to help Methodists use and influence television creatively, and

WHEREAS, your Conference TRAFCO organization believes that Methodist individuals and families in this conference should be encouraged to evaluate the moral, ethical, and cultural impact of television on their lives, and thus to express more responsibly their proper role as Christians in determining what is broadcast and what the viewing experience may mean to the individual, and,

WHEREAS, General TRAFCO has recommended that all Methodists in the nation work together toward a concentrated expression of interest and concern in the month of October of 1967; therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED: that the Peninsula Annual Conference designate the month of October, 1967, as "TELEVISION VALUATION MONTH" in this Annual Conference; and,

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED: that the ministers and laymen of the Annual Conference, at every level of administration, be encouraged to make it possible for every Methodist member and constituent in the conference to participate fully and creatively in this TELEVISION VALUATION PROJECT, by securing and distributing the free resource materials, and by creating opportunities for personal preparation in every local church in the conference.

ROBERT W. HELMS, Chairman
Peninsula Conference TRAFCO

THE TOWN AND COUNTRY COMMISSION

The Town and Country Commission began this conference year by sending a delegation of 6 men to Painted Post, New York for a "Jurisdictional Workshop." The workshop was held from October 17 to October 20, 1966 and was attended by: Charles Barton, Thomas Short, Gerald Henderson, Curtis Smith, Howard Amoss, and George Commodore. This workshop helped to increase our understanding and zeal for parish and interparish cooperation.

Representatives from our commission were invited to the Easton District to meet with pastors and church representatives from that county, on November 21, 1966. The discussion topic was, "Cooperation Within the Circuit and Within the County". The response and spirit was excellent.

Throughout the year we have worked to gain a better understanding of the need for an implementation of a Credit Union within our conference. A survey taken early in the conference year showed that 142 pastors favored some kind of Credit Union, and 29 pastors were opposed to the idea of a Credit Union. In the wake of such a response, there has been further study which has resulted in a recommendation in this report.

We have established funds which will help to support a "Resort Ministry Program" at the Indian River inlet for the coming summer 1967.

The Reverend George Commodore represented our commission and conference in a jurisdictional meeting in Bingington, New York in December of 1966. This resulted in our commission entering into a cooperative Town and Country effort within the Northeastern Jurisdiction of the Methodist Church.

Our commission is now in the process of securing 7 books for the library at Drayton Manor. The books selected are as follows. The Story of John Frederick Oberlin, Larger Parish and Group Ministry, The Small Community, Rural Sociology, The 4-H Story, Church in Our Town, and Rural Parish Administration.

We are sad to report the death of one of the most devoted members to this commission. Mr. Samuel Craig died on January 17, 1967. Our commission has placed flowers in his memory in his home church on World Life Sunday.

Recommendations:

1. We began a Credit Union for active and retired ministers of the Peninsula Annual Conference, full-time employees of the churches of the said conference, and full-time employees of institutions related to the said conference. Furthermore, it is recommended that permission be granted to these 7 men who have volunteered to implement this program. These men are: The Reverends Paul McCoy, Joseph Holliday, George Pigueron, George Commodore, Otho Brewer, Richard Gibson, and Charles Barton (Chairman).
2. This commission recommends that Thomas C. Short be the Executive Secretary of this Town and Country Commission for the coming year.

Respectfully submitted,

THOMAS C. SHORT, Executive Secretary
CHARLES BARTON, Chairman

THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES PENINSULA CONFERENCE MAY 1967

The fiscal year 1966-67 has been a quiet one for the Conference Trustees with routine business making up our activities since the Bank of Delaware is in charge of our investments.

In October 1966 we received a bequest under the will of Charles Ferguson in the amount of $4,684.47. This money has been invested and the income will be paid to the Board of Missions as the will directs.

St. Pauls Church at Westover, Md. was sold and the proceeds paid to the Country House.

Canterbury Methodist Church was sold and the proceeds placed in Trust. A Charter has been obtained by Canterbury Cemetery Incorporated and they hold title to the cemetery property. The income from the Trust will be paid to them to help with the maintenance.

Years ago the Trustees received $2,670.43 from the Baltimore Conference as our share of a property sold at Conowingo. Over the years varying amounts from the income have been paid to the Historical Society, Peninsula Annual Conference. The funds have now been placed in our Trust Account as part of the Barratt Chapel Fund which had $4,000.00 corpus, making a total of about $6,600.00. The income from this will be paid to the Historical Society.

St. James Church at St. Georges, Delaware, was to be sold. We have a buyer for the property but are having difficulty establishing the lines and action will be taken after Conference.

Our checking account has been turned over to the Conference Business Office. Receipts and disbursements are being handled by the office and we believe this is a great step forward in the administration of Conference affairs.

Respectfully submitted,

JOSEPH W. BROSIUS

WESLEY COLLEGE

Report to the Peninsula Conference

It is a particular delight to report concerning the continuing dramatic growth of Wesley College. The Peninsula Conference has just cause for genuine pride and for the deepest satisfaction in the returns from faithful and generous support both of money and prayer which help to underwrite and undergird its college. The Conference may be assured of the deepest appreciation for all its efforts and interest in Wesley College from the trustees, administration, faculty, students, and the many friends of Wesley.

The new science building, Cannon Hall, which was in process of construction last year at this time, is now in use. The excellence of its facilities are all that had been hoped for, and the additional costs of construction were met by a second Longwood Foundation grant.

Carpenter Hall, the new residence dormitory for women, is on schedule in its construction and will be open for occupancy in the fall of 1967. The cornerstone was laid on November 20, 1966, in an impressive ceremony conducted by the Grand Lodge A. F. and A. M. of the state of Delaware. It was my privilege to act as Grand Master on this occasion. The additional cost above the original estimate was completely met by an anonymous gift of $300,000 from a friend of the College.

