RULES AND GUIDELINES FOR THE CONFERENCE NOMINATING COMMITTEE

A.

1. That the Peninsula Conference again record its faith in the Principle of Rotation and adherence to the Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church.

2. That the Nominating Committee be composed of the Cabinet, the Conference Secretary, the Conference Lay Leader, the Lay Leader of each District, the Conference President of United Methodist Men, a representative selected by the United Methodist Women Executive Committee, the District Presidents of United Methodist Women, a youth selected by the Conference Youth Council, one minister under appointment from each District to be elected for a quadrennium by the respective District Ministerium, and the Conference Council Director.

3. That, since the quadrennial system is an established part of the United Methodist economy, all members of boards, commissions, and committees shall be elected for a quadrennium unless restricted by Discipline, charter, or some other legal requirement. In the event of such legal restrictions, the Principle of Rotation is still to be observed.

4. That no member of any board, committee, or commission shall serve more than two consecutive quadrennia on said board, committee or commission and shall not be eligible to be re-elected until after one quadrennium has elapsed, except members of boards, committees, or commissions elected for three-year terms may serve three consecutive terms and shall be ineligible to be re-elected until after one term has elapsed and except that, when a member is elected to fill an unexpired quadrennium or term and serve not more than one additional consecutive quadrennium or term.

5. That no member of the Conference, lay or ministerial, shall serve on more than two boards, commissions, or committees concurrently. Ex-officio membership on conference boards or agencies in excess of two shall count toward the total of two. The following shall not be under the Conference rotation system nor counted in the above total: district committees or secretaries, Wesley College Trustees, Board of Directors of the Wesley Foundations, Board of Trustees of Peninsula United Methodist Homes, Inc., the Episcopal Residence Committee, and the Committee on Investigation. In the case of the Board of Ordained Ministry, the Nominating Committee is to request the courtesy of the bishop to inform it as to those persons who will be named to the Board of Ordained Ministry, in order to assist the Nominating Committee in equal distribution of responsibility on the part of the Conference ministry members. The Nominating Committee will consider membership on the Board of Ordained Ministry as one of two memberships permitted to each minister.

6. Insofar as possible, the membership on Councils, Boards, and Agencies of the Annual Conference shall include one-third clergy, one-third laywomen, and one-third laymen, in keeping with policies for general church agencies, except for the Board of Ordained Ministry.

7. That ministerial membership on Annual Conference boards and agencies shall be limited to Conference members and associate members of the Peninsula Annual Conference. In order to be eligible to serve on the Conference boards and agencies, lay members shall be members of a local church within the Annual Conference. The Conference Nominating Committee may select other persons as affiliate members without vote.

8. "In recognition of the Rights of the Aging" as stated in the Social Creed of the United Methodist Church (Page 92 of the Discipline), age shall not be a barrier to serve on any board, council, or agency of the Annual Conference. However, the Conference Nominating Committee shall give careful attention to assuring that younger members of the Conference are given full opportunity for service.

9. That a conscientious effort shall be made to distribute membership geographically. No fixed number shall be assigned, however, to any one district, since this could become artificial and impractical. Consideration shall be given to the inclusion of lay and clergy persons from small membership churches.

10. That the Cabinet select only one representative from the Cabinet to serve on a Conference board and all the divisions of the board, and one cabinet representative each on all other support agencies except where the Discipline states otherwise.

11. That failure to attend the particular board or agency to which one is assigned for at least one called meeting during the year, without written explanation, or statement of intended activity to the chairperson of that board or agency, one will be subject to automatic removal in the next nominating committee's report. A report of the board or agency chairperson to the secretary of the Conference Nominating Committee by March 1st will include the attendance record of this board, committee or agency.

12. That the Conference Nominating Committee designate persons to serve as a Nominating Committee for the Boards, Commissions and Committees. The District Superintendent assigned to the agency is the convenor of this committee. The nominating committee shall be prepared at the organization meeting to nominate officers for the quadrennium for any that have not so designated their own by April 15th.

13. That the date of election to any board, commission or committee be clearly indicated in the journal.

14. That in every case a nominee of any board, commission or committee shall be notified and consent to serve before the name is placed before the Conference. When vacancies occur in the report, nominations may be made from the floor, provided that the nominee is present and agrees to serve.

15. That recognizing again the belief in the principle of rotation in order to involve greater leadership, all district committees and officers shall be elected to four-year terms with a maximum of eight years and persons shall be ineligible for re-election until after a four-year term has elapsed, with the exception of the District Committee of Ordained Ministry and the District Committee on Church Building and Location which shall serve a minimum of four years and a maximum of eight years.

B.

Concerning the Nominating Committee, its report and the securing of talent:

1. That the report of the Nominating Committee at the Annual Conference session will reflect a complete adherence to all the guidelines established by the Annual Conference.

2. The Nominating Committee shall distribute mimeographed copies of its report to the Annual Conference on the day before the report is to be voted on by the Conference.

3. That forms shall be circulated for both ministers and laity in local churches to indicate areas of interest, thus creating a Talent Bank. In addition, the same form shall be sent to the members of the Cabinet, Board of Laity, Conference United Methodist Women, Executive Committee, and Conference Youth Council in order to obtain names that might otherwise be overlooked. These forms shall be returned to the secretary of the Conference Nominating Committee.

4. That a complete file of all ministers in the Conference should be kept indicating where each one is serving in terms of Conference boards and agencies. Laity should likewise be listed on a similar file. A third file would be divided between ministers and laity as part of the Conference Talent Bank.

5. That a minimum of four meetings per year should be held by the Nominating Committee (it may be advisable that the committee meet more often, since its influence is so broad; whenever the committee approaches a new quadrennium, this latter need for additional meetings may be more evident).

6. That the above adopted guidelines for the Nominating Committee of the Annual Conference shall become a printed part of its report at each Annual Conference session.

7. That at the beginning of a new quadrennium, a complete and open look at membership on all boards and agencies shall be initiated by the Conference Nominating Committee and all personnel shall be eligible for re-alignment in accordance with A-5.

8. Titles such as "Mrs," "Miss," or "Mr." shall not be used in the preparation of the Nominating Committee report.

Miscellaneous

1. That the council director, and associate council directors, not be elected to boards and agencies under the Conference rotation, but serve only as ex-officio where assigned by the council director.

2. That two (2) high school youth (preferably 10th and 11th grades) shall be members of the following boards, divisions and committees: Commission on Christian Unity & Interreligious Concerns, Division of Education, Division of Evangelism, Division of Health and Welfare Ministries, Division of Missions, Board of Church and Society, Division of Career Planning and Counseling, Division of Worship, Conference Council on Ministries, Board of Laity, Conference Nominating Committee, and Committee on Conference arrangements. THE PROCESS OF MAKING APPOINTMENTS

Par. 57, Article X - The bishops shall appoint, after consultation with the district superintendents, ministers to the charges; and they shall have such responsibilities and authorities as the General Conference shall prescribe.

> Article X, quoted above from the 1984 Discipline, is the primary authority for itinerancy in the Constitution of The United Methodist Church. (The Constitution can only be changed by 2/3 vote of the 74 Annual Conferences. All other Discipline paragraphs quoted in these pages are in Part IV, Organization and Administration, and require only a majority vote of the General Conference to change.) This constitutional delegation of responsibility and authority cannot be negotiated or modified. All pastors accept this as part of their ordination and Conference membership vows, and all United Methodist churches are by covenant and law so committed.

Par 436 - The Itinerant System - The itinerant system is the accepted method of The United Methodist Church by which ordained ministers are appointed by the bishops to fields of labor. All ordained ministers shall accept and abide by these appointments.

Par. 529 - Responsibility - Pastors and clergy in appointments beyond the local church shall be appointed by a bishop, who is empowered to make and fix all appointments in the episcopal area within which the Annual Conference is a part. Appointments are to be made with the consideration of the gifts and graces of those appointed, to the needs, characteristics, and opportunities of congregations and institutions, and with faithfulness to our commitment to an open itinerancy. Open itinerancy means appointments are made without regard to race, ethnic origin, sex, color, or age, except for the provisions of mandatory retirement. Through appointment-making, the connectional nature of the United Methodist system is made visible.

Par. 412.2 - Both men and women are included in all provisions of the Discipline which refer to the ministry.

Par. 530 - Consultation and Appointment-Making - Consultation is the process whereby the bishop and/or district superintendent confer with the pastor and Pastor-Parish Relations Committee, taking into consideration the criteria of Par. 531, a performance evaluation, needs of the appointment under consideration, and mission of the church. Consultation is not merely notification. Consultation is not committee selection or call of a pastor. Consultation is both a continuing process and a more intense involvement during the period of change in appointment. Consultation is not negotiation or voting upon the appointment of a pastor. It is information sharing and advice to the cabinet and bishop prior to the bishop's fixing the appointment.

Par 532. - Process of Appointment-Making - 1. A change in appointment may be initiated by a pastor, a Pastor-Parish Relations Committee, a district superintendent, or a bishop.

> Pastor-Parish Relations chairpersons and/or pastors are asked to make such requests by using the evaluation form which is required to be sent annually to the district superintendent by January 15th. (See "Timeline for Appointment-Making" - #2.) The Pastor-Parish Relations Committee is to represent the charge in the appointment-making process. The chairperson is the designated officer through whom the charge contacts the district superintendent, and through whom the district superintendent contacts the charge.

Par. 532.2 - The Bishop and the Cabinet shall consider all requests for change of appointment in light of the criteria developed for each charge and the gifts and graces, professional experience, and family needs of the pastor.

Par. 532.3 - When a change in appointment has been determined, the district superintendent should meet together or separately with the pastor and the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee where the pastor is serving, for the purpose of sharing the basis for the change and the process used in making the new appointment.

This meeting will provide the pastor the opportunity, in the presence of the district superintendent, to declare his/her acceptance of the change of appointment, stating his/her reasons for responding to the new opportunity and thereby to facilitate the grief process for the pastor and for the congregation.

Par. 532.4 - All appointments shall receive consideration by the bishop and the district superintendent(s) and the Cabinet as a whole until a tentative decision is made.

We interpret this to mean that all appointments require the participation of the entire Cabinet. This is to insure that all ministers of the Conference are considered whenever there is an opening.

Par. 532.5 - The process used in making the new appointment shall include: a) The district superintendent shall confer with the pastor about a specific possible appointment (charge) and its congruence with gifts, graces, professional experience and expectations, and the family needs of the pastor identified in consultation with the pastor (Par. 531.2).

Only "open" charges (churches) shall be considered by the Cabinet. A charge (church) becomes "open" by virtue of its pastor's retirement, change of appointment, leave of absence, sabbatical leave, disability, location, death or withdrawal from the United Methodist ministry. In certain situations the Cabinet, with the written agreement of the present pastor and the knowledge of the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee, may declare a charge "open" for appointment purposes.

Par. 532.6 - The district superintendent shall confer with the receiving Pastor-Parish Relations Committee about pastoral leadership (Par. 531.1).

Par. 532.7 - When appointments are being made to less than full-time ministry, the district superintendent shall consult with the minister to be appointed and the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee regarding proportional time, salary, and pension credit.

Par. 532.8 - If during this consultative process it is determined by the bishop and Cabinet that this decision should not be carried out, the process is to be repeated until the bishop, basing his/her decision on the information and advice derived from consultation, makes and fixes the appointment.

Par. 532.9 - A similar process of consultation shall be available to persons in appointments beyond the local church.

Par. 532.10 - When the steps in the process have been followed and completed, the announcement of that decision shall be made to all parties directly involved in the consultative process; that is, the appointment Cabinet, the pastor, and the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee (of both charges) before a public announcement is made.

Par. 531 - Criteria - Appointments shall take into account the unique needs of a charge in a particular setting and also the gifts and graces of a particular pastor. To assist bishops, Cabinets, pastors, and congregations to achieve an effective match of charges and pastors, criteria must be developed an analyzed in each instance and then shared with pastors and congregations.

1. Congregations - the district superintendent shall develop with the pastor and Pastor-Parish Relations Committees of all churches profiles reflecting the needs, characteristics, and opportunities for mission of the charge consistent with the church's statement of purpose (Par. 520.1). These profiles shall be reviewed annually and updated when appropriate to include:

   a) The general situation in which a congregation finds itself in a particular setting: size, financial condition, quality of lay leadership, history.

   b) The convictional stance of the congregation: theology; prejudices, if any; spiritual life.

   c) The ministry of the congregation among its people for the sake of the community: service programs, basis for adding new members, reasons for losing members, mission to community and world, forms of witness.

   d) The qualities and functions of pastoral ministry needed to fulfill the mission and goals of the congregation.

2. Pastors - The district superintendent and the pastor shall identify the pastor's gifts, graces, and professional experience and expectations, and also the needs and concerns of the pastor's spouse and family.

   a) Spiritual and personal sensibility: personal faith, call and commitment to ordained ministry, work through the institutional Church, integration of vocation with personal and family well-being, life style.

   b) Academic and career background: nature of theological stance, experience in continuing education, professional experience, record of performance, age.

   c) Skills and abilities in church administration, leadership development, worship, liturgy, preaching and evangelism, teaching and nurturing, counseling and group work, ability to work in cooperation, and ability in self-evaluation, and other relational skills.

   d) Family situation: health and educational needs of the family, and the spouse's career.

Par. 533 - Frequency - While the bishop shall report all pastoral appointments to each regular session of an Annual Conference, appointments to charges may be made at any time deemed advisable by the bishop and Cabinet.

Appointments are considered "fixed" until changed. They are reviewed and reported annually but not "made" annually.

Par. 267.2.f.8 - (The duties of the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee shall include the following:) To confer with the pastor and/or other appointed members of the staff if it should become evident that the best interests of the charge and pastor(s) will be served by a change of pastor(s). The committee shall cooperate with the pastor(s), the district superintendent, and the bishop in securing clergy leadership. Its relationship to the district superintendent and the bishop shall be advisory only.

It is also vital that the committee understand that its relationship to the district superintendent and bishop is advisory only, and that it is to represent the needs of the entire charge. Members of the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee must understand how the itinerant system of The United Methodist Church functions to fulfill their responsibilities faithfully.

Par. 267.2.e - The committee...shall meet only with the knowledge of the pastor and/or the district superintendent. It may meet with the district superintendent without the pastor being present; however, when the pastor is not present, the pastor, or any member of the staff under consideration, shall be informed prior to such a meeting and immediately thereafter be brought into consultation either by the committee or by the district superintendent.

Par. 267.2.f.3 - (The duties of the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee shall include the following:) To evaluate annually the effectiveness of the pastor and staff, based upon criteria, processes, and training developed by the Board of Ordained Ministry and Cabinet (Par. 445), and, where applicable, the Board of Diaconal Ministry.

Par. 445 - Evaluation - Evaluation is a continuous process which must take place in a spirit of understanding, acceptance, and with a genuine desire to embody and carry forth more effectively Christ's ministry in the world lest we create defensiveness and discouragement in the Church or in the person being evaluated. Pastoral effectiveness shall be evaluated annually (Par. 267.2 f 3) by the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee and district superintendent by criteria and processes developed by the Board of Ordained Ministry and the Cabinet. The Board of Ordained Ministry and/or the Cabinet shall conduct an annual training program for Pastor-Parish Relations Committee members to enable them to evaluate the effectiveness of pastors in carrying out the functions of ordained ministry (Pars. 422.1b, 520, 732.2 n, o).

NOTES ON RETIREMENT

Mandatory Retirement - Pastors who attain the age of 70 before July 1 must retire as of July 1 of that year (Par. 453.1).

Voluntary Retirement - Voluntary retirement is available to those who attain the age of 65 or complete 40 Conference years of service before July 1 (Par. 453.2 c).

- Voluntary retirement is also available at a reduced annuity rate to those who attain the age of 62 or complete at least 37 Conference years of service before July 1 (Par. 453.2 b).

- A pastor may also retire after 20 Conference years of service with benefits beginning the first of any month after the session of Annual Conference in the year which the minister attains the age of 62 before July 1 (Par. 453.2 a).

ALL MINISTERS WHO QUALIFY FOR VOLUNTARY RETIREMENT MUST INDICATE IN WRITING BY JANUARY 15 THEIR INTENT TO ACTIVATE THIS OPTION; Otherwise, the Cabinet will assume their continued eligibility for appointment. The annual self-evaluation form may be used for this purpose.

TIMELINE FOR APPOINTMENT-MAKING

1. FALL AND EARLY WINTER: District Superintendents make an informal inventory and evaluation of their charges (churches) and pastors, including a review of the criteria (Par. 531). They are available for consultation (Par. 530) with Pastor-Parish Relations Committees and pastors, and , in some instances, may initiate such contacts. The official contact person for the charge is the chairperson of the charge Pastor-Parish Relations Committee.

2. JANUARY 15: DEADLINE FOR REQUESTS for change of appointment, including retirement. By January 15, Pastor-Parish Relations chairpersons and/or pastors are asked to make their requests and recommendations to the Cabinet by using the annual evaluation form. The reason(s) a change appears to be desirable shall be included (Par. 267.2 f 8). Initiating a request for change is not to be interpreted as an automatic guarantee that a change will be made. All requests will be treated with integrity by the bishop and Cabinet (Par. 532.1). Persons planning retirement must also observe the above date. Notification of intention to retire must be in writing. (See "Notes on Retirement").

3. FEBRUARY: Cabinet needs to begin the appointment-making process. Requests for change will be carefully reviewed. When neither the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee nor the pastor has made a request, the Cabinet, however, has the prerogative of initiating changes of appointment which are deemed to be for the good of the charges or the pastors or the program and missional strategy of the Conference.

   a) "Open" charges (churches) will be determined, (see commentary under Par. 532.5) and the district superintendent will meet with the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee to gather all available data about the charge and its pastoral needs (Pars. 531 & 532.2) and present pastoral support including parsonage compliance with Conference policies.

   b) The Cabinet determines which available pastor best fits the needs of the charge (Par. 532.2). Note: The present pastor is to remain neutral in all appointment proceedings concerning his/her successor.

   c) The district superintendent of the "open" charge contacts the prospective pastor and consults with him/her, supplying essential data and information about the "open" charge, community setting and time frame for the prospective pastor's response.

d) When the pastor-designate is determined, the district superintendent then contacts the chairperson of the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee of the "open" charge and arranges a time for the pastor-designate and the committee to meet. This meeting is an introduction of and to the pastor-designate and not an interview. The district superintendent will preside at this meeting.

The purpose of the meeting is:

1. To aid the district superintendent and the Cabinet, through consultation, in their responsibility to the appointment process.

2. To verify the appropriateness of the proposed appointment, matching local needs and pastoral aptitudes.

3. To initiate the process of getting acquainted with the pastor-designate.

4. To arrange for the moving and receiving of the pastor-designate and his/her family.

The district superintendent will bring the meeting to a close with an appropriate summary of his/her insights and understandings. It is understood that barring prohibiting factors which may become apparent in the conversation with the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee, the pastor-designate will be appointed to the "open" charge.

e) When the results of the meeting have been shared with the Cabinet and the appointment has been fixed by the bishop, public announcements shall be arranged through the office of the district superintendent (Par. 532.1Ø).

NOTE: The meeting of the pastor-designate with the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee may not always be possible for pastors receiving their first appointment following seminary.

4. FEBRUARY - MAY: Using the above process, the Cabinet will arrange for the appointments to be reported to the Annual Conferences (Par. 532.1Ø). The list of appointments will be published in the Conference paper prior to the Annual Conference session, and publicly announced at the Annual Conference session along with additional changes and corrections.

5. JULY 1: Changes of appointment become effective.

6. POST-CONFERENCE: The district superintendent will meet with the new pastor and the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee for post-Conference role clarification to help facilitate the new shared ministry of charge and pastor. This meeting will be held at a mutually agreeable time.

7. DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENT AVAILABILITY: The district superintendent is available to Pastor-Parish Relations Committees and pastors for consultation at any time it is deemed appropriate.

Others may want to take this route and we outline here the steps involved in case you may not be aware of the procedure.

(1) All salary and conference apportionments are removed.
(2) The church drops out of the listing of churches to which pastors are assigned. (We urge the conference to begin a listing of such churches in the journal with the charge conference where they are to report each year. This will allow for proper records and constitutes the historic continuity of these churches.)
(3) The only services to be held are weddings, funerals, or special occasions.
(4) One or more special services a year may be held with the offering received to be used for the upkeep of the building.
(5) The remaining members are transferred to a nearby United Methodist Church for regular worship and church involvement.

(6) The remaining members become a special committee under the charge conference to plan with the pastor for weddings, funerals, and special days. They also present a written report each year as to services held, money received and how expended, etc.

(7) This allows the possibility that should population shifts bring people into the area we would simply resume regular services.

VII. Business of the Annual Conference
A. Daily Proceedings

SPECIAL SESSION

SATURDAY - NOVEMBER 23, 1985

The special session was convened by Bishop Joseph H. Yeakel in Room 206 of the duPont College Center, Wesley College, at 12:30 P.M. Bishop Yeakel recognized the Rev. Dr. W. Daniel Rich, Conference Secretary, who offered the following organizational motion:

> I move that the Rules of Order be those on pages 440-442 of the 1984 Conference Journal and that the attendance be taken on pads provided by the ushers.

The motion was duly seconded and approved by the Conference.

The opening devotions were led by the Rev. Dr. C. Edwin Lasbury and the Rev. Vaughn A. Johnson.

Bishop Yeakel clarified the fact that a special session can be called only to deal with one item and that item exclusively. He quoted from THE BOOK OF DISCIPLINE:

> "4. A special session of the Annual Conference may be held at such time and in such place as shall have been determined by the Annual Conference after consultation with the bishop, or by the bishop, with the concurrence of three-fourths of the district superintendents. A special session of the Annual Conference shall have only such powers as are stated in the call." (Par. 702.4)

Bishop Yeakel presented the following resolution relating to the Drayton Manor property, which resolution had been approved by the Council on Ministries earlier in the day:

> WHEREAS, The Peninsula Annual Conference has given the Drayton Manor Board of Directors a mandate to develop its program and effectiveness and to secure a firm financial base; and
> WHEREAS, The Board of Directors of Drayton Manor is unanimously convinced that a strip of land located on the north side of Cooper's Lane and on the south side of Stillpond Creek (consisting of 12.96 acres) has no value to the present or future programmatic development of Drayton Manor; and
> WHEREAS, The sale of these 12.96 acres would provide substantial income to the Drayton Board of Directors without jeopardizing the monies received from the sale of such property, since the same would be invested in the Drayton Endowment Fund,
> THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that The Peninsula Annual Conference gives approval to the Drayton Manor Board of Directors to proceed with negotiations with the intent to sell 12.96 acres of property which are located on the north side of Cooper's Lane and on the south side of Stillpond Creek. The proceeds from these sales are to be added to the Drayton Manor Endowment Fund.

In the interests of refinement, Bishop Yeakel suggested that the final paragraph be revised so as to read:

> THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that The Peninsula Annual Conference gives approval to the Drayton Manor Board of Directors to proceed with negotiations with the intent to sell 12.96 acres of property which are located on the north side of Cooper's Lane and on the south side of Stillpond Creek, and that the appropriate boards be authorized to sell and convey the same. The proceeds from this sale or sales shall be added to the Drayton Manor Endowment Fund.

Bishop Yeakel then summoned the Rev. Dr. Robert P. Whitlock, chairperson of the Drayton Task Force, who reviewed the Conference mandate to develop a vital and viable program at Drayton and an adequate financial base within a three-year period. Dr. Whitlock applauded the efforts of the members of the Task Force who have invested approximately fifty hours of their time since its inception following the 1985 Annual Conference. He also stated that if present plans materialize, the Board of Directors of Drayton will no longer need a subsidy from the Conference in order to operate the Retreat Center.

At present, the following working committees are functioning:

A. Program
B. Property
C. Finance
D. Marketing

More aggressive, creative marketing is called for, as well as better utilization of the existing land (nature paths, meditation centers, etc.) There is also a need to build up the Endowment Fund for additional income.

Dr. Whitlock clarified the fact that some 34 acres of land would remain after the proposed sale of 12.96 acres. The Drayton Board of Directors recommends this action for two primary reasons:

A. The land is not needed for any programmatic purpose.

B. Such a sale might bring as much as $325,000.00, which would produce an income of approximately $30,000.00 a year. This would eliminate the need for any subsidy from the Annual Conference.

Dr. Whitlock also stated that this plan does not jeopardize any Peninsula Conference holdings, even if Drayton were to be sold in a few years. Aggressive action is needed, he said, in order to fulfill the Conference mandate. Two factors dictate the need for haste:

A. Lots across the road are presently being sold.

B. Restrictive legislation regarding density of population as it relates to the sale of waterfront property is presently being considered.

A number of questions for information were raised from the floor:

A. What is the appraised value of the property in question?

The range given was $300,000.00 - $325,000.00.

B. What is being done to improve the marketing of Drayton?

More funds will be invested in this critical area; more diversity of programming is being envisioned (couples, intergenerational, boards and agencies, Districts, singles, Retreats, Councils on Ministries, etc.) Different publicity pieces will be developed for different needs.

C. Would selling the property in question mean that the quietude of Drayton would be threatened?

Noise should not be a problem.

At this point, the question was put on the revised resolution. The vote was taken and the revised resolution approved by the Conference, authorizing the Drayton Board of Directors to proceed with the sale of 12.96 acreas of property.

There being no further business, Bishop Joseph H. Yeakel adjourned the special session at 1:5Ø P.M.

REGULAR SESSION

TUESDAY MORNING - MAY 20, 1986

Executive Session - At 10:00 A.M. Bishop Joseph H. Yeakel convened the Executive Session in the Wesley College Center (Room 206). The opening worship was led by the Rev. Dr. Bruce E. Cooke, chairperson of the Board of Ordained Ministry, and the Rev. Charlotte A. Nichols, vice-chairperson of the Board.

Bishop Yeakel then interpreted the General Conference mandate concerning the holding of executive sessions and clarified that such gatherings were for Elders in Full Connection only. All other clergy, lay members, guests, and visitors were asked to leave the room.

Dr. Cooke then proceeded to present the Board's report entitled "Part II, Pertaining to Ministerial Relations." The first question in the report (#17) asks: "Are all the ministerial members of the Conference blameless in their life and official administration?" The stated response of the Board was: "...we find the overall response to be that the life and administration of the ministers of this Conference is of a superior quality." Bishop Yeakel recognized the Rev. William Hemphill, Jr. who moved that the word "superior" be changed to "satisfactory." The motion was seconded and approved.

Bishop Yeakel then recognized the Rev. Howell O. Wilkins who moved that associate members/local pastors be invited to attend the Executive Session with voice but without vote. The motion was seconded by the Rev. Donald E. Hamilton and approved by those present.

Bishop Yeakel then recognized the Rev. Dr. Dilio E. Mariotti who moved that this privilege also be extended to Probationary Members/Deacons. The motion was seconded but defeated.

Bishop Yeakel then directed the attention of the session to questions #31 and #38, pertaining to those persons being presented to the Annual Conference for approval as full members and ordination as Elders. The following were introduced separately and interviewed by the body as to their journey of faith:

Debra Elizabeth Hudgins
George Nolan Leathrum
Glenn Howard Lyburn
Paul David Marlowe, Jr.
Tina Marie Miles
Paul Alvin Owens
Alexander Leon Slonin, Jr.
Louis Alvin Timmons
William Thompson Wallace

Each of these persons was voted on separately and approved by at least a two-thirds majority of those present.

Bishop Yeakel then directed the session's attention to questions #28 and #37, pertaining to those persons being presented to the Annual Conference for approval as probationary members and ordination as Deacons. The following were introduced together but interviewed separately as to their call to ministry:

Harold Artis Bolyard, Jr.
Karen Frances Bunnell
Palmer Saunders Clark, Jr.
Patti Frances Collett
James Woodrow Davis
James Cortney Faltot
Clyde Herbert Knotts
Eleanor Nash Laws
Oscar Manuel Lopez
Constance Roland Metzger
Mae Etta Moore
Sandra Lynn Steiner
David Brian Zlonkevicz

Each of these persons was voted on separately and approved by at least a two-thirds majority of those present.

Bishop Yeakel then directed the session's attention to question #32, pertaining to persons requesting reinstatement. Harry Alton Patterson, III was presented and interviewed by the body. The session then voted to reinstate him as a probationary member and restore his Deacon's Orders, which had been originally granted in 1976 and surrendered in 1979.

Bishop Yeakel then directed the attention of the session to question #30b, pertaining to persons requesting transfer from another denomination. Theodore Eric Day, a minister of the Lutheran Church in America, was presented and interviewed by the body. He was then approved as a probationary member with the recognition of his Elder's Orders.

Bishop Yeakel then led the session through the remainder of the Board of Ordained Ministry's report and the entire report was approved by the body. The complete report can be found in the Journal under Part II of the Disciplinary Questions.

The Executive Session was adjourned by Bishop Yeakel at 12:15 P.M.

TUESDAY EVENING - MAY 20, 1986

Bishop Yeakel convened the forty-seventh session of the Peninsula Annual Conference at 7:00 P.M. in the Humanities Building at Delaware State College, inviting the Conference to join in singing "And Are We Yet Alive!"

ORGANIZATIONAL AND PROCEDURAL MOTION: Bishop Yeakel called on the Conference Secretary, Dr. W. Daniel Rich, who moved that:

A. The bar of the Conference include the seating on the main floor of the auditorium, excluding the galleries.

B. The printed program be the program of the Conference subject to necessary changes.

C. The roll call be taken by all members signing cards to be turned in at the registration desk at the time of registration or, if late, registering with an usher or an assistant secretary.

D. Charges with only one Lay Member have the name of the Reserve Member typed on one side of the badge with the name of the Lay Member, so that when the Lay Member cannot attend the session, he/she will be responsible to see that the Reserve Member receives the badge.

E. Charges with more than one Lay Member will not have any Reserve Member's name typed on the same badge with the Lay Member's name. When a Reserve Member is to take the place of a Lay Member, the badge for the Lay Member will be brought to the registration desk. The attendant there will hold the Lay Member's badge and type another badge for the Reserve Member. Before the Lay Member can go back into the session the Reserve Member's badge must be returned.

F. The Secretary send greetings to all members not able to attend the Conference Sessions on report of such cases by the District Superintendent.

G. Members be excused from sessions upon report to the Superintendent or Secretary.

H. The Conference minutes be made the Official Journal of the Conference and the Secretary be authorized to edit and condense the same.

I. The Rev. Joseph G. Burris be appointed chairperson of the Committee on Daily Proceedings.

J. The Boards, Divisions, Commissions, and Committees as printed in the Journal become the Boards, Divisions, Commissions, and Committees of the Conference, with such corrections as may be needed.

K. All motions be presented to the Secretary on forms provided for this purpose prior to or at the time they are presented to the Conference. Forms will be found on the Secretary's desk and are also in the hands of the ushers.

L. Resolutions not appearing the Pre-Conference Booklet be in the hands of the Secretary by Noon on Wednesday. Copies sufficient for distribution to the Conference must be submitted.

RECOGNITION OF RETIRING CLERGY: Bishop Yeakel recognized the following persons who had been granted the retired relationship:

William Thomas Archer, Jr.
Dallas Wilson Butler
George Oliver Commodore
George Wayne Cuff (effective December 31, 1986)
Edgar Nathaniel Dennis
Wallace Linwood Green, Sr.
William Henry Hudson
Lewis Russell Jones
Brooks Edward Reynolds
Kyle Newton Smith
George L. Stanley
John Edwin Taylor

Each of these pastors was personally congratulated by the Bishop and given a Certificate of Appreciation for their respective years of service. The Conference affirmed their aggregate ministry with a standing ovation.

NOMINATING COMMITTEE REPORT: Bishop Yeakel recognized the Rev. Ewart C. Hackshaw, chairperson of the Nominating Committee, who presented the report of the committee for study by the Conference prior to its being officially adopted later in the session.

DISTRIBUTION OF APPOINTMENTS: After the appointment list was distributed, Bishop Yeakel led the Conference through the booklet, making corrections and adjustments to its contents. He stated that some appointments still need to be made and that appointments in general can be changed at any time.

TRANSFERS: Bishop Yeakel announced the following transfers into the Peninsula Conference as of July 1, 1986:

G. Kim Gilson from the Eastern Pennsylvania Conference
Maceo Williams from the Baltimore Conference

POINTS OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE: Bishop Yeakel recognized the Rev. Dr. C. Edwin Lasbury, Wilmington District Superintendent, who in turn, introduced Madeline Dennis, widow of the Rev. Louis Dennis, who served as a missionary to China before retiring at the Methodist Country House. The Bishop then recognized the Rev. Garry O. Parker who introduced Mr. K. T. Turner from the Methodist Church in Sierra Leone. Mr. Turner was to address the Conference on Wednesday as part of the REACH presentation.

EUCHARIST/MEMORIAL SERVICE: The service was held in the auditorium of the Humanities Building, Delaware State College, beginning at 8:00 P.M. The celebrant and preacher was Bishop Joseph H. Yeakel. Assisting him were District Superintendents, Dr. Edwin L. Ellis, the Rev. Ewart C. Hackshaw, Dr. C. Edwin Lasbury, and the Rev. Howell O. Wilkins. The servers consisted of a cadre of Conference clergy.

The lives of the following clergy, spouses, and lay members who had died since the last Conference were duly commemorated:

	Hattie H. Whedbee

WEDNESDAY MORNING - MAY 21, 1986

MORNING WORSHIP was led by Ms. Judy Loehr, Director of Music and Fine Arts, Coral Gables United Methodist Church, Coral Gables, Florida. The opening hymn was "Christ, Whose Glory Fills the Skies."

STATE OF THE CHURCH ADDRESS: Bishop Yeakel delivered a compelling and inspiring address dealing with the Conference theme, "Catch the Spirit!"