The trustees of Wesley have initiated a "quiet campaign" to raise money for a new million-dollar library. An anonymous gift of $200,000 received at the outset of this year gives the substance of reality to the vision of this essential building. In preparation for the erection of the building, the south wing of Old Main will be demolished. Offices of the President and other administrative personnel have been relocated in houses on State Street. Also housed in separate college buildings, all former residential homes, are the Peninsula Conference business and administration headquarters, the office of the Conference Board of Education, and the office of the Delaware State Council of Churches.

This fall the Trustees approved of the addition of a curriculum in nursing, a program which has been intensively researched by Dr. Parker and academic dean Donald Douglass. The major costs of the first year of operation are provided for by financial assistance from the Delaware Tuberculosis and Health Society and from the Kent General Hospital. Mrs. Elizabeth Roeder, formerly executive director of the State Nurses' Association, has served as director of planning and will continue as head of the department of nursing for the coming year.

At the beginning of the second semester this year, the first honors convocation was held. A newly established "Award of Excellence to a Faculty Member" was conferred upon Professors Lewis Wells, V. Robert Kilby, and Mrs. Margaret B. Kilby. Mr. Wells has been with Wesley twenty-one years, and the Kilbys for twenty years. All three have contributed in many and varied ways to the enrichment of the college and of the community. Although this special recognition was accorded these three professors, it should also be recorded that the entire faculty and staff serve the students and Wesley College with uncommon dedication and devotion beyond the call of duty.

Three years ago Wesley established a Fine Arts Committee and an annual program called, "Festival of the Arts." This year, under the imaginative leadership of professor William Hughes, Wesley has achieved new heights in its services to the area as a cultural center. Concerts, art exhibits, special performances, and other cultural affairs have made this past year outstanding in this regard.

A very special tribute is here given to the Rev. Howard Gordy, Jr., who since 1961 has served as Associate Professor of Philosophy and Religion and as College Chaplain. His wise and winsome counseling has touched the lives personally of the majority of students during the six years, and he has established programs and ideals which have proven of immense and enduring worth. The college received his resignation with utmost reluctance but wishes him the continued rich blessing of God upon his future service to Christ and the Church.

In July of 1966, members of the administration and trustees met in Nashville with Dr. Ralph Decker to present a request for a special study to be made by the University Senate of the Methodist Church. The purpose of the study was to give guidance as to the future of Wesley College with reference to this area of the country, the future of education (especially of the private junior college), and the role of the church-related college. The request was accepted; and in February, a distinguished team of five men spent a week on the campus. At the writing of this report to you the finished report of the Senate has not been received, but it is expected to be a most important influence in determining direction and answering many questions as to Wesley's future development.

Finally, the Conference is hereby reminded that the academic year 1972-73 is Wesley's one-hundredth year. To commemorate this historic event, the Trustees have appointed a chairman for the Centennial Committee, the Reverend R. Jervis Cooke. We anticipate a gradually accelerating program beginning with 1967-68, the ninety-fifth year, leading to the one-hundreth year of special events and celebration.

We are grateful to God for his blessings upon Wesley College, and express our thanks also to this conference for the opportunity to serve our young people, tomorrow's leaders.

WILLIAM H. CANTWELL,
Chairman—Board of Trustees

WOMAN'S SOCIETY OF CHRISTIAN SERVICE

The report of the Woman's Society of Christian Service is made on behalf of the Conference Executive Committee, the District Leaders and the Local Societies, as follows:

The Middle Atlantic Regional School of Christian Mission, held at Lycoming College, Williamsport, Pa., during June, proved beneficial to the conference and district leaders in attendance in that much of the material and information gleaned has been useful in various aspects of our work.

The Conference School of Christian Mission, held at Wesley College, Dover, Del., during July, offered opportunities to men and women (very few men attended) in the use of resources and in the instruction of the study courses, "Christian Being and Doing" (the theme), based on James and I Peter, and "Affluence and Poverty: Dilemma for Christians". There was an approximate attendance of 165.

The Wesleyan Service Guild presented its School of Christian Mission, with a record attendance, during a weekend at Drayton Methodist Center, where they had reviews of the above mentioned studies.

The Conference and District Executive Committees have held Self-Study No. 11. This inspiring and enriching program has been presented, or is in the planning process, by the districts, to the local societies, through district or sub-district meetings. Self-Study gives opportunity for individual analysis; provides an image of the local society; instructs the society in evaluating its membership, suggesting plans for the recruitment of new members.

The planning of the Fall Mission Seminars in cooperation with the district committees was a new experience. These were not, as a whole, the success which had previously prevailed in the Woman's Society Seminars. However, since accomplishment is not always determined in numbers, perhaps the purpose was achieved, in part. Success or failure will be resolved through the reports of the Secretary of Missionary Education and Service of the Woman's Society, in May, and the Conference Missionary Secretary during Annual Conference.

The Conference "Day Apart", held in Epworth Methodist Church, Rehoboth Beach, Del., with Miss Hazel Horner, deaconess, from Camden, N. J., as guest speaker had an attendance of 250.

The district "Day Apart" meetings had an approximate attendance of 700. The Call to Prayer and Self Denial was widely observed in the local societies where the suggested materials were used and offerings for projects stressed.

Four districts excelled in the following additional sessions: Dover: Local Leadership Development, A Day on Campus; Salisbury: A School of Prayer, Nominating Committee Workshop; Seaford: Sub-district meetings on program, Leadership Development and Membership Depth Study; Wilmington: Prayer Retreat.

Easton District experienced difficulties, since, in the latter part of December, the president, Miss Nina Pink was hospitalized with a fractured leg. However, Miss Pink is giving capable leadership while in the hospital.

Chestertown District was deterred when the president, Mrs. Dale Pruett moved from the district. The vice president, Mrs. Marvin Jacobs assumed the responsibility, and with the cooperation of the Executive Committee is learning rapidly as she leads the district toward progress.

The contemplated "phasing out" of Seaford District created momentary frustration within the Executive Committee of the district society. In the short span of two years, these women, along with the local societies, made outstanding progress in the area of communication and understanding since the merger of the two conferences. Realizing that change is relevant, the women have accepted the possibility of separation, during annual conference. The leadership will take their rightful places in the Dover and Salisbury Districts.

The Neighborhood House continues to grow in outreach in South Wilmington. While still maintaining the nursery, clubs, sewing classes, etc. for the children and youth, endeavor is being made to reach the adults of the neighborhood in cooperation with the Urban Ministry in the city of Wilmington.

Literature sales for the School of Christian Mission amounted to $840.85.

The Call to Prayer offering (latest figure) was $4,185.66.

The total Pledge paid to Missions for 1966-67 is in the amount of $85,167.36. The total giving of the Society is $103,279.95.

Supply Askings are paid in full in the amount of $9,180.00.

Supplementary Giving through the Woman's Division, for Neighborhood House has been increased $2,000.

Ecumenism and Leadership Development were the key emphases during the Annual Meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service, Northeastern Jurisdiction, held at The Inn, Buck Hill Falls, Pa., where Peninsula Conference was represented with approximately 25 persons.

The vice president, Mrs. O. E. Mangum, who attended the World Federation of Methodist Women, in London, England, last summer, has promoted the work of the federation throughout the conference.

Mrs. Baynard Harper, secretary of missionary education and service attended a meeting on "Missions" and "Ecumenism", in Cincinnati, Ohio, in March, where she learned of significant changes in mission, and of the amazing rapid growth of the ecumenical movement.

The conference president attended the Silver Bay Conference, Silver Bay, N. Y., in July; the Annual Meeting of the Woman's Division, in Cincinnati, Ohio, and the Annual Meeting of the Board of Missions, in January. These were in addition to the aforementioned meetings. A total of at least 100 days or a major portion, thereof, has been spent in meetings directly connected with the Woman's Society, or related agencies, plus countless hours utilized in reading and writing of innumerable letters.

The six districts will hold their Annual Spring Meetings during the month of April.

The Annual Meeting of the Conference Society will be held in the Youth and Civic Center, Salisbury, Md., on May 25.

It is with grateful thanks to God for his gift of health and endurance that I present this, my second report, to the Peninsula Annual Conference.

MRS. WILLIAM J. GARRETT (Sarah H.),
President

COMMISSION ON WORSHIP

Many of our churches have received the new hymnal and are using it regularly in their worship. Several of our churches also have a supply of the Book of Worship and are seeking to teach their people to use it in planning and conducting worship, in Woman's Societies, Methodist Men's groups and MYF groups. The Commission on Worship encourages a wider use of our Book of Worship and of our Hymnal.

During the past year the members of the Commission on Worship have, whenever requested, assisted in local, sub-district and district programs promoting, presenting and interpreting the Hymnal and the Book of Worship. When requested they have also sought to interpret the possibilities of and the work of the local Commission on Worship. The Conference Commission encourages the formation of a local Commission on worship. The Commission members served as leaders and resource persons in the inter-board schools for local chairmen which were held on each district in the early part of May.

The Commission has not yet fulfilled the task assigned by the last Annual Conference to study funeral practices and to report upon them. The work is underway and will consist of both study and survey. There will be a report at the next Annual Conference.

The Commission has learned of a couple of instances where some of the brethren have experimented in the area of worship. We request that if you have attempted anything that is different or unusual in the field of worship, and have found it to meet a need in your people, that you send the material and an explanation of the occasion with the results to the chairman or to any member of the Commission. Perhaps the Commission will deem your work worth sharing with the entire Conference.

Respectfully submitted,

EDWIN C. THOMAS, JR.,
Chairman, Commission on Worship

COMMISSION ON WORLD SERVICE AND FINANCE

During the past year the following actions were taken by this Commission:

1. Conference Council—Granted $100 for expenses during 1967-68 Conference Year.
2. Chesapeake Area Methodist Student Movement—Granted $500 for 1966/67 Conference Year and $500 for 1967/68 Conference Year.
3. Delaware Conference Funds—All funds received from the Delaware Conference designated for specific purposes have been disbursed to the proper agencies.
4. Net Expenditure Method of Apportioning—A letter explaining the new method of apportioning was sent to all pastors on August 5, 1966.
5. Board of Education—Granted $1,346 for 1966/67 Conference Year.

6. Financial Statistics in Conference Journal—Financial statistics will be reported in the Conference Journal by churches rather than charges effective May 1, 1967.
7. Golden Cross Society—The request of Rev. William H. Owens, Chairman, Board of Hospitals and Homes, to start a Golden Cross Society was approved.
8. Pastoral Care and Counseling Program—The Board of Christian Social Concerns was requested to look into the possibility of a co-operative effort with the Council of Churches of Maryland and Delaware to set up an Interdenominational Counseling Service.
9. It is suggested that travel reimbursement by all Conference Boards and Agencies be set at 8c per mile. All persons traveling must submit expense vouchers giving a detailed record of their reimbursable expenses. Vouchers to be used to report expenses can be obtained from the Business Office. It is further suggested that the members of Boards, Committees, and Commissions not be reimbursed for expenses such as travel or meals incurred in attending any regular or special meetings of these Boards, Committees, or Commissions held within the geographical bounds of the Peninsula Conference.
10. Studied Mission Aid and Minimum Salary and voted to list the recipients of such aid in its report to the Annual Conference.

11. The following Boards and Agencies have complied with the 1965 Annual Conference directive and have turned their books over to the Business Office for servicing:

Board of Education
Board of Missions
Board of Ministerial Training & Qual.—Scholarship Fund
Board of Ministerial Training & Qualifications
Town and Country Commission
Camp PeCoMeth
Board of Evangelism
Board of Christian Social Concerns
Television, Radio & Film Commission
Board of Lay Activities
Board of Trustees
Board of Hospitals and Homes

It is the desire of this Commission to have all Boards turn over their books to the Business Office by July 1, 1967.