I. Catch the Spirit of peace-making. Peace is a spiritual issue, requiring a massive educational effort and the use of all spiritual disciplines. Bishop Yeakel shared the pastoral letter, written by the Council of Bishops, entitled "In Defense of Creation: the Nuclear Crisis and a Just Peace." Reflecting on the recent nuclear meltdown in the Soviet Union, we have some hint as to what nuclear war and a nuclear winter would be like. We must pray without ceasing for peace in our time. Bishop Yeakel asked all clergy to read the pastoral letter in their churches on September 14, 1986, to gear up for the study of the foundation document as well as the scriptures, and to use the available A-V resources in this regard. Let us Catch the Spirit of what it means to be citizens of Shalom, peace-makers, and followers of the Prince of Peace.

II. Catch the Spirit of evangelism. A recent Gallup poll indicates that more and more people are open to the church as an institution. Times have begun to shift; now is the time to offer the gospel to the world as we attempt to double our membership by 1992. Are we ready and willing to minister at close range to the persons who live within our parish areas?

Diversity and conflict can become strengths and lay the foundation for church growth. Excellence of program in the local church opens the doors for people to come to faith. We need specific targets of church growth to shoot at!

III. Catch the Spirit of the missional priority. There are more EMLC churches in the Washington Area then in any other area of the United Methodist Church. Our goal must be to make the Missional Priority obsolete! Bishop Yeakel recommitted himself to the work of the Task Force on Interracial Appointments, but he cautioned against making this group the panacea for all of our concerns. He also spoke of the difficulty of making significant cross-racial appointments without diminishing the calibre of leadership in the predominantly minority churches.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE: The Rev. Dr. Edwin L. Ellis was recognized by Bishop Yeakel. Dr. Ellis introduced Mrs. Lois Yeakel to the Conference and asked the Rev. Dr. C. Edwin Lasbury to present her with a corsage. The Conference greeted her with warm applause.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE: Bishop Yeakel recognized the Rev. William Hemphill, Jr., who presented the following Resolution:

WHEREAS, The Bishops of the United Methodist Church are not only our chief administrators but also our spiritual leaders and teachers; and

WHEREAS, The Council of Bishops at its April 27 - May 2 meeting in Morristown, New Jersey, unanimously adopted its pastoral statement, "In Defense of Creation", along with a 30,000-word foundation document, both of which are the result of two years of serious study, public hearings, dialogue and prayer during which the statement has been revised several times before receiving final approval by all of the bishops; and
WHEREAS, Our presiding Bishop, Joseph H. Yeakel, has read the pastoral statement, "In Defense of Creation", to the members of the Peninsula Annual Conference meeting in session in Dover, Delaware, May 20-22, 1986,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the four-page pastoral letter "In Defense of Creation", and the foundation document be commended to every local church in the Peninsula Annual Conference for serious study and discussion for at least the remainder of this quadrennium, not as policy statements for United Methodists but as the convictions of the General Superintendents of the Church offered to us for reflection and guidance in the light of Biblical and theological teachings as they relate to nuclear crisis, a just peace, and human survival; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we express appreciation to our Council of Bishops for the bold and prophetic leadership demonstrated in the careful way this statement has been prepared so that the Council can address both the church and the nation on this most urgent issue for us all; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we, the Clergy and Lay members of this Conference, commit ourselves to assuring that the pastoral letter be read to our congregations on September 14, 1986, and that plans be made for the study of these documents as soon as possible.

The resolution was seconded by Dr. Terry W. Armstrong and approved by the Conference.

ORDER OF THE DAY: FORTIETH ANNIVERSARY OF CAMP PECOMETH: Bishop Yeakel recognized the Rev. Dr. Willard L. Robinson, Jr., who spoke of a diversified camping ministry with all ages as occurring at Camp Pecometh. Highlights included the weekly Galilean services and the offerings for world hunger made by all campers. Under Phase I of the development plan, Dr. Robinson said that a number of trees had been planted as a buffer zone and that the new administration building had been dedicated last summer. Phase II will include a new Girls Village and a new lodge. A feasibility plan with regard to financing this phase is presently underway.

Bishop Yeakel welcomed the Rev. Joseph G. Burris to the stage. Mr. Burris presented the three winning posters in the poster contest along with their makers. Each of the youth received a campership, T-shirt and a certificate, and Bishop Yeakel shook hands with each one. Dr. Robinson then presented a "Pecometh Collage" to Bishop Yeakel. The emphasis was concluded with a slide presentation depicting the forty-year history of the camp and narrated by the Rev. Dr. John W. Simpers, Jr., Camp Director. His touchstone was the folk song, "It only takes a spark to get a fire going!"

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE: Bishop Yeakel recognized the Rev. Dr. J. Gordon Stapleton who stated that John W. Simpers, Jr. had recently received his Doctor of Ministry Degree from Drew University Theological School. His dissertation concerned the involvement of ethnic minority persons in church camping.

ORDER OF THE DAY: WESLEY COLLEGE CORPORATE SESSION: Thomas C. Roe, President of the Board of Trustees, introduced the Rev. Dr. Edwin C. Thomas, Jr., chairperson of the Nominating Committee, who submitted the following nominations to the Conference:

Class of 1990

Mrs. Lillian Burris
Dr. George V. Kirk
The Rev. William H. Revelle
The Rev. Dr. Edward R. Wilkins

It was noted that the total number of members on the Board is being reduced to promote maximum Trustee effectiveness. The above nominations were approved by vote of the Conference.

Bishop Yeakel recognized President Reed M. Stewart who stated that Wesley continues to thrive and grow. Dr. Stewart introduced Dr. Youngblood, the new Dean of the College, who spoke with eloquence of the role and importance of the small, church-related college. She said that Wesley presently serves some 1,500 students and that an increasing number of four-year degrees is being offered.

Dr. Stewart asked for the Conference's continuing support of the following college programs which relate to the church:

A. Chaplaincy
B. Scholarships
C. Special Programs

He then introduced the college chaplain, the Rev. Dr. Robert M. Price, who asked that we all attempt to close the distance between the church and the college. Following his remarks, Mr. Roe adjourned the Corporate Session.

BALTIMORE CONFERENCE CABINET: Bishop Yeakel welcomed the members of the Baltimore Conference Cabinet who were in attendance. Because they were seated in the last row of the balcony he did not ask them to come to the stage.

HUNGER EMPHASIS: Marie Brown, speaking on behalf of the Hunger Task Force, asked the Conference members to use the "Fish Bank" in the packet for contributions to fight hunger during the course of the Conference.

RECOGNITION OF CHAPLAINS: Bishop Yeakel recognized the Rev. Joseph G. Burris, president of the Chaplains' Association, who in turn, asked all the chaplains present to stand and be recognized. The Conference affirmed them with applause.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE: Bishop Yeakel recognized the Rev. Raymond T. Hopkins, III, who introduced the Rev. William Bailey, of the United Methodist Reporter, Dallas, Texas. Mr. Bailey was to hold an open forum on Wednesday afternoon to entertain questions and comments concerning the United Methodist Reporter or any other aspect of church journalism.

ORDER OF THE DAY: The Rev. Dr. Gilbert H. Caldwell, Associate General Secretary of the Commission on Religion and Race. Dr. Caldwell gave an inspiring and helpful address on the Conference theme, "Catch the Spirit!"

Following his address the Conference stood adjourned until 1:45 P.M.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON - MAY 21, 1986

Bishop Yeakel called the afternoon session to order at 1:45 P.M. in the auditorium of the Central Middle School, Dover, Delaware. The Rev. Susan Keirn Kester, Associate Council Director for Communications, presented a brief slide program on the varied ministries of the churches of the Conference.

ORDER OF THE DAY: MISSIONAL PRIORITY COORDINATING COMMITTEE: Bishop Yeakel called on the Rev. Vaughn A. Johnson, Associate Council Director, to lead this emphasis. The Conference was led in a very meaningful worship celebration by Mr. Johnson, assisted by the following clergy:

The Rev. Janet Harmon
The Rev. Grant Johnson
The Rev. Victoria Martinez
The Rev. Tina Miles

The guest preacher was the Rev. Dr. Justo Gonzalez, a United Methodist presently serving as the Associate Director of the Presbyterian Center for Hunger, Atlanta, Georgia. His sermon, based on the story of Jonah, concerrned "the wideness of God's mercy" and the call to the church to be inclusive.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEDGE: Bishop Yeakel recognized the Rev. Thomas Crawford Short, senior pastor of Aldersgate United Methodist Church, who presented the following resolution:

POWRIE RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, Robert and Alice Powrie have given leadership and service to the Peninsula Annual Conference through many years of service; and

WHEREAS, Alice Powrie has served as President of the Peninsula Conference United Methodist Women; and

WHEREAS, Robert Powrie has served as Chairperson of the Building Committee which built the Peninsula Conference Office Building; and

WHEREAS, Alice Powrie has served as one of our elected members to the Jurisdictional and General Conferences; and

WHEREAS, Robert Powrie served as the Chairperson of the Peninsula Conference Pension Crusade; and

WHEREAS, Alice Powrie has served on the General Church Council on Ministries; and

WHEREAS, Robert and Alice Powrie will be moving outside the bounds of the Peninsula Conference,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the members of this 47th Session of the Peninsula Annual Conference meeting in Dover, Delaware, in May of 1986, give a rising expression of thanks to Robert and Alice Powrie who have served Christ and His Church so unselfishly in our midst.

The resolution was seconded and approved by the Conference, whereupon the Powries were summoned to the stage and given a standing ovation by all present. Bishop Yeakel greeted them warmly and commended them for their unselfish and faithful service.

THEOLOGICAL EDUCATION AND THE M. E. F.: Bishop Yeakel introduced Dr. Douglas Lewis, President of Wesley Theological Seminary. Dr. Lewis greeted the Conference on behalf of the thirteen United Methodist seminaries in the United States which presently serve some 5,000 students. He spoke in support of the Ministerial Education Fund and appplauded the Peninsula Annual Conference for always paying 100% of its asking.

BOARD OF DIACONAL MINISTRY: Bishop Yeakel introduced Ms. Olive A. Cook, registrar of the Board, who presented the following report:

Peace

The Conference received the report with applause and gratitude to the Cabinet. The full text may be found in the "Reports" section of this Journal.

ORDER OF THE DAY: REACH: Bishop Yeakel summoned the Rev. Robert O. Wallace, chairperson, and others concerned with REACH to the stage. The Rev. Garry O. Parker introduced Mr. K. T. Turner from the Methodist Church in Sierra Leone who spoke of the impact REACH had had in his country and asked for continued support and cooperation.

The Rev. Vaughn Johnson, staff advisor for the program, described the "Angie Myles Support Committee" and how it had helped REACH regain its momentum. Bishop Yeakel then led a brief commissioning service for Curt Knepp, a paramedic, and Judith Kraut, an RN, who were going to Sierra Leone this summer to train persons in health services.

The Rev. Robert Otchere stated that both he and James Karmbor had just received their M. Div.'s from Wesley Seminary and that REACH had played a significant role in their achievement. On behalf of both of them, he thanked REACH for its financial and spiritual support. Bishop Yeakel offered prayer and the Conference sang "A Charge to Keep I Have" and "Oh, How I Love Jesus."

UNITED METHODIST PUBLISHING HOUSE: Bishop Yeakel recognized Mr. W. M. Birchard, Manager of the Cokesbury Store in Baltimore, who presented a check in the amount of $10,562.46 from the Board of Publication to be used for ministerial pensions within the Peninsula Annual Conference. On behalf of the Conference, Bishop Yeakel expressed profuse thanks to Mr. Birchard and the Board of Publication for their generosity.

NOMINATING COMMITTEE REPORT: Bishop Yeakel summoned the Rev. Ewart C. Hackshaw, chair, to preside over the perfecting of the report. After additions, deletions, and corrections had been made by the body, the report was approved in its entirety. In the Journal, it may be found under the heading "IV. BOARDS, DIVISIONS, COMMISSIONS, AND COMMITTEES."

INTRODUCTION: Bishop Yeakel acknowledged the presence of Susanne Paul, Executive Secretary for Advocacy Education, Health and Welfare Ministries, General Board of Global Ministries. She was greeted by the Conference with applause.

STUDY AND REVIEW SECTION NUMBER 1

Bishop Yeakel summoned the Rev. Gonzalee Matthews and the Rev. Cynthia Koski, section leaders, who presented the following report:

A RESOLUTION ON CIVIL RIGHTS
Board of Church and Society

WHEREAS, social and economic justice are earmarks of a democratic society; and

WHEREAS, the fundamental principles of civil rights and the meaning of equality are being challenged; and

WHEREAS, The Civil Rights Restoration Act of 1985 is stalemated by unrelated amendments,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Peninsula Annual Conference urges the immediate passage of HR 700, an amendment to Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, without the abortion amendment or any other unrelated amendment.

We support the Civil Rights Restoration Act because it embodies the national commitment that federal funds will not aid any institution which denies full participation in its benefits to any person on the basis of race, sex, age, or handicap.

We believe that the government of a democracy must be founded on justice for all. We further emphasize civil and human rights as a commitment for all Christians.

By a vote of 61 For, 17 Against, and 3 Abstentions, the section voted to table the above resolution. The Conference concurred.

A RESOLUTION ON WORLD PEACE
Board of Church and Society

WHEREAS, war has been a way of life for so many people; and

WHEREAS, so many people today live in fear of a third general war; and

WHEREAS, weapons of war have become capable of the annihilation of whole populations and destructive of life on earth; and

WHEREAS, human life is sacred and worthy of protection; and

WHEREAS, peace will be achieved only by the intentional effort of human beings; and

WHEREAS, the church is an institution of the Prince of Peace,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Peninsula Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church in session May 20-22, 1986, hereby directs the various boards, agencies, and branches of its organization to creatively devise and carry out programs that will convey information about the issue of world peace within our own denomination, and ecumenically in cooperation with others, and influence leaders of other institutions of society to do the same unilaterally or in conjunction with the church; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the said Peninsula Annual Conference implore the leaders and agencies at the General level of the Church to creatively plan and initiate a program throughout the church that will make us a people informed about the issue of world peace and committed to the creation and support of a world climate conducive to peace; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the said Peninsula Annual Conference implore the leaders and agencies at the General level of the Church to creatively devise and carry out efforts to influence world leaders in other institutions of society, such as government, military, commerce, religion, education, the arts, etc., to also plan creatively and carry out programs that will establish a climate conducive to peace in the world.

By a vote of 81 For, 5 Against, and Ø Abstentions, the section voted to approve the above resolution with one alteration - change the word "unilaterally" to "individually" in the first paragraph. The Conference concurred.

A RESOLUTION ON NUCLEAR ENERGY
Board of Church and Society

WHEREAS, God, through his creations, has placed many forms of energy at the disposal of the human race; and

WHEREAS, there are risks in the use of nuclear energy; these come about because of the danger of accident, disposal of waste material, and the possibility that products or by-products may be converted into weapons; and

WHEREAS, as present law limits the liability of the nuclear industry and the Federal Government for accidents; and

WHEREAS, the present law should be modified to provide for fair compensation to any victim of a nuclear accident, with the primary liability being shouldered by the corporation and not the nation's taxpayers; and

WHEREAS, the Stafford Bill, S1761, and the Metzenbaum Bill, S2072, provide for these changes,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Peninsula Annual Conference expresses its support for these bills and directs the Bishop to convey this message to the Maryland and Delaware congressional delegations; further, local church Administrative Boards and members are urged to express their support of this legislation to their congressional representatives.

By a vote of 60 For, 16 Against, and 10 Abstentions, the section voted to table the above resolution. The Conference concurred.

A RESOLUTION ON PRISON REFORM
Board of Church and Society

WHEREAS, there is an enormous expense to taxpayers for the incarceration of criminals in prisons; and

WHEREAS, perpetrators of non-violent crimes cost as much to house in prison as those guilty of violent crimes; and

WHEREAS, the victims of non-violent crimes often are able to recover nothing of their losses,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Peninsula Annnual Conference calls for the appropriate officials in the states of Maryland and Delaware to develop programs whereby criminals convicted of non-violent crimes for the first and second times would be able to serve their sentences in some context outside of prison in which they could earn and would be required to make full restitution to their victims.

By a vote of 82 For, 3 Against, and 3 Abstentions, the section voted to approve the above resolution. The Conference concurred.

A RESOLUTION CONCERNING THE NUCLEAR ARMS RACE
Board of Church and Society

WHEREAS, Jesus has challenged us to be peacemakers in the world; and

WHEREAS, we as United Methodists condemn the production, possession, or use of nuclear weapons; and

WHEREAS, it is the responsibility of governments to develop sound fiscal policies to provide for their citizens and developing nuclear weapons provides no return for money spent; and

WHEREAS, despite continual overtures towards curbing the race for nuclear superiority, both the United States and the USSR have not slowed down; and

WHEREAS, if peace is ever to be a reality, one superpower must take the initiative in slowing nuclear weapons production,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Clergy and Lay members of the Peninsula Annual Conference urge our legislative leaders to take the first step in the process of slowing nuclear weapons production/stockpiling, through supporting the test ban treaty, the nuclear freeze, and any other measures with the end goal of establishing peace in the world.

By a vote of 74 For, 5 Against, and 5 Abstentions, the section voted to approve the above resolution.

Bishop Yeakel recognized James Baxter who moved to amend the resolution by striking the words "to provide for its citizens" in the third "Whereas." The motion was seconded but defeated by a vote of 66 For and 177 Against. The Conference then concurred with the section's action on this resolution.

A RESOLUTION ON NICARAGUA
Board of Church and Society

WHEREAS, the teachings of Christ would lead us to find solutions other than that of military force to the political problems of the world; and

WHEREAS, the Social Principles of the United Methodist Church, which are founded upon these Christian principles, oppose military solutions or intervention; and

WHEREAS, our NATO allies, the contradora group (which is commprised of five Central American nations and eight Latin American nations) have opposed our policy of military aid to the contras in Nicaragua; and

WHEREAS, this policy may lead us into an unnecessary direct military involvement as we experienced in Vietnam,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Peninsula Conference be on record as opposed to any military aid to the contras and that we encourage all United Methodists to express their concern to their appropriate congressional representatives; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we encourage our government to use all of its political and diplomatic resources to achieve a peaceful resolution of the conflict.

By a vote of 78 For, 3 Against, and 7 Abstentions, the section voted to approve the above resolution with the following amendments:

That the last paragraph be deleted and replaced by the following sentences: "We encourage all governments to use all political and diplomatic resources to achieve a peaceful resolution of the conflict in Nicaragua. We strongly advocate that the United States, the Soviet Union, and other nations immediately cease supplying arms and taking other acts of military intervention in Nicaragua".

That the words "as we experienced in Vietnam" be deleted from the fourth "WHEREAS."

That "contradora" be changed to Contadora" in the third "WHEREAS."

A RESOLUTION ON APARTHEID
Board of Church and Society

WHEREAS, We reaffirm the position of the United Methodist Church as expressed in the 1984 General Conference Book of Resolutions pages 410-412 recommending that we:

A. Reject as heresy any attempts to justify apartheid as an expression of biblical tradition.

B. Support the Namibian and South African persons, churches, movements, and institutions which take courageous stands against apartheid.

C. Support the contributions of the Council of Churches in Namibia (CCCN), the South African Council of Churches (SACC) for the prophetic role they play in Southern Africa and the world.

D. Support the courageous position of the Christian churches in South Africa in denouncing the continued forced removal and relocation of the Africans in South Africa. We further urge wide dissemination of available documentation from the South Africa Council of Churches and the Southern African Catholic Bishops Conference through the denomination.

E. Pray for and support Namibian and South African political prisoners, their families, and all who are oppressed by the apartheid regime.

F. Support the creative role of trade unions in the struggle of South Africans for their liberation and support the right of Namibian and South African workers to organize into unions of their own choosing and to bargain collectively over wages, hours, and conditions of employment, free from government harassment.

G. Encourage study and financial support for the Special Fund of the World Council of Churches (WCC) Program to Combat Racism.

H. Encourage United Methodists and United Methodist agencies and institutions to join with others in their communities to:

1. Close accounts with and withdraw funds from banks and divest from corporations doing business in South Africa.

2. Urge United Methodists and United Methodist agencies and institutions to pressure their governments, to support United Nations sanctions against South Africa and end any collaboration with South Africa by:

   a. Opposing expanded participation of corporations in the South African economy especially such involvement which enables more efficient police oppression (through computerization) or which promotes the "homelands" policy; and

WHEREAS, we wish to commend those persons of the Annual Conference, Clergy, and Laity, who have participated in civil disobedience activities opposing the sinful system of apartheid in South Africa; and

WHEREAS, we strongly oppose the Internal Security Act, passed by the South African government in 1982 which enables:

A. Indefinite incommunicado detention without charge or trail.

B. The outlawing of any organization alleged to be threatening to public safety or order.

C. The prohibition of the printing, publication, or dissemination of any periodical or any other publication.

D. The prohibition of any gatherings or meetings.

E. Random police searches.

F. Curtailment of travel rights of any African, or restriction of rights of communication, association, or participation in any activity (banning); and

WHEREAS, we strongly oppose the Passes Act, which applies only to Africans and is the key to the administration of apartheid and labor control. All Africans over 16 years of age are required to be fingerprinted and carry a passbook at all times, with a record of bantustan ("homeland") identification, employment, permits to enter white areas, tax status, and family status,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that:

A. The Clergy and Laity of the Peninsula Annual Conference become and keep informed about the heretical policies of the South African government which undergird the apartheid system.

B. Act through demonstrations, fund contributions, and other possible avenues to assist in dismantling laws that dehumanize people because of the color of their skin, restrict the freedom of the people, and the freedom of the press.

C. Join in continued pressure for economic and diplomatic sanctions on the African government and its system of apartheid.

D. Continue to pray for and provide moral support for leaders in the struggle for freedom in South Africa, including: Bishop Tutu, M. Stanley Mogoba, Nelson Mandela and Winnie Mandela, and others.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Conference, its boards, agencies, and institutions follow through on the recommendations of the 1984 General Conference including recommendation Letter H. which deals with divestiture.

By a vote of 63 For, 12 Against, and 6 Abstentions, the section voted to approve the above resolution as amended by inserting the word "non-violent" between "possible" and "avenues" in Letter B. above.

Bishop Yeakel recognized Richard D. Livingstone who moved to amend the resolution by striking the second "WHEREAS" in its entirety. The motion was seconded but defeated. The resolution, as amended, was then approved by the Conference.

A RESOLUTION ON THE CONCLUSION OF THE
CAMPBELL SOUP LABOR NEGOTIATIONS
Board of Church and Society

WHEREAS, the Campbell Soup Company, growers with contracts to supply Campbell Soup Company, and a labor organization called the Farm Labor Organizing Committee (FLOC) were engaged in a lengthy labor dispute in Northwest Ohio and Michigan; and

WHEREAS, the National Council of Churches interceded through the creation of an independent Commission to supervise field elections and collective bargaining; and

WHEREAS, all of the principal parties, bargaining in good faith, resolved their differences and signed an historic three-way labor agreement in February, 1986,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Peninsula Annual Conference celebrates the historic achievement of the Campbell Soup Company, the growers, and FLOC, and asks the Bishop to extend our congratulations to the appropriate representatives of each organization for setting an example of what can happen when disputing parties bargain in a spirit of openness and good will. Our thanks are extended also to the National Council of Churches for their positive and creative contribution.

By a vote of 79 For, Ø Against, and 2 Abstentions, the section voted to approve the above resolution.

Bishop Yeakel recognized James Baxter who moved the following amendment:

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that any increase in the cost of production not be offset by a decrease in payment to the producer. Therefore, we as United Methodists of this Conference are willing to pay the cost increase by our willness to accept higher food prices at our local markets.

The amendment was seconded and approved by the Conference, whereupon the resolution, as amended, was also approved.

The entire report of Section #1 was then received and approved by the Conference.

STUDY AND REVIEW SECTION NUMBER 2

Bishop Yeakel summonded Doris Phillips, section leader, who presented the following report:

Bishop Yeakel recognized the Rev. Glenn P. Catley, who made the following motion:

I move that the Board of Ordained Ministry report to the 1987 Annual Conference on the following matters:

A. Guidelines for recruitment of candidates for Ordained Ministry.

B. A report on why ordained ministers are leaving the Peninsula Annual Conference.

The motion was seconded and approved by the Conference.

By common consent it was decided to insert the seven goals included in the document "Developing and Strengthening the Ethnic Minority Local Church: For Witness and Mission" at the end of the Missional Priority Commprehensive Plan. These documents may be found in this Journal under VII-C, "Reports."

The entire report of Section #2, with the above additions and changes, was then approved by the Conference.

The afternoon plenary session was then adjourned with prayer by Bishop Yeakel.

THURSDAY MORNING - MAY 22, 1986

Beginning at 9:00 A.M., the morning worship was once again very effectively led by Judy Loehr of Coral Gables United Methodist Church, Coral Gables, Florida.

Bishop Yeakel reconvened the plenary session and acknowledged the excellent work of Richard Allen and Lee Florance in creating the "Catch The Spirit" banners which adorned the stage. He then summoned the Rev. Dr. Robert P. Whitlock, chairperson of the Drayton Task Force, to present the current stategy report. The full text of the report may be found in the Journal under Section VII-C, "Reports."

Dr. Whitlock stated that Drayton was under a two-fold mandate: (1) to develop alternate ways of fund-raising, and (2) to eliminate the Conference subsidy. In commenting on the excellent cooperation he had enjoyed, he also stated, "I have never seen such dedication as has been given by the Board of Directors of Drayton Manor."

Dr. Whitlock pointed out that the report contained a recommendation to build an addition to the existing manor house, which would provide a more diversidfied facility and also accommodations for persons with handicapping conditions. A discussion ensued.

Dr. Whitlock also stated that at the present time, in the area of continuing education, some 44 programs are in place. He referred to Drayton, not as a place, but as an "opportunity."

Bishop Yeakel then recognized the Rev. Dr. J. Gordon Stapleton, Council Director, who moved that Drayton Manor be granted permission to conduct a Capital Funds campaign as outlined in the stategy report. The motion was seconded and approved by the Conference.

The strategy report was then "received" by the Conference with the understanding that it was being approved in principle and intent, and that further Conference approval would be needed to implement the various components of the strategy.

MOMENT FOR HUNGER: Bishop Yeakel recognized the Rev. George H. Moore, who spoke of escalating hunger both at home and abroad and urged the Conference to get behind the varied efforts of UMCOR.

CABINET PROPERTY MATTERS: Bishop Yeakel recognized the Rev. Howell O. Wilkins, Easton District Superintendent, who offered the following resolution:

> BE IT RESOLVED that the St. James and St. Paul United Methodist Churches on the East New Market-Linkwood Charge be discontinued as active congregations, the members transferred to other Churches on the Charge, or other churches of their choice, that the Churches be listed as, "Limited Service Churches" under the "Guidelines For Limited Service Churches."

The resolution was approved by the Conference.

HYMNAL REVISION COMMITTEE: Bishop Yeakel recognized the Rev. Pamela J. Lardear, who spoke briefly of the important work of the Hymnal Revision Committee, which is under a mandate to report to the 1988 General Conference. Up to this point, she observed, there has been great openness regarding the process of developing a new hymnal for United Methodism.

Bishop Yeakel recognized the Rev. Dr. J. Gordon Stapleton, Council Director, who affirmed the great contribution of The Rev. Dr. Laurence Hull Stookey, a member of the Peninsula Conference and a member of the faculty at Wesley Theological Seminary, not only to the work of the Hymnal Committee but to the United Methodist Church as a whole.

ORDER OF THE DAY: The Order of St. Barnabas: Bishop Yeakel recognized the Rev. Dr. Michaele S. Russell, chairperson of the Division of Stewardship, who spoke of the need for a wholistic interpretation of stewardship - "Everyone a talent -- everyone a task!" She related this theme to the use of prayer, time, treasure, and talent.

After presenting Bishop Yeakel with a certificate of Honorary Membership in the Order, Dr. Russell asked the Bishop to present certificates to the following charter members:

Gene Cray - St. Luke's, Hebron, Maryland
Ruth Ann Hamstead, Past President - Greenwood United Methodist Women
Donald L. Kjelleren - Aldersgate, Wilmington, Delaware
James VanDerWall, Pastor - Immanuel United Methodist Church, Grasonville, Maryland
Shiloh U. M. C., Pocomoke City, Maryland

A special award was then presented to the Rev. George H. Moore for his leadership in establishing the Order of St. Barnabas.

REPORT OF THE STATISTICIAN: Bishop Yeakel recognized the Rev. Boyd B. Etter, statistician, who observed that 1985 was the third straight year of membership decline, although the Dover District had recorded an increase of 104 persons. Also, a greater number of churches did receive some members on Profession of Faith. Bishop Yeakel commented that in 14 years he had never presided over an Annual Conference with a positive report of statistics. He led the Conference in a brief period of meditation, concluding with a prayer of confession.
The report, which may be found in the Journal under Section VII-C, was received by the Conference with thanks to the statistician.

STUDY AND REVIEW SECTION NUMBER 2

Bishop Yeakel summoned Naomi G. Winchester, section leader, who presented the following report:

STIMULATING STEWARDSHIP

WHEREAS, the average per capita income in the United States in 1985 was $13,451.00; and

WHEREAS, the average per capita income in Delaware in 1985 was $14,337.00, and the average per capita income in Maryland in 1985 was $15,356.00; and

WHEREAS, the average giving in the United Methodist Church in 1985 was $220.56, and the average giving in the Peninsula Conference in 1985 was $185.42,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Division of Stewardship develop a program on personal and family stewardship, and that this program be offered to every church whose giving is below the national average in the United Methodist Church in the United States.

By a vote of 45 For, 10 Against, and 0 Abstentions, the section voted to replace the last paragraph of the above resolution with the following:

> THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Division of Stewardship develop a program on personal and family stewardship, and that this program be offered to every church whose giving is below the national average in the United Methodist Church in the United States, and that the pastor and as many key lay persons as possible from the said churches be present at the stewardship programs.

Division of Education, Division of Worship, Division of Evangelism, and Board of Laity were previously approved as part of the Consent Calendar.

COMMISSION ON ARCHIVES AND HISTORY

By a vote of 58 For, 0 Against, and 0 Abstentions the section voted to amend the report in the Pre-Conference Booklet by adding the followinng as Program Objective #7:

> To have identified by the 1987 session of the Peninsula Annual Conference:
> A. The writers of the history of the Delaware Conference.
> B. The scope of the project.
> C. A proposed budget be included.

COMMISSION ON RELIGION AND RACE

By a vote of 55 For, 0 Against, and 0 Abstentions the section voted to amend the report in the Pre-Conference Booklet by adding the following to 5. c.:

> ...especially Wesley College and the Peninsula Conference Council on Ministries with a report to the 1987 Session of the Annual Conference and that the Commission recommend at the 1987 Conference two agencies to be evaluated that year and each subsequent year.

BOARD OF GLOBAL MINISTRIES

TASK FORCE ON CROSS-RACIAL APPOINTMENTS

By a vote of 47 For, Ø Against, and Ø Abstentions the report was approved by the section. Bishop Yeakel recognized the Rev. Ewart C. Hackshaw who moved that the term "Ethnic Minority Local Church" be replaced with "Ethnic Minority Local Congregation" and that the terms "black churches, white churches" be changed to "black congregations, white congregations" throughout the report.
The motion was seconded and approved, after which the report of the Task Force, as amended, was approved by the Conference.

The entire report of Section #3 was then approved.

ORDER OF THE DAY: The Rev. Dr. Gilbert H. Caldwell, Associate General Secretary, Commission on Religion and Race: Dr. Caldwell gave an inspiring address, urging the Conference to Catch The Spirit of healing in the church and the world. In the biblical account, healing occured exactly when the waters were troubled. Today, in the United Methodist Church, we need to consider:

A. The healing of our administrative/management styles. Structures should not impede the fulfillment of our mission. "Form follows function."

B. The healing of our inability to accept human differences.

C. The healing of our assumption that God wants us to screen people out rather than screening them in!

D. The healing of our desire to have a ministry without pain or cost.

Following a prayer by Bishop Yeakel, the Conference took a luncheon recess at Noon.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON - MAY 22, 1986

At 2:ØØ P.M., Bishop Yeakel reconvened the plenary session in the auditorium of the Central Middle School, Dover, Delaware. The Rev. Susan Keirn Kester, Associate Council Director for Communications, presented a series of slides relating to the theme, "Catch The Spirit!"

Bishop Yeakel recognized the Rev. Dr. Bruce E. Cooke, who made the following motion:

> I move that the Conference direct the Board of Discipleship and the Conference Statistician to develop a plan and strategy for training and encouraging all local churches in the Peninsula Conference in a process that will give us an accurate statistical base with regard to church membership by Annual Conference of 1988.

The motion was duly seconded and approved by the Conference.

CHARITABLE GIVING: Bishop Yeakel recognized the Rev. Paul H. Wragg, Director of the United Methodist Foundation, who offered the following motion:

> I move that the Peninsula Conference of the United Methodist Church, at its annual meeting, support legislation to make the Charitable Contributions Law permanent, removing the provision in the present law which causes it to expire December 31, 1986.

The motion was seconded and approved by the Conference.

PRESENTATION OF YOUTH COUNCIL: Bishop Yeakel recognized the Rev. Herman E. Lipsius, who in turn, presented the officers of the Peninsula Conference Youth Council. Mr. Lipsius also observed that one member of the group will be participating in a Peace Mission to the Soviet Union this summer. The Youth Service Fund has been completely rejuvenated and is now receiving funds from youth groups across the country.

MOMENT FOR HUNGER: Bishop Yeakel recognized Doris Phillips who expressed gratitude to the Conference for the many ways in which its members have addressed the root causes of hunger. She urged participation in the Conference-wide CROP WALK on October 19, 1986 and that local churches make greater use of the Hunger Coordinators who are available.

DEAN OF THE CABINET: Bishop Yeakel announced that as of July 1, 1986 the new Dean of the Cabinet would be the Rev. Howell O. Wilkins, Easton District Superintendent.