This Commission makes the following recommendations for consideration and adoption:

1. Effective May 1, 1967 the Minimum Salary scale is as follows:

(Present scale in parenthesis)

	Student Supply	Approved Supply	Conference Member
Single	$2,800 ($2,800)	$3,400 ($3,400)	$4,250 ($3,400)
Married	$3,400 ($3,400)	$4,000 ($3,400)	$5,000 ($4,000)

Note:

A. Only full-time men of the Christian ministry and student pastors are eligible for Minimum Salary.
B. The maximum amount to be received from the Minimum Salary Fund will be $500 annually.
C. The maximum travel expense received by a minister receiving Minimum Salary support is $500.
D. Only those charges which conducted an Every-Member Visitation during the previous conference year which included the raising of funds for ministerial support shall be eligible for minimum salary support. 1. During the conference year 67/68, the written pledge of the minister to this Commission to conduct an Every-Member Visitation on his charge during the year 67/68 shall qualify the charge for minimum salary support.

2. On April 30th of each year, each Conference board or agency will remit to the Conference Treasury all unexpended and unencumbered funds at the end of a Conference Year exceeding twenty per cent of such board or agency's share of the Conference Benevolent Budget for the ensuing Conference Year with the following exemption:

Receipts of a board or agency from sources other than the Conference Treasury earmarked for a specific use. These items will be exempt for only one year unless the specific board or the Conference is directed otherwise in writing by the donor, or an exception is granted by the Annual Conference or this Commission.

Note: This rule does not apply to the Methodist Country House, Conference Board of Missions, or Wesley College.

3. That all of the rental or housing allowance actually paid to a minister under appointment be deducted from church expenditures for the purpose of calculating Conference apportionments.
4. A Committee on Gifts and Legacies be elected at this session of the Annual Conference. That it shall begin to immediately publicize current needs giving priority to endowment funds for pensions.
5. Funds will be appropriated to each Conference Board and Commission following monthly expenditure forecasts approved by the Commission on World Service and Finance. Each Board and Agency will be appropriated 100% of their approved Annual Budget. In the event 100% of the budgeted funds are not received, each Board and Agency's ensuing Annual Budget will automatically be reduced by the current year's deficit.
6. The following shall be the World Service/Conference Benevolence ratio for 1968/69:

			(1967/68)
World Service	$218,000	29.7%	(26.4%)
Conference Benevolence	515,178	70.3%	(73.6%)
TOTAL	$733,178	100.0%	(100.0%)

7. The recommended 1968/69 budget is $33,141 or 2.3% greater than our present budget. For the first time there is listed the actual budget requests, and these are $65,771 or 4.6% greater than our present budget.

   Four full days were spent by the Commission in formal session, and an estimated total of 500 man hours were spent in preparation of the budget, exclusive of the time spent by the staff of the Business Office. A hearing was granted each board which so requested, and several additional boards appeared at the request of the Commission.

   The 1968/69 Budget is a part of this report, and its adoption is recommended.
8. It is recommended that .49 be the factor to be applied to the Net Expenditure Method of apportionment during the 1967/68 Conference Year.

Respectfully submitted,

GILBERT S. SCARBOROUGH, JR., Chairman

Rev. William Hemphill, Jr.,
Vice-Chairman
Rev. William O. Hackett,
Secretary

ACCOUNTANTS' OPINION

We have examined the balance sheet of the Methodist Country House as of April 30, 1967, and the related statement of income and expense for the fiscal year then ended. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

The accompanying statements present fairly the financial position of the Methodist Country House at April 30, 1967 and the result of its operations for the year then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

MEMOIRS

GERTRUDE VIRGINIA BELL

Mrs. Gertrude Virginia Bell, the daughter of the late George T. and Rachell S. Hall, was born in Accomac County, Va., October 22, 1890. She did her early school training in Accomac County. After which she attended Princess Anne Academy, Cheney Teacher College and received her A.B. Degree from Hampton Institute.

She was converted at an early age and became a member of Bayside Church.

She was joined in holy wedlock to William T. Bell. She and her husband taught in the Flower Street School of which her husband was the principal for several years. Mrs. Bell taught in Louisiana, Virginia, and Maryland. Mr. Bell was translated several years ago.

After retiring from teaching, she entered the ministry and served the following charges in the Delaware Conference: Withams, Va., Mt. Vernon, Md., Oriole and Venton, Md.

Upon retiring from the ministry, she returned to Berlin and worked in St. Paul's Methodist Church assisting the pastor, A. J. Dredden, in the work of the charge. She was indeed a great help to the pastor and the church. She is greatly missed by the pastor, members and friends.

In the Hall's family of which she was the only girl child, there are four brothers: George H., Willard H., Jonathan T., and Hobart M. C. There are also several nephews, nieces and a large number of relatives.

She departed this life in the Peninsula General Hospital, Salisbury in October 22, 1966, at 1:30 P.M. Funeral services were held at St. Paul's Methodist Church at Berlin with the Reverend Albert J. Dredden officiating. Interment was in The Evergreen Cemetery, Berlin, Md.

ALBERT J. DREDDEN

EDWARD ALEXANDER HUGHES

Edward Alexander Hughes, son of Alfred and Willie Hughes, was born in Delmar, New Jersey on April 20, 1910. He received his education in the public schools of Maryland. He married Mary Collins of Vienna, Maryland and of this union four children were born. Two sons, Edward, Jr., Daniel, and two daughters, Mrs. Shirley Williams and Mrs. Elva Sisco.

Rev. Hughes was called to the ministry in the year 1940 and served the charges of Church Hill, Md., Oriole, Md., Unionville, Md., Wattsville, Va., Oxford, Md., and Trappe, Md.

He served on many of the boards and agencies of the former Delaware conference and the Peninsula conference. He gave of himself unselfishly to the work of the board of Hospitals and Homes and the commission on

Town and Country. He was community conscious, serving with the civic organizations of the communities in which he served.

There is no doubt that he was one of the outstanding ministers of the conferences in which he served.

After a life of devotion to the needs of humanity and faithfulness to his Lord and Master Jesus Christ, Edward Alexander Hughes expired on November 8, 1966 at Trappe, Md.

Surviving are Mrs. Hughes and the children.