STUDY AND REVIEW SECTION NUMBER 4

Bishop Yeakel summond the Rev. Jonathan Baker, section leader, who presented the following report:

Bishop Yeakel recognized the Rev. Ewart C. Hackshaw, who moved to amend the section's report as follows:

AN AMENDMENT

Motion to amend by adding the following paragraphs:

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that full time pastors (except local pastors) shall receive, on the recommendation of the District Superintendent, an annual service increment of one hundred and fifty dollars ($150.00) for every year of service in the United Methodist Church, up to a maximum of two thousand five hundred and fifty dollars ($2,550.00). This includes years served in the former E. U. B. Church, and the former Methodist Church. Only those years when full pension credit was granted, may be used in this computation; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that full time local pastors, on the recommendation of the District Superintendent, shall receive a service increment of one hundred and fifty dollars ($150.00) for every year of service in the United Methodist Church, up to a maximum of one thousand five hundred dollars ($1,500.00). Only years when full pension credit was granted, may be used in this commputation.

Bishop Yeakel recognized the Rev. Kofi Bart-Martin, who moved that the proposed amendment be referred back to the Commission on Equitable Salaries. The motion was duly seconded and approved by the Conference.

Bishop Yeakel recognized the Rev. Edward M. Gladden, who moved that "associate member" be added to "full member" at the bottom of page 57, making both categories at $14,500.00.

The motion was seconded and a discussion ensued.

Bishop Yeakel recognized the Rev. Dr. Edwin L. Ellis, who made the following motion:

> I move that Item #3 of the first "Resolved" (associate members), page 57 of the Pre-Conference Booklet, be referred back to the Commission on Equitable Salaries for further study.

The substitute motion was seconded but defeated.

Bishop Yeakel then recognized Loren H. Frye, chairperson of the Commission on Equitable Salaries, who made the following motion:

> I move that the nine (9) older associate members be "grandfathered" and included with the Full Members for minimum compensation purposes.

The motion was seconded and approved by the Conference.

Bishop Yeakel then recognized the Rev. James M. Caldwell, who made the following motion:

> I move that the minimum salary levels for 1987 remain the same as those for 1986.

The motion was duly seconded but defeated.

The original resolution, with the addition of the Frye amendment, was then approved by the Conference. The entire report of the Commission on Equitable Salaries, with the changes and additions noted above, was then approved by the Conference.

Bishop Yeakel recognized the Rev. Clifford A. Armour, Jr., who made the following motion for an addition to #4D:

> I move to add at the end of #4D, "and to negotiate with the District Superintendent and the Pastor to share in the savings and income after #4C is provided and to share with the pastors".

The motion was seconded but defeated.

I. Recommendation #5

For - 68 Against - 8 Abstention - Ø

The report on clergy housing was approved, after which the entire report of Study and Review Section #4 was approved by the Conference.

Bishop Yeakel then recognized the Rev. C. Karen Moore, who made the following motion:

> I move that in celebration of the involvement of the parents of young children in the proceedings of the Peninsula Annual Conference, the Committee on Arrangements provide and publicize child care at the 1987 session of the Peninsula Annual Conference.

The motion was duly seconded and approved by the Conference.

Bishop Yeakel recognized the Rev. Michael L. Price, who presented the following resolution:

> WHEREAS, the Creeds of the Christian Church are intended to express the mystery of who Jesus Christ is and the meaning of what His work is; and
> WHEREAS, virtually all of the main Christian traditions have and continue to affirm the Article "He Descended Into Hell" in the Apostles' Creed, with the exception of the United Methodist Church; and
> WHEREAS, the great Church Leaders, from Augustine to Wesley, including Luther, Calvin, Melanchthon, and Zwingli, as well as many theologians today, have affirmed and accepted this Article of Faith; and
> WHEREAS, the Article was removed in Methodist versions of the Apostles' Creed, apparently due to a 17th-century misunderstanding of the Article within the Methodist tradition,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Peninsula Annual Conference recommend to the Board of Discipleship and the General Conference that this Article of Faith be restored in all United Methodist versions of the Apostles' Creed in all future worship and instructional materials that might contain the Creed,

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that an interim study be done of the history of ths Article, if necessary, so that the 1988 General Conference might have the information to decide on this recommendation.

This resolution is presented by the Bible Study group of the Bethany United Methodist Church, Lowe's Crossroads, Millsboro, Delaware.

After a period of discussion, the Rev. Garry O. Parker moved that the resolution be referred to the Division of Worship, Board of Discipleship, for study and action. The motion was seconded and approved by the Conference.

The following resolution on World Mission Funds was then before the Conference.

A RESOLUTION ON REVIEWING WORLD MISSIONS FUNDS

WHEREAS, many members of our Church, previously exercising blind trust of Church leaders to be proper stewards, have become disillusioned with how the monies of the Church are spent; and

WHEREAS, the disillusionment has dampered enthusiasm for giving and adversely affected the size of our active membership; and

WHEREAS, The General Board of Global Ministries in the quadrenium 1981-1984 made about $50 million in grants to over 1,700 non-Methodist entities many of which represent movements, objectives, and/or motives unacceptable to vast numbers of our Church membership, such as:

A. Witness for Peace, a highly political organization which denies the existence of anything in Nicaragua that might cause American concern and which engages in public relations against the Contras ($20,000.00).

B. Southeast Asia Resource Center (SEARC), which publishes support for the National Democratic Front (NDF) and New Peoples' Army (NPA), both controlled by the Communist Party of the Philippines ($16,000.00).

C. Institute for Policy Studies (IPS), an organization which often denounces the United States as a dangerous imperialist power which must be demilitarized in order to make the world safe for revolution. It further calls for the United States to unilaterally withdraw from NATO ($13,120.00).

D. Clergy and Laity Concerned (CALC), which criticizes human rights abuses only in the United States, seeks peace through unilateral United States disarmament, opposes United States aid to democratic El Salvador while it most recently sent direct aid to Communist Vietnam in the amount of $150,000.00.

E. IMPACT, a leftist group which lobbies the United States Congress on a range of issues ($3,500.00).

F. Southwest African Peoples' Organization (SWAPO), a communist Soviet-trained guerilla group attempting to seize power in Namibia which has rejected all proposals for elections, preferring violent means, and whose leader openly supports the USSR as a champion of the people ($8,889.00).

WHEREAS, the foregoing list of entities is only a slight sampling of the organizations receiving missions funding; and

WHEREAS, many of the financial grants are made and disclosed in the form of acronyms making it impossible for Laity and Clergy to properly evaluate the propriety of such funding,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the Peninsula Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church that our Bishop be directed to appoint a committee of Clergy and Laity to research, investigate, and evaluate the funding procedures of the GBOGM and the organizations receiving these funds and to charge that committee with the responsibilitiy of preparing a thorough written report of its findings and recommendations and to report back at the next Annual Conference.

This resolution was approved for submission to the Peninsula Annual Conference by the Administrative Board of St. John's United Methodist Church, Georgetown, Delaware on May 19, 1986.

Bishop Yeakel recognized the Rev. William Hemphill, Jr., who made the following motion:

I move that we strike the second "WHEREAS," everything following the word "entities" in the third "WHEREAS," and the fourth "WHEREAS."

The motion was duly seconded and approved by the Conference.

Bishop Yeakel recognized the Rev. Garry O. Parker, who made the following motion:

I move that the words "and the organizations receiving these funds" be deleted from the last paragraph.

The motion was seconded and approved, after which the modified resolution was approved by the Conference.

The following resolution on church membership was then presented to the Conference.

WHEREAS, the United Methodist Church has experienced a serious decline in membership during the past ten years; and

WHEREAS, there exists a growing disquiet in the pews of the United Methodist Church due to social, economic, and political activities being supported and nurtured by our Church leaders which are highly political in nature and often out of step with the vast numbers of our membership; and

WHEREAS, during the past several years, the leaders of the United Methodist Church, especially the Bishops and General Boards and Agencies, have participated in expending enormous amounts of time and energy in an effort to influence World Governments, and have heavily funded highly conntroversial programs many of which are openly antagonistic toward our government and its democratic principles; and

WHEREAS, time immemorial has proven that governments can only be permanently influenced and changed by the people; and

WHEREAS, in recent years, the United Methodist Church supported over 1,500 full-time overseas career missionaries in the field and now directly supports fewer than 500; and

WHEREAS, the unceasing work of the devil provides a constantly sufficient agenda for work by our church,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Peninsula Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church does hereby urge and direct the leaders of the United Methodist Church including its Bishops and General Boards and Agencies to:

A. Discontinue trying to directly influence world government and discontinue financial aid to all political organizations in favor of increasing direct support for missional programs which will provide food and clothing for all God's children in every part of the world who are in need, and which will send forth missionaries out into the world to teach the LOVE of God and SALVATION through Jesus Christ.

B. CATCH THE SPIRIT and begin using their time, evergy and money for the specific purpose of bringing the WORD of GOD, the SPIRIT of GOD, and the LOVE of GOD back into the community of the people.

It is time for the United Methodist Church to get out of world politics and back into the business of saving souls. The WORD, SPIRIT, and LOVE of GOD will do more to change human conditions throughout the world and increase membership in the United Methodist Church than anything else we can do.

This resolution was approved for submission to the Peninsula Annual Conference by the Administrative Board of St. John's United Methodist Church, Georgetown, Delaware on May 19, 1986.

Bishop Yeakel recognized the Rev. Kofi Bart-Martin, who moved that the sixth "WHEREAS" be deleted. The motion was seconded but defeated, following which the resolution itself was not approved.

The following resolution concerning apportionments was then presented to the Conference.

WHEREAS, local churches are expected to adequately insure buildings and contents against possible loss; and

WHEREAS, the cost of providing the insurance is subject to the apportionment factor even though the cost of erecting and mortgaging these same facilities is not subject to the apportionment factor; and

WHEREAS, churches confronting the rapidly escalating insurance costs may be less likely to insure adequately because of the added apportionment expense created by the insurance cost,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the insurance cost be removed from the apportionment base beginning with the 1988 budget.
The resolution was presented by the Administrative Board of St. John's Church, Seaford, Delaware.

After a lengthy debate, the Rev. Dr. J. Gordon Stapleton, Council Director, moved that the resolution be referred to the Council on Finance and Administration for further study. The motion was approved.

COMMITTEE ON DAILY PROCEEDINGS: Bishop Yeakel recognized the Rev. Joseph G. Burris, chairperson, who made the following motion:

> I move that the daily proceedings for Tuesday and Wednesday morning be approved and the committee be authorized to approve the remainder of the proceedings when available.

The motion was duly seconded and approved by the Conference.

COMMITTEE ON COURTESIES: Bishop Yeakel recognized the Rev. Laurence M. Berry, chairperson, who presented the following report:

> The 47th session of the Peninsula Annual Conference is closing. We have seen some new programs -- "The Order of St. Barnabas" and "Offer Them Christ" -- accepted by this Conference in order to minister to more of God's people.
> We thank Bishop Joseph H. Yeakel for his leadership here at this Conference and for calling our attention to the concerns of peace addressed by the Council of Bishops in its pastoral letter.
> The Rev. Dr. Gilbert Caldwell has challenged us to "Catch The Spirit" of the challenges of the church and to become a "family" in a new way and we are grateful for his challenge.
> We thank the Rev. Justo Gonzales for showing us the gifts of the Ethnic Minority Local Church.
> An annual conference is many activities all ordered to do the business of the church, and we recognize those who have helped bring about this order; in particular, we recognize the following:
> A. Ted Briggs and his staff, Gordon Stapleton and the staff of the Conference Office for typing, printing, and distributing all the materials we have received and for registering the members of the Conference. Bob Price, Charlotte Lister, and the Wesley College staff for their coordination of this Conference.
> B. C. Edwin Lasbury and the Wilmington District for hosting this session of the Annual Conference.
> C. Alfred Taylor and the Division of Worship for our worship services.
> D. Judy Loehr for her enthusiasm in leading the singing each day.
> E. Richard Allen and Lee Florance for the banners that constantly called our attention to "Catch The Spirit."
> F. Susan Keirn Kester for publicity and information before and during the Conference, especially the "Catch The Spirit" slide presentation.

G. Conference Ministers and Mates Association for the flowers at the Communion/Memorial service.

H. Cokesbury for the bookstore display.

I. Dale Vroman and all who served as ushers and tellers.

J. Edwin L. Ellis, Dean of the Cabinet, and the Cabinet for their continued leadership.

K. Those who served as leadership teams at the study and review sessions.

L. W. Daniel Rich, Secretary of the Conference, and assistants for efficient secretarial service.

M. Richard Allen for sharing his talent and serving as Conference organist.

N. To all who have served but have not been mentioned, we give our thanks.

The report was approved and accepted with the gratitude of the Conference.

Bishop Yeakel recognized Marlene Elliott, lay member from Laurel, Delaware, who made the following motion:

> I move that we ask the Board of Church and Society to express the appreciation of the Peninsula Annual Conference to the Southland Corporation (the parent company of the 7-11 stores) for their decision to discontinue the sale of pornographic publications.

The motion was seconded and approved by the Conference.

ADJOURNMENT MOTION: Bishop Yeakel recognized the Rev. Dr. Edwin L. Ellis, Dover District Superintendent, who moved that the 1986 session of the Peninsula Annual Conference be adjourned following the Ordination Service that evening, and that the 1987 session be held at the call of the President.

The motion was duly seconded and approved by the Conference.

COVENANT CLOSING: Bishop Yeakel then led the Conference in a period of worship and sharing of concerns, concluding with John Wesley's Covenant Prayer.

The 1986 Plenary Session then stood adjourned at 5:ØØ P.M.

C. Reports

Dear Members and Friends of the Peninsula Annual Conference:

The church today is in the midst of a culture that presents a stream of directions in which to focus ministry. The question of how to respond or react is significantly with us as decisions are made, and areas of involvement determined. The United Methodist Church has prayerfully sought direction as she has prodded her way through two hundred years of witness and service in this nation of ours. She has been bold to denounce "evil," and forthright to proclaim the message of the Gospel at every level of culture throughout the years of her historical journey. We believe this sense of direction in all generations is derived from a Source beyond the moral and ethical systems of the day.

Our Annual Conference constantly seeks direction in which to move. We are a small body, yet we believe we can function effectively to achieve the goals to which we are committed. The District Superintendents have taken a serious look at those directions and goals for this Conference year. We have selected key areas in which several phases of our ministry have been focused, and share with you what we believe suggests the presence of the Source which is beyond our wisdom and strength. There has been no attempt in this report to cover the entire program of our Conference.

THE LOCAL CHURCH

Just as Jesus is the foundation on which the universal church is built, the local church is the foundation on which the denomination stands. Without the local churches, some large and others small, there is no District, Conference, Jurisdiction or Denomination. Neither are there any camps or schools, colleges or universities, homes or hospitals, national or world missions, program priorities, or disaster relief. The local church, where the word of God is proclaimed and the sacraments administered, is where the action is.

Fundamental to the operation of every local church is the practice of Christian stewardship, the sharing of time, talent, money and prayer, on the part of the people of the congregation. Life among the earliest believers, according to Luke (Acts 2:43-47), included coming together in fellowship, sharing belongings distributing money, eating together, and praising God in worship. Life together in the smallest full-time church/charge today, according to guidelines provided by the General Board of Global Ministries, requires two hundred members and a budget of sixty thousand dollars to accomplish the above. There are churches/charges in the Peninsula Annual Conference operating above this guideline and others below.

The annual stewardship crusade, well planned and executed, is essential to the congregation that would pay their apportionments, compensate their pastor, maintain their facility, project their ministry into the community and around the world, and discover the joys of giving. A suggested schedule for planning a crusade is as follows:

MAY - - Approve a crusade.
JUNE - - Recruit leadership.
SEPTEMBER - Organize the committee.

OCTOBER - Inform the congregation of goals for ministry.
NOVEMBER - Visit the congregation for pledged support of ministry.
DECEMBER - Complete the crusade, Mail the "thank you" letter, Distribute the envelopes.
JANUARY - Follow-up with monthly reports to the congregation and quarterly reports to the families.

The emphasis throughout the crusade should be on percentage giving which is a Biblical principle with continuing relevance. The Old Testament tithe was ten per cent but Zaccheus offered fifty per cent and the poor widow, whom Jesus commended, gave all that she had, one hundred per cent. It was not the amount but the percentage which impressed Jesus.

Just as important as our stewardship is our mission outreach. One pastor recently emphasized the fact that the more we give to others, the more we seem to have for ourselves. Another pastor said, "The light that shines the furthest shines the brightest close to home."

When we begin to think about our mission giving in the local church, let us remember our own highly qualified United Methodist people whom we have recruited, commissioned and sent. Dr. and Mrs. Bruce Obenshain are an excellent local example whose salary is covered by convenant agreements but who need additional support for the medical supplies necessary to their ministry. After we have considered our own folks in the mission field, we may want to turn to some ecumenical venture where two or more denominations are joining together to accomplish some larger task. In such a situation there is usually the kind of reporting and accountability which makes it possible for us to give our support with confidence.

Once again, the local church is the foundation on which the entire denomination and all its ministries stand. For that reason the local church, large or small, is very important.

CATCH THE SPIRIT

In January of 1985 the United Methodist Church launched a multi-media campaign and slogan "Catch the Spirit!" This nationwide campaign was adopted from the Tennessee Annual Conference. The Peninsula Conference has "Caught-the-Spirit" also by using it as a theme for our media programs and resources. Boards and Agencies have utilized it to advertise and promote activities across the Conference and its districts. Many have made use of the media packet as a resource for promotion of the network program schedules. Our local churches have used the available videos, posters and bulletin covers. Many persons have "Caught the Spirit" by wearing the T-shirt, caps, and displaying the theme on automobiles with bumper stickers. Some local churches purchased "Catch the Spirit" space on billboards on highways in our Conference area. Congregations are encouraged to "Catch the Spirit" and join with the United Methodists everywhere who tell the church's story to the community, and who reach out to help persons grow in their understanding of the church.

THE MISSIONAL PRIORITY

The Peninsula Conference is celebrating the second year of the quadrennial emphasis of our currect missional priority, "Strengthening the Ethnic Minority Local Church for Witness and Mission." The coordinating committee, with the leadership of its chairperson, Darlene Webb, and staff person, Vaughn Johnson, has done a commendable job in keeping the priority alive among our local churches. Congregations throughout the Conference have become involved in programs and projects with Ethnic Minority persons and local churches. We have not achieved all of our goals, but we are reasonably certain that understandings have developed and bridges been built through growing relationships. Our churches are called to greater celebration of our life together with all persons of the Conference, and to continue to search for other creative ways to repsond to the Missional Priority.

Strengthening and developing the ethnic minority local church needs our total support. It is a task which calls for our participation and paryers. Could the Missional Priority become the priority of your congregation during the next two years? For the remainder of the priority, we encourage greater involvement. The coordinating committee is ready to share ideas for strengthening the Ethnic Minority Local Church, as well as to help the whole church grow into the body which Paul describes in I Corinthians 12:13-14, "For by one Spirit we are all baptized into one body, whether we be Jews or Gentiles, whether bond or free, and have been all made to drink into one Spirit. For the body is not one member, but many."

EVANGELISM

The root of evangelism is the person who dares to share a witness to the Gospel of our Lord. When persons in the local church become intentional about meeting this challenge, then we shall reap the fruits of our efforts. During a meeting early this year, which was called for all local churches failing to receive members on profession of faith, the question raised was, "What plans do you have for evangelism in the church?" Many suggestions were made which could be helpful for those represented on that night, and for all churches of the Peninsula Conference.

As we enter into a new Conference year, it may be well to think seriously about how we expect to continue working on the General Conference goal to substantially increase the total membership of the United Methodist Church by the end of two quadrenia (1992). Many local churches reported gains in 1985, while others did not do as well. It is hoped that our emphasis upon evangelism in the future may reverse our record of losses from 1983 to 1985, and enable our Conference to report a gain in members for the year of 1986. Miss Braden, of our General Board Section on Evangelism, presents a question we all need to ask, "What will happen in the lives of people this year through our church's evangelism efforts?" Changed lives are the work of God, but we can do many things to help people recognize God's presence in their lives, and hopefully the church is the community through which it may be nourished.

CONGREGATIONAL DEVELOPMENT

Methodism has always been committed to congregational development. The Christmas Conference orgainzing the Methodist Church in the United States decreed during its 1784 session, that a yearly subscription be taken on all the Circuits for building new facilities and for the relief of debts on existing meeting houses. The General Conference of 1864 meeting in Philadelphia authorized the first Church Extension Society which began operation the following year. From that point there has been a strong and continuing program within Methodism to reach out to every community. Between 1886 and 1871, Methodists erected over 3,000 chapels in the United States. Of the more than 3,000 counties in the nation today, only about 140 do not have a United Methodist Church. Continuing in this tradition, the Annual Conference has been engaged in a study to determine the population trends and other growth factors in our area, and to identify and prioritize what opportunities exist for ministry. The study groups on the several Districts have collected statistical data and charted a course which hopefully will aid the Conference in the deploying of its resources to the greater glory of God.

CONNECTIONALISM

Connectionalism is a very difficult concept for the local church. It is almost contrary to the rugged individualism which has made our nation great. Our congregations perfer to play it "solo", doing their own thing, recruiting their own ministerial staff, supporting what causes they elect to support, and being generally independent of any external direction or influence. There is a form of church polity that allows this to happen. There is nothing inherently wrong with this, except that it is not Methodist. In our system, we are all related, the one to the other, and bound by a covenant which we have voluntarily accepted. We take this covenant very seriously in the deployment of our Pastors and in the living out of our lives together. We urge our members to begin to think globally, connectionally, and scripturally.

SOUTH AFRICA

Desmond Tutu is now an Archbishop. Jerry Falwell still has his pious smirk. Much else stays the same about South Africa; blacks die. We urge U. S. companies in South Africa to divest, but we keep our pension funds intact, so we won't lose anything. Get serious! If we call on others to use economic pressure to bring about peaceful social change, then we should be prepared to do the same ourselves. There is a price to discipleship. If we want change in South Africa, or anywhere else, we must expect to pay a price. That means continuing to inform public opinion by writing letters; it means affecting church policies, and governmental policies. The lives and the rights of people are being affected.

TERRORISM

After great aggrevation, people may do aggrevating things, whether it is right or not. We cannot stop terrorism without solving the problems that create it. There will be unrest in the Middle East, and among Arab people, as long as the Palestinians are denied the opportunity to express their rights. We condemn the leader of Libya for killing innocent people, and then our country does the same thing. Jesus Christ made clear that He did not accept the rule of an eye for an eye. We, as His followers, need to look at each person and each group as people who are His children. When we do so we reduce the possibility of terrorism.

PEACE

The Roman Catholic Bishops' pastoral letter stimulated the Christian conscience in our country to discover the real means toward peace. The Delmarva Ecumenical Agency provided another forum for the consideration of the means toward peace. The Bishops of our Church have issued a statement more direct than any other.

There is a common theme. We are called of God to work for peace. The call is even more urgent now than when it was first issued. Our country has spent a trillion dollars on our military program during the time since the Catholic Bishops' Pastoral. We are adding a new nuclear weapon every other day. The work is more dangerous, not less. The threat to the survival of many people, if not the whole human race, is greater, not less. We are called, as the followers of the Prince of Peace, to action. We must support the recommendations of our Bishops' pastoral letter, "In Defense of Creation."

We conclude this report with a challenge for the future as we continue to seek direction and make decisions as the church in the world today:

"Whoso draws nigh to God
One step through doubtings dim
God will advance a mile
In blazing light to him." Unknown

SUPERINTENDENTS' REPORTS

DOVER DISTRICT

Our ministry on the Dover District represents a spirit of loyalty and devotion shared by the clergy and laity of one hundred twelve local churches structured into fifty-five charges. This report is indicative of the labors of a variety of persons-children, youth, and adults; male and female; minority and majority; those in many categories - politically, morally, academically, socially, economically, physically, and theologically. We have shared all sorts of experiences together; yet, "through it all," we continue to declare - "We are the children of God," and therefore have affirmed our commitment to Christ, to the Church, and to our life together as the Dover District of the Peninsula Annual Conference.

Our ministry has led us to a concern and care for families and persons who were on our "sick list" during the past year, many of whom remain in area hospitals and nursing facilities. The superintendent, pastors, mates of pastors, retirees, widows, and many lay persons of the local churches continue to keep themselves involved in visitation and other responses to those to whom God has entrusted this care: "I was sick and ye visited me" .....(Matthew 25:36). "They brought to him all who were sick".....(Mark 1:32).

"Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors; and their works do follow them".....(Rev. 13:14). Some of our parsonage families experienced the loss of loved ones during the year. The following persons lost spouses: Melvin E. Tingle, William A. Turner, Marguerite L. Snapp, and Adelaide Chandler.

We congratulated Victor Harrison who graduated from Wesley Seminary with the M. Div. Degree. A new baby, Timothy, was born to Becky and Sam Hale of the Magnolia Charge.

The Ministers and Mates of the district met monthly and became involved in serious dialogue and great fellowship. Topics presented were varied, but all geared to help us grow in our faith and commitment to Christ, our congregations, and our communities. We shared programs on Congregational Development, Separation and Divorce, Clergy Housing, Continuing Education, Youth Ministry, Planning for Older Adults in the Church, and Associate Conference Membership. The planning team was able to recruit competent resource persons to lead our sessions.

The Dover District welcomed twelve new pastors after being appointed on the occasion of our last Annual Conference:

Boyd B. Etter - Reliance-Gethsemane
W. Hayward Green - Centennial-Smyrna (Retired)
K. Wayne Grier - Georgetown-Grace
Harold E. (Sam) Hale - Magnolia Charge
Howard P. Ketterman - Salem-Selbyville
Fred G. Marvel - Hartly Charge (Supply)
C. Karen Moore - Bethel Charge
Charles M. Moyer - Milford-Avenue
Michael L. Price - Gumboro Charge
William M. Staten - Millsboro Charge
Kenneth S. Valentine - Camden-Woodside
Harold E. Walton - Bridgeville-Union

New pastors bring new life and insights to our fellowship.

Howard Evans (Retired)
Edward E. Kester
Susan Keirn Kester
John F. Mitchell
Charles H. Poukish
Hilbert Watson

Appreciation is expressed for all the pastors who have continued on the district for the excellent leadership given to the local charges, district, and annual conference. I especially feel indebted to the newly organized District Council on Ministries for its diligent efforts to plan activities to meet the needs of our constituency, as well as to coordinate the program emphasis of the Annual Conference Council on Ministries. Thanks for an excellent job.

Some of the activities held on the district which I feel urged to highlight were as follows:

Pastor-Parish Relations Workshop held at Grace Church in Georgetown was attended by more than one hundred-fifty persons who gleaned significant data and help related to changes in the Annual Conference Pension and Insurance Programs, and the new evaluation process for pastors.

Laity Banquet held at Calvary United Methodist Church in Milford was attended by more than two hundred persons. Much credit goes to Alphonso Stevenson, District Lay Leader, and his Committee. The evening was highlighted by a drama presented by the Circuit Players, directed by our own Sam McWilliams, pastor of the Georgetown Circuit.

Workshop for Local Church Leaders held at St. John's Church in Seaford attracted more than four hundred fifty persons who participated in small group sessions related to the program and administrative functions of the local church. It was an enriching experience for us. St. John's entertained us well, and Bishop Yeakel challenged the body to a deeper commitment to our Covenant Relationship.

District Laity and Clergy Communion Breakfasts were held at four locations of the District: (1) Avenue Church, Milford; (2) Centenary Church, Laurel; (3) Grace Church, Georgetown; and (4) Wyoming Church, Wyoming. The breakfasts were tasty, but the speakers are commended for rising early to greet and inspire us. Thanks to Vaughn Johnson, Harvey Manchester, Gordon Stapleton, and the district superintendent.

Dover District Conference on Racial Inclusiveness was attended by more than two hundred fifty persons at Grace Church in Georgetown last March. Al Johnson, our guest speaker, gave us encouragement in this effort, and twenty small groups responded with numerous helpful comments and suggestions for moving into the future.

I wish to say "thanks" to all of the clergy and lay leadership of the district. It is difficult to cover all activities and phases of leadership; yet, we could not function without it. We are blessed with an excellent leadership team for the United Methodist Women who work constantly under the guidance of Mrs. Helen Williams, and the United Methodist Men under the guidance of Mr. John Pitts. Each has rallied growing participation of women and men from congregations across the district in a variety of programs.

Local Congregations of the Dover District have worked hard to respond to the needs of their people and communities. To this end, I am pleased to report two new parsonages built during this Conference year: (1) one on the Lewes Charge, and (2) one on the Bridgeville Charge. Building expansion has taken place at Bethel Church, on the Gumboro Charge, and Bethesda Church, on the Georgetown Charge. Our congratulations go the pastors and people of these charges.

Evangelism and Church Growth have been taken seriously on our district. Most churches have structured programs to increase membership. Results are especially noted on the Gumboro Charge where twenty new members were received on Profession since the last Annual Conference. Also, Salem Church, Selbyville, received thirty-one persons; a record for the pastor in twenty years of his ministry.

I wish to express deep appreciation to the Rev. Nathaniel Miller, director of the West Sussex Parish, for his leadership, together with the Rev. Tina Miles and the Rev. Victor Harrison, in the development of this project. The parish has grown out of its "probe" phase into the "structure" phase of physical and program building. Also, thanks to Dr. W. Hayward Greene for serving as a resource person for our Ethnic Resource Center at Calvary Church in Bridgeville. We are priviledged to know that this center is available to us, and we encourage its use.

Mary and I again say "thanks" to all of you who share the joys of our ministry together on this district. This closes out our second year. We humbly look forward to another year of life together with the pastors and laity of our district, and pray with you that God will keep us in perfect peace. "He bids us build each other up, and, gathered into one, to our high calling's glorious hope, we hand in hand go on." (Wesley)

EASTON DISTRICT

A great deal has been going on in the life of the churches and in the District. Happily, as you discover by reading this report, much of the activity seems to be important.

The Congregational Development Committee, authorized by the Annual Conference session, spent a great deal of time reviewing the mission and ministry of every church in the District. It then selected a few charges to give more detailed attention, and from that has recommended a number of changes - some mergers, some limited service churches, and some re-development. As these recommendations are being carried out, we will find that the work of the churches will be strengthened. Particular areas which received special attention were: Centreville-Newton, Easton-Asbury-Miles River, all the churches in the East New Market area, Taylor's Island to Cambridge, and from Hurlock up through Ridgely.

Financially, the churches have met their obligations, both locally in the Conference and in the mission, and even beyond the Conference. Full payment of apportionments was missed by 1/2 of 1%.

A number of churches have received new members, which are listed below. Too many churches received no one. Churches that do not receive new members for several years, will simply disappear. Here are the churches that received nine or more new members:

Beckwith Church - Cambridge Choptank Charge	9
Hillsboro Church - Queen Anne Charge	9
Wesley Chapel - Rock Hall Charge	9
Wye of Carmichael Church - Queenstown-Wye Charge	9
St. Paul's Church - Greensboro Charge	10
First Church - Chestertown	11
Still Pond Church - Still Pond-Bettertown Charge	11
Royal Oak Community Church	14
Centreville Church	16
St. Luke's Church - St. Michaels Charge	16
Grace Church - Cammbridge	21
St. Luke's Church - Denton-Ames Charge	21
Union Church - Federalsburg-Concord Charge	21
Union Wesley Church - Chester-Stevensville Charge	21
Immanuel Church - Grasonville Charge	26
Hosier Memorial Church - Fishing Creek Charge	28
Kent Island Church	45
St. Mark's Church - Easton	51

More important perhaps than the concern about churches, is the concern about people who need to be introduced to Christ. While the Easton District has the smallest number of members, the attendance at District events is phenomenal. The Leadership Training Event, with Bishop Yeakel speaking and a light dinner at St. Mark's in Easton, was packed with people - about five hundred. This was valuable for the training of church leaders. Just as important was the good feeling created by the large number who came together. At the District Conference on Cross-Racial Appointments, three hundred people were stimulated with the shared experiences where cross-racial appointments have already taken place. People talked about things that are being done to bring about a more inclusive church.

Several organizations in the District work to provide support for churches. The District Council On Ministries coordinates a variety of programs. The Ministers and Mates, under the leadership of Ray Hopkins and Helen Burton, emphasises mutual support among ministerial families. The Committee on Ministry, under the leadership of Colleen O'Sullivan, provides encouragement and assistance to people preparing for ordained ministry. The District Board of Laity, led by Earl Hodil, provides the Lenten Breakfasts, a banquet with speaker in the Fall, Certified Lay Speakers Program, and the Bible and Theology classes. District United Methodist Women have District meetings. There was a Pastor-Parish Relations Committee Training Event. Alex Slonin gave leadership to the District edition of the Communicator. Not much can be said about youth work.

There have been a number of church property improvements. Mt. Calvary has a new parsonage, Bryan's has burned a mortgage, as has Mt. Calvary. Scott's Church on the Oxford-Williamsburg Charge is building a new parsonage. Wesley Chapel, Rock Hall, has a new addition.

A number of changes have occurred in the life of the ministerial families in the District. Mrs. Hattie H. Whedbee, widow of John, died on February 7, 1985. Brant Burton, son of Albert and Helen, died in a tragic auto accident on July 23, 1985. Rhonda Cordrey, daughter of Leonard Wheatly and Joan Cordrey Wheatley, died in a tragic auto accident on August 14, 1985. The Rev. Philip Henry, who was retired, died November 5, 1985. The Rev. Nelson Stanley who served the East New Market-Linkwood Charge for 28 years, died December 23, 1985. Retirees this year are Wallace Greene, George Stanley, and John Taylor. They have all served faithfully and for a long time.