Funeral services were held at Scott's Methodist Church on November 13. The Rev. Howard M. Amoss, superintendent of the Easton District officiated, assisted by the Revs. G. Wayne Cuff, T. M. Murray, J. W. Elbert, H. G. Chase.

Burial was at East New Market, Md.

Servant of God, well done! Thy glorious warfare's past;
The battle's fought, the race is won, and thou art crowned at last.

HARVEY GRINAGE CHASE, JR.

OMAR C. JONES

The late Omar C. Jones, the son of the late Denwood and Mary Jones, was born in Dames Quarter, Maryland, September 11, 1906. Rev. Jones completed his primary school work at the Dames Quarter Public School, and his secondary schooling beginning at the Old Princess Anne Academy, was finished at the Salisbury High School. His educational preparation for the Christian Ministry was taken at both Morgan College, Baltimore City, Maryland, and the Gammon Theological Seminary, Atlanta, Georgia.

On December 11, 1931, Brother Jones was united in Holy Wedlock to Miss Velma Louise Toadvine of Fruitland, Maryland. During his earlier married years, Bro. Omar served as a steward for a private interest in the Dames Quarter area for many years. It was during this period that the pattern for his entire life gradually evolved, as that of a kind, faithful, and just steward.

In 1954, Rev. Omar C. Jones was given an appointment at Wachapreague, Virginia, as an accepted Supply Pastor. The following year he was admitted on trial in the former Delaware Conference. Two years later he was made a member in full connection, where he served with honor and distinction until the "merger", then with the Peninsula Annual Conference until his death. During his itinerancy Rev. Jones served the following charges: Wachapreague, Virginia, five years, and Marumsco-Liberia-Kingston ten years and eight months.

Omar C. Jones, as a man, possessed a fertile mind enhanced in a strong body, backed up with strong Christian character; as preacher he delivered carefully prepared messages with "excellence and power"; as a pastor, no night was too dark, no distance too far for him to answer the call of duty to his parishioners; as an administrator, he was second to none on the Salisbury District. His Quarterly Conference Sessions were an inspiration to all of its members. As a husband and father his family life is best described by a quotation from the great Apostle where he says, "They twain became one flesh." On Monday, March 6, 1967, he passed to his eternal reward.

He leaves to mourn their loss a wife, Mrs. Velma Louise Toadvine Jones, a daughter, Mrs. Louise O'Hara Whittington of Washington, D. C., two brothers, Upshur Jones, Chester, Pennsylvania, and Phillip Jones of Cambridge, Maryland. Surviving relatives are, three aunts, four nieces, three nephews, one great niece, one great nephew, and a host of relatives and friends.

JAMES WILMER ELBERT

ROBERT F. LOSS, JR.

Robert F. Loss, Jr. was born in Baltimore, Maryland, March 17, 1910. He graduated from Baltimore Polytechnic Institute (High School) in 1928 and from Western Maryland College in 1934 with an A.B. degree. After his graduation, he married Olive May Butler on July 17, 1934. He graduated from Westminster Theological Seminary, now Wesley Theological Seminary, in 1937 with an S.T.B. degree.

Robert supplied Harmony Methodist Protestant Church at Falling Waters, West Virginia while he was in his last year at seminary. He was received into the Maryland Annual Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church in 1937. He served the Greenbush-Hallwood, Greenbush, Virginia from 1937-1938. From 1939-1940, he served Allen, Maryland on the Salisbury District.

Robert became a member of the Peninsula Annual Conference of the Methodist Church in 1940. He served the Kent Island Charge, Stevensville, Maryland 1941 and 1942 on the Easton District; Hillsboro-Queen Anne Charge, Queen Anne, Maryland 1943-1945 on the Easton District; Vienna-Elliott Charge, Vienna, Maryland 1946 and 1947. He served Millsboro, Delaware from 1948-1950.

As a young person, I became acquainted with Robert Loss when he was my pastor. During his ministry at Millsboro, he had an illness that required his retirement in 1950. The Loss family moved to Odessa, Delaware, to make their home until his death. His health had improved, but not sufficiently for the doctor to permit his return to the church. Robert worked for Home Life Insurance Company of America from 1951 until his death. He first served as an agent and then later as a field manager. From 1956-1960 he supplied the Hartly Friendship Charge on the Dover District. Robert Loss enjoyed his serving at Hartly and activated the Charge greatly.

On May 9, 1966, Robert had a stroke from which he never completely recovered. He so much wanted to be well, but his death came on January 20, 1967, in Wilmington, Delaware. Funeral services were held on January 24, 1967 with the Rev. Ronald Starnes officiating. Interment was at Old Drawyers Cemetery, Odessa, Del.

He is survived by his widow, Olive M. Butler and three children: Dr. Brian B. Loss, Dentist, Wilmington; Captain Robert F. Loss, III, at the Pentagon in Washington in the Armed Services; and Sandra McKay, Secretary at Hercules, Wilmington. He is also survived by his mother, brother, and four sisters.

It was a privilege to know Robert and his influence on my life is part of the reason of my being in the ministry.

Scripture reveals so much in the words, "For now we see in a mirror dimly, but then face to face. Now I know in part; then I shall understand fully, even as I have been fully understood. So faith, hope, love abide, these three; but the greatest of these is love."

Robert loved his family and they shall now understand in part, but then they shall understand fully.

Each of us may join in the words of Henry F. Lyte as we reflect on the life of Robert F. Loss,

"Abide with me, fast falls the eventide;
The darkness deepens; Lord with me abide!
When other helpers fail, and comforts flee,
Help of the helpless, O abide with me."

GEORGE C. GODFREY

WILLIAM ALEXANDER NICHOLS

William Alexander Nichols, son of Mrs. Martha Nichols Brown and the late Luke H. Nichols, was born in Federalsburg, Maryland on September 1, 1886. He attended the public schools of Federalsburg. On April 26, 1911 he was united in holy wedlock to Miss Pauline Elizabeth Myers in Baltimore. The quality of their home was proven by the fact they they soon became foster parents of two nephews, Floyd and Benjamin when their mother became ill. And after the mother's death, the two boys remained until adulthood. They were given love and Christian devotion by their foster parents who were called in affection, "Mother Dear" and "Uncle William".

In January of 1966, Brother Nichols was first stricken and taken to Peninsula Hospital of Salisbury. He later returned to his retirement home in Oxford where his wife dutifully nursed him until his passing on December 9, 1966. The funeral services were held in the Waters Methodist Church of Oxford with the pastor, Rev. Carrol Scott in charge.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Pauline E. Nichols; his mother, Mrs. Martha Nichols Brown, now 108 years of age; a brother, Lewis Nichols of Philadelphia; two foster sons, Floyd Robinson of Baltimore and Benjamin Robinson of Wichita, Kansas.

He gave his life to the Lord at an early age and became an active member of Cokesbury Methodist Church of Federalsburg. For 20 years he served as church school superintendent, class leader, trustee, steward, lay member of Delaware Conference and local preacher. He was called to full-time ministry in 1939 and took the courses of study to equip him for the task of pastor.

Prior to his retirement in 1959, he served well the following appointments in the former Delaware Annual Conference: Laurel Circuit, Oxford, East New Market, Linkwood and Wetipquin. His favorite hymns were:

"What are They Doing In Heaven Today", "Amazing Grace" and "The Lord Will Make A Way". He loved the poem, "It Is Not Death To Die"—

It is not death to die,
To leave this weary road,
And, midst the brotherhood on high,
To be at home with God.

THE FAMILY.

JOHN ISAAC PEACO

John Isaac Peaco, son of the late Isaac B. and Sarah A. Peaco, was born in Columbia, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, November 22, 1875. He died in Wilmington, Delaware, on April 22, 1967.

He was educated in the public schools of Lancaster County and joined the Methodist Church at an early age. Later he answered the call to preach and joined the Delaware Conference in 1914, after finishing the Conference Course of Studies.

Brother Peaco was joined in holy wedlock with Mary Louise Nunson, February 10, 1938, and she worked faithfully with him, taking good care of him until the end.

Brother Peaco served churches at Swainton, Glenlock and Rhodes, Pleasantville, Bridgeton, Springtown, Quinton, Mount Holly, Birlington, and Cape May, New Jersey. He also served churches at Nanticoke, Md.; Middletown, New Castle, and Newport, Delaware. He was transferred to the Peninsula Conference May 16, 1965.

After retiring from the active ministry in 1956, he joined Haven Methodist Church, where he contributed his talents, time, and possessions unstintedly. He was a successful pastor. He planned his work and worked his plans. He loved the work. He loved study and he loved people. He was a dynamic preacher, a man of his convictions and a noted evangelist. Like Jesus of Nazareth, he went about doing good.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Mary Louise Peaco; a step-daughter, Mrs. Evelyn Stiles, other relatives, and a galaxy of friends.

"Sunset and evening Star,
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar
When I put out to sea.

"But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
Too full for sound and foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep
Turns again home.

"Twi-light and evening bell
And after that the dark!
May there be no sadness of farewell
When I embark.

"For, though from out our bourne of time and place
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have crossed the bar."

—Tennyson

THE FAMILY.

ALBERT H. SLACUM

Albert H. Slacum, son of the late Perry and Mary Slacum, was born in East New Market, Maryland, June 3, 1890. He departed this life on June 2, 1966 at the Easton Memorial Hospital. The funeral services were conducted in the Mt. Zion Methodist Church of East New Market, Maryland with the pastor, Rev. Nelson C. Stanley in charge. The District Superintendent, Dr. Howard M. Amoss and many other pastor-friends participated.

He received his education in the public schools of East New Market. At an early age he was converted, and diligently pursued his religious training.

At an early age he was united in holy wedlock to Hattie Mae Banks, to which union were born nine children. Five daughters survive: Mrs. Fred Jolly, Mrs. Rudolph Jenkins, Miss Helen Slacum, Mrs. Calvin Dockins—all of East New Market, and Mrs. Randolph Elliott of Trappe. One son is left: John R. Slacum of Columbus, Ohio. He also leaves 21 grandchildren and 8 great grandchildren. After his first wife's death in 1947 he married Mrs. Georgia Currie of Baltimore, who also died. His third wife, Mary Marie Banks survives.

Prior to his retirement in 1965, he served as pastor of the following charges: Church Hill, Church Creek, Centreville Circuit, McDaniel and Easton Circuit. Two favorite hymns express his faith: "He Leadeth Me" and "It's No Secret What God Can Do".

"God Be With You Till We Meet Again."

THE FAMILY.

CLARENCE WILLIAM STRICKLAND

Clarence William Strickland, second son of William George Strickland and Elizabeth Cox Strickland, was born in Andover, England, on April 5, 1868.

His education began in the English private school system where his scholastic achievements earned him a three year scholarship in the Public School in Lyme Regis, England.

When Clarence was twelve years old, his father left England and, after some months in Newfoundland, Canada, and New York City, settled his family at Klej Grange, Maryland. It was at this point he began to pursue his education at home through correspondence courses.

Endowed with great artistic ability, he was well on the way to devoting his life to the painting that he loved when he felt that God was calling him to preach His Gospel. Of this time in his life, he wrote, "I prayed earnestly to God to excuse me. I knew that I must give up worldly plans and aims, and that Methodist preachers had to live hard, be dependent on charity and be the servant of all. I was diffident, slow and unready of speech and felt a painful lack of education. Objection after objection arose. I prayed and struggled for two weeks, hardly eating or sleeping. The conviction that this was my duty growing deeper all the while. Until at last, I promised God that if He would show me His Will and open the way I would follow, through His Grace." Upon making this decision, he subsequently enrolled in Albion College, Albion, Michigan, from which he emerged an ordained minister. While attending college, he was licensed local Preacher by the Eaton Rapids, Michigan, quarterly conference and preached several times for Rev. DeLamartar at the Eaton Rapids Methodist Episcopal Church.