Lawrence Livingston and Frances McKinney were married on January 19, 1986. D'Arcy and Alfreda Littleton were married in August. A baby girl, Sara Keylon, was born to Stephen and Bonnie Wallace on January 23, 1986. Pastoral changes during the year were: J. Howard and Jane Link began serving the Galena Charge in the Fall. Pam Ledbetter served Vienna until the arrival of Gary Morganstern, and his wife, Virginia, in September. Gordon Braun took responsibility for the Crapo Charge in December, following Tim Pate, who returned to his own Conference in Illinois. Dick Hubbard served the Secretary Charge with great enthusiasm until the arrival of Brian Barr, and his wife, Pam, in February. Frank Robinson began serving the East New Market-Linkwood Charge in March, following the death of Nelson Stanley Christmas week. G. Kim and Dorothy Gilson came to the District from Eastern Pennsylvania to serve the Tilghman Charge.

The Grapevine Cluster concentrated on education, but will re-introduce some of its other emphases in the Fall. It evaluated its ministry. One of the ongoing functions of Bayview Cluster is regular meeting of clergy, for sharing, mutual support, and planning. This inter-racial group had an evangelistic weekend series of services just after a cross burning. This made clear the church's feeling about that. The Pilot Wheel Cluster has been in a period of pause, but has plans for some new functions.

The three churches in the Hurlock area: (1) Union Grove, (2) Washington, and (3) Zorah, are considering creating a new church, combining the three churches into one.

Charge Conferences were well attended through the Fall and early Winter, where cross-racial appointments were considered and explored as the main theme of the evening. Two Charges met together for part of the evening, and in most cases, they were of different ethnic backgrounds.

It is clear that there has been great deal going on during the year. It is evident that most of my time has been occupied. In addition, I have participated in the Church Order Commission of the Consultation on Church Union. I concluded my second year as President of the Delmarva Ecumenical Agency in January. Last summer our family attended the Christian Peace Conference in Prague and the Methodist Peace Conference in London. These experiences have provided me an opportunity for different perspectives. The fellowship with ministers and mates, and people in the churches, has also proved to be very supportive. This was especially evident when my mother died last fall and my aunt died this winter.

The relationship with the other Superintendents and Bishop Yeakel in fulfilling our Conference-wide responsibilities of a program nature and appointments, is a major concern. The opportunity for fellowship together, especially in retreats, has been very enriching.

"Too often the Church has been seen more as a mere collection of saved souls than as a community of interacting personalities. Christian growth has been a matter of individual soul culture rather than the building of the community of the Spirit. But four biblical truths should call us back to the priority of community: (1) The concept of the people of God; (2) The model of Christ with his disciples; (3) The example of the early Church; and (4) The explicit teachings of Jesus and the Apostles." (From The Community of The King by Howard A. Snyder)

SALISBURY DISTRICT

The early Methodist Preachers began each meeting of their Conference or Synod with a hymn that has now become traditional at such gatherings:

And are we yet alive,
And see each other's face?
Glory and thanks to Jesus give,
For his almighty grace.
What troubles have we seen!
What mighty conflicts past,
Fightings without and fears within,
Since we assembled last!
But out of all, the LORD,
Has brought us by his love.

Charles Wesley

And thus they prepared the backdrop for the annual accounting of their stewardship.

It is even so that the Salisbury District dares to report that the Church is still alive and continues to bear witness to the liberating Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, in spite of the contemporary social and political climate.

The Congregational Development Study, which continued throughout the year, revealed some things that trouble us. For instance:

A. Our Congregations are growing older.
B. Our Congregations are shifting; the whites to the resort areas and the blacks to the urban centers.

Our strategy for mission has ignored the demographic data and we have continued doing the same old things in the same old way. Consider a white middle-class congregation in a growing urban area, where there is a dwindling white population, and a bulging black presence. What was expected to happen was that the congregation would gradually reflect the mix of its environment. But it did not happen that way. This congregation is one of the bright spots of the District, with a tremendous ministry of outreach and service, while still retaining 100% of its white membership in a growing black neighborhood. Or consider the Route 413 corridor, where three pastors from three different Charges criss-cross to serve the same geographic area. Our District Council on Ministries is committed to formulating some response to these situations as well as developing a strategy for ministry in the high population growth areas of Wicomico and Worcester counties.

Attempts have been made to relieve some pressure points on the Allen, Riverside, and Whaleysville Charges by initiating the following configurations:

Allen Charge:	Asbury (Allen), Asubry (Mt. Vernon), and John Wesley
Riverside:	Riverside, Siloam, and Washington
Whaleysville:	Whaleysville, New Hope, and St. Martin

Some of these churches were as much as twenty-five miles apart and some charges had as many as five preaching places. All these places are now within easy reach of each other.

Water Chapel on the Crisfield-Shiloh Charge, Hutts Memorial on the Snow Hill-Ebenezer Charge, Mt. Olive on the Bates-Snow Hill Charge, Centennial Church, John Wesley Church, and Parsonage on the Upper Hill Charge, Shiloh Church on the Stockton-Shiloh-Calvary Charge, have all had capital improvements done during the year. Ocean Pines Community Church is now in the land acquisition stage. On the drawing board are several parsonages:

Bethany Church, Sinepunxent
Girdletree Charge
Immanuel Church, Crisfield
Nanticoke Charge, Nanticoke
Oakville-Cottage Grove Charge
Shiloh Church, Crisfield

Some churches have made a valiant effort to pay all their Conference apportionments in full. This mark of dedication is never without favorable comment. Congregations need to be reminded that this is the way the United Methodist Church does its mission, its relief program, its evangelism, and provides for its administration, and any slippage in this direction reduces the programs and services the church can offer. Thanks to all who cared enough to make the benevolent program their number one priority.

The annual Local Church Officers Training event was significantly successful. The presence of the Bishop and the unusual format made the occasion one of the high points at the beginning of the year. However, two Stewardship workshops, with top quality leadership, failed to gain the support of clergy and laity alike. For the first time, Continuing Education Credits were offered at a Ministers and Mates meeting which took the format of a mini seminar. This was new and attracted a lot of interest. Subjects of topical interest like Child Abuse, Alcoholism, and Stress Management, were dealt with by a panel of experts.

The Missional Priority Event opened up the question of strengthening the ethnic minority congregations for mission and ministry. Bishop Joseph Yeakel, with his accustomed effectiveness, helped us to see what God would have us do and be in this age.

The Advanced Lay Speakers Training program was again very well attended. The guidelines and curriculum suggested by the General Board of Discipleship were followed and proved to be useful. The Closing Worship service, prepared and presented by the class on Worship, was a moving experience.

The United Methodist Women's and the United Methodist Men's organizations continue to be the life of the local church, stimulating their members, usually the members of the local church, to mission and witness. This has been an exciting year for both men and women. The myth that these groups are only for persons of advanced years is being gradually exploded. The District Presidents of both are young persons, full of life, and ready to do service for God.

Earle Baker took his June bride, Lisa, to his new appointment at Asbury, Salisbury. Our prayers will follow them as they grow in years and in love together. We welcomed Mary Francis, the daughter of Floyd and Francie Twilley, born July 30, 1985; Jonathan Lee, son of Glenn and Lynn Lyburn, born August 21, 1985; and Jessica Ann, daughter of Mark and Anne Pruett-Barnett, born September 23, 1985.

Sorrowfully we said farewell to Sister Pauline Mills, the widow of Rufus Mills, and Dr. Howard B. Warren who have gone to join the Church triumphant. Our prayers and our love will remain with their relatives as they continue the rest of their journey.

Alexander Boda is on Leave of Absence. Dewey Crockett is on Disability Leave. Bonnie Farkasfalvy was appointed to attend school. Lewis Jones went on Disability.

Pastors who were appointed to other Districts:

Howard P. Ketterman - to Dover District
Gary L. Meekins - to Wilmington District
Gary Morganstern - to Easton District

Pastors who were appointed to this District:

Elaine Ayers	Harry A. Patterson, III
Ronald Bell	Adam E. Paul
Theodore E. Day	Sarah F. Paul
Howard Evans	William Rounsley
Gertrude Jones	Floyd A. Twilley
John F. Mitchell	G. Francis Wilson

Congratulations to our students who have completed their seminary training:

Thomas Blakelock	-	M. Div. Wesley Seminary
Bonnie Farkasfalvy	-	M. Div. Wesley Seminary
Robert Otchere	-	M. Div. Wesley Seminary
Lehman R. Tomlin	-	M. Div. Drew Seminary

And to those who continued the pursuit of excellence:

Robert L. Harris	-	D. Min. Drew Theol. School
Ashley A. Maxwell	-	D. Min. Wesley Seminary
Fred D. Wood, III	-	D. Min. Wesley Seminary

This year we celebrate with thanksgiving one hundred and twelve years of pastoral ministry with the retirement of Dr. Brooks Reynolds, after forty-eight years of service; Lewis Jones, after forty years of service; and Edgar N. Dennis, after twenty-four years of service. We thank God for the faithfulness of these servants and wish for them a retirement that is satisfying and fulfilling.

Any report of this kind, recounting as it does the work of ministry, must, of necessity, make mention of the service of our ministers who struggle to be faithful, sometimes against tremendous odds. There are not too many times when they were needed that they were not to be found on the front line, directing the battle stations. Sometimes there is a fight to maintain the United Methodist connectional system, a fight over apportionments, over the expenditure of Church funds, or the way appointments are made. There is always a fight, and our Pastors have been in the thick of it. We thank God for their witness and their steadfastness under every situation.

And so we face the future, in the certain knowledge that God, whose guiding hand has directed our journey, will not now withhold his favor.

This, this is the God we adore,
Our faithful, unchangeable friend;
Whose love is as great as His power,
And neither knows measure nor end.
'Tis Jesus, the first and the last,
Whose spirit shall guide us safe home;
We'll praise Him for all that is past,
And trust Him for all that's to come.

WILMINGTON DISTRICT

Dear Friends:

In my previous two reports I wrote about district stategies, program goals, personnel matters, congregational development, growth, and apportionments. Today, I would like to focus on the most significant accomplishments, or information, in each of these areas.

DISTRICT STATEGY

Early in my first year as District Superintendent with the help of William Ramsden, Consultant, five stategies were developed to guide the work on the district. One of those stategies had to do with financial aid and was stated as follows: "The district is key to dealing with the dilemma posed by the need for financial aid on one hand and the virtual certainty that providing it will undercut congregational development on the other hand."

I am pleased to report that the number of churches on the district with apportionment adjustments has decreased significantly. The facts are as follows:

1986 - 12

Each year, there are fewer churches being subsidized by the Conference and more churches standing on their own feet and paying their own way.

DISTRICT PROGRAM

The District Council on Ministries meets quarterly to coordinate and plan the program for the district. One of their nine goals for 1985-1986 was a special event for church secretaries through which we hoped to provide fellowship and express appreciation. The date was March 4, 1986, and eighty secretaries and pastors came out to enjoy the evening.
This event was the idea of the Reverend Donald J. Hurst who chaired the committee.

PERSONNEL MATTERS AND PARSONAGE FAMILIES

This has been a busy year with several changes in the district family including appointments and deaths. We are pleased to be ale to celebrate several graduations and one marriage.

A. Changes in Appointment during the year include:

The Reverend Harold Bolyard, Jr., full-time local pastor, went to St. John's-Moores, Elkton, MD on August 1, 1985.

The Reverend James C. Faltot, student local pastor, went to Friendship-Immanuel, Townsend, DE on August 1, 1985.

The Reverend Oscar M. Lopez, Jr., student local pastor, went to Asbury-Cokesbury-Tome, Port Deposit, MD on August 1, 1985.

The Reverend George B. Moody, student local pastor, went to Mt. Salem-Christiana-Kirkwood on August 1, 1985.

The Reverend Sun Yong Park, full member, Elder, went to South Indiana Conference on September 1, 1985.

The Reverend Kyong Nak Kim, member, other Methodist Denomination (Korean), went to Korean United Methodist Church, Newark, DE on November 1, 1985.

B. Transfers from the District family to the Church Triumphant:

1. Clergy

a. Ralph H. D. Hughes - June 29, 1985
b. Louis R. Dennis - October 11, 1985
c. Phillip A. Henry - November 5, 1985
d. Wilmer E. Abbott, Sr. - November 17, 1985

2. Spouse

a. Catherine L. Snead - November 14, 1985

C. Clergy who graduated this year:

The Reverend James W. Davis, Master of Divinity, from Howard University, December, 1985.

The Reverend Paul C. Bennett, Master of Divinity, from Wesley Theological Seminary, May, 1986.

The Reverend Mary Lou Green, Master of Divinity, from Lancaster Theological Seminary, May, 1986.

The Reverend Dr. John W. Simpers, Doctor of Ministry, from Drew Theological School, May, 1986.

D. One District pastor was married:

The Reverend Gary L. Moore to Jeanne Ellen Webster on February 14, 1986.

CONGREGATIONAL DEVELOPMENT

The congregational development study conducted on the District has been combined with the studies from the other Districts to create a set of Conference priorities. These priorities are for the building of new churches and the redevelopment of a few old churches.

The Conference wide priorities for new churches are listed below.

The second and third priorities are on the Wilmington District.

A. Fenwick Island
B. Glasgow
C. Route seven at Stoney Batter

The number one priority for redevelopment is Cecil County where nearly all the churches are growing and the clergy are meeting together on a weekly basis for Bible study and prayer, for discussion of common problems and development of mutual ministries.

STATISTICS AND GROWTH

Church growth is a concern from the General Conference down. The ten churches on the district that received the largest number of new members on profession of faith or restored are:

Newark	59	(3%)
St. Paul's	39	(2%)

Asbury	31	(2%)
Ebenezer	26	(3%)
Ezion-Mt. Carmel	26	(4%)
Hockessin	24	(3%)
Aldersgate	23	(1%)
Brandywine-Trinity	23	(25%)
Skyline	22	(6%)
St. Paul's, Odessa	20	(8%)

The churches which received higher percentages and thus deserve our recognition are:

A. 10% or more on profession of faith

1. Charlestown-Harts Charge

a. St. John's	16	(19%)
b. Hart's	12	(19%)

2. Wesley 13 (11%)

B. 5% or more on profession of faith

Skyline	22	(6%)
St. Paul's, Odessa	20	(8%)
Mt. Lebanon	18	(6%)
Simpson	16	(8%)
Salem	15	(6%)
Kirkwood	13	(6%)
Mt. Salem, Wilmington	13	(6%)
Leeds	11	(7%)
Moore's	8	(6%)
Zion	8	(6%)
Mt. Salem, New Castle	6	(9%)
Rosebank	6	(7%)
Baldwin	6	(5%)
Principio	5	(7%)
Eastlake	5	(5%)
Korean	4	(7%)
Asbury, Port Deposit	3	(8%)
Providence, Eklton	2	(8%)

There were only three charges/pastors who failed to receive a single person on profession of faith or restored.

MISCELLANEOUS

There are several more items I would like to report but there is no space. I will list them as follows:

A. Rachowd - The organization of District Religion and Race Chairpersons with Co-Chairpersons Charlie Ross and Charlie Mason.
B. Leadership Training Event - Drew over 400 people to share in workshops and hear Bishop Yeakel.
C. Celebration of Spirituals - Drew 1,100 people to celebrate our unity in diversity on the District.
D. District Conference - Drew 250 people to discuss open itineracy and cross-racial appointments.

As you can see, it's been a good year.

CONCLUSION

When I think of all the work we have undertaken on the District, I am almost overwhelmed. Were it not for the support of Bishop Joseph H. Yeakel, my colleagues on the Cabinet and Staff, and all the clergy and lay leadership on the district, the task would have been too much.

Finally, thanks be to God who sent the Holy Spirit to unite, comfort, counsel, help, encourage, empower, inspire, and excite us! May we all "Catch The Spirit" as we work together for the kingdom.

THE REPORT OF THE STATISTICIAN

Peninsula Annual Conference
Period: January 1, 1985 to December 31, 1985

United Methodists on the Peninsula and around the world are praying for membership growth, especially through persons received on confession of faith. Unfortunately, 1985 marked the third consecutive year of decline in membership. In 1983, a decrease of 116 members was recorded. During 1984, local church membership decreased by 370. In 1985, we experienced an even sharper decline of 475 members. As was the case in 1984, the principal causes of loss in membership appear to be removal by Charge Conference action, withdrawals, and death. In some instances, churches made adjustments to reflect actual number of members as determined through membership audit. In any event, it appears that a number of churches are continuing to "clean the rolls."

Dover District gained 104 members in 1985; Easton, Salisbury, and Wilmington recorded losses of 52, 245, and 282 members respectively. Final District totals were as follows:

Dover = 23,101
Easton = 21,828
Salisbury = 22,585
Wilmington = 30,466

There were 500 full-service churches and 28 limited service churches on December 31, 1985.

The number of members received on confession of faith or restored was approximately the same in 1985 as in 1984. However, on a positive note, a greater number of our churches received new members on confession of faith. Only 158 churches, or 31.6%, failed to receive members on confession of faith. The number of churches failing to receive any members at all declined to 129.

Average attendance in the principal weekly worship services essentially stabilized in 1985, following an increase in 1984. In 1985, 35.5% of church members attended the principal weekly worship service.

Total church school membership decreased in 1985 by 3.3% over the previous year. Church school attendance showed a corresponding decrease of 3.5%.

There are presently 163 full-service ethnic minority churches in the Conference. These reported 13,705 members at the end of 1985; a decrease of 131 over the total membership in ethnic minority churches in 1984.

I am once again grateful to pastors and churches who submitted accurate data in a timely fashion.

CONFERENCE COUNCIL ON MINISTRIES

The Report of the President

1985 has been a busy and exciting year for the Peninsula Annual Conference Council on Ministries. I will begin my report by expressing deep appreciation to the staff of the Council for their fine work and their leadership, especially in the area of spiritual development.

As everyone is aware, the Rev. Ms. Susan Keirn Kester joined the Council staff and is doing an outstanding job in the area of communications and public relations. We are fortunate as an Annual Conference to have such good staff support as we attempt to carry out our ministry.

I would be remiss if I did not express appreciation to all the members of the Council and its committees. My special thanks goes to the members of the Executive Committee who have given so freely of their time and counsel.

The following are some of the actions taken by the Council and its Executive Committee:

A. The Council carried out the Drayton study with Granger Westburg, Wellness Consultant. Following the Annual Conference decision to continue Drayton for three years, a board of directors was elected by the Council, with the Rev. Dr. Robert Whitlock as chairperson.

One of their early decisions was a request to the Council to sell a parcel of land, the proceeds from that sale to be invested and only the interest used to support the operating budget. Progress reports from the chairman of that board indicate commitment on the part of the board to seeing Drayton become a retreat center for the Peninsula Conference. (The Executive Committee recommended to the Council, and the Council approved, a decision to call the groups with program oversight for Drayton Manor and Camp Pecometh "boards of directors" rather than "committees." The title facilitates fund raising, but in no way changes the relationship of the institutions to the Conference Council on Ministries.)

B . The Council approved the following resolution:

> That the Peninsula Annual Conference Council on Ministries send a representative delegation to the South African Embassy with a message of great concern about their continuing system of apartheid. This includes the possibility of getting arrested. That the Council request the following persons to participate:
> Cliff Armour - The Council
> Ed Ellis - Dover District
> Ed Lasbury - Wilmington District
> Ewart Hackshaw - Salisbury District
> Howell Wilkins - Easton District
> Robert Price - A Conference Board
> Cindy Quillen - A Conference Lay Person
> Vernon Schmid - Wesley Foundation
> David Weber - A Conference Agency

C. In the 1984 report we mentioned the establishment of a Conference-wide plan for congregational development through the Board of Global Ministries. The Rev. Mr. James Riley is the chair of this committee and through district committees has been carrying out its work during 1985.

D. Following the 1985 session of Annual Conference the Council appointed a task force to develop a booklet on evangelism (church growth). The Rev. Dr. Edwin C. Thomas agreed to chair that committee and we anticipate a report at the 1986 session of the Annual Conference.

E. Following a request from the General Conference Council on Ministries to submit a mission statement from the Peninsula Annual Conference, the Council appointed a committee chaired by the Rev. David W. Baker to develop a mission statement. After designing a procedure of asking each local church to participate in this development, the committee plans to make a report to the Annual Conference in 1986.

F. The Rev. Dr. William Fitzhugh has agreed to chair the Council on Ministries Committee on Retreat Ministries. The committee will be developing a statement on the theology of retreating and also providing guidance on planning and implementing retreats.

G. A "special thank" you needs to go to the Spiritual Formation Task Force which, after functioning for the last several years, decided to disband, feeling that their tasks could be carried out by other agencies of the Peninsula Conference.

H. The chairperson of the Commission on Religion and Race resigned during 1985, and I must express to Guy Molock appreciation for his leadership. The work of the commission has been carried on by the vice-chair, Ms. Verdie Page.

I. At the request of the Conference president of the United Methodist Men, the Council voted to seat the district presidents of United Methodist Men as ex-officio members of the Council, without vote. This decision will be reviewed at the end of the quadrennium, with consideration being given to their having a vote. The decision impacts Annual Conference Rule #25.

J. At the request of the Council on Bishops, the Executive Committee asked several persons to read and respond to the peace statement prepared by the Council on Bishops. Also appointed was the GREAT Group (Generative, Reflective, Educative, and Theological) to respond to the General Commission studying the ministry.

K. The Personnel Committee of the Council conducted staff evaluations in 1985 and recommended to the Council that the Council request the reappointment of all staff.

L. The Executive Committee of the Council adopted and put into place upon recommendation of the Personnel Committee the following Supply Preaching Statement:

> Members of the staff of the Council on Ministries are hired to do specific jobs for the Annual Conference. When a staff member is invited to preach on a subject which relates to his/her job description it is expected that the pastor of the church will be present. The rationale is that the pastor should be present to hear what the staff person has to say. In this way all the leadership of the church have heard what the staff has presented. The work of the staff is thereby enhanced.

If a staff person is invited to supply a pulpit when the pastor is on vacation, it is the option of the staff person to accept or not. This is outside the job description of the staff person. If the staff person accepts the invitation, he/she may also accept an honorarium.

The staff may be called on in an emergency to supply a pulpit. It is expected that staff will respond affirmatively in such a situation with the expectation of an honorarium.

M. The Council appointed a Committee on Computer Utilization and asked the Rev. Mr. Richard Varell to serve as chair. The role of the committee is to assist local churches as they begin to use computers to facilitate their ministry.

N. Other reports, on Camp Pecometh, Drayton Manor, and REACH, will be found at the conclusion of this report.

It has been a pleasure to serve the Council as chair during 1985, and again I express my sincere appreciation to the staff, the Council, its committees, and the cabinet.

The Report of the Council Director

You will find a very adequate description of the work of the Council in the past year in the report of the Council President. Let me commend to the Annual Conference the work of the Rev. Clifford A. Armour, who, while serving one of the largest churches in the Peninsula Conference, has found time to give to the Council the full attention that it needed from its chair. He has spent untold hours in Dover carrying out the mandates of the Conference Council. The work described in his report has been carried out by the Conference staff as it has supported the boards and agencies to whom responsibilities were assigned.

Each staff member has an assignment with several of the boards and committees in the Conference and serves as liaison with the Conference Cabinet and with the Council on Ministries in doing the work which the Annual Conference sets before us. I have only high praise for all of the members of the Council staff who work tirelessly 60 and 70 hours each week to carry out their present assignments. This year, with the support of our Bishop and members of the Cabinet, the largest number of local church leaders to be trained at one time has been carried out at our mid-winter training workshops. The Rev. Harvey Manchester, in his role as Associate Director for Education and Leadership Development, led this program and contributed significantly to its success. The addition of Susan Keirn Kester to our staff as a full-time director of Communications and Public Relations has been a most valuable addition. The Conference's central priority on Strengthening the Ethnic Minority Local Church for Witness and Mission has been given able staff support in the person of Vaughn Johnson, who at the same time is working tirelessly to strengthen the Ethnic Minority Local Church as our director of Special Ministries.

We have had one of our best years in camping and the camp is indeed in excellent condition. Jack Simpers is doing outstanding work and has succeeded in leading the camp in its certification by the American Camping Association and has also accomplished the work necessary to be a Certified Camp Director by the ACA. Drayton Manor, under the leadership of its new chair, Dr. Robert P. Whitlock, and the Associate Council Director, James Morgan, is showing signs of renewed life and the early reports at the beginning of 1986 indicate a wider usage than in past years. On behalf of the staff and the Council, I also want to express appreciation to our Conference Business Manager, Theodore Briggs, and his staff who do so much for the work of the Conference Council in their administrative functions. The Conference also needs to be aware of the significant body of clergy and lay leadership that are giving hours of volunteer time to carry out the work of the Annual Conference and its boards and committees. Sometimes we take for granted that actions passed by an Annual Conference at its session often require hours of work to carry out and the willing labor of volunteers across the four districts.

The REACH program continues to literally touch world-wide mission. We are grateful to Robert Wallace and his committee, who along with Vaughn Johnson, continue to handle the multitude of details of receiving, accounting, and disbursing money to mission projects adopted by the local churches. Several new projects have been added this year and many church commitments have been completed. We are grateful to all who have made this a reality and who have continued to renew commitments that will continue into 1988.

We are deeply grateful to Bishop Yeakel who has found an unusual amount of time to share in the program areas of the Annual Conference. The Conference should know that the Bishop regularly participates in meetings of the Council on Ministries and has made significant contributions there as well as giving time to other boards and agencies as his schedule has permitted.

As every good pastor knows, it is support staff that really pulls it all together. Again I want to thank Shirley Still, Gloria Reed, and Toni Moor who support us all with skill and understanding. Above all, thanks to God who makes it all possible and who continues to sustain us.

J. Gordon Stapleton
Council Director

1987 Program Objectives

Responsibilities -- The responsibilities of the Annual Conference Council on Ministries are:

a) To describe, coordinate, and organize opportunities to respond to the missional priority, should any be adopted by the General Conference.

b) To assist the Annual Conference and local churches in discovering their mission and to determine program emphases which will enable them to fulfill their mission.

c) To receive program recommendations from the local churches, the district and Annual Conference agencies, and the Jurisdictional and General Council on Ministries; to evaluate these recommendations; and to formulate a coordinated conference program to be presented to the Annual Conference for consideration.

d) To provide staff personnel and necessary resources for the implementation and administration of the program adopted by the Conference.

e) To receive and coordinate the budget askings of all Conference program agencies and to determine priorities to make budget recommendations to the Conference Council on Finance and Administration.

f) To cooperate in ecumenical projects and events which have been approved by the Annual Conference.

g) To interpret the programs of the General Church, the Jurisdictional or Central Conference, and the Annual Conference to the local churches; and to promote all General and Annual Conference benevolences.

h) To provide two-way channels of communication among Annual Conference agencies, district Councils on Ministries, and local churches.

i) To provide for relationships with all news media within the Conference; to lead the Conference in making creative use of television and telecommunication ministries; to provide training in communication; and to perform public relations functions for the Conference.

j) To give leadership in research and planning for the Annual Conference.

k) To provide guidance and training for district and/or local church leaders.

l) To provide linkage with general program agencies and provide names of Annual Conference agencies and persons who carry program responsibilities related to each general program agency.

Camp Pecometh

The year 1985 proved to be an exciting and fruitful year in our camping ministry for the Peninsula Conference at Camp Pecometh. The program highlights were:

1. Summer Program: A variety of programs was offered including camping for Persons with Mental Retardation; Juniors and Middlers at Riverside and Pioneer; Middlers and Seniors at the Barn. The Travel Camps were of special interest and included the Canoe trip, Eastern Shore Bike Hike, Canoe-Back Packing in the Shenandoah Valley, and White Water Rafting. There were 942 campers in the 1985 Summer Program as compared to 871 for 1984 for an increase of 71. On the summer's staff were eight international counselors who brought a new dimension to the camping program. These counselors came from Sweden, England, Liberia, and Mexico.

2. Staff Racial Ratio: The racial ratio on the camp staff was increased from 8 non-white persons in 1984 to 11 non-white persons in 1985 out of a total of forty persons.

3. Offering for World Hunger: The largest offering ever received ($1,170) during the camping season was received in 1985. This was an increase of $318 over the previous year.

4. Camp Usage: 6,201 campers logged 15,793 camper days as compared to 4,862 campers who logged 13,655 camper days in 1984. This shows a net increase of 2,138 camper days.

5. E.M.L.C. Camperships: There were 20 camperships offered again and all 20 were used as compared to 17 used in 1984.

6. Recertification of Director/Manager: Our Camp Director/Manager was recertified by the American Camping Association for another five-year term, having met the necessary requirements for continuing education and professional involvement in the camping field.

7. Camp Development Program: Phase I under our Development Program was completed with the planting of 21 acres of pine trees as a buffer zone on the north end of the camp property along Land's End Road and with the completion of the new Administration Building. The building was dedicated on June 2, 1985.

8. Christian Education Offering: This offering is a means whereby the churches of the Conference express their support of the camping ministry. The offering for 1985 was the highest in the last 17 years showing receipts of $9,266, exceeding our goal of $7,000.

9. 40th Anniversary: The year 1986 will be our 40th year of church camping and a committee was formed with the Rev. Douglas Ridley as Chairperson to plan programs highlighting this observance.

10. Camp Accreditation by A.C.A.: The process of renewing accreditation by the American Camping Association in 1986 began last summer. The core standards for re-accreditation include Site Development, Administration, Personnel, Program, and Health Care. A committee has been formed with the Rev. John VanTine as Chairperson to assure Pecometh will meet the requirements for re-accreditation in 1986 for a three-year period.

11. Finances: At the end of our 1985, our figures showed a balance of $12,643 in the Operating Budget and $29,898 in the Specialty Budget, most of which is earmarked for Capital Improvements.

12. Reach: At the end of the 1985, the Lodge Fund balance was $29,400. The Camp Improvement Fund balance was $1,809.

13. Cabin Adoption Plan: This program has completed its tenth year of lay involvement in the camping ministry. Twenty-three buildings (from a total of twenty-eight) are under adoption.

14. Camp Newsletter: The "Pavilion" newsletter was instituted this year and was mailed to 650 homes quarterly. Its purpose was to communicate with present and former staff persons, campers and friends of the camp concerning our ongoing ministry.

15. Computer: The camp office received a computer/printer through the REACH Program as a gift from the Hillcrest-Bellefonte UMC.

16. Staff Training: The Director/Manager participated in the Third North American Symposium on Outdoor Ministries in Dayton, Ohio, and attended the ACA Convention held in Atlanta, Georgia. Currently he is a member of the Board of Directors, Chesapeake Section, ACA, serving as chairperson of the Religiously Affiliated Camps.

1987 Program Objectives

1. TO ESTABLISH A CAMP AMBASSADOR IN EVERY ETHNIC MINORITY LOCAL CHURCH OF THE PENINSULA CONFERENCE.

Process: Every minority local church will be contacted in the next two years. The Ambassadors will promote the camping ministry and campership funds available to ethnic minority children.

2. TO CONTINUE TO RECRUIT ETHNIC PERSONS TO SERVE ON THE SUMMER CAMP STAFF SO AS TO SECURE A MINIMUM GOAL OF 30% MINORITY REPRESENTATION.

Process: Maintain contact with those who have served and distribute materials and hold interviews at black colleges for prospective black staff persons.

3. TO INCREASE THE GENERAL CAMPERSHIP FUND FOR NEEDY CAMPERS BY 33%.

Process: Promote contributions to this fund through the Conference Communicator, the Ministers' Coordinated Mailing, and through individual and church sources.

4. TO CONTINUE TO IMPLEMENT THE CONSULTANT'S REPORT.

Process: The Camp Pecometh Board of Directors will assume responsibility for implementation in cooperation with the Conference Council on Ministries and the Council on Finance and Administration.

5. TO DEVELOP AND ENCOURAGE THE USE OF THE PECOMETH "SPEAKERS' BUREAU" THROUGHOUT THE PENINSULA CONFERENCE WITH SPECIAL EMPHASIS DIRECTED TOWARDS THE ETHNIC MINORITY LOCAL CHURCHES.

Process: Promote use of the "Speakers' Bureau" through the Communicator, Ministers' Coordinated Mailings, and the Ministers & Mates' Associations.

6. TO DEVELOP AT LEAST ONE NEW CAMPING PROGRAM DURING THE YEAR.

Process: Discover campers' interests and needs through written evaluations on a weekly basis in addition to communication with other church camps.

7. CONTINUE TO DEVELOP AND STRENGTHEN ADULT CAMPING PROGRAMS.

Process: Discover needs of adults who already use the camp and continue to work through the Conference Coordinators of Adult and Family Ministries in conjunction with the Conference Committee on Retreat Ministries.

Committee on Communications

1985 has been a good year for the Committee on Communications. We are very happy that a television spot was aired the latter quarter of the year. Done in two formats, thirty and sixty seconds, the TV spot depicted people struggling to get by in life and looking to the church for solace and strength. We are very thankful for the production people at WBOC-TV 16 in Salisbury, Maryland for their expertise and cooperation.

We are also thankful for the vision of our Council Director, the Rev. Dr. J. Gordon Stapleton. He has broadened our view of communications and has been a source of inspiration as the committee has lived out its purpose.

The step into the television market has been like the child who discovers the sweetness of the icing bowl; once we have a taste of it we want more. The multi-media market awaits our turn at sharing the gospel message of Jesus Christ. We trust that our past year will continue to spur us forward to new ways of sharing God's story through other ways than the standard one of print.

The Communicator does continue to be our staple mode of communication across the Conference. Our editor devotes much of her time to the newspaper, and to that end we hop it is inspiring and revealing helpful information.

Our editor, the Rev. Susan Keirn Kester, is new to her position. We as a committee are delighted to be working with her, and find ourselves running to keep up with her vision of communications. We are grateful for her time and ability.

Chairperson

1987 Program Objectives

1. OBJECTIVE: To increase the number of subscriptions to the Communicator by 2,000 by the year 1989.

   Goal: We shall mount a campaign drive using all available resources.

   Cost: $38,517.00

2. OBJECTIVE: To "Catch the Spirit" of good communication.

   Goal: We shall provide training workshops for use of video.

   Cost:

3. OBJECTIVE: Pastor's School. (Information forthcoming about the emphasis.)

4. OBJECTIVE: To do a pilot project with an Ethnic Minority Local Church utilizing radio.

   Goal: We shall co-sponsor, hopefully with a local church doing a religion and race project, part of the cost for this project.

   Cost: $500.00

5. OBJECTIVE: To continue our television presence throughout the Annual Conference.

   Goal: We shall produce thirty-second to two-minute television spots depicting life situations and how the United Methodist Church can resolve, or provide resources for our lives.

   Cost: $8,000.00

6. OBJECTIVE: To continue informing the secular press of United Methodist news.

   Goal: We shall mail news releases to the secular press covering our Annual Conference.

7. OBJECTIVE: To interpret the programs of the General Church and the Annual Conference to the local churches, and to promote benevolent causes.

   Goal: We shall send information to people of the Conference through the Coordinated Mailing.

   Cost: $800.00

Council on Family Ministries

For the Family Council, the last twelve months have been a time of exploring new resources for family ministry in local churches and moving out into three specific areas of concentration: Marriage Enrichment, Family Enrichment, and Parenting.

Marriage Enrichment: In the past, churches have used film series on marriage enrichment, such as the Dobson Series, with their congregations. The Family Council wanted to compile a new list of both film and video resources on marriage enrichment to suggest to local churches who wanted to continue their marriage enrichment programs. To that end, the Family Council went to the Mass Media Film Library in Baltimore and spent a day previewing new films recently released for marriage enrichment. After looking at several, the Council decided to recommend Success In Marriage, a New Seminar Film Series featuring Dr. Charles V. Petty. This three-film series is available for rent from Mass Media Ministries, (301)727-3270. It was to be tested in a local church in January and an article written for the Communicator.

Family Enrichment: The Baltimore Conference and the Virginia Conference graciously invited all families in the Peninsula Conference to come along with them to a special United Methodist Family Day at Kings Dominion outside of Richmond, Virginia on Saturday, May 10, 1986. The Family Council sent out flyers and brochures advertising the day and planned to handle ticket requests from church families because this was a way families could simply take time to enjoy an occasion and each other.

Parenting: In 1984, the Family Council bought the video-based parenting program, Active Parenting, for use by local churches in the Conference. Last spring, it was used on a trial basis for six weeks in a local church where 19 parents met weekly to share with each other and interact with the families on the video tapes in terms of parenting concerns.

Some of their comments were helpful: "This has made me think about how I was raised and the effect it has had on my life and helped me see the changes that could be made with my children."

"We need more time to talk about specific problems with other parents."

On Saturday, March 15, 1986, the Family Council invited ten interested persons from local churches who wanted to lead parenting courses to come to a leader-in-training course at Ewell-St. Paul's in Clayton, Delaware. In the day-long seminar, they explored the leader's guide and went through some of the video segments to learn how to use the program in the most effective way. The program is available to all local churches at the Conference Resource Center.

1987 Program Objectives

1. Resources for "Post-Divorce" Families in Local Churches

To provide a list of resources to local churches to help parents and children who are experiencing the pain of separation in divorce and re-connection in "blended" families.

2. Resource Packets for Family Life Week in Spring 1987

To provide packets of materials and resources to encourage local churches to celebrate families during Family Life Week in an intentional way.

Family Life Coordinator

Council on Ministries With Children

In March of 1985, a Seminar on Children And/In Crisis was presented to help pastors, teachers, and workers with children minister more effectively with children in crisis situations. This event, jointly sponsored with the Division of Human Relations of the Board of Church and Society, was well attended and was beneficial for those who participated.

Four members of the Children's Council were among thirteen Peninsula Conference persons who attended Focus '85, National Conference on Ministry with Children, held in Nashville, TN in July. Participants experienced workshops in the areas of programming, child care/pre-school, nurture and worship...all designed to expand the impact of ministries with children.

As an outgrowth of this conference several areas of need emerged:

- The importance of involving children in mission education.
- Interest in specialized areas of ministry (puppetry, worship, recreation).
- Concern about day care, after school care.

The Children's Council will attempt to address these and other needs.

In December the Children's Council designed and made available to churches throughout the Conference a mission packet. Activities/ideas suggested in the packet were designed to help children support Angie Myles, a REACH project in Sierra Leone, by collecting needed school and medical supplies.

Cindy Quillen
Chairperson

Council on Youth Ministries

The Youth Council began the Conference year with a retreat at Camp Pecometh. This was a dual purpose retreat to plan for the year's work and to prepare the youth delegates for the Annual Conference session.

Two sub-district models for training youth and youth leaders were tested on the Dover District. The Youth Council, working with the EMLC Task Force on Youth, is trying to organize a youth ministry on each of the sub-districts of the Conference.

The Youth Council has been represented at each of the Northeastern Jurisdictional Youth Council meetings and has helped with the planning of a peace mission to Russia and a youth celebration, both to be held in the summer of 1986. The Youth Council has two youth from the Conference going to Russia and is encouraging attendance at the Youth Celebration at Albright College. There were three representatives at the NYMO Convocation in the summer of 1985.

Herman Lipsius has been serving as Youth Service Fund Director for the Conference. Working with Innisbruk Wraps over thirty youth groups were involved with local fund-raising and YSF fund-raising. The Youth Service Fund is again being promoted after a long lapse in such promotion.

The Youth Council, guided by Pat Foard and ably supported by Harvey Manchester, organized, promoted, and conducted another successful Confirmation Rally.

The primary concern of the Youth Council in the 1986-87 Conference Year will be the organizing of the sub-districts.

Drayton Manor

The Resolution adopted by the 1985 Annual Conference as regards Drayton Manor was clear. "Drayton Manor should be retained as a center for spiritual renewal with oversight by a committee of the Conference Council on Ministries; that it be funded through the Conference budget for only three years and that during that time we institute other processes to fund Drayton."

A new Board of Directors was selected and met for the first time in September, 1985. We are the inheritors of a history of Drayton where many important and significant events had taken place for twenty years. A lot of energy on the part of predecessor groups has gone into the facility and its program. The facts that we are facing, however, are these: Twenty years ago we moved into a house and the surrounding area; we changed the furnishings making only a few minor changes in the house and grounds; no major changes have been made to adapt this property for its new use. The new Board of Directors sees that a major part of the effectiveness and success in our ability to deal with Drayton Manor as a viable part of the Peninsula Annual Conference is our ability to deal radically with the structure, grounds, development of programs and adequate marketing. We also know that we must establish a firm financial base so that Drayton is not dependent on the Conference for subsidy. That is our clear direction.

To that end, the Board of Directors has met (by the date of this Pre-Conference Journal Report in February) some seventy hours in order to facilitate this process. The fact that this report is written in mid-February will indicate that we are still very much in the process although we seem to have a very clear direction. It is the intention that we should present at the Annual Conference Session in 1986 a very detailed and specific report as regards the physical changes that need to be made at Drayton, the radically broadened program use so that the center is appealing to a larger number of persons, the development of an exciting and aggressive marketing program as well as the establishment of a financial base that will permit the independence of Drayton Manor from Conference subsidy by the 1989 budget. (That, of course, excludes the salary and support of the resident director of Drayton Manor whose task is not limited to Drayton Manor but also includes resource as a Conference staff member to the evangelism emphasis of our Annual Conference.)

A genuine word of thanks to the support staff at Drayton. They do a job beyond pay in terms of dedication and seem clearly ready to help us move Drayton into our new phase of effectiveness.

Let me then share with you excerpts from the report of our Resident Director:

> PROGRAM A total of 41 groups from the Conference came to retreat or to plan; 16 churches, (including 6 Ethnic Minority churches) and 25 Boards or study groups. In addition, there were 14 churches from the Baltimore Conference and some 40 other groups including churches, civic organizations and colleges. This year there were 5,852 people days compared to 5,327 for 1984. It should be noted that the increase occurred in the Fall because of additional emphasis and contact; it is anticipated that 1986 will show more dramatic increase.
> In addition to its retreat ministry, Drayton offered 13 Continuing Education events, 9 of which were held. (Two were cancelled because the leadership became ill and one because the leader became a Bishop.) The seminars were on Bible, Theology, Prayer, Preaching, Social Issues, and Spiritual Formation. Some 271 persons attended the various seminars. Drayton plans to expand and extensively publicize its Continuing Education Program for 1986; twenty-one continuing education offerings are in our schedule with a broad area of appeal.

Drayton was also host for a Triathlon race for the East Coast which drew 450 contestants and over 1,000 persons in attendance. It was a memorable and fun-filled day. It also provided some $3,000 additional income for the budget.

FINANCE Due to the substantial increase in revenue (over $15,000), Drayton finished the year some $16,446 ahead of its projected budget. The surplus money has already been targeted for immediate repairs and improvements. A number of 1986 budget items for Scholarships and extensive publicity and program are also part of those funds.

The Friends of Drayton are a continuing source of encouragement and support. They gave $6,589 this year up 31% from 1984. Many are enthusiastic about the future and have requested to be on the mailing list so that they might participate in it. It is our goal that this figure should reach $12,000 in 1986 through the efforts of the Finance Committee of the Board. A greatly expanded mailing list is in place for that purpose.

PROPERTY A day's worth of headlines and celebration was the one this year when the water was finally iron free. This has been a historic problem and one which has been tackled intensely in the past five years. With the water tower completely refinished on the inside and a new system installed for removing the iron, the task has finally been accomplished. Eight double beds have been added to the rooms and new carpet has been laid in 15 rooms. The Annex was painted by a generous Kinnaird Point neighbor and new storm windows and doors were also installed. In the last two years this building has been completely re-done, inside and out.

Eight new showers have been added and a new bathroom for the third floor is on the drawing board. "There is a vigilant effort on the part of the Board to keep the facility in good repair and upgraded as needed. A number of new projects are already proposed for 1986 in addition to major renovation in the planning stages." -Jim Morgan, Resident Director PROGRAM An appeal to the broader nature of our Annual Conference by developing program and usage that reflects our plurality.

MARKETING Intensifying our approach with new brochures reflecting the vast variety of opportunities Drayton offers (not only for Spiritual growth but also for training and relationship building as we hope to utilize more of the days of the year). Also, radically broadening our area of contact in mailings.

FACILITIES Major renovations of facilities and the development of the grounds; if a Capital Fund Drive is successful, adding rooms and an elevator to improve usage by older adults and the handicapped.

FINANCE Development of an endowment fund with sufficient income to move Drayton out of the need to be subsidized by the Annual Conference. Excluding the support of the Resident Director, to need no subsidy in the 1989 Annual Conference Budget.

AND FINALLY AND INTENTIONALLY To offer Drayton Manor as an exciting source of spiritual energy in order to introduce the members of this Annual Conference to a deepening experience in Jesus Christ.

Robert P. Whitlock
President Board of Directors

1987 Program Objectives

1. To increase the use of Drayton's facilities by Ethnic Minority Local Churches by 30%.

   This would involve direct person-to-person contact by the Director and Members of the Board of Directors.

2. To provide scholarship aid to all EMLC pastors and lay persons who request it and to as many others as possible. This would mean establishing a percentage of the budget for these funds.

3. Retreat Ministry: to lift the level of awareness regarding the importance of retreating and the development of the spiritual life in an intensive context.

   This would be achieved by writing articles in the Communicator, Drayton's Newsletter and direct mailings.

4. Retreat Facility: To continue to upgrade the entire facility and finalize a comprehensive plan for capital improvements, including buildings and possible funding. To complete the present plans for walking and meditation areas.

5. Conference Recommendations: To continue to reduce the Conference allocation request from $27,000 to $15,000 and to develop a strategy to eliminate the allocation request completely by the end of 1988.

6. Spiritual Formation and Continuing Education: To continue to develop a comprehensive and broad-based program in spiritual formation and continuing education for both the clergy and laity. This would mean at least 20 events spread out over the year.

   There will be an expansion of the present target audience to include Southern NJ, Eastern PA, as well as all of the churches on the Peninsula and in the Baltimore/Washington area.

Missional Priority Coordinating Committee

Before reporting on the work of our committee for the year 1985, I would like to express my appreciation to members of our committee who have been regular in their attendance at meetings and who have worked hard toward the achievement of our goals, In particular, I wish to recognize the faithful work of Vaughn Johnson, who has served as staff assistance to the committee.

The Missional Priority Coordinating Committee organized January 6, 1985, has spent most of the year reviewing reports and materials, organizing, establishing goals and developing funding criteria.

Specific realistic goals have been adopted and are being carried out by the following committees:

Spiritual/Cultural, Promotion/Cultivation Committee, chaired by Tina Miles:

1. Develop MPCC-EMLC District Rallies for Interpretation of the Missional Priority.

2. Develop a Convocation on EMLC for Interpretation purposes.

3. Develop and Implement a Missional Priority Sunday for all churches.

Program Committee, chaired by Grant Johnson:

1. To continue to monitor program goals for the Conference boards and agencies to determine appropriate programs for advocacy by Missional Priority Committee and to determine areas in need of program development.

2. To work with existing boards and agencies and if necessary refer program needs of the E.M.L.C. to insure the fullest involvement of every area in the Missional Priority.

3. To identify E.M.L.C. churches that have not adopted a statement of purpose and ministry and to provide models for adapting this statement which reflects assessments and assets, limitations, and future possibilities.

4. To identify effective models of youth evangelism and programming in the E.M.L.C. and advocate their implementation - to encourage revival of biennial district youth events and Annual Conference Youth Rallies.

5. To advocate participation by E.M.L.C.'s in laboratory schools for teacher training.

6. To review models for changing the understanding of commitment to stewardship that are appropriate to the E.M.L.C.

7. To advocate the development of charge-wide ministries through charge-wide agencies such as Charge Council on Ministries or Administrative Councils.

8. To review existing programs of Evangelism and Church Growth that are specific to the E.M.L.C. or can be adapted by the E.M.L.C.

9. To support and advocate the African Church Growth Priority.

10. To develop and implement the District Missional Priority Team Proposal.

Proposal/Evaluation Committee, chaired by Robert Young

1. We plan to fund at least two projects in evangelism and church growth for E.M.L.C. churches.

2. We plan to fund the projects we funded last year providing they meet the E.M.L.C. guidelines.

3. We will help coordinate funding for approved projects and seek sources of funding, some possible sources being:

   GBGM - General Board of Global Ministries
   CBOGM - Conference Board of Global Ministries
   GBGM - National Division, General Board of Global Ministries
   General Commission of Religion and Race
   General Board of Discipleship

4. We will evaluate the present projects funded in 1985 to see if the recipients of the funding have reached their goal.

Monitoring Committee, Executive Committee (no report)

The following are projects funded to date:

1. Funding for Youth and Adult Retreat - Mt. Zion U.M.C. ($708.75)

2. Send two youth (B) to camp for two-week training workshop to become camp counselors - Neighborhood House ($304)

3. Send five youths per district to Camp Pecometh - Jack Simpers ($1,250)

4. Secretarial assistance for Wesley Temple Church - Gonzalee Matthews ($1,500)

5. Conference on Religion and Race Event - J. T. Seymour ($300)

6. Empowering the commitment to E.M.L.C. through special consultants ($12,000)

One of the highlights of the year was to have a committee travel to Chicago on September 5-8, 1985, for a training event on how to implement the missional priority in Annual Conference.

REACH

REACH, a Peninsula Conference program of mission and stewardship, continues to enable local churches to be mission-minded. Whereas all the financial goal set has not been completely realized, many organizations, local churches, and individuals have joined the mission ranks as we reach out to embrace. This is clearly visible in the development of the Angie Myles Support Committee. Angie Myles was a health nurse of the Taiama Health Clinic in Sierra Leone. After visiting our Conference last year, she stirred up so much interest that a committee in support of her and her work developed. Angie is no longer with the health unit in Taiama but has a supervisory position over most health clinics controlled by the United Methodist Church in Sierra Leone and stands in great need of medicine and supplies. As a result, the Angie Myles Support Committee, a task force committee of the REACH Committee, was formed and it continues to gather support for Angie and her work through Peninsula Conference churches. This task force will be sponsoring Curt Knepp, a paramedic from Wilmington, Delaware, to go to Sierra Leone to train nurse's aides in better health care methods.

The Rev. James Karmbor and the Rev. Robert Otchere have completed their seminary education at Wesley Theological Seminary. These persons were the last of the three Liberian personnel that REACH had contracted with Bishop Kulah to support.

Many churches are looking for ways to support the Missional Priority and REACH together. Projects such as Special Ministries EMLC Mission Project and Literary Project, Wesley College Minority Scholarships and Loans, and Grants for Parsonages and Churches are channels through which they can support both the Missional Priority and REACH.

As REACH moves into this 84-88 Quadrennium the REACH Committee, along with the Conference Council on Ministries, is developing a special task force to look at "after REACH -- What?" Regardless of what form REACH takes after '88, our hope and dream is that our church be mission-minded. If REACH has done nothing else it has taught churches what it means to be in Christian mission. I think that is a job well done.

Goals Accomplished:

A. Personalized REACH mission projects through promotion as seen in the COMMUNICATOR and church-to-church visitation.

B. Developed a high level of accountability through the monitoring committee.

We wish to thank the REACH Committee and Robert O'Kelley Wallace, Chairperson, and the local churches of the Peninsula Conference for their intentional support of REACH through this part of the Conference year.

Monies credited to REACH Projects (January - December 1985):

Category I
Liberia - $8,501.22
Sierra Leone - $24,108.51
Haiti - $6,969.61

Category II
Annual Conference Projects - $42,579.18

Category III
Local Church Projects - $17,824.32

Vaughn A. Johnson
Director

1987 Program Objectives

A. Continue to personalize REACH through promotion and visitation, and development of support groups such as the Angie Myles Support Committee.

B. Support the efforts of the Support Committee.

C. Development of REACH Task Force to examine "After REACH -- What?"

D. Continue to gather commitment and support for remaining projects.

SPECIAL MINISTRIES

The task of Special Ministries has been clearly affirmed throughout this Conference year. And just what is that task? It is to enable and empower ethnic minority local churches to make a strong witness to mission and ministry throughout the whole Christian church and particularly the United Methodist Church. Special Ministries affirms its commitment to the Missional Priority as we attempt to enable the United Methodist Church to be an inclusive church - a church representative of diverse cultures and religious experience but held together by the common thread of Jesus Christ.

Special Ministries has sought to perform this task throughout this Conference year by the following accomplishments:

A. The grand opening of four district EMLC Resource Centers
   1. Wesley Temple U.M.C., Salisbury District
   2. Scott U.M.C., Easton District
   3. Mt. Calvary U.M.C. in Bridgeville, Dover District
   4. Ezion-Mt. Carmel U.M.C., Wilmington District

These resource centers function as localized centers for Christian ministry. They are staffed by local church volunteers and Special Ministries Consultants.

B. Continued to utilize the work of the Special Ministries Consultants to work with local churches to help them discover the definition of program through mission and ministry rather than through building enterprises. This was done through a needs assessment instrument.

C. Worked with the Missional Priority Coordinating Committee to develop an intentional comprehensive plan and strategy of moving the whole church from a reaching mode to an embracing mode of EMLC. This is being done through the development of the District Missional Priority Team Proposal.

D. Affirmed the work of strengthening EMLC youth by working with the Youth Council to develop program and structure to give guidance to EMLC local churches in the area of youth work.

E. Worked with the Missional Priority Coordinating Committee to have a Conference event that is inclusive of all ethnic groups. This is seen through the Conference celebration to be held during the '86 Annual Conference session.

As we look forward to the future we see it with great anticipation and enthusiasm as we continue to support the work of the Missional Priority Coordinating Committee by:

A. Resource Ethnic Centers
B. Development of a Literary Program at the Resource Centers.
C. Emphasizing the work of youth and evangelism.
D. Identifying one church/charge per district for the implementation of a church community developer program.
E. Implementation of the District Missional Team Proposal.

With God's help and divine strength we move to the realization and fulfillment of our expectations, hopes, and dreams.

Vaughn A. Johnson
Associate Council Director

BOARD OF CHURCH AND SOCIETY

The Board of Church and Society spent the year focusing on two new areas of concern while attending to on-going tasks. In the Fall, the Board sponsored the attendance of two representatives to the national meeting in Kentucky on Pornography, Violence, and Christian Values.

In the aftermath of that event we wanted to be sure there was some form of follow-up at our Conference level. To achieve this goal, we created a Task Force chaired by Mr. Art Gamsby of Newark. The membership of the task force includes all of those Peninsula Conference clergy and laity who attended the national meeting, including representatives from the Board of Global Ministries and the United Methodist Women. The task force should be ready to report its recommendations for action by the time of Annual Conference.

Another area of concern has to do with the farm crisis - the human suffering and family dislocation which is occurring in farming communities across the nation. In an effort to determine the impact on our Conference area farmers, the Board has created a Task Force on Farm Life. It is hoped that this task force will enable a dialogue between farmers and Conference clergy who serve in rural areas.

A recent concern about substandard housing has led to preliminary discussion between this Board and the Board of Global Ministries. There is the possibility that a joint task force will be created to address this serious need.

Through its Division of World Peace, chaired by the Reverend Charles Walter, Division of Human Relations, chaired by the Reverend Richard Green, and the Division of General Welfare, chaired by William Jones, the Board has acted in such areas as personal ministry to prison inmates, peace with justice through support of Pacem in Terris, and financial assistance to the Delmarva Ecumenical Agency's Smyrna Bus Ministry.

Robert M. Price
President

1987 Program Objectives

1. Pacem In Terris

   To support Pacem in Terris, which is an ecumenical organization dedicated to the cause of peace with justice, serving Delaware and the Eastern Shore of Maryland.

2. Children in Crisis

   To educate clergy and laity of the Peninsula Conference regarding problems facing children.

3. Yokefellows Prison Ministry

   To train men and women for a direct ministry to prison inmates.

4. Peace with Justice Resources

   To provide needed resources to facilitate Peace with Justice work throughout the Conference.

5. Crisis Help Program

   To assist the homeless in the Cecil County, Maryland and Newark, Delaware areas through support of special housing projects.

6. Holistic Health Seminar

   To deal with health issues, especially substance abuse, which impact the family and general population.

7. Smyrna Prison Bus Ministry

   To assist the financing of this ecumenical program sponsored by DEA which pays the bus fare of families with loved ones serving in the Delaware State Prison who cannot afford the bus fare to make visits there.

BOARD OF DISCIPLESHIP

The role of the Board of Discipleship is to be of support and service to all churches of the Peninsula Annual Conference. To fulfill this mandate, the Board members and staff identified the following areas of ministry for which we provided resources and services: Evangelism, Church School Development, Strengthening the Ethnic Minority Local Church, Curriculum Resources, Worship, Developing Devotional Resources, Education for Christian Living, Stewardship, Age-Level and Family Ministries, and Leadership Development and Training.

Several concerns that cut across all programs, actions, decisions and directives for the Board were: (1) Resourcing and servicing small churches; (2) Being aware of and concerned for the needs of the various ethnic minority groups; (3) Giving special attention to the matter of value formation -- Christian ethics and values which form the basis for moral strength and commitment; (4) Giving special attention to the needs of persons across the life span. These needs of persons differ according to their age and station in life. These concerns will be a part of the Board of Discipleship agenda during the entire 1985-88 Quadrennium.

During the past year the Board and its divisions have listened and tried to respond to the needs expressed by all churches -- the smallest to the largest -- the urban and the rural alike.

I want to express appreciation to the Division Chairpersons: Donald O. Clendaniel II, Evangelism; Paul R. Bauer, Education; Alfred E. Taylor, Worship; and Michaele S. Russell, Stewardship. The Staff, Harvey Manchester, Jr., James R. Morgan, and Vaughn A. Johnson, have all been most helpful as well as Consultants, Doris Phillips and Elizabeth St. Clair, and Children's Coordinator, Cindy Quillen.

The Board of Discipleship was fortunate in having had Dr. Edwin Ellis assigned to us as Cabinet Representative.

James C. Hardcastle
Chairperson

1987 Program Objectives

Board Planning and Training: A Friday night/Sat. Retreat to coordinate the planning of the Divisions of Education, Evangelism, Stewardship, and Worship and to update the Board in terms of its linking function between the General Board, the Annual Conference, and the local church.

Division of Education

This has been another rewarding year for the work of education in our Conference. Harvey Manchester has joined the Council Staff and has brought new skills and enthusiasm to the Division which have helped greatly. It has been my joy to work with him on this level.

We reorganized the Division this year by appointing ongoing committees to carry out the work and accomplish our goals. This has met with outstanding success thanks to the dedication of the members of the Division and the fine leadership of the committee chairpersons: Consultants - Richard Varell, Clusters - Harvey Manchester, Lay Leadership - Fred Seyfert, Workshops - Liz St. Clair, Resource Center-Earle Baker, Conference Display - Nancy Leathrum. My special thanks goes to each of you for a job well done.

Our focus in 1985 has been on the local church. The Dollar Workshops for teachers, updating the Resource Center, and our Educational Consultants all aim in this direction.

A special word needs to be said about our Educational Consultants, Doris Phillips and Liz St. Clair. They work directly with local churches to help strengthen and expand their educational ministries. There is no cost to the local church for this service. Both of these ladies have been doing a super job and much of their effort has been centered on EMLC churches.

During 1985 the Division co-sponsored with Special Ministries a workshop on the Pastor as Christian Educator. Dr. Willard Williams was the keynote speaker for this much-needed training.

Five members of the Division and 10 others from the Conference attended Focus 85 in Nashville this year. This event was on "Children - The Word and the World." Many fine ideas were brought back and are being incorporated into our program.

In addition, we also provided financial support to the Delmarva Ecumenical Agency for its work and the Lay Academy in New Castle County which offers courses for people in the area.

Paul R. Bauer
Chairperson

1987 Program Objectives

1. Lay Leadership Training
   To encourage and recruit persons for training events within and beyond the Conference and to support persons wishing to become certified through Lab Schools.

2. Staff Training
   To provide opportunities for the education staff person to attend continuing education events to improve his skills.

3. Resource Center
   To provide printed and visual Christian education resources for the Center; to help computerize the resource catalog.

4. Workshops
   To develop training events for educators, especially church school teachers.

5. Delmarva Ecumenical Agency
   To support the DEA Resource Center and the ecumenical ministry of the Lay Academy.

6. Christian Education Consultants
   To provide experts to go into local churches to offer specific help for education.

7. Clustering Strategy/Response
   To meet with clusters of churches to provide useful input for education and to discover the needs of the churches involved.

8. Grief Recovery Training
   To offer a one-day training event at two locations to explore the strategies for coping with grief in local churches.

9. Theology of Curriculum
   To help pastors develop ways to interpret, evaluate, and support the choice of curriculum in a local church through a 6-hour workshop with .6 CEU's.

10. Bible Workshop for Teachers
    To develop leaders to lead/teach Bible Study through a day-long workshop in 4 or more areas where workshops are not normally held.

11. Annual Conference Focus
    To provide a display and other resources for Annual Conference.

Division of Evangelism

What a joy it is to share with you how God has poured out His blessings upon the work of the church during this last year. As I travel across the peninsula preaching and sharing the Good News from the pulpit and in workshops, I can sense a fresh move of the Holy Spirit. That same Spirit which at "about a quarter before nine on the evening of May 24, 1738" gave birth to Methodism in the heart and life of John Wesley.

Three major events in evangelism were held across the Conference in 1985. The Successful Church Leadership Seminar developed by Dr. Robert H. Schuller was held in the Wilmington district in May. It was very well attended. Each person went away from the seminar knowing that "we can do all things through Christ who strengthens us."

In November Dr. Ronald K. Crandall, associate professor of Evangelism at Asbury Theological Seminary in Wilmore, KY, conducted two workshops on assimilating new members-the meaning of membership in the church. Dr. Crandall is a spirit-filled teacher and will be coming back to the Dover District at a later time. The two workshops, one at Asbury Church, Smyrna, DE, and the other at Asbury Church, Salisbury, MD, gave the participants valuable insights into receiving and equipping new members for ministry.

In October the first meeting was held by Bishop Yeakel with the pastors and lay leadership of those churches which had not received any new members on confession of faith. This meeting was not only helpful to those who attended, but a message to all of us that we are all accountable to the great commission of our Lord Jesus.

Donald O. Clendaniel, II
Chairperson

1987 Program Objectives

1. Evangelism Training
   To offer Drayton Manor experience for clergy and laity.

2. Children/Youth Crusade
   Win young people to Christ.

3. Assimilation Workshop
   Bringing new members into the life and ministry of the church.

4. District Celebration Inspiration

Division of Stewardship

The Division of Stewardship has maintained a focus on the holistic nature of stewardship in all of life, and primarily as it relates to one's commitment to Jesus Christ. It continues to stress its programmatic theme, "Everyone A talent: Everyone A Task," and it is participating in programs that are designed to help the local church realize the truth of that statement. The Division of Stewardship has also felt a great need to stress the accountability factor involved in living out a lifetime of good, effective stewardship.

In 1985, the Division of Stewardship participated in the following stewardship programs:

a) Developed a Stewardship framework for an emerging model to be implemented in local church/training workshops (two local churches per district. Training was done by the Division of Stewardship).

b) Provide Bi-District Training Stewardshops located in Cambridge for the Easton and Salisbury Districts and in Smyrna for the Dover and Wilmington Districts. Training was done by personnel from the Division of Stewardship, Nashville, TN.

c) Developed preparatory steps for a promotional piece for the Order of St. Barnabas as a Conference-wide Stewardship program.

d) Two (2) members of the Division of Stewardship participated in the annual NASL leadership training workshops in Dearborn, Michigan in April 1985.

e) The Division of Stewardship provided a Conference Display on Stewardship to stimulate interest and awareness of stewardship in general while also providing recent information and resources on the subject.

f) It emphasized Stewardship Sunday and encouraged local churches and pastors to observe the day.

The Division of Stewardship has been made keenly aware of the Missional Priority and has tried to make itself available to EMLC churches. To date, a large percentage of the workshops offered by the Division of Stewardship have been done in EMLC churches which have desired training and skills in the area of stewardship. These workshops have been very well attended in general. Various information and resources regarding stewardship have also been made available to EMLC churches by mail upon their request.

Michaele S. Russell
Chairperson

1987 Program Objectives

1. Stewardship Workshops for the Local Church
   To equip local churches with a clear understanding of stewardship in a broader sense, that is to say, a stewardship resources ministry rather than just finance ministry. The small church model will continue to be implemented where applicable, and an urban model will be developed and implemented for the large church.

2. Training for Division of Stewardship, local church work area chairpersons of Stewardship along with District Secretaries.
   To equip and train persons of stewardship to lead in Local Church Training events plus provide a Stewardship Retreat at Drayton Manor.

3. Promotional Program for Stewardship
   To promote Stewardship in a broader sense as it resources ministry and mission, to make a promotional video tape for Order of St. Barnabas, and to encourage local churches in ways and means of participating in stewardship locally and connectionally as seen through REACH, Order of St. Barnabas, Stewardship Sunday, and Training events, and award churches who have done so.

4. Four District Rallies in Support of Stewardship
   To promote and strengthen Stewardship by lifting up the connectional link through the Order of St. Barnabas.

Division of Worship

At the very outset of my report on the Division of Worship's work during 1985, I would like to thank all those folk who contributed their time, energy, creativity, and prayers in the planning and fruition of our goals. By our fruits you can judge our work!

For Annual Conference in 1985, we invited Mrs. Elise Shoemaker Eslinger to be our worship resource leader. She led us in some familiar tunes and challenged us to learn some new hymns from Hymns From the Four Winds and Celebramos. Judging from our evaluation sheets and word-of-mouth, her gifts and messages in song were very well received! In response to that, we have asked Mrs. Judy Loehr to be our worship resource leader for Annual Conference this year to continue this tradition of making a joyful noise unto the Lord!

Also at Annual Conference last year, all the lay members and pastors received a copy of "Emmanuel, God With Us," an Advent devotional booklet. As Annual Conference is the work of the people, so also was this booklet a combined endeavor of both clergy and laity. Every article that was submitted to our division was included without any editing. The book is a "testimony" by the people of the Peninsula Conference as to how "Emmanuel" has been revealed in their lives. 1,000 copies were printed and they have all been distributed to the people. To God be the glory for this collective endeavor!

The Division, with our continuing education funds, helped to sponsor three people's trips to Syracuse to "Soundings," the National School of Worship from July 15-19. We were fed and encouraged by the School of Worship, and the local church will receive the fruits of this experience in the years ahead.

The final event we planned was the Brian Wren Workshop held at St. Mark's U.M. Church in Easton on October 26. Eric Routley said that this man was "the finest hymn text writer since Charles Wesley." Brian Wren is a minister in the United Reformed Church of England and a noted hymn writer. We were truly blessed in having him come to our area. We were disappointed that only about 35 people came to his presentation. Those who chose not to attend missed a great opportunity to learn new songs of faith, and to wrestle with the theology found in hymns, language about God, and worship in the real world, to name just a few of the topics discussed. The feedback from those who attended was positive.

There are many more tasty and nourishing "meals of delight" simmering on the back burners of our Division. Please feel free to tell us if the programs we are planning for the future meet with your approval.

Alfred E. Taylor
Chairperson

1987 Program Objectives

1. Planning/Preparation for Annual Conference
   Plan and prepare worship experiences for Annual Conference.

2. Continuing Education Leadership Training
   Encourage attendance by the laity of our division at the National School of Worship in the Southeastern Jurisdiction in 1987.

3. Mike Williams Storytelling Workshop
   To use storytelling as a tool for both laity and clergy, teachers in church schools, etc. The Division of Education is excited about this and will be working with us.
4. Purchasing Resource Materials
   Resource materials for Storytelling Workshop. Record albums and books on hand for participants.