In 1888, Rev. A. S. Mowbray, Eben Hearn, Jacob W. Wheatley and Clarence Strickland formed a prohibition quartette and toured the country campaigning. They had good audiences, enthusiastic meetings and rewarding times doing their bit for prohibition.

On September 18, 1890, he was married to Bessie Frances Cox and their union was blessed with four children: Walter Clarence, Ralph Norman, and the two surviving children, Alfred William, a member of the Peninsula Conference of the Methodist Church, and Bessie Elzada. After 55 rich and full years of marriage, Bessie Cox Strickland succumbed on September 18, 1945.

On March 17, 1897, Clarence and his father, both preachers, stood side by side and were ordained Elders. His father, to Local Elders orders, and Clarence, to Traveling Elders orders—an ordination probably unparalleled in the history of the conference.

He was admitted to the Methodist Conference in Wilmington, Delaware, in 1892. During his long life as a minister, he served faithfully and well at Elliotts Island, Maryland; Pocomoke Circuit, Maryland; Parsonsburg, Maryland; Chincoteague, Virginia; Quantico and Hebron, Maryland; Nassau and Rehoboth, Delaware; Williston and Newport, Delaware; Oriole, Maryland; Greenwood, Delaware; Bozman, Maryland; Nanticoke, Maryland; Frankford and Dagsboro, Delaware; Pittsville and Deal Island, Maryland; Tangier, Virginia; Epworth in Wilmington, Delaware; and Clayton, Delaware.

Though he retired from the ministry in 1932, he never left God's service. His counsel was sought by many in need of God's word, he visited the ill and infirmed—many of whom were much younger than he—and would serve regularly as guest minister or Sunday School teacher whenever and wherever asked. He was a guest minister in Epworth Methodist Church, Rehoboth Beach, Delaware, at the invitation of Rev. Charles Covington, when he was 97.

Artist, poet, author, he was a man of many talents, all used to the Glory of God. A kind man, always ready to help those in need with his time, money or talents, he will be sadly missed and long remembered by the many of us who loved him so dearly.

On May 4, 1967, after being hospitalized for a month with a decompensating heart, and at an age of 99 years and 1 month, the oldest member of the Peninsula Methodist Conference was borne to his heavenly reward. As he wrote "When life and its struggles is o'er, and darkness and danger are past; Then, safe on that beautiful shore, I'll anchor in Jesus, at last."

BESSIE TEWELOW (daughter).

LESTER E. WINDSOR

Lester E. Windsor born at Rumbley, Maryland, June 29, 1893; the son of George Windsor and Bertha Ford Windsor. He attended school in Fairmount and Wesley College, Dover, Delaware and Drew Seminary.

Mr. Windsor served as minister in Peninsula Conference of the Methodist Church from 1916 to 1958.

During 5 years of his retirement he served as pastor of Mount Hermon Charge, Salisbury, Maryland 1959-1964.

He then made his home in Ocean City, Maryland and Frankford, Delaware for two years before his death, August 8, 1966.

Brother Windsor also served as Conference Treasurer 11 years, 1940 to 1951.

He was married in 1916 to Mary Ester Carmean and has a son, Commander Clayton Windsor now retired living in Atlanta, Georgia, also two (2) grandsons. Mrs. Windsor died in 1957 in an accident at Orangeburg, South Carolina.

He later married Emma Carmean Jones in 1959 who survives. He is also survived by a sister Bertha Ford, Fairmount, Maryland. Funeral services were held at Watson & Gray, Melson Funeral Chapel, Thursday, August 11, 1966 at 1 P.M.

Services were conducted by Rev. Paul McCoy and Rev. William Hudson.

Final rites were in Carey Cemetery, Frankford, Delaware.

As a minister and a man, he was devoted to the work of the Conference, when he was treasurer he did much for the retired ministers.

To those of us who knew him, he was very special, and we will miss him.

I am trav'ling tow'rd the sun-set gate,
I'm a pil-grim go-ing home;
For the glow of e-ven-tide I wait,
I'm a pil-grim go-ing home.

There is tran-quil rest when day is done,
I shall lay me down in peace;
When the end is reached at set of sun,
I shall lay me down in peace.

By the side of those most near and dear,
I shall drop life's toil and care;
When the Mas-ter's tender voice I hear,
I shall drop life's toil and care.

I shall rise a-gain at morn-ing dawn,
I shall put on glo-ry then;
With the shad-owy veil of death undrawn,
I shall put on glory then.

GEORGE P. and LILLIAN M. MATTHEWS.

MRS. LEOLAN JACKSON

Elizabeth Nelson Jackson, daughter of Captain John and Mrs. Jane Harker Nelson, was born March 7, 1874 at Glouchester, North Carolina. Following her graduation from the local schools she was married on July 16, 1896 to Leolan Jackson, a young ministerial student from Orca Coke,

North Carolina, and together they began the preparation for a life work which they were to enjoy for more than sixty years. Dr. and Mrs. Jackson worked his way through the University of Chattanooga, and upon entering the ministry of the Methodist Church began their long itinerary by serving first in the old Atlantic Mission Conference, then to Holston, and finally to the Wilmington, now Peninsula Conference of the Methodist Church. From 1897 to 1941 they worked actively together in three conferences and a host of charges in Maryland and Delaware, and then for ten years following retirement served in smaller circuits and in the ministry of visitation at Asbury Church, Salisbury. Dr. Jackson died in June, 1959 and Mrs. Jackson went to live with her daughter, Mrs. Earl Flanigan, at East New Market, Maryland, where she departed this life on July 25, 1966. After long illness, and ninety-two years "the sword had outworn the sheath" and Elizabeth Nelson Jackson resigned this earthly existence for the richer fulfillment of life and went away to be with her Maker and her loved-ones on the other side. In addition to Mrs. Flanigan she leaves two daughters, Mrs. Marion H. Gillis, Mrs. Charles Dean and one son, John who survive.