BOARD OF GLOBAL MINISTRIES

In 1985, the Board of Global Ministries reorganized its structure to more faithfully address the mission needs of the Peninsula Annual Conference. The Division of Missions was changed to the Division of Parish and Congregational Development with the Committee on Congregational Development assuming primary responsibility for capital improvement requests for grants and loans and the Committee on Parish Development relating to Town and Country and Rural Ministries program needs. Board members were re-assigned according to their individual interest preferences.

It was with regret that the Board received the resignation of the Rev. Edward Kester as Chairperson of the Division of Health and Welfare Ministries. We express our great appreciation to him, and the Board is recruiting new leadership for this position.

One special situation addressed in 1985 was deteriorating conditions at St. Matthews-by-the-Sea at Fenwick Island. Since the Board of Global Ministries owns this mission church, it was decided that a "Board of Trustees" Committee, under the direction of the District Superintendent, Dr. Edwin Ellis, be established to oversee its upkeep. New bulkheading and other general repairs are presently needed.

The work of the Board could not move forward without the faithful and dedicated leadership of the Executive Committee. My sincere appreciation is extended to all of them and to all Board members!

Division reports and goals follow.

Virginia Clendaniel
President

Secretary of Global Ministries

In carrying out my responsibilities as Conference Secretary of Global Ministries during this past year, I have taught workshops in each district for local church missions chairpersons, assisted churches in developing ongoing missions programs at the local level, written letters promoting REACH and UMCOR, and participated in several conference committees. I have also attended a national meeting on Volunteers in Mission, one for Conference Secretaries of Global Ministries, and participated in a consultation on mission theology. In October of 1985, I travelled to Indonesia at the invitation of the Bishop there to preach at Annual Conference. I also held some workshops for pastors and students there. I have also preached in churches in our Conference on the theme of world mission.

Garry O. Parker
Secretary

Committee on Education and Cultivation

The Committee on Education and Cultivation of the Board of Global Ministries has fulfilled its responsibilities this past year in several ways. New audio-visuals have been placed in the Conference Office, including filmstrips and video recordings on mission activities. World Hunger concerns have been promoted and a workshop has been held. Mission interpreters have visited our churches from Korea, India, and other fields. Our district secretaries for global ministries have participated in training activities. We have assisted in the development of a mission fair in the Easton district. We provided scholarship money for youth to participate in the UMC School of World Mission. Our committee has been enlarged and now includes representatives of UMM and UMW, as well as other members of the BOGM. We are beginning to develop a Short-Term Volunteers in Mission project which will utilize the volunteer spirit among our people. We have assisted in promoting UMCOR, REACH, and Advance Specials within our Conference.

Garry O. Parker
Chairperson

1987 Program Objectives

1. ADMINISTRATION: To provide for the administrative costs of committee, mailings, etc.

2. AUDIO VISUAL AIDS: To purchase AV's for use by the churches in interpreting Global Ministries to our people.

3. ANNUAL CONFERENCE DISPLAY: To provide display materials for Annual Conference.

4. WORLD HUNGER TASK FORCE: To keep hunger concerns before our people through education, interpretation, and appeals for funds.

5. ITINERATION OF PERSONS IN MISSION: To provide mission interpreters for our local churches to interpret our worldwide work.

6. TRAINING OF AND FUNDING OF DISTRICT SECRETARIES: To train District Secretaries to be effective interpreters and fund administrative costs they may have.

7. CLERGY TRAINING AND RESOURCES FOR GLOBAL MINISTRIES: To assist clergypersons in understanding and interpreting our Global Ministries through providing literature, scholarships for continuing education, and personal contacts which will help them.

8. EMLC EDUCATION AND CULTIVATION FOR GLOBAL MINISTRIES: To work with the Missional Priority Committee in enabling EMLC's to fully participate in our Global Ministries.

9. DISTRICT MISSIONS FAIRS: To interpret Global Ministries to our local churches and to recruit missional personnel through district events.

10. TRAINING LABS FOR LOCAL CHURCH MISSION EVENTS: To work with at least one local church in each district in developing an ongoing missions program to be used as a model for other churches.

11. YOUTH AND MISSIONS: To provide scholarships for missional education events, such as schools of missions, for our youth including at least one youth from an EMLC church each year.

12. PRINTING: To print promotional materials and to purchase materials from BOGM to assist in interpretation.

Hunger Task Force

During 1985, the Hunger Task Force continued to focus on providing resources for local churches to use in sensitizing members to hunger needs and concerns, both domestically and in the world at large. Communicator articles, coordinated mailing inserts, displays at events, and Hunger Interpreters were provided for local church resourcing.

With the recruitment of additional Hunger Interpreters for presentation/dialogues with local church groups, up-date training was provided in October. Dr. Robert Smith of UMCOR, Akil Rahem of the Maryland Food Committee, and Mary Glick of Delaware Food Conservers served as leaders. Plans are underway to promote further use of Interpreters through contacts with district Ministers and Mates groups in March and April.

Doris N. Phillips Coordinator

Division of Health and Welfare

Among its program objectives for 1985, the Division of Health and Welfare Ministries assumed the responsibility for establishing a written covenant relationship between the Peninsula Annual Conference and Peninsula United Methodist Homes, Inc., as required by the 1984 session of General Conference. The successful preparation of the covenant and its subsequent presentation to various groups and finally to the Annual Conference for ratification will satisfy those requirements of the General Church. This Division continues to maintain a close relationship with Peninsula United Methodist Homes, Inc., through active membership of its Chairperson on the Board of Directors of PUMH.

The Board of Child Care has received added emphasis in our Conference during 1985 as a result of two bus trips in the spring--one originating from the Wilmington District and one from the Easton District. Those from our Conference who visited the Board of Child Care facility in Baltimore were gratified to witness first-hand the work being done by our church in the area of providing emergency and/or long-term care to children in need of a home. During the 1985 session of Annual Conference, a charter was presented to the Kent Island United Methodist Church establishing an auxiliary unit to the Board of Child Care, a first of many we hope.

Virginia Clendaniel
Temporary Chairperson

1987 Program Objectives

1. To support, in cooperation with Peninsula United Methodist Homes, Inc., and the General Department of Health and Welfare Ministries, the work of the consultant to aging ministries.

2. To support the United Methodist Association of Health and Welfare Ministries by membership and participation.

3. To promote and support the work of the Board of Child Care auxiliary units and the Christmas "Red Stocking" offering.

4. To train one person in the area of wellness ministry to be available to local churches for assistance in establishing wellness ministries.

Board of Child Care

Fifteen boys and girls were admitted to residential care; sixty-eight teenage girls admitted from life-threatening crisis situations to emergency shelter near Reisterstown; forty-seven children were admitted to boys' emergency shelter. The total is one hundred thirty new friends made at Board of Child Care, in addition to sixty-five in care at the beginning of this time period.

Twenty-five children have lived in foster homes of this agency. Seven infants and small children have entered our care in anticipation of adoption. For example, a call from an inner-city hospital and Patty Bright, our adoption worker, throws on her coat and disappears down the street. The hospital has on hand an infant. Mother had walked in, unknown two days earlier, delivered her baby and walked out the front door.

On another occasion, the mother called to say, "My children, three and five, I must give them away." In that manner but following thorough study, we accepted guardianship and later helped a loving couple through the adoption process. Two babies were placed from Maryland Adoption Resource Exchange; and a home study was completed for a United Methodist couple adopting a child from out of State.

Activities for our youth are cyclical: from summer fun, camping and gainful employment, through Fall with the ghastly ghosts of Halloween to Thanksgiving and Christmas. Jeany had a rich experience during the Winter when she went with other United Methodist youth on a United Nations Seminar. Upon return she wrote, "I learned that we as Christians can pray and hope for peace all over the world. We must learn to think of peace more for the answers, than of nuclear war that just will take us all away." Might your hope and mine rest with such youth?

Youth at Board Child Care are taught to contribute to society. The Board of Child Care choir participated in worship several times at institutions for the aged, including Asbury Village. Under the direction of our Chaplain, the Rev. Mary Jo Zimmerli, they are one part of the emphasis here on spiritual development. Thru "Z" our young people attend Sudbrook Church, go to Vespers on Sunday evening, receive love and counsel. Mary Jo's ministry to staff is likewise significant. In July, we entertained "Genesis," the senior high youth of First United Methodist Church, Madisonville, Kentucky. They spent several days getting to know youth on campus and while here presented a Cantata, "Jesus Never Fails."

Bishop and Mrs. Yeakel were welcomed to Gaither Road Campus in November. With staff, we enjoyed lunch, saw slides of children's activities, and toured the grounds.

Greatest concern at Board of Child Care is for those children who are turned away from shelter facilities because there is no space available. Emergency shelter is needed for sibling groups, for teenage mothers with infants, and for children to eleven years. Our Board has committed itself to providing additional shelter resources.

Warm appreciation is expressed to you who contributed throughout the year for children at this home. You sent us 205,000 Campbell's Soup labels which were converted to several thousand dollars worth of school equipment. You responded generously to the Annual Christmas Appeal. Best of all, you visited, you sent messages of support and concern. You are the Church in action!

We end with a note received here through the mail:

"I have noticed the size of your household many times as I drive past. I would like to compliment you on the behavior of your young people--they are well mannered to and from the bus stop--a refreshing sight!

I don't know if you are all one family, foster parents, etc. but whatever I congratulate you. I do know that with many in the household, normal operating expenses must be high.

We feel you have hearts of gold and you are definitely doing a service for God..."

Peninsula United Methodist Homes, Inc.

Peninsula United Methodist Homes, Inc. began in the early 1950's as a dream of the Rev. Dr. George H. Pigueron, Jr., former pastor of Union United Methodist Church in Wilmington, DE. Dr. Pigueron felt called to do something to make life less lonely and more secure and fulfilling for his older parishioners. In response to his urging, the Peninsula

Annual Conference enabled, in 1954, the creation of a non-profit corporation to "establish, operate, and maintain a home or homes for aged persons." Since September 7, 1960 when the Methodist Country House opened its doors, PUMH has provided loving care for over 2,000 older men and women.

At year-end 1985, 875 residents lived at Methodist Country House, Methodist Manor House, and Cokesbury Village. Among these residents, 392 are members of the United Methodist Church. Worth special note is the fact that residents with United Methodist affiliation included six retired United Methodist pastors, two pastors' wives, 14 pastors' widows, and eight family members of ministers.

The average age of the 256 residents at the Methodist Country House and the 244 residents at the Methodist Manor House was 85. At Cokesbury Village the average age of the 374 residents was 80.

Benevolence Assistance

1985 marked the Silver Anniversary of PUMH's ministry of care. During 25 years PUMH has expanded and enhanced its services to older adults. PUMH has been and will remain dedicated to caring for the total needs of the elderly.

Peninsula United Methodist Homes continues its benevolent assistance to residents with limited income. Of the men and women residing at the Methodist Country House and Methodist Manor House during 1985, 115 paid monthly fees which were less than the full cost of care. Of these, 25 individuals received benevolence support because their total resources were so limited. Benevolence subsidies, totaling $119,000, ranged from less than 1/3 to more than 2/3 of the cost of care for these residents.

In addition, PUMH provided financial assistance for residents who had older contracts with built-in fee limits on the cost of care. In 1985-86 the cost for providing care under these contract agreements was $430,000; however, the majority of residents with older contracts contributed what they could afford to give above the contract fee. Although limited fee contracts were discontinued in the mid-1970's, the expense is still with us. The fact is, most of these 90 older residents, who retired long before pensions became as generous as they are today, cannot pay the cost of care.

Highlights of 1985 Major Activities

1985 was a year of celebration at PUMH. On September 6, trustees, residents, staff and friends shared in a joyful Silver Anniversary Banquet marking 25 years of service. Mr. J. Wallace Watson, former PUMH president, was presented with the first George H. Pigueron, Jr. Founders Award for outstanding service. PUMH published "They That See The Sun." Written by Dr. Lloyd W. Kline, this book details PUMH's service to older adults.

The groundbreaking ceremony for the expanded Cokesbury Village Health Care Center was focused on the design of special features and programming for the memory-impaired patients. Financing for the CV Health Care Center expansion was arranged through the sale of variable rate, tax-exempt economic development bonds issued by New Castle County. The CV building fund campaign, Expanding Horizons in Health Care, surpassed its $750,000 goal. Pledged gifts (excluding future bequests) totaled $779,930, with Cokesbury Village residents contributing 59%.

A joint task force of PUMH trustees and Annual Conference leaders produced the Covenant of Affiliation between Peninsula United Methodist Homes, Inc. and the Peninsula Annual Conference. This document, adopted on June 12, 1985 by the Annual Conference, reaffirms the close ties that have always existed between PUMH and the Conference. It also defines the relationship that PUMH and the Conference will have in the future. It especially makes clear that neither PUMH nor the Annual Conference has any legal or financial responsibilities for the other.

In 1985, PUMH established an outreach program to assist local churches in developing and enhancing their ministries to the elderly in their congregations and local communities. This outreach effort is directed by Naomi G. Winchester, aging ministries consultant. It's significant to note that PUMH has moved from providing purely facility-oriented services to assisting with the development of services through local churches.

Chairmanship of the Board of Trustees passed from G. Vernon Huber to Robert D. Ullrich in December 1985. The new chairman's interest in PUMH began while his parents were residents at the Methodist Manor House and his mother-in-law was living at the Methodist Country House. Mr. Ullrich retired from Hercules, Inc. where he was the Director of Planning and Development International.

PUMH celebrated the 100th birthday of Bishop Andrew Y. Y. Tsu, Methodist Country House resident. Bishop Tsu is the first male resident of Peninsula United Methodist Homes to reach the age of 100, although 21 female residents have become centenarians. Our statistics show that residents in our three retirement communities live an average of four to five years beyond the life expectancy projected by standard life tables.

Major Activities Planned for 1986

The new Cokesbury Village Health Care Center will open in late summer of 1986. This much-needed expansion will increase the number of skilled nursing beds from 55 to 80. It will also make possible a new level of care for 30 persons who need minimal assistance with bathing, dressing, or taking medication. One wing of the new Health Center will provide special care for 18 patients suffering from memory impairment.

In 1986 the Methodist Manor House will celebrate its 20th anniversary. The celebration will be held in conjunction with PUMH's annual meeting in September.

In response to the rapidly increasing number of older persons, PUMH will explore ways to meet housing and health care needs of the 65+ population. At the same time, PUMH must adapt to the increasingly competitive retirement and health care fields. By developing closer ties with other church-related facilities, PUMH will strengthen its position and ability to meet future needs.

Division of Parish and Community Development

As the largest component of the Board of Global Ministries, the Division of Parish and Community Development is charged with the responsibility of overseeing the administration of more than $100,000 in Conference funds, including those from the REACH endeavor.

We consider the requests of churches throughout the Conference for the financing of mission projects through the enlargement, development or improvement of their facilities. It is these churches which are directly reaching out to their communities to perpetuate the work of our Lord.

In all of our considerations, we review the need and reasonableness of the request being made. We also involve the local districts to review the matter in more specific detail prior to the acceptance of any application for funds to our division. We evaluate the ability of the specific churches to accept loans from our division rather than grants. In the ensuing years, it will be important to replenish the revolving loan fund in order to provide for the needs of others.

Our division is cognizant of and pursues the goal of embracing the missional priority of promoting and supporting the ethnic minority local church.

Through the Rev. James Riley, chairperson of our Committee on Congregational Development, we are highly involved in the district study program which no doubt will become a very important instrument in the development of our Conference and the sustaining of our denomination within this area. We are very excited about being an integral part of this worthwhile, responsible planning opportunity.

Chairperson

1987 Program Objectives

1. Congregational Development - Parsonage Improvement
   To give financial aid to churches and charges for improvement of facilities and parsonages in order to enhance ministry and to act in advisory capacity in development of new congregations and parishes and redevelopment of congregations and charges.

2. Wilmington - Mt. Joy Mortgage
   To pay mortgage payments on behalf of Mt. Joy Church. This is based on an agreement between the General Church and the Peninsula Conference in 1973 and is due to expire in 1992.

3. West Sussex Parish
   To coordinate the efforts and talents of clergy and laity within a seven-church group so that they can do various ministries together in consideration of their geographical location.

4. Ocean Pines
   To provide funds for purchase of property for enlargement of facilities for congregation.

5. Parsonage Aid
   Emergency minor maintenance to parsonages, usually divided equally over the four districts unless otherwise agreed upon. Help to keep the parsonages in habitable condition for the charges that need financial assistance.

6. Urban Ministries
   To provide opportunities for urban congregations to: identify needs, locate resources and develop viable programs addressing these needs.

7. Leisure Ministries
   To explore opportunities for various types of ministries in resort areas of the Conference, including summer cooperative ministries. This represents continued Conference support for leisure ministries.

8. Town & Country
   To explore opportunities and provide guidance for cooperative ministries throughout the Conference. Continuing Conference support for cooperative ministries.

9. Rural Ministries
To explore opportunities for various types of ministries in rural areas, especially with extremely poor minority persons. This represents a continued Conference support for rural ministries.

10. Convention Travel
To provide for travel expenditures (partial) for participants in Leadership Conference (12/87) and Religion & Race (9/87).

11. Neighborhood House, Inc.
Please refer to N. H. report.

Committee on Congregational Development

This past Conference year has been a very busy but exciting time for the Committee on Congregational Development. We have been about our routine responsibilities of receiving and reviewing applications for grants or loans. These grants and loans are issued for improvement of worship and/or education facilities and for parsonage improvement. In this year we have issued grants of $22,500 and loans of $27,000 for Ethnic Minority Parsonage improvement programs. In the category of Congregational Development we have issued loans totaling $30,000 and grants totaling $55,000.

But by far the most exciting activity has been the Conference-wide study for Congregational Development that has been going on throughout the year. Very interesting information has come to light and possibilities for new and redeveloped ministries have been found in many areas. The report of the results of this study is appearing before this Annual Conference.

In the year ahead we look to continue helping churches as they work toward improvement of their facilities. And with great anticipation and excitement we look forward to beginning the work of Congregational Development as suggested by the results of our Conference study.

Urban Work Committee

The Urban Work Committee is supporting the work of the Interfaith Housing Task Force. At a meeting of the Executives of the religious denominations in May 1985, a presentation was made concerning the deteriorating housing situation in Delaware. The executives responded by forming a special task force to determine the extent of the housing crisis. This group, called the Interfaith Housing Task Force, was asked to return to the Executives with recommendations as to how the religious community could best become involved in the developing concern about housing.

Initially made up of staff persons from the major denominations, the Task Force quickly added persons from other faith communities and professional and community organizations. During the time between June and December, 1985, Lutheran, Presbyterian, Baptist, Roman Catholic, and Episcopal faiths participated. Wilmington United Neighborhoods, a community organization, and Community Legal Aid became valuable resources to the Task Force.

To become better informed as to what initiatives were being taken in housing the Task Force arranged consultations with the public sector and with private groups concerned and involved in the housing problem. Among those who attended the meetings were representatives from the state, county, and city governments, and the academic community, i.e., the U of D & Wilmington College. The Director of Wilmington Housing Authority indicated the immediate need for one thousand (1000) additional units of housing for low-income families. Participating in the work of the Task Force from its inception was Wilmington United Neighborhoods, the largest community organizing effort in Wilmington and New Castle county. This organization is partially funded by MAP and the General Board of Global Ministries.

It became clear that the real question was, what response could the religious community make? What seemed to be needed was a specific yet comprehensive plan that would take into account the particular resources of the religious community, and would detail a process that could lead to some specific recommendations for the Denominational Executives.

The Enterprise Foundation founded by Jim Rouse, the developer of Columbia and the Baltimore Inner Harbor and many more urban projects, has been providing technical assistance to W.U.N. Thus at this point, September 1985, the Task Force requested assistance from the Foundation to accomplish its work. With the help of the Foundation, a plan of action was developed, the principal feature was a public meeting to be held in December, supported by the Denominational Executives.

On December 9, 1985, a public meeting was held. Approximately one hundred persons were in attendance. These included the Denominational Executives, corporate and civic leaders, and elected governmental officials. The following recommendations were made by the Task Force:

* That the Task Force be legally incorporated as an agent of the Denominational Executives.

* That the Task Force be requested to develop a plan providing 1000 units of housing for people with incomes of $13,000 a year or less.

* To seek out and provide the necessary funds to enable this planning process to take place between January and June, 1986.

The recommendations were accepted unanimously.

During the month of January and February the Task Force
* Finalized the planning process and approved the budget.
* Identified and hired both a research consultant and staff assistant.

* Established an office for the Interfaith Housing Task Force at Old Asbury.

* Began defining the structure of the Interfaith Housing Task Force Corporation.

Methodist Action Program

A CALL TO SUPPORT THE METHODIST ACTION PROGRAM

MAP creates and coordinates universal mission programs in metropolitan Wilmington, Delaware. We are conscious of the growing divisions in our American society today and of the consequent need of our response. These divisions are universal: the separation of God from humanity, and the breaking apart of humanity itself. During 1986,

MAP will strive to do the following:

*To discover and stand beside the poor as a prime duty of Christian discipleship; *To develop ways of tackling the causes of social inequality and injustice; *To sustain and put new resources at the disposal of Churches and mission projects committed to those areas of our society where its divisions are most painfully felt; *To examine new models for United Methodist Mission in our area; *To continue to be the corporate/coordinating arm of the United Methodist Church in mission in the Wilmington District.

Universal Programs Offered by MAP in 1985:

1. Meeting Human Needs

   * Emergency Assistance: providing motivation, food, funds and the largest free clothing closet in Delaware at the Old Asbury Center;
   * Supporting the Emmanuel Dining Room: by offering our facilities at Old Asbury

2. Creating Social Change

   * Racial Attitudes and Perspectives (RAP), Employment;

   * Emerging needs: such as pornography, gambling, etc.

3. Supporting Local Churches

   * Starting the Hispanic United Methodist Church,

   * Mission Assistance: Brandywine-Trinity UMC, Haven UMC, Mt. Joy UMC;

   * Enabling Mission: Designing local church mission projects;

   * Partnerships: MAP leads church retreats, offers consultations, etc.

4. Housing for the Poor

   * Co-sponsor of the Inter-Faith Housing Task Force which has a goal of building 1,000 low-income housing units;

   * Cooperated with Wilmington United Neighbors' Sweet Equity Program of self-renovation of abandoned houses.

Neighborhood House, Inc.

For five of our families, Neighborhood House's response to human suffering went beyond providing for their emergency and immediate needs. These families exhibited a desire for self development and improvement of their conditions. In response, Neighborhood House committed resources to help them improve their situations. Agency staff helped the families identify and set goals, learn of their strengths and weaknesses, and develop solutions to some of their problems. Help came in many forms and in some cases still continues.

The GOOD NEWS is that these families are learning to handle their problems and are improving their conditions. All of the heads of households received training in 1985. As a result, two of them are now employed. We see so many hurting people who have physical, emotional, intellectual, and spiritual needs that it is hard to meet one without caring for the others.

The high rate of unemployment in our community and the cycle of poverty perpetuates the need for the provision of emergency assistance (i.e., food, clothes, utility, rent). In 1985, 1,Ø85 persons were provided food through our food closet. Those in need of clothing received it through our Thrift Shop and from concerned persons who adopted families during the holidays. Additionally, thanks to your generous gifts, children and youth in our Day Care and Tutorial Programs received a gift of clothes and toys at Christmas time.

The programs listed below provided educational stimuli outside of the classroom. They provided a means for growth and learning basic to social progress for our children and youth.

Day Care	1Ø9 served	Drop-Out Prevention	13 served
Tutoring	131 served	Vacation Church School	65 served
Day Camp	68 served	Junior Achievement	52 served
Resident Camp	4Ø served	College Career	15 served
4-H Club	27 served	Youth Employment	26 served
Youth Enrichment	17 served	Modeling Club	12 served

Highlights for the year included:

* The formation of a community choir. The choir is composed of community residents and Neighborhood House Board and Staff. The group performed several times during the year including performing in district churches and at district events.

* Norman Oliver, a young adult who participated in Neighborhood House programs from Day Care to College Career Readiness, graduated from Delaware State College and immediately became active in the community. Norman is currently president of the local tenant council, a member of our Program Committee, and is employed as a youth worker in the community.

* Southbridge Junior Enterprises, our Junior Achievement Company, won awards for top retention of members for both the fall and spring semesters.

* The Apple Street Community Garden, a project of the Southbridge Beautification Project, was a semi-finalist in the National Community Garden Contest.

* The "D" Street Community Vegetable Garden won first place in the City Gardens Contest which was sponsored by the Wilmington Garden Center.

Our task is not done. Our ministry in the name of Christ is enabled because of people like you -- our friends! Thank you for your love and interest.

BOARD OF HIGHER EDUCATION AND CAMPUS MINISTRY

The Peninsula Conference Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry is deeply aware of its role in providing the area and resources for the futuring of the church and campus in the present decade and beyond. We acknowledge our need to respond to the call of discipleship of universities and colleges under our auspices with their emerging changes, growth, insights, and relationships.

The present board, with its diversity of people, is concerned about the unity of Christ on campus and in churches surrounding the campus. Among the many tasks of reviewing budgets, meeting chaplains and campus ministers, high on the list of priorities is the evaluation of each campus setting under our jurisdiction by four evaluation teams, each consisting of seven persons. Evaluations are to be completed by May 1, 1986.

The church through us as a board vitally interested in the campus ministry must direct its energies in some specific ways.

1. To recognize the needs of changing student bodies and to become keenly aware of ethnic minorities, women, and graduate students.

2. To address the needs of spiritual formation for students and faculty and provide the arena for quiet prayer life and active church involvement.

3. To address the questions of faith, values, and professional ethics and to challenge the campus to educate our students in these areas.

4. To involve cross-campus resources and encourage the calling of people to dialogue across cultural-racial lines.

5. To interpret the church's mission in higher education to local churches, districts, and the Conference with a clear and compelling vision.

6. To "catch the spirit" of the United Methodist Church with innovative and intentional ministry in the name of Jesus Christ to a changing environment on campus and church in the college and university setting.

The Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry has continued its journey using the steppingstones of others who preceded us and pausing to recognize the milestones of success; we venture onward in our commitment.

According to Church and Campus Calling, "If the United Methodist Church is to have a voice in the future of our world, it must have a presence in higher education, the training ground of that future's leadership. Our commitment to higher education in the next few years will be a crucial indication of the ability of the church and the ability of those who minister in higher education to understand themselves as called to be in ministry to world."

Albert C. Burton
President

1987 Program Objectives

1. Evaluation of Campus Ministries Program

   To determine the effectiveness of the campus ministries program and if the program is a sound investment of the Peninsula Conference.

2. Promotion of Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry

   To use video tape, brochure, correspondence with enclosed special card, and informative presentation to define, inform local churches and districts of the work of Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry and financial information.

3. Training of New Campus Ministers
   To provide orientation and membership in the N.A.C.U.C. for new Campus Ministers.

4. Retreat for Campus Ministries Program at Camp Pecometh

To provide creative opportunities of dialogue and understanding of Campus Ministries between campus ministry programs, Boards of Directors, and Campus Ministry students.

5. Interpret Wesley Foundation relationships to:

a. The Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry of the Peninsula Conference.

b. The Conference Council on Ministries

c. The General Board of Higher Education and Ministry's Section on Campus Ministry.

Wesley College

Tomorrow, March 1, 1986, I will happily celebrate my third anniversary as president of your Wesley College. I will also celebrate the fact that Wesley is not only a church-related college, but also that she enjoys the honor of sincere support from a college-related church.

The establishment of the institution which was to become Wesley College was first considered, as you may know, in the Methodist-Episcopal Conference of 1870. Three years later a charter was secured. In September, 1873, the Wilmington Conference Academy, a preparatory school, was opened in rented buildings in Dover, under the patronage of the Wilmington Conference of the Methodist-Episcopal Church. The first building, known as Old Main, was finished and occupied in September of 1874.

In 1918, a new charter changed the name to Wesley Collegiate Institute and enabled our school to extend its offerings to include the first two years of college. The first junior college class began its studies in 1922 and was graduated in June, 1924.

Lamentably, the Depression of 1929 made the Wesley Collegiate Institute one of its temporary casualties and the school was closed in 1932. After the Union of Methodism, the Peninsula Annual Conference voted in 1941 to reopen the school, and in 1942 Wesley Junior College opened its doors.

As you are aware, the first baccalaureate degrees in the history of our institution were conferred in 1978. That year the charter was changed, and Wesley College was accredited as a comprehensive college by the Commission on Higher Education of the Middle States Association of Colleges and Schools. By this coming fall, 1986, Wesley College will boast approximately one dozen four-year baccalaureate degrees and, I can assure you, Wesley is already being heralded, with increasing frequency, as one of the growingly outstanding four-year senior degree-granting baccalaureate institutions on the Atlantic Seaboard.

The strength of the relationship between Wesley, the church-related college, and the Peninsula Annual Conference, the college-related church, was splendidly demonstrated in 1983 when the College was threatened by financial crisis. The Annual Conference voted to guarantee a line of credit in the amount of $1.8 million to help stabilize the College. Today, I can report to you that Wesley is, at the very least, stable. Indeed, she is rapidly evolving current stability into a future of security with lasting dignity. Moreover, our indebtedness, at this writing, on the $1.8 million line of credit is under $700,000. Wesley College is solvent, and there is now no question but that she has a brilliant future to celebrate.

Please let me suggest that our Nation's great educational institutions have all grown from one-time small institutions. Some, of course, were seminaries. Some were academies for elementary and secondary education. Some began as public colleges and, interestingly, are now private. Depending upon who is doing the counting, and what the "counter" regards to comprise the higher learning in America, there are, roughly 3,000 or more colleges or universities in our nation today. Happily, approximately 1,800 of those colleges remain proudly church-related. So it is with Wesley College. Some 600 of these colleges have full-time enrollments of under 1,000 students. So it is with our Wesley College. Wesley, like so many similar church-related colleges, has been a part of holding the fabric of America together through the extension of the guiding lights of a truly value-centered education.

Why has our Wesley College survived these 113 years? I think there is an answer. Our great social, public service, health care, religious and educational organizations are all here today because people cared. Throughout the history of our serving institutions, there have been people who cared about the value of services received, qualitative services which have contributed to personal, family and community well-being. Interestingly, almost every one of our not-for-profit serving organizations in America today has faltered somewhere along their way--only to gain new strength and new commitment for greater and greater unselfish service.

Our Wesley College has always been, is now and forever will be committed to broad public interest and service based upon person-to-person attention to its students of all religious persuasions. Outreach of the College is enriched, as you know, by numerous diversified programs such as continuing education, performing arts and cultural presentations, business and nursing programs--while Wesley also serves, increasingly, as host for diverse conferences, events and meetings which now identify our College as an absolutely indispensable national regional asset.

Wesley College has responded, and, indeed, shall continue to respond to the personal growth, the educational and cultural needs, the career development, and the moral and ethical values and education of a growing service region.

Managed by a distinguished Board of Trustees of 37 persons of recognized religious, business, social, civic and professional leadership, the church-related Wesley College is without doubt destined for a proud future under the continuing nurture and guidance of a proud college-related Annual Conference.

Beyond the beautiful buildings and the outstanding programs of Wesley College, however, lies perhaps the essence of the greatness of Wesley College. For without a personally and professionally dedicated faculty, administration, professional and support staff-a Wesley College academic family which cares about each student--Wesley College might be just another "Me Too" institution of higher learning. The Wesley family is a caring family.

The Wesley faculty, you may be assured, is a teaching-learning faculty. After all, teaching learners to learn is a truly special calling. Wesley faculty, as is the case with the entire academic community at your institution, care. They understand and respect Wesley's history, its religious mission, its person-oriented values, its trials, and its goals of service to you in the name of the Master and in service of His Kingdom. Wesley faculty and staff have distinguished themselves by, in many instances, serving long tenures in facilitating the teaching-learning process and in teaching eager learners to celebrate learning in a community of God-centered, but person-oriented, people.

Truly, it is Wesley's faculty, administration, professional and support staff who are its greatest assets. They have earned and deserve our thoughtful, grateful consideration for their future because their first concern, throughout the history of the College, has been to carry out the Wesley mission on a daily basis and with absolute integrity.

As I mentioned to you in my report last year, Wesley College recognizes that it must design its destiny just as businesses, churches, hospitals and other organizations must. Yet, as a private, dependently independent, not-for-profit institution, Wesley recognizes that money is a necessity for excellence as it is in all organizations. Wesley College simply must have the financial resources to guarantee its destiny--not just the resources sufficient to get by, not just the resources sufficient to provide for adequacy--but resources sufficient to provide for and ensure a quality education and the perpetuation of the values of its mother, the Church.

Once again, then, Wesley College respectfully requests the support of the prayers, the counsel, the advocacy and the financial contribution of the Peninsula Annual Conference. Once again, your church-related college seeks the aid of the Conference in interpreting the College's ministry throughout our local churches that Wesley may be perceived as an unique and appropriate part of the Church's mission. Once again, Wesley College seeks the encouragement of the Annual Conference in asking the entire membership of the Conference to herald Wesley as an option for young men and women in United Methodist churches throughout the Peninsula who are considering a college-level course of study. Once again, as I was privileged to do last year, Wesley College requests the continued support of the Peninsula Annual Conference, that your college may continue to be helped in three essential areas, namely, our chaplaincy program, scholarships for worthy students, and support of academic programs so meaningful to the Church. Minority scholarships and active recruiting have already led to ethnic minority representation of 10% in the current Wesley College enrollment. The College actively seeks to increase the number of ethnic minority persons on staff and faculty and in the student body. The chaplaincy seeks to enhance the overall religious life of the campus through the continuation of weekly chapel services, personal and spiritual counseling, sponsoring the Wesley Student Christian Association, and Kappa Chi, the Church vocations organization; weekly Bible study at the Chaplin's residence, monthly faculty lunch meetings for prayer and support, and weekly Communion services. Wesley anticipates, and celebrates in advance, that the Church will extend aid not only for continuing minority person scholarships but also for nursing scholarships, Christian vocation scholarships, Christian dependents of United Methodist clergy scholarships, and Asbury United Methodist scholarships. Moreover, Wesley, without hesitation, seeks from its parent, the Church, program support for our associate degree program in nursing, for library materials, for new program planning funding, for faculty development programs, and important student tutorial services.

The financial support of the Conference has always been critical to the life of your Wesley College. It continues to be so as the College attempts to establish a firm financial base for the years that lie ahead. Even though the Peninsula Conference allocation for 1986 is anticipated to be less than 2% of the proposed College budget for 1986-87, that contribution is critically important. There have already been three specific and recent indications of the renewed support by the Peninsula Annual Conference for its Wesley College, namely, the co-signing of the Wilmington Trust loan guarantee, the REACH Program, and the raising of scholarship dollars. Although the Wesley REACH projects approved by the Conference had a total of $192,000 in overall need, the amount received, thus far, has been only $16,000. The target goal for 1984-85 to provide scholarships for active United Methodist students coming from the four districts was $40,000. Receipts from last year totaled $23,000, including REACH funds and Wesley College Sunday Scholarship funds. We believe that the church-related college and the college-related church are, nonetheless, making great progress. Indeed, the College genuinely wishes to reaffirm the covenant relationship that it has enjoyed with the Church for the last 113 years. You may be assured that the entire academic community of Wesley College pledges itself anew to pursuing those plans of cooperation and mutual support which will lead us to the achievement of that objective so compellingly phrased by Charles Wesley himself, "to unite the two so long disjoined, knowledge and vital piety."

Our student numbers are growing. Our gift income is in amounts unprecedented since the 1960's. Our student numbers are growing to the point that our enrollment is also without precedent since the 1960's. Our student retention rate has been enormously improved. Or more specifically, we have collected, in cash and in pledges, nearly $900,000 in advance confidence gifts through our QUEST FOR QUALITY campaign. Moreover, at this writing, we are only some $40,000 short of achieving our annual fund goal and the fiscal year does not even end until June 30, 1986. We are steadily evolving new four-year programs, and this year 33% of our new students are enrolled in four-year majors.

And perhaps this is another point where all of you good members of the Peninsula Annual Conference come in. My perception is that what Wesley needs most urgently, constantly and aggressively is strong advocacy in every family, in every church, in every civic and social contact represented by the entire Wesley College family and Peninsula Annual Conference family. We need each person whose life has been touched by our Wesley College to become a "sales committee" of one to tell the new Wesley story of revival, strength and promise. We need this advocacy every hour. Telling everyone we meet about the good things happening at Wesley College can open ears, open consciousness, open hearts, and open checkbooks for new investments in the only exclusively baccalaureate degree-granting institution of higher learning in affiliation with the United Methodist Church in the Washington Area. We seek your advocacy. For the last two years your college has not only operated with a balanced budget, but also with an operational surplus. I anticipate that at the conclusion of this fiscal year the College will be found to have operated with still another respectable operating surplus. With your help, these surpluses will continue and will enjoy the additional surpluses of a fair share of gift income and student yield to Wesley College.

At the same time, Wesley College pledges to meet the expectations of the Peninsula Annual Conference. Indeed, as the fine Chaplain of Wesley College, the Reverend Dr. Robert Price, has written, Wesley College definitely should be a college with a difference. Dr. Price observed, whereas knowledge is often fragmented in the secular university, Wesley College should and will maintain a commitment to the arts and sciences and to a holistic approach to education. In addition to preparing its students for a job, Wesley will introduce them to the moral and spiritual dimensions of human existence. In performing this task, the College will convey to each student a sense of his or her infinite worth as a child of God.

I am in total agreement with Dr. Price in his observation that through its relationship to the Church, your Wesley College becomes part of a world-wide community of faith with a world-view rooted in the transcendent. So connected, Wesley is expected to present an alternative vision to the world's narrowness and provincialism. I joined Dr. Price in affirming that as a definite goal of your Wesley College.

Additionally, Dr. Price has spoken for the entire Wesley College community when he recently observed that your Wesley College will take its faith commitment seriously and apply that faith in every aspect of its institutional life. This means giving recognizable expression to its faith through the functions of scholarship, personnel policies, over-all ethos, and in an active concern for corporate responsibility in the area of institutional investments.

You may be assured that Wesley will work faithfully at building true community. The College understands that it can have no greater impact than by providing an experience of true, Christian community--a place where the barriers of sex, race, and ideology are overcome and people actually live in an atmosphere of peace, mutual acceptance, and personal fulfillment.

We respectfully seek the response of the Peninsula Annual Conference, and we happily anticipate your response. We absolutely pray in behalf of seeing the advocacy and the philanthropy of the Peninsula Annual Conference released once again to continue to make a difference in the life and in the quality of your Wesley College. The Board of Trustees and the entire Wesley College academic community are seeking to strengthen and maintain the historic ties with our beloved Church rather than disassociating as too many church-related colleges across the country have been doing in recent history. Wesley College, on the other hand, seeks only to continue in perpetuity its church-relatedness and its service to youth in imitation of the ethic of the Master. Someone once observed that whatever men and women may think of religion, the historic fact is, that in proportion as the institutions of Christianity lose their holds upon the multitudes, the fabric of society is in peril. With your help, Wesley College, A Christian institution, will continue its ministry in properly maintaining the fabric of the society we serve together.

1987 Program Objectives

1. Wesley College's Campus-Wide Focus on Strengthening Its Higher Education Ministry

   (a) To enhance the overall religious life on Campus by providing an excellent Chaplaincy program for students and the entire campus community.

   (b) To strengthen the ties between Wesley College and the Peninsula Annual Conference, the parent body and corporate owner of Wesley College.

   (c) To provide scholarship to students in selected areas of special interest to the church.

   (d) To provide program support in selected areas.

2. The Chaplaincy seeks to enhance the overall religious life of the Wesley Campus through:

   (a) Weekly Chapel services

   (b) Personal and spiritual counseling

   (c) Sponsoring the Wesley Student Christian Association and Kappa Chi (church vocations organization)

(d) Weekly Bible study at Chaplain's residence

(e) Monthly faculty lunch meeting for prayer and support

(f) Weekly Communion services

Wesley Foundation, University of Delaware

The Wesley Foundation at the University of Delaware continues to expand its ministry during 1985 with the addition of new ministries and numerical growth in established ministries.

Attendance at worship, Sunday morning church school, fellowship events, and the annual spring retreat increased. An example is the increase of worship attendance for the year to 150 students.

With funding provided by Newark United Methodist Church, a new ministry to Black university students was organized. Begun in the fall semester with a peer minister serving as coordinator under the supervision of the Wesley Foundation director, the program includes events designed to meet spiritual needs as well as Christian fellowship gatherings.

A new public affairs broadcast ministry was also established by the Foundation. Aired weekly on WXDR it featured interviews with various guests on subjects including the Rambo syndrome, homelessness, migrant workers, cults, student suicide, and South Africa.

With the development of a cooperative relationship with Newark United Methodist Church the director began regular participation in the worship life of the church, served as an adjunct staff person meeting with the staff regularly, and a combined effort by the Foundation and Newark UMC has begun to bear fruit in the ministry to the university. Although funding for the ministry continues to be less than adequate the future for the ministry shows greater promise than it has at any time in the less than three years since it was created.

Vernon L. Schmid
Director

1987 Program Objectives

1. Continue to expand ministry to Black students at the University of Delaware after achieving 1986 goal of establishing an ethnic minority ministry in 1985.

2. Maintain 1985-86 student participation in ongoing Wesley Foundation programs after experiencing growth from an annual participation of about 40 students to about 150.

3. Continue offering a minimum of one retreat per year for students. (1985 retreat held at Kirkridge Retreat Center/1986 set for Pecometh.)

4. Continue to sponsor annual Asbury Lecture as we have done since 1984.

5. Continue to provide counseling and fellowship opportunities for students.

6. Continue to offer opportunities for Bible study.

7. Continue to develop local church and individual support for the Wesley Foundation ministry.

8. Continue to strengthen relationship between Newark U.M.C. and the Wesley Foundation.

9. Continue participation in Newark U.M.C. worship and sacramental life.

Wesley Foundation, Delaware State College

The Wesley Foundation at Delaware State College seeks to minister to students suffering the trauma of separation from home, to those who are confused by numerous competing ideologies, as well as to students who seek deeper faith. In 1984-85, we sought to assist all persons in the academic setting in discovering and fulfilling their faith in Jesus Christ, to challenge students, faculty administration, and staff to join in intellectual inquiry and spiritual growth, to be a partner with the local church, nurturing the body of Christ, and to create a support group among students for dealing with the stress of campus life.

GENERAL OUTLINE OF OBJECTIVES:

A. To assist all persons in academic settings to discover and fulfill their faith in Jesus Christ.

B. To challenge students, faculty, administration and staff to join in intellectual inquiry and spiritual growth.

C. To be a partner with the local church in nurturing the Body of Christ.

D. To create a support group among students for dealing with the stress of campus life.

DIRECTOR'S OBJECTIVES ARE AS FOLLOWS:

A. Provide some indepth study of scripture.

B. Provide a means to aid the spiritual nurture of students while away for their home church.

C. Seek to expose students to the church community and involve the in it.

D. Have a scheduled time to be available for religious counseling; as well as counseling on any other matter effecting their lives.

E. Provide assistance through the church for students who have emotional, physical, and spiritual needs.

George O. Commodore
Director

Wesley Foundation, Univ. of Md. Eastern Shore

1987 Program Objectives

1. Fall Retreat and Leadership Conference
   To provide an opportunity for Christian students on campus to fellowship with students from other campuses, and to encourage them to consider the Christian Ministry as a vocation.

2. Mid-Winter Retreat
   To send two of our students to participate in an area-wide retreat for student leaders. This is to assist them to become more effective leaders in our Campus Ministry.

3. Spring Retreat
To hold a local retreat for our Wesley Foundation and Baptist students at U.M.E.S. This is to foster more unity within our Christian Community here at the Institution.

4. Weekend Camping - Late Spring
To provide a restful and recreational, as well as a spiritual atmosphere in honor of our seniors who are preparing to graduate from the Institution.

5. International Student Retreat
To fellowship with the International Students in the Campus Ministries from U.M.E.S. and Salisbury State; and to look at Christianity with these students in the light of their own experience and culture.

6. U.M.E.S. Chapel Services
To provide an opportunity for students on U.M.E.S. campus to worship together, and to spend some time in the middle of the week for reflection and spiritual growth.

7. Martin Luther King Bible Study
To provide on-going religious activity on U.M.E.S campus in the form of (a) Biblical and Religious Studies, and (b) Christian Fellowship.

8. U.M.E.S. Day and Religious Emphasis Week
To provide an opportunity for Christian Outreach to the U.M.E.S. community, emphasizing Christian Mission and Ministry. To hold a special worship event at Metropolitan U.M.C. with a guest speaker from the University.

9. Black Religious Heritage Observance
To get U.M.E.S. students to be involved in religious programs surrounding Black History Month; and to enhance students' appreciation of Black culture to the whole society.

The Morgan Christian Center

A Statement of its History, Mission, and Ministry

I. HISTORY

The Morgan Christian Center was dedicated on December 16, 1941. It stands as a memorial to those pioneers in the former Washington and Delaware Conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church (now the United Methodist Church) who founded what is now Morgan State University and to the countless other churches and individuals who have supported the University and the Christian Center through the years.

On Christmas eve, 1866, Bishop Levi Scott met with Thomas Kelso, William Harden, William Daniel, and William B. Hill to discuss the need for trained clergy and for improving educational opportunities for Blacks in general throughout the geographical bounds of the Washington and Delaware Conferences, which included the states of Maryland, Virginia, Delaware, West Virginia, New Jersey as well as eastern Pennsylvania and eastern New York. As a result of this meeting, the Centenary Biblical Institute was founded. It was chartered on November 27, 1867. The original Institute was housed in the old Sharp Street Methodist Episcopal Church in Baltimore.

In 1890, the name of Centenary Biblical Institute was changed to Morgan College in honor of the Reverend Doctor Lyttleton F. Morgan, a prominent benefactor. Twenty-eight years later (1918) the college moved to its present site at East Cold Spring and Hillen Roads, in Northeast Baltimore. Ownership was transferred to the state of Maryland by the trustees in 1939 and Morgan College was re-named Morgan State College. In 1975 university status was conferred and Morgan State College became Morgan State University.

The trustees, who transferred ownership of Morgan to the state in 1939, demonstrated remarkable foresight by purchasing about twelve acres of land adjacent to the campus, on which the Christian Center was erected. The Christian Center is a corporation which operates independently from the University. However, since incorporation, the Center and the University have had an excellent working relationship which has served both well. The director of the Center, as a result of long standing agreements, also works part-time for the University.

II. MISSION AND MINISTRY

Articles two and three of the "second articles of Amendment to the Articles of Incorporation of the Morgan Christian Center, Inc.," dated June 27, 1979, state the following:

> The Mission of the Morgan Christian Center is to express Jesus Christ's love in the world through the healing and helping of men and women in society. To carry out its mission, the Center's ministry extends throughout the Morgan State University and metropolitan Baltimore. The Christian Center provides opportunities for spiritual, recreational, social and intellectual activities for individuals and groups who wish to translate their creeds into deeds.
> The Christian Center seeks to coordinate, influence, and encourage the activities of all individuals or groups seeking to make Christian conviction affective in their personal and social relations in all aspects of University life.

We understand that the mission of the Christian Center is to be implemented as we proclaim the Gospel of Jesus Christ in all its fullness through a ministry of pastoral care, Christian nurture, and prophetic witness. Our ministry is carried out in the following ways.

1. By providing structured as well as informal opportunities for students, faculty, administrators and staff of the University and persons from the larger community to engage in worship, study, and reflection in a Christian context.

2. By providing for a Christian presence within the University.

3. By providing an arena for discussing and responding to critical moral, ethical, and social issues which impact upon the University, the larger community, and society as a whole.

4. By providing counseling and spiritual nurture for those in distress and assisting individuals in values formation and spiritual development.

5. By providing opportunities for young adult students to engage in wholesome social and recreational activities.

6. By serving as a resource to the University, churches, and the general public of Baltimore and beyond by:

   a) Making the facilities of the Christian Center available for workshops, conferences, meetings and other appropriate programs and events.

   b) Staff participation in programs and events on and off campus when such participation is requested and can be scheduled.

7. By interpreting the ministry of the Morgan Christian Center to local churches, church judicatories, and agencies in order to facilitate good working relationships and to foster the concept of shared ministry.

8. By providing opportunities for interfaith dialogue and fellowship.

III. GOVERNANCE, STAFF, AND SUPPORT STRUCTURE

A. The Christian Center is governed by an ecumenical Board of Trustees, which meets semi-annually. The work of the board is facilitated through standing committees and staff.

B. The Staff consists of a director, an administrative assistant, a student assistant to the director, a student secretary, a custodian, and a custodial assistant.

C. Funding

The bulk of the funding is provided by the Baltimore and Peninsula Conferences of the United Methodist Church. Additional funds come from the following sources:

1. Contributions from judicatories which have student organizations on campus and utilize the facilities of the Center.

2. Contributions from friends of the Center, Morgan State alumni, local churches, and Trustees.

3. Rental of facilities for weddings, receptions, and various other activities.

4. Fund-raising activities sponsored by the Center and by student groups associated with Center.

BOARD OF LAITY

The end of this Conference year I will have completed my first year as Lay Leader of the Peninsula Conference. It has been a very rewarding and gratifying experience in the work of the laity.

I would like to express my gratitude to all the laity who supported me with their talents and gifts, and contributed so freely of their time. I will be ever thankful for the help of the clergy, especially the support of Bishop Joseph H. Yeakel and the Cabinet.

The Board of Laity is indebted to the United Methodist Men of the Conference for their assistance in carrying out the programs of the Conference, also the support of the United Methodist Women of our Conference.

Some of the highlights of the Board of Laity were:

1. Participating and supporting the Leadership Training Workshops for local church officers.

2. The District Lenten Communion Breakfast with men, women and youth attending.

3. Annual Lay Speakers Training courses, for Basic Certification and the advanced course for re-certification.

4. Annual Conference Laity Banquet.

5. Annual Men's Retreat at Camp Pecometh.

6. The promotion of Laity Sunday, the Second Sunday of October, with most of the churches participating.

7. The District Laity - Clergy Banquets with large numbers attending in every district.

8. Supporting the Upper Room Prayer Ministry Program.

9. Attending the Northeast Jurisdiction Lay Assembly, the third weekend in October, Peninsula Conference had the largest delegation of any conference except the host conference.

The Board of Laity will continue to serve the Conference and its programs as the Lord calls and directs us in His service.

J. Francis Turpin
Conference Lay Leader

1987 Program Objectives

1. Lay Training Workshops for local church officers.
2. Annual Communion Breakfasts, (Lenten Season).
3. Lay Speakers Training Courses.
4. Annual Conference Laity Banquet.
5. Men's Retreat at Camp Pecometh.
6. District Laity - Clergy Banquets.
7. Prayer Ministry of the Upper Room.
8. Attending the Northeast Jurisdiction Lay Assembly.
9. Promotion of Laity Sunday.
10. Other goals and objectives as approved by the Board of Laity.

UNITED METHODIST WOMEN

The special emphasis and highlight of 1985 was the celebration of United Methodist Women's Centennial at Delaware State College, Dover, Delaware on May 4. Banners were made by local units and brought for a parade and display. Each district displayed historical items from their area churches. 700 attended the celebration to hear the Rev. Mary Lou Santillan Baert, staff of the Board of Discipleship, member of the Rio Grande Conference, former missionary to Mexico, challenge them to look to the future with faith and to be in mission. Outstanding women of the past and present were recognized. One woman from our Conference, Cleo Henry, is included in the 100 women to be recognized for outstanding service and leadership at Assembly in California in April when the Centennial is formally ended.

A Financial Interpretation Workshop was held in March with leaders from the Women's Division staff and Board of Directors. 42 district and Conference officers attended this event which was held at St. Joseph's Center in Clayton, Delaware.

Two identical Spiritual Life Retreats were held April 12-13 and April 13-14 at Drayton Retreat Center. The Rev. Charlotte Nichols was the resource leader and the theme was "Renewal." The retreats for 1986 will be April 4-5 and April 5-6. The Rev. Pam Lardear will lead these retreats and the theme is "Wholeness."

Over 200 persons attended the School of Christian Mission held at Salisbury State College in July. 6 ministers received CEU Credits. 75 people attended a school for the first time. The studies were "Daniel-A Tract for Trouble Times" led by Jarrett Wicklein, James T. Seymour, and Ruthenia Finley; "Caring for God's Earth" led by Warren Ebinger and Joyce Hamlin; and "Native People of North America" led by Susan Keirn and Edward Kester. Salisbury State College will be the site for the 1986 School, July 24 -27, 1986. CEU's will again be offered to pastors.

Dr. Marjorie Suchocki, Dean of Wesley Seminary, Washington, D.C. was the speaker at the Conference Annual Meeting held at Centreville United Methodist Church, Centreville, Md. on November 9. Dr. Suchocki, speaking on mission, said, "The church doesn't have a mission; mission is what the church is. We are first and last mission and mission begins in prayer." At this same conference recognition was given to 36 reading program participants, the pledge to mission was increased to $100,000, and Norma Jo Walton was installed as Conference President.

A Training Event for all district officers was held at Union UMC, Bridgeville, DE on December 7. Conference officers provided the leadership for this varied program on skill development, officer responsibility, and fact-finding.

A "Planning and Evaluation Retreat" with both retiring and new officers was held at Drayton, December 10 and 11. Goals for 1986 were written and the goals for 1985 were evaluated. There is a feeling of accomplishment about the 1985 events. Growth and progress are seen in the work of the United Methodist Women. The organization will continue to seek ways to attract young women, to be in ministry to older women, and to offer additional opportunities for training local leaders. Some of our supplementary giving projects will receive greater promotion.

Two Conference officers and one district officer attended the workshop on Pornography and Violence sponsored by the General Board of Church and Society held in Wilmore, KY, November 21-23, 1985.

In 1985, Peninsula Conference United Methodist Women contributed $104,476 to Pledge to Mission, $3,877.50 to the Centennial Fund, $4,528.78 to Call to Prayer and Self Denial, and $16,037.02 in Supplementary Gifts. $13,983.Ø2 was contributed to the Neighborhood House in Wilmington.

56 United Methodist Women from our Conference will attend General Assembly in Anaheim, California, April 17-2Ø. From there we will move "Into the Future by Faith." We accept the challenge to continue to be in Mission in new ways because we know that God is with us.

BOARD OF ORDAINED MINISTRY

The Board of Ordained Ministry elected F. David Weber as its Registrar to fill a vacancy created by the resignation of Edwin C. Thomas, and Gonzalee Matthews as Assistant Registrar with special responsibility for Local Pastors. Mr. Matthews is developing procedures for guiding Local Pastors through the Ministerial Course of Study program and for preparing applicants for Associate Membership. Interested persons should be in touch with him.

Our board continues to co-sponsor the Local Pastors' Licensing School at Drew Theological Seminary, and 14 persons from the Peninsula Conference were approved for licensing by this school during the summer of 1985. Persons are recommended for this program by their District Committee on Ordained Ministry after having been certified as Candidates for the Ordained Ministry.

An orientation session was conducted for all pastors appointed within the Peninsula Conference for the first time at the 1985 session.

The Board and the Bishop's cabinet designed new forms for the annual evaluation of each pastor's ministry by the Charge Pastor-Parish Relations Committee, including recommendations for continuing education, and a new standardized process for reporting continuing education credits. All pastors have been reminded that they are required to earn 8 Continuing Education Units during the current quadrennium. Any questions regarding continuing education programs should be addressed to Donald Clendaniel, Sr., who chairs the Board's Continuing Education Committee.

P. Thomas McKelvey and Charlotte A. Nichols are coordinating plans for clergy seminars dealing with Cross-Racial Appointments. The first of these is planned for the fall of 1986.

Representatives of this board have been involved with a task force of the Commission on Equitable Salaries in the development of a proposal for Conference policy dealing with clergy housing. That proposal will be presented at the 1986 Annual Conference session by the Commission.

Scholarship aid totalling $26,4ØØ was provided during 1985 to 35 students preparing for ordained ministry in the Peninsula Conference. More money is needed for scholarships, and local churches are urged to contribute to scholarships for ministerial students through the REACH program.

The board is continuing to study the issues surrounding marital separation and divorce among the clergy in an attempt to develop more clear and consistent policies, procedures and/or guidelines. We do not expect to have a proposal ready for the 1986 Conference session.

After all candidates for ordination in 1986 had been interviewed, the Board provided a day-long session at Wesley College on March 5, during which Bishop Yeakel met with all of those recommended for ordination. In addition to getting better acquainted with each other, the Bishop and the candidates spent time clarifying issues and planning for the ordination service.

The annual meeting of clergy serving in appointments beyond the local church was held on April 12. Persons who anticipate requesting such an appointment are reminded to consult the provisions of Paragraph 443 of the 1984 Discipline before making any commitments.

All Certified Candidates who expect to apply for Probationary Membership and Deacon's orders in 1987, and all Probationary Members who expect to apply for Full Membership and Elder's orders in 1987 should notify the Registrar by August 15, 1986. A meeting of all potential candidates for ordination in 1987 will be held to clarify requirements and procedures.

The Registrar is: Dr. F. David Weber, 226 N. Walnut Street, Wilmington, DE 19801. He may be reached by phone at (302) 654-3101.

The Board of Ordained Ministry continues to operate under the policies and procedures described in the 1985 Conference Journal.

Chairperson

BOARD OF DIACONAL MINISTRY

All Christians are called to ministry. Some are called to representative ministry: ordained or diaconal. "The diaconal ministers are called to specialized ministries of service, justice, and love within local congregations and in the wider world." (1980 Book of Discipline, Par. 108)

The Board of Diaconal Ministry is responsible for the Diaconal Ministers and for the certified professional workers of the Annual Conference.

The Board provides encouragement and guidance to persons who have interest in training for full-time work in the professional fields: education, music, evangelism, and church and community work.

We would urge all full-time workers in these areas to pursue training leading to certification. We would encourage local churches to consider employment of these workers.

In November, the Board of Diaconal Ministry held a seminar at Asbury United Methodist Church in New Castle, Delaware for those wishing to be certified or re-certified as Diaconal Ministers. In February, another seminar was held at Wesley Temple in Salisbury, Maryland. Both were well attended.

We have made careful review of the requests for renewal of the certified workers and of the Diaconal Ministers. The recommendations of the Board are being made to the Annual Conference by the Registrar.

William S. Downing
Chairperson

1987 Program Objectives

1. Continue certification process.

2. Provide more publicity, especially in Conference Communicator.

3. Develop a list of persons working in education, music, and other areas of certification, who are working in the Conference.

4. Develop a plan for continuing education for workers and consider providing some financial assistance.

5. Hold a one-day workshop for persons working in the Conference in education, music, and other areas of certification. This would include certified and non-certified persons.

BOARD OF PENSIONS

During the 1985-86 Conference year, the Conference Board of Pensions proceeded aggressively to accomplish a major goal, that of developing and implementing a retirement planning seminar. The seminar, open to all Peninsula Conference clergy and their spouses, was held in the month of April 1986 in two district locations.

By action of the 1985 Annual Conference, beginning in January 1986, Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP) premiums are being billed directly to local churches rather than under the apportionment system. As a follow-up to that action, presentations were made by members of the Board of Pensions in workshops in each district. The purpose was to assure that the local churches understand the action and the associated requirement that CPP payments be made regularly each month and not be permitted to fall into arrears. CPP payments will be monitored by the Board of Pensions for arrearage over the initial two-year period, 1986 and 1987.

As of December 31, 1985, pensions were being paid to 180 ministers, 151 surviving spouses of ministers, 3 children, 10 local pastors, and 22 surviving spouses of local pastors, for a total of 366 annuitants whose benefits had been earned in the Peninsula Conference. Total amount paid in 1985 by the General Board of Pensions to these annuitants was $943,076. The average pension in 1985 for ministers within our Conference was $4,428. Social Security benefits are in addition to the pension. Keeping faith with those who serve, the Past Service Rate has been increased each year as follows:

1981 - $125	1983 - $155	1985 - $180

The Peninsula Conference Board of Pensions continues to shoulder a large percentage of the annual cost of reducing the Conference's pension liability.

GOALS FOR THE CURRENT QUADRENNIUM

1. Develop an ongoing pre-retirement seminar to be presented at regular intervals for ministers and their spouses upon attaining a specified age.

2. Improve communication of pension benefits to ministers and their spouses to enhance appreciation and understanding.

3. Monitor payment of MPP contributions by local churches and communicate with the district superintendents relative to churches in arrears as to the necessity for timely payments.

4. Maintain a Past Service Rate that is at least 1% of Conference Average Salary and maintain MPP contributions at 12% to assure adequate compensation in retirement years commensurate with years of active ministry.

RECOMMENDATIONS

The Peninsula Conference Board of Pensions recommends that:

1. The Past Service Rate for 1987 be $200 per year of approved service.

2. Up to 100% of the pension and disability payments received be designated as the permitted housing allowance for 1987.

RESOLUTION RELATING TO RENTAL/HOUSING ALLOWANCES FOR RETIRED OR DISABLED MINISTERS OF THE
PENINSULA ANNUAL CONFERENCE

WHEREAS, the religious denomination known as The United Methodist Church has and functions through Ministers of the Gospel who are duly ordained or licensed; and

WHEREAS, the practice of The United Methodist Church is to provide a parsonage or a rental allowance as part of the gross compensation for each of its active ordained or licensed ministers; and

WHEREAS, pensions paid to retired ordained or licensed ministers of The United Methodist Church are considered as deferred compensation and are paid to said retired ordained or licensed ministers in consideration of previous active service, and disability benefits are considered payments in lieu of compensation for active service; and

WHEREAS, the Internal Revenue Service has recognized that the Peninsula Annual Conference is the appropriate organization to designate a housing/rental allowance for retired ordained or licensed ministers who are members of this Conference; and

WHEREAS, the disabled minister has the same legal relationship to an Annual Conference as does the retired minister and, thus, this Annual Conference is also the appropriate organization to designate a housing/rental allowance for a disabled ordained or licensed minister who is a member of this Conference;

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED:

1. An amount equal to 100% of the pension payments received by a retired minister, or 100% of the disability benefit payments received by a disabled minister, during the year 1987 be and is hereby designated as a rental/housing allowance respectively for each retired or disabled ordained or licensed minister of The United Methodist Church who is or was a member of the Peninsula Annual Conference at the time of his or her retirement or disability;

2. The pension or disability payment to which this rental/housing allowance applies shall be the pension or disability payment resulting from all service of such retired or disabled ordained or licensed minister from all employment by any local church, Annual Conference, General Agency, or institution of The United Methodist Church or of any former denomination that is now a part of The United Methodist Church, or from any other denomination that is now a part of The United methodist Church, or from any other employer who employed the minister to perform services related to the ministry and who elected to make contributions to the pension or benefit funds of The United Methodist Church for such retired minister's pension or disabled minister's benefits.

NOTE: The rental/housing allowance which may be excluded from a minister's gross income is limited to the lesser of (1) the amount of the rental/housing allowance designated by the minister's employer or other appropriate body, (2) the amount actually expended by the minister to provide his or her housing, or (3) the legally-determined fair rental value of the parsonage or other housing provided. As specified in Rev. Rul. 71-280, 1971 C.B. 92, "the only amount that will qualify for exclusive under section 107(2) of the code as a 'rental allowance' is an amount equal to the fair value of the home, including furnishings and appurtenances such as a garage, plus the cost of utilities." Beginning in 1984, there is no longer a sick pay or disability income exclusion available with respect to disability benefit payments. Therefore, the full amount of disability benefit payments will be taxable income to the recipient beginning in 1984 and continuing thereafter.

TRUSTEES OF PENINSULA ANNUAL CONFERENCE

The Board has had a relatively uneventful year, with no critical situations presented to us. Our assets have increased under the investment stewardship of the Peninsula Foundation, a relationship which appears to be mutually beneficial. We authorized funds for the start of Community Church at Ocean Pines, out of a trust fund earmarked for that purpose, and assisted Drayton Manor in its plans. At the suggestion of Dr. Stapleton, we have authorized and funded a project to inventory and catalog the abandoned churches and cemeteries under our jurisdiction to determine the extent of our charge.

THE PENINSULA UNITED METHODIST FOUNDATION, INC.

The Peninsula United Methodist Foundation, Inc., is pleased to report the following:

1. Gifts Received in 1985 $117,380.37

2. Income Raised in 1985 21,699.09
$139,079.46

3. For every $1.00 provided to the Foundation and Area Office budgets, $4.32 was returned to churches and institutions.

4. Funds managed by the Investment Committee in revocable and irrevocable trust total $484,707.25.
5. We now have 292 donor/prospects, a growth of 74 since the last report.

Activities of the Executive Director

ANNUAL CONFERENCE

The Executive Director participated in two Stewardship Education programs and sponsored a Clergy Tax Seminar.

LOCAL CHURCH

There were 12 Estate Planning Seminars, 29 worship services, 2 stewardship education events in local churches. In addition 8 churches were assisted in establishing endowment funds to underwrite future outreach and ministries.

CONTINUING EDUCATION

The Executive Director has completed all initial training. The Foundation is enrolled as a member and participates in the activities of the National Association of United Methodist Foundations, National Association of Stewardship Leaders, and National Society of Non-Profit Executives.

ENDOWMENT FUNDS FOR THE LOCAL CHURCH

The emphasis for the past year has been Endowment Funds for the Local Church. It has met enthusiastic response with a number of churches establishing or reorganizing endowment funds to underwrite the future ministry and outreach of their church. Endowment funds are a vital first step in an on-going wills emphasis and planned giving program since it gives donors the assurance that their gift of a lifetime will become a permanent and continuing part of the church.

REORGANIZED COMMUNICATIONS

With the move of Bishop Yeakel from the District of Columbia to Silver Spring, the Foundation consolidated all communications with the Baltimore Foundation. The new 800 toll-free number for Maryland has greatly facilitated telephone communications. A program of pre-paid postage response cards has greatly facilitated correspondence between prospective donors and the Foundation.

COMMISSION ON ARCHIVES AND HISTORY

From the Maryland State Archives, the Commission has purchased a microfilm copy of two important sources of the history of the Delaware Conference - Cox, Pioneer Footsteps, an account of the early Conference preachers, and The Pre-Conference Local Colored Preacher Minutes. These works complement the Museum's complete collection of the Delaware Conference Journals (1864-1965) and are available for churches working on their history.

The highlight each year is the Anniversary Service, commemorating the meeting of Coke and Asbury and the building of Barratt's Chapel, which was held on Sunday, November 10. We were graced with United Methodism's noted historian and preacher, the Reverend Dr. Frederick Maser, who spoke on "Methodism and Tomorrow's World." A Christmas Love Feast was organized by Wesley Church, Dover, on December 1.

To assist local congregations in preserving historic materials, Earle Baker, Allen Clark, Phil Lawton, and Jack Sparkes learned how to conduct archival workshops sponsored by the General Commission on Archives & History, Madison, NJ. They stand ready to assist your church.

The Commission has received several gifts this past year: 1910 quilt from Viola Church, 1897 & 1798 Methodist Magazine, in memory of Catherine Argoe, 1822-24 Wesleyan Repository, Primitive Wesleyan Methodist Magazine 1824, Mason's Logbook 1839, donated by Wilson's Auction; Edward Cooper has expanded our magazine and book collection, and over 200 other works were added to the library.

The 4,706 visitors who passed through the Chapel doors continue to be a strong part of our program. The hours are Saturday and Sunday- 1:30 - 4:30 p.m. Visiting at other hours can be arranged by appointment (302) 335-5544.

We were saddened by the deaths of Dr. Charles I. Carpenter's and Mr. Everett Bryan's wives. And the Reverend Dr. Howard B. Warren, a great benefactor, entered into his heavenly rest.