On the morning of July 28th, her family and her friends gathered at St. Michael's Church, St. Michael's, Maryland, where the Rev. Vinton Shufelt and the writer of this memoir conducted the last rites, and laid her body to rest beside that of her husband in the churchyard adjoining the sanctuary where they had served their longest pastorate.

To those of us who knew her so well it was like the home-going of a friend who has set us a good example, and our most enduring and fitting tribute will be to grasp the gift of a rich and wonderful heritage realizing that the work which is now finished for her is only in the making for us.

JOHN EDWARD FRENCH.

MARTHA H. WHITTINGTON

Mrs. Martha H. Whittnigton was born in Queen Annes County, Maryland, March 20, 1891. She departed this life on Friday, March 3, 1967, at Union Hospital, Elkton, Maryland, after a brief illness.

For more than 50 years Mrs. Whittington had resided in Sassafras, Maryland, where she was a faithful member of the John Wesley Methodist Church. On March 8, 1945, she was united in marriage to the Rev. Aaron C. Whittington, then serving as pastor of her church. She served faithfully with him at Sassafras, Port Deposit, Church Creek, and McDaniel, Maryland. Upon his retirement, they returned to Sassafras and made it their home. Mr. Whittington passed from death unto life seven years ago, and Mrs. Whittington continued in faithful service at John Wesley Church until illness forced her to cease her activities.

She is survived by a brother, George Hines of Pondtown (near Crumpton) Maryland, and many more distant relatives and countless friends.

"Her voice was ever soft, gentle, and low—
An excellent thing in woman."

OPHELIA O. JAMES.
(Her last pastor.)

MISCELLANEOUS

(a) CONFERENCE RULES OF ORDER

Rule 1. The Conference shall meet at 9:00 A. M. and adjourn at 12:30 P. M. But the Conference may, in its discretion, alter the time of meeting and adjournment.

Rule 2. The President shall decide all questions of order, subject to an appeal to the Conference; but in case of such an appeal the question shall be taken without debate, except that the appellant may make a simple statement of the grounds of his appeal.

Rule 3. All resolutions and motions shall be in writing, if the President, Secretary, or any two members request it.

Rule 4. When a motion is made and seconded, or a resolution is introduced and seconded, or a report presented and read by the Secretary, or stated by the President, it shall be deemed in possession of the Conference; but any motion or resolution may be withdrawn by the mover, with the consent of the Conference, at any time before amendment or decision.

Rule 5. The motion to Lay on the Table, or to Take from the Table, and for the Previous Question, shall be taken without debate.

Rule 6. No new motion or resolution shall be entertained until the one under consideration has been disposed of, which may be done by adoption or rejection, unless one of the following motions shall intervene, which shall have precedence in the order in which they are placed, namely:

(1) To fix the time to which the Conference shall adjourn.
(2) To adjourn.
(3) To take a recess.
(4) To lay on the table.
(5) For the previous question.
(6) To postpone to a given time.
(7) To refer.
(8) To substitute.
(9) Amendment.
(10) To postpone indefinitely.

A motion to amend shall be in order, and a substitute for both amendments may be received, which substitute may be amended only once, and if a substitute be accepted, it shall operate as an amendment to the original proposition.

Rule 7. When a member is about to speak in debate, or to deliver any matter to the Conference, he shall rise and respectfully address the President, but shall not proceed until recognized by him.

Rule 8. No member shall be interrupted while speaking, except by the President to call him to order when he departs from the question, or uses personalities or disrespectful language; but any member may call the attention of the President to the subject when he deems a speaker out of order, and any member may explain when he thinks himself misrepresented.

Rule 9. When a member desires to a question of privilege, he shall briefly state the question; but it shall not be in order for him to proceed until the President shall have decided it a privileged question.

Rule 10. No person shall speak more than twice on the same question, nor more than ten minutes at one time, without leave of the Conference; nor shall any person speak more than once until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken.

Rule 11. When any motion or resolution shall have been acted upon by the Conference, it shall be in order for any member who voted with the prevailing side to move a reconsideration; but a motion to reconsider it a non-debatable motion and shall be decided without debate.

Rule 12. No member shall absent himself from the sessions of the Conference without leave, unless he is sick or unable to attend.

Rule 13. No member shall be allowed to vote on any question who is not within the bar of the Conference at the time when such question shall be put by the President, except by leave of the Conference when such member has been necessarily absent.

Rule 14. Every member who is within the bar at the time a question is put shall give his vote, unless the Conference, for special reasons, shall excuse him.

Rule 15. It shall be in order for him to move that the question be taken without further debate on any measure pending, except in cases in which character is involved, and if sustained by two-thirds, the question shall be taken.

Rule 16. The motion to adjourn shall be taken without debate, and shall always be in order, except, (1) when a member has the floor; (2) when a question is actually put, or a vote is being taken; (3) when the question is pending on seconding the demand for the previous question; (4) when the previous question has been called and sustained, and is still pending; and (5) when a motion to adjourn has been negatived and no business or debate has intervened.

Rule 17. All reports of the Boards, Commissions and Committees, shall be published and mailed to the Members of the Annual Conference ten (10) days prior to the date of meeting of the Annual Conference. Reports to be included in this mailing must be in the hands of the Secretary thirty (30) days prior to such Session.

Rule 18. No report shall be received or adopted by the Conference until a copy has been placed in the hands of the Secretary.

Rule 19. These rules shall not be suspended or amended except by a vote of two-thirds of the members present and voting.

Rule 20. All materials to be published in the Journal shall be in the hands of the Secretary not later than ten (10) days after adjournment of the Annual Session or it shall be excluded.

Rule 21. The Nominating Committee shall distribute mimeographed copies of its report to the Annual Conference on the day before the report is to be voted on by the Conference.

PROTECTED FAMILY!

This pastor and his children are happy. The pastor has plenty of life insurance coverage.

Just think of what his life insurance can do for him: help him to comfortable retirement, see his children through college, pay his taxes, buy his own home and burn the mortgage.

Should he be taken from his family by sudden death, whether by accident or illness, this father's life insurance is an inestimable boon to his loved ones.

How about YOUR family and dependents?