The Commission met six times last year and is fortunate to have members who are motivated and interested in preserving the great story of our church.

1987 Program Objectives

1. To operate and maintain Barratt's Chapel and Conference Museum on Peninsula Methodism.

2. To expand the Library and Museum artifacts.

3. To celebrate the 203rd Anniversary of the meeting of Coke and Asbury on Sunday, November 8th, 3:00 p.m.

4. To participate in the training programs offered by the General Commission and other appropriate training agencies.

5. To pursue the possibility of having a history of the Delaware Conference published.

6. To pursue the need to expand the Museum.

COMMISSION ON CHRISTIAN UNITY & INTERRELIGIOUS CONCERNS

While the fostering of organic Christian unity has been pretty much on the back burner as far as the average local congregation could tell, in the background a great deal of preparation has been going on for a major thrust in the immediate future.

While attending the National Workshop on Christian Unity (with Delmarva Ecumenical Agency Executive Director, George Cora) May 10- 13, in San Antonio, Texas, then chairperson Bob Helms learned about the two major thrusts that are advancing a more unified witness among denominations. The larger of the two is the submission by the Faith & Order Commission of the World Council of Churches of their final draft on the Baptism, Eucharist, and Ministry (BEM for short) document to the participating denominations. The document was adopted by the Commission in 1982 in Lima, Peru and is often referred to as the Lima Document. The Roman Catholic Church is a full member of the Commission and participant in the document though not a full member of the WCC.

Never before has such a major attempt been made to identify a consensus on these major doctrinal understandings among such a representative cross-section of the Church. The Council of Bishops of United Methodism is the disciplinary agent for ecumenical affairs and as of this writing is about to submit our official response, having first sought the views of theologians and local congregations from across the church.

The Consultation on Church Union (COCU), which many persons thought had died in 1965 with the rejection of the original plan for a five-denomination merger, has now submitted a new plan after an exhaustive 20-year study and evaluation of new input. The new plan is outlined in two 50-page books: The COCU Consensus, containing the theological understandings, and Covenanting Toward Unity, the new organizational plan.

Bishop Joseph Yeakel has asked our Peninsula Conference commission to convene a representative seminar of clergy and laity to review these documents to begin the official response of our Conference. This we are doing by inviting interested parties to a workshop April 29th (1986) at Wesley College.

1987 Program Objectives

1. To train local church chairpersons and involve them in planning ecumenical emphases for our Conference.

2. To keep local church chairpersons and pastors well informed about ecumenical concerns throughout the year.

3. To attend the National Christian Unity Workshop to keep the commission and the Conference informed and up to date on national ecumenical issues.

4. Sponsor a major ecumenical event for the Conference and include other cooperating denominations in our Conference.

5. To study the booklet requested by COCU - The COCU Consensus: In Quest of a Church Uniting and begin a review of Covenanting Toward Unity: From Consensus to Communion.

6. For commission members to participate in ecumenical happenings around the Conference.

Delmarva Ecumenical Agency

Our two major emphases for the year were: 1) to present an ecumenical conference; 2) to continue to develop local ecumenism. Accordingly, on October 12 at Newark HIgh School, Newark, Delaware, a conference was held on the theme "Christian Growth in Faith" with Dr. Dwayne Huebner, Yale Divinity School, as keynote speaker. The 80 who attended were offered 5 workshops and an ecumenical fair. Feedback on the workshop was very positive.

To develop local ecumenism, the agency facilitated the following events. In preparation for the new state prison, the Somerset County (Maryland) ministerium heard from Mrs. Nancy Williams, chief, Volunteer and Religious Services, Maryland Division of Correction, and three Maryland correctional chaplains. The Pike Creek Valley Peace Fellowship (Wilmington) promoted the Peace Pentecost in Washington, DC and the Pledge of Resistance. The Pike Creek Christian Coalition (Wilmington) sponsored an ecumenical Lenten prayer series for the second year. The United Negro College Fund, Religious Division, collected over $4,294 for needy students, highest ever, within a total of $127,000. In conjunction with the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity, local ecumenical leaders were invited to prayer and lunch in Wilmington, Dover, Easton, and Salisbury. Denominational education staff meet periodically to share information and consider developing and promoting a program on TV values. Mrs. Terri Oppecker developed a nutrition ministry in Cecil County (Maryland), applying the educational approach of Dr. Paulo Freire. The executive director presented the "DEA Pastoral Statement on Peace and Justice" to Caroline County Clergy and Laity (MD). He also attended the Evangelicals' breakfast; preached at New Castle United Methodist Church, Dover Presbyterian Church; appeared on a Rollins TV Talk Show, subject: "Ministers' Credentials;" visited clergy on the peninsula.

Resources were coordinated among the fourteen denominations and thirteen ministries, task forces and cooperating organizations. DEA was a sponsor of the Pacem in Terris anti-apartheid conference on March 30. The Correctional Chaplains Task Force advocated support for 4.5

additional chaplain positions with the Delaware Legislature. Funds received from the Federal Emergency Food and Shelter Fund: Delmarva Rural Ministries, $2,500; Food Conservers, Inc., $46,743; Kent Ecumenical Food & Crisis Fund, $3,400; and Casa San Francisco, $4,300. The Eastern Shore Task Force of MILC helped raise the Maryland General Public Assistance allotment by $15.00 per month.

In addition, on May 9, the first annual DEA Ecumenical Award was presented to the Hon. Elbert N. Carvel, first president of DEA board. On February 6, the agency participated in organizing the "Maryland Ecumenical Forum." The first event sponsored by the forum was a presentation for all interested parties in or around the state on "Baptism, Eucharist, and MInistry" by the Rev. Dr. William Lazareth at the Interfaith Center, Columbia, MD, on October 21. Through the interfaith Housing Task Force, the Denominational Executives are working to provide 1,000 additional housing units for the poor in Delaware.

To develop a sound theological rationale for our work, the "DEA Pastoral Statement on Peace and Justice" was sent to all congregations on the peninsula at Easter. The Faith & Order Committee, with the Rev. Msgr. Paul J. Schierse as convener, is currently addressing the topic "Ministry." The Rt. Rev. William H. Clark, former convener, presented his ecumenical library to the agency upon his retirement.

Judy Berry, administrative secretary and bookkeeper, "keeps things running" in outstanding fashion. Among her accomplishments this year was computerizing the mailing list so that churches and pastors are available by zip code. Staff meetings are held weekly, including Elaine Stout, who spends 15% of her time very effectively in direct service to the agency.

As we observe our 15th year of service in 1986, hopes include continuing to develop local ecumenism, especially by working for decent housing for the poor on Maryland's Eastern Shore. We want to thank the Peninsula Annual Conference for its strong leadership and support in the Christian unity work of DEA.

COMMISSION ON EQUITABLE SALARIES

The role of the Commission on Equitable Salaries is to give financial assistance to pastors whose Charges fail to provide the minimum compensation set by the Peninsula Annual Conference. Further, the Commission awards financial supplements to those pastors whose special talents are required to effectively serve their appointments.

In addition to salary support to pastors, the Commission provides the related pension (MPP) funds in such cases. In 1985, pastors in 26 Charges received salary supplements of $58,338, plus related pension fund contributions of $7,140, for a total of $65,478. The amount of payments awarded by the Commission in recent years has stabilized, as shown below:

	Salary Support	Related Pension Payments Amount	% of Salary Support
1983	$59,824	$7,744	12.95
1984	57,116	7,313	12.80
1985	58,338	7,140	12.24

The 1985 Peninsula Annual Conference approved the proposal to require the local churches to pay the Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP) in addition to the Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP), effective January 1, 1986. Therefore, this Commission, in addition to awarding salary supplements, must pay the related MPP and CPP, beginning in 1986. As of March 1, 1986, the Commission has awarded 1986 salary supplements of $49,897 and related MPP and CPP payments of $8,607 (17.25% of salary supplements compared to 12.24% in 1985).

The 1982 Peninsula Annual Conference recognized the fact that the minimum salary level of the Conference was substantially lower than neighboring conferences. The result was that an effort would be made to gradually increase minimum salaries so that we would reach parity with nearby conferences within five years, or 1987. The minimum salary levels for the last four years have been:

	Full-time Conference, Probationary and Associate Members	Students
1983	$ 9,500	$ 6,650
1984	11,000	8,250
1985	12,250	9,200
1986	13,475	10,120

Again this year, we have studied the projected 1987 minimum salary levels of six (6) nearby conferences - Baltimore, Central Pa, Eastern Pa, Southern NJ, Virginia, and Western Pa. We arrived at the 1987 projected minimum salaries of these conferences by averaging the increases over the last years and adding that average to the actual 1986 minimum salaries being paid.

Most of the nearby conferences have established four different minimum salaries for full-time pastors to allow for differences in education and experience. The projected 1987 minimum salaries (average) for full-time pastors in the six conferences are, by category, as follows:

Full Member	$14,488
Probationary Member	13,955
Associate Member	13,906
Local Pastor	13,280	Average $13,907

Recognizing the importance of reflecting differences in education and experience, and attaining the Conference goal of reaching parity with nearby conferences in 1987, the Commission offers the following resolutions:

RESOLVED, that the 1987 minimum salary levels for full-time pastors be:

Full Member	$14,500
Probationary Member	14,000
Associate Member	13,500
Local Pastor	13,000

RESOLVED FURTHER, that the 1987 minimum salary for Student Pastors and Part-time Local Pastors be $10,500, unless some smaller figure is agreed upon by the Pastor, Charge, and District Superintendent as being appropriate for the work to be performed.

Conference policy requires that pastors be reimbursed for miles traveled on church business. The Commission recommends the following action:

RESOLVED, that reimbursement for business travel expense be 21 cents per mile for the first 15,000 miles and 11 cents per mile beyond 15,000 miles, said rate being in compliance with IRS policy.

Finally, the Commission continues to study the matter of clergy housing and expects to give its report to the 1986 Peninsula Annual Conference.

COMMISSION ON RELIGION AND RACE

The Commission on Religion and Race continues to affirm its role as a program advocacy and monitoring agency of the church.

During the previous year it was able to continue to build upon the theme of inclusiveness as it relates to open itinerancy and cross-racial appointments. With the development of the Cross-Racial Appointments Task Force and implementation of the Cross-Racial Appointments document, it was able to encourage and enable the development of district conferences on open itinerancy, development of a suggestive agenda for district conferences on open itinerancy, and examining models for cross-racial appointments as they relate to the development of criteria for selection of pastors and churches for cross-racial appointments.

The Martin Luther King, Jr. Symposium was held this year focusing on the Missional Priority and the inclusiveness of the church. Bishop L. Scott Allen was the keynote speaker. He focused on the pastoral exchange model as a cross-racial appointment experience.

The Peninsula Conference Commission on Religion and Race will continue to carry the crusade against social injustice, racism, classism, and sexism as it seeks to enable the United Methodist Church to be an inclusive church.

Vaughn A. Johnson
Staff Representative

Verdie Page
Acting Chairperson

1987 Program Objectives

1. The Cross-Racial Appointment Committee and the Education Committee will develop educational resources to help local churches prepare for cross-racial appointments. A suggested workshop process will be included.

2. Each District Director will design and implement a workshop model to deal with racial attitudes and perspectives. The session could involve a sub-district or a cluster.
3. The Commission on Religion and Race will recruit clergy and laity to implement two cross-racial pastoral exchanges.

4. The Martin Luther King Symposium Committee will design and conduct a symposium on January 17, 1987 (the Saturday closest to M.L.K.'s birthday).

5. The Commission on Religion and Race will continue to monitor Conference Boards and Agencies as to inclusiveness. The following will be included:

   A. The Missional Priority Committee as to their implementation of The Missional Priority.

   B. The implementation of the 1985 resolutions for implementation of cross-racial appointments.

   C. The utilization of the existing affirmative action plan in monitoring Conference agencies.

6. The Commission on Religion and Race will encourage the intentional use of District Resource Centers for Conference programs.

WASHINGTON AREA COMMITTEE ON EPISCOPACY

1. The area office was moved from Washington, D.C. to Memorial Church in Silver Spring. This has resulted in more efficient administration in regards to less time for transportation, less office rental, and more availability for meeting with the Bishop.

2. The Bishop reports that attempts have been made to comply with the Sabbath recommendation passed by the Baltimore and Peninsula Conferences in June, 1985. This has allowed more time for rest, study, and family activities for the Bishop and pastors.

   However, in the last few months, various committees have again scheduled meetings on Monday, which then creates more strain for the Bishop and all clergy who try to make this a day of sabbath. It is hoped that this recommendation will be honored as much as possible.

3. The committee and the Bishop have looked at the hurts and concerns in the Area and have tried to address them to determine in what ways healing could be facilitated. With this in mind, the following has been accomplished:

a. District meetings have been held which included dialogue between the Bishop and Clergy.

b. Seminars by the Commission on Religion and Race and the Commission on the Status and Role of Women were provided for the Cabinet and the Board of Ordained Ministry.

c. The Day Apart and the Bishop's Retreat were instrumental in helping toward communication and understanding in the conferences.

4. A workshop for the Washington Area Episcopacy Committee is planned for Saturday, June 7, with Paul Dietterich of the Center for Parish Development, who has written and helped extensively with the work of Bishops and Conferences.

There have been difficult times in this past year, but God surely works through history. The prayer of the committee is that love, peace, reconciliation, and healing will move through the Episcopal Area so that the Bishop and all of God's people will be able to continue to fulfill the mission of Christ in today's world.

COUNCIL ON FINANCE & ADMINISTRATION

During the past year, the following actions were taken by the Council:

1. Wilmington District Parsonage - appropriated $922 for improvements.

2. Wilmington District Office - appropriated $1,000 for new typewriter.

3. Approved an amendment to the Medical Expense Plan to add the Cost and Utilization Review Benefit (Delaware) and Admission Review Program/Mandatory Second Surgical Opinion Program (Maryland).

4. Camp Pecometh - appropriated $28,685 for improvements.

Recommendations:

1. That the 1987 Budget in the amount of $3,445,859 be adopted.
2. That .39 be the Apportionment Factor for 1987.

PENINSULA METHODIST FEDERAL CREDIT UNION

The Credit Union made 65 loans in 1985, totaling $118,070.73. Since its organization in 1967 it has made 797 loans totaling $1,123,807.80 There were 282 members at the end of 1985. Shares held by members increased from $154,537 to $163,171.56. Reserves are being maintained and the Credit Union received a higher rating in 1985 than in 1983. All shares are insured by the National Credit Union Insurance Fund administered by the federal government.

The Financial Statement as of Jan. 31, 1986, is as follows:

Loans	$163,164.51	Undivided Earnings	$ 535.97
Cash	952.62	Allowance for Loss	4,158.08
Money Market	5,503.77	Shares	158,418.87
Shares Del Central	161.79	Regular Reserve	7,751.34
Furniture & Fixtures	1.00	Acct. Payable	3.72
NCUIF (Share Ins. Fund)	1,631.72	Net Income	648.21
Total Assets	$171,615.44	Total Liabilities & Equity	$171,615.44

The Credit Union is still trying to compete for money paying a 6.5% dividend on all deposit accounts of less than $2,000.00 and paying an average for the year of 8% on monies above $2,000. This is in addition to life insurance dollar for dollar for the first $2,000.00. Loan rates are 12% for new autos, 13.2% for used autos, 15% for signature personal loans, and 9.6% for share secured loans.

Inquiries for membership should be directed to the treasurer, C. E. Barton, Jr., 239 N. Conwell St., Seaford, Delaware 19973, or to the office of any of the facilities of Peninsula United Methodist Homes.

DRAYTON MANOR BOARD OF DIRECTORS STRATEGY REPORT

"Drayton Manor be retained as a center for Spiritual Renewal with oversight by a committee of the Conference Council on Ministries; that it be funded through the Conference budget for only three years and that during that time we institute other processes to fund Drayton." Resolution: 1985 AC

Clear Direction and Mandate: Evaluate the total Drayton situation and, specifically, to find alternatives to the Annual Conference subsidy funding.

As a Board, we understand this mandate to mean a radical examination of every aspect to Drayton. We have not taken a "Band-aid approach" in our analysis; nor have we sought only to find a solution to the need for an annual subsidy from the Annual Conference. We are committed to making Drayton an effective force to strengthen the spiritual life of the Annual Conference.

A new Board of Directors was put in place by September, 1985. Since that date, the Board and four functioning comittees (Finance, Program, Property, and Marketing) have frequently met. (To indicate we have not hastily moved, the average Board member has invested over 90 hours.) The following is our strategy through May of 1988:

FINANCE

1. Fiscal Responsibility - The Finance Committee is becoming directly involved in the supervision of the finances of Drayton in both the long-range planning and cost-effectiveness of the daily operations in order for us to most effectively use our income.

2. Increased Use - The overall objective at Drayton is to increase use thereby increasing income. There are many basic ongoing costs even when the facility is not in use. While we do not have reason to expect any dramatic results until our 1986 - 1987 season (it will take that long to get our programs and marketing strategy in place and working), we already have some fairly dramatic results because of the energies expended the last few months of 1985. (Income from fees was 20% higher than budgeted - a $15,300.00 increase.)

3. Endowment Fund - In order to eliminate the need for a Conference subsidy, we plan to develop our endowment fund to provide funds equal to that subsidy. Our timetable for this is to eliminate the Conference subsidy by 1989.

1986 = $35,000.00
1987 = $27,000.00
1988 = $15,000.00
1989 = $ 0.00

(We recognize that it is unrealistic to expect any Retreat Center to be self-supporting. To our knowledge, there is no such center that operates out of user fees.) The sale of the 13 acres of land (of no programatic use) is expected to add a net of $300,000.00 to this fund.

This move jeopardizes none of our program plans and protects the principal for whatever inevitability the future holds for Drayton. Our long-range plan for this fund is to increase it to an amount that will eventually make Drayton self-sustaining at all levels. This objective is included in our final financial objective.

4. Capital Funds Campaign - Fall of 1986 - Spring of 1988, in order to raise $750,000.00 for capital improvements and $250,000.00 for the endowment fund.

   In order to accomplish this, we will target foundations and selected individuals.

   There is no plan to request a "Drayton Sunday" in the Conference Calendar or to use any Annual Conference "official lists" as a basis for solicitation. We will not be requesting a line item in the apportionments or subsidy within the Conference budget for this purpose. If we cannot raise these finds as planned, we will re-evaluate our situation. We want to establish a building fund now to be administered by the Finance Committee of the Board of Directors. (Money-market type; totally insured.)

   Initial gifts will come from "Friends of Drayton" - a greatly expanded mailing (from 250 to 700) has been sent in mid-April.

   If at the end of our campaign we have not been successful, any funds remaining (not withdrawn by the donors) will be transferred to the endowment fund.

PROPERTY

In effect, we moved into a manor house and its surrounding acres 20 years ago. We changed little except the furnishings and have expected the property to "work" as a Retreat Center. The Board has felt a major part of the effectiveness/success of Drayton will be our willingness to deal radically, if necessary, with the structure and grounds. After extensive study by the New Property Committee and the total Board, the following are our plans:

Immediate

1. Interior redecorating of rooms (Manor House and Bell House); painting; new carpets; double beds in eight rooms; bathroom improvements; third floor renovation; shower installations in each bathroom; kitchen improvements (equipment); water system now clear of rust; new roof for Bell House; pool repairs; tennis court repairs; refurbish bowling alley; outside repairs - steps, etc. (these items are either completed or in progress); The barn, which is structurally sound, will be renovated for recreational use.

2. The 13 acres of land of no programatic value has been prepared for sale and is on the market. We are optimistic because of many inquiries.

3. We are now developing a strategy to uncover some of the natural resources of the 35 acres: nature paths; meditation areas in many locations (including a small remote beach area and views of the water); identification of flowers and trees (an incredible variety exists); an outdoor amphitheater; recovery of the meadow; and development of picnic areas - in all areas we are emphasizing use of natural environment/material instead of "building objects."

Long-range

We identify these needs: Better access for older and handicapped persons; more effective meeting room space (a large room to comfortably seat 75 and additional small meeting rooms); provide for mutual use by two smaller groups (20 - 30); 9 additional bedrooms; a dining room to seat 60 - 75 persons; better access through hallways; better lighting and appropriate decor; recreation areas; and improvements in the Director's residence.

Our Plan

To address most of these needs, we propose to build a three-story, free-standing building (52 X 62 feet) that would adjoin the present Manor House with access through an elevator and stairway tower at the rear of the Manor House. The building (which would not be visible from the front view) would attach at the basement, first floor, and second floor level. Anyone entering the front door would have access without stairs to meeting rooms, dining room, library, and 17 bedrooms.

The downstairs access would be to a new meeting room floor. The first floor would access in the new building to a large dining roon (the same level as the kitchen which would provide for better serving of meals); the second floor access would connect with the second floor rooms.

An additional exit and fire escape are provided for the third floor of the Manor House, dealing with a current concern.

This addition will (1) Increase our accomodations to a comfortable 60 - 70 persons; (2) Allow for uses by two groups simultaneously (Ex. 15 rooms in new wing and Bell House with meeting rooms and 14 rooms in Manor House and meeting rooms with both groups sharing a common dining area); and (3) Provide a room large enough for total group meeting and dining -- namely, more flexibility and freer access.

The East Room will still be available for large group meetings when necessary while returning it to more of its "natural" design and use primarily as a large conversation/entertaiment/music room.

We would have a library, small dining room; the garage would be permanently renovated and joined (by French doors) to the room adjacent to it (this will be done soon to provide a larger, more easily accessible dining area while we await the larger project). Construction of the new building would begin by summer of 1988 if our Capital Funds Drive is successful.

PROGRAM

Flexibility and variety will be the theme.

We hope for increased numbers of local churches on weekends (many more requests than availability now) by adding the possibility of two groups' simultaneous use.

Twenty continuing education offerings are planned from September, 1986 - June, 1987. Significant leadership (not available for the 1986 - 1987 season) is in place for 1987 and 1988. The intent of our offerings is to appeal to the plurality of our Conference. (see CEU Printing for details)

Many Conference groups, boards, and agencies already use Drayton. We want to cultivate more use including more District meetings.

We are developing possibilities for individual and couples' use for renewal. Those using the facility could share in dining with groups using Drayton or, if no such group is "in house," dine at a local restaurant (a brochure listing these will also include their areas of interest).

We are targeting several programs aimed at the retired community for week day use. We are investigating increased usage by commercial/business/education groups, already an important part of our program.

An aggressive effort will take place to "entertain" local churches at Drayton, familiarizing the group with the Drayton possibilities. We will develop a cadre of persons who can resource the local church (Council on Ministries planning retreats; spiritual renewal retreats, etc.).

MARKETING

Two new brochures are now in the printing stage: (1) one for the Spiritual dimension; and (2) one for commmercial/educational/ training use.

The Continuing Education programs will be separately printed. We will increase the clergy mailing to include all of the Baltimore, Eastern Pennsylvania, Southern New Jersey, and Peninsula Annual Conferences.

We intend to advertise in selected periodicals and newspapers.

A slide/talk presentation, "The Drayton Opportunity," will be prepared.

A new logo has been designed.

An Evangelism Strategy For the Peninsula Annual Conference
Proposed by the Board of Discipleship
1986 - 1989

As United Methodists, our General Conference has challenged us to double our membership by 1992! It is certainly a way of getting our attention. It underscores our major mandate which is to: "Go and make disciples of all nations..." We want to pursue that goal with passion.

From time to time, institutions and other social structures need to review their priorities in the light of their charters. The Peninsula Conference is no exception. We are under orders to declare and to share the Gospel with all persons and to labor to include them within the fellowship of the Church.

In 1984, one hundred and ninety-seven churches did not report a single profession of faith, which also means they did not hold a Confirmation Class. In some of our churches, there are no Church School classes. Three of our four districts reported a total membership decline of 430 persons. One District reported a net gain of 80.

In our connectional system, unless the leadership of the Conference and the pastoral leadership in the local churches, by modeling, conversation, administrative style, and the allocation of time, give clear signals regarding the urgency of evangelism, very little will happen in this regard. John Wesley set a pace and a pattern for us. These need to be renewed in every decade.

With these convictions in mind, the Division of Evangelism would like to suggest the following programs as a preaching, teaching, and reaching event designed to begin or reinforce an ongoing emphasis, in each local church, of offering Christ to the community. It is hoped that this event will be a springboard for intense and intentional evangelism activity into the 1990's.

May - Dec. I. Announce and Promote - Offer Them Christ at the 1986 Annual Conference.

A. That a study and analysis of each local church's context, for the possibilities in evangelism, be made using an instrument provided by the Board of Discipleship.

B. Use all PR means in the Fall.

C. Have "Offer Them Christ" pins.

D. Announce 5-Star Church programs.

E. Prayer Vigils, early and late, in local churches.

Jan. 24, 1987 II. Bishop's Day of Teaching
St. Luke's 10:00 a.m. - 3:00 p.m., Saturday
Denton

A. To include: Board of Discipleship, District Superintendents, and Conference Staff.

B. Develop Conference leadership for mutual support.

Feb. 28, 1987 Mar. 1, 1987 III. Two Conference Rallies - Teaching to help pastors teach their congregations - materials provided. Dr. John R. Knecht.

A. Saturday, Feb. 28, 1987
9:00 a.m. - 3:00 p.m.
Wilmington/Dover

B. Sunday, Mar. 1, 1987
3:00 p.m. - 9:00 p.m.
Easton/Salisbury

Mar. 7, 1987 IV. Bi-district meetings for Education Leaders in local churches.

A. Saturday, Mar. 7, 1987
10:00 a.m. - 3:00 p.m.

B. Training Church School Superintendents, work area chairpersons, and all teachers in Church School in evangelism.

Mar. 8, 1987 - Mar. 14, 1987 V. Each Pastor Leads a Day of Teaching in Evangelism for Administrative Council and/or Council on Ministries.

A. Establish cross-section Task Force of local church.

B. Involve best people.

Mar. 22, 1987 - Mar. 25, 1987 VI. Four Days of Offering Christ

A. Sunday AM, Mar. 22, 1987
Preaching on Offering Christ By Visiting Pastor (Missioner). Each Church is to secure a Preacher for these services from among Conference Pastors or others.

B. Sunday PM, Mar. 22, 1987

1. 5:30 p.m. - 6:15 p.m.
The Pastor teaches the lay visitors (light dinner).
2. 6:15 p.m. - 7:15 p.m.
Two visits by teams.
3. 7:30 p.m.
The local church offering Christ again.

C. Monday, Mar. 23, 1987

1. 9:30 a.m. - 12:30 p.m.
The District Superintendent or Resource Person teaching on Evangelism. Pastor and visiting Missioner will be telling what has been happening. Lunch provided.
2. 5:30 p.m. - 6:15 p.m.
The Pastor teaches the lay visitors (light dinner).

3. 6:15 p.m. - 7:15 p.m.
Two visits.

4. 7:30 p.m.
Visiting Pastor Preaching.

D. Tuesday, Mar. 24, 1987 and Wednesday, Mar. 25, 1987 are the same as Monday, Mar. 23, 1987.

Mar. 26, 1987 VII. Planning for the Future - Thursday.

A. Thursday, Mar. 26, 1987
7:00 p.m. - 9:00 p.m. or other time immediately following the event. Utilizing motivation, Evaluate and Develop Evangelism plan for four years.

B. Program developed by Task Force and COM or AD/Council.

C. Plans to be submitted for cross-fertilization and review at Sub-District meetings established and led by the District Superintendent by Conference 1987. Some possibilities:

1. Ongoing emphasis in Evangelism-second Sunday emphasis, Caring Program, building friendships, etc.
2. Confirmation Classes for Each Church.
3. New Church School Classes.
4. New Church Schools.
5. Reaching delinquent members - intensive cultivation.
6. Starting new Churches.
7. Organizing small groups for studying continued discipleship.
8. Form "covenant groups" modeled after the Wesley Class meeting. They will become groups that teach.
9. Pastors teach classes in "how to tell your story."

THIS STRATEGY WILL UNDERGO CONSTANT EVALUATION AS EACH STEP IS IMPLEMENTED AND MAY REQUIRE CHANGE.

A POSSIBLE WAY OF RECOGNIZING CHURCHES
A FIVE-STAR CHURCH

* Full Participation in Offering Them Christ program.
* One new member on profession of faith for each 75 members, in addition to 1986 performance.
* A five percent increase in Church School attendance.
* One new adult/youth class.
* A confirmation class.
* A new mission program.
* A new stewardship program.

A five-star Church would do five of the seven items above and be recognized at the 1987 Annual Conference.

The same seven could be used for 1988 or changed.

A REAFFIRMATION OF THE COVENANT RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN WESLEY COLLEGE AND THE PENINSULA ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

SECTION I An Understanding of Covenant

It is the intention of this document to set forth the covenant relationship between Wesley College and the Peninsula Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church. This covenant relationship can be defined as a tangible device for making explicit the relationship between the College and the Annual Conference, encouraging mutual understanding, and fostering a joint approach to emerging issues in church-related higher education today and tomorrow.

Let it be accepted as a part of the covenant relationship that this document will be reviewed jointly by the College and the Annual Conference at least once every quadrennium.

SECTION II The History of the Covenant Between the College and the Annual Conference

The establishment of the institution which was to become Wesley College was first considered in the Methodist Episcopal Conference of 1870. Three years later a charter was secured. In September, 1873, the Wilmington Conference Academy, a preparatory school, was opened in rented buildings in Dover under the patrongage of the Wilmington Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church. The first building, known as OLD MAIN, was finished and occupied in September of 1874.

In 1918, a new charter changed the name to Wesley Collegiate Institute and enabled the school to extend its offerings to include the first two years of college. The first junior college class began its studies in 1922 and was graduated in June, 1924.

The Depression of 1929 made the Wesley Collegiate Institute one of its temporary casualties and the school was closed in 1932. After the union of 1939, in which the Methodist Protestant Church, the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and the Methodist Episcopal Church became The Methodist Church, the Peninsula Annual Conference voted in 1941 to reopen the school. In 1942, Wesley Junior College opened its doors. A charter revision in 1958 dropped the word "Junior" from the College title.

The first baccalaureate degrees in the history of the institution were conferred in 1978. That year the charter was changed, and Wesley College was accredited as a comprehensive college, recognition of Wesley's new status as a baccalaureate degree-granting institution, by the Commission on Higher Education of the Middle States Association of Colleges and Schools.

The strength of the relationship between the College and the Annual Conference was demonstrated in 1983 when the College was threatened by a financial crisis. The Annual Conference voted to guarantee a line of credit in the amount of $1.8 million to help stabilize the College.

SECTION III The Legal Relationship between the College and the Annual Conference

By the laws of the State of Delaware, Wesley College is a separate legal entity from the Annual Conference. Each operates independently of the other, and neither is liable for the obligations of the other, absent a specific agreement to the contrary. The connection between the two derives from the fact that the Board of Trustees of the College is elected by the members of the College Corporation who are also the clergy members and lay members of the Annual Conference.

Once each year, at its regular meeting, the presiding bishop recesses the Annual Conference, which is then called to order as the Wesley College Corporate Session. The chairperson of the College Board of Trustees reports to the Corporate Session on the state of the College and new candidates for the Board of Trustees are nominated and elected.

While the formal relationship between the College and the Annual Conference is important, their mutual ministry in higher education is the essential point. As the two institutions reaffirm this covenant, it is helpful to list some expectations, each of the other, which further define this mutual ministry.

SECTION IV Annual Conference Expectations of the College

A. Wesley College should be a College with a difference. Whereas knowledge is often fragmented in the secular university, Wesley College should maintain a commitment to the arts and sciences and to a holistic approach which emphasizes the physical, psychological, and spiritual dimensions of human existence. The College will prepare students for life as well as for careers. In performing this task, the College will convey to each student a sense of his or her infinite worth as a child of God.

B. Through its relationship to the church, the College is part of a world-wide community of faith with a world-view rooted in the transcendent. So connected, Wesley is expected to present an alternative vision to the world's narrowness and provincialism.

C. Wesley College is expected to take its faith commitment seriously and apply that faith in every aspect of its institutional life. This means giving recognizable expression to its faith through the functions of scholarship, personnel policies, over-all campus ethos, and in an active concern for corporate responsibility in the area of institutional investments.

D. Wesley College is expected to work faithfully at building true community. The College can have no greater impact than by providing an experience of true, Christian community--a place where the barriers of sex, race, and ideology are overcome and people actually live in an atmosphere of peace, mutual acceptance, and personal fulfillment.

SECTION V College Expectations of the Annual Conference

A. The Annual Conference reaffirms its understanding that there is a Christian witness to be made through its support of Wesley College, a witness that cannot be made as clearly through secular institutions of higher learning. This support will find expression in prayers, counsel, advocacy and financial contributions/commitments.

B. The Annual Conference will interpret its ministry at Wesley College to the local churches and help them to appreciate the College as an unique and vital part of the church's overall mission.

C. The Annual Conference will encourage its pastors and lay delegates to lift up Wesley College as an option for those persons in their local churches who are considering a personalized Christian academic experience. The Annual Conference also encourages local church members to be advocates for the College in its endeavor to find potential friends and students in local communities.

D. The Annual Conference will urge generous support on the part of local churches for the annual Wesley College Sunday offering, all of which is applied as scholarship assistance for Peninsula Annual Conference students attending Wesley.

SECTION VI A Renewal of the Covenant

With a shared heritage of 113 years of ministry in higher education, we, the Board of Trustees of Wesley College, and the members of the Peninsula Annual Conference, do hereby reaffirm our covenant relationship and pledge ourselves to pursue the program of cooperation and mutual support stated above. Once again, we affirm as our common quest the objective so ably phrased by Charles Wesley himself, to "unite the pair so long disjoined, knowledge and vital piety." By God's grace, in the unity which is ours as members of the body of Jesus Christ, and empowered by the Holy Spirit, we pledge so to do.

TASK FORCE ON CROSS-RACIAL APPOINTMENTS

After the 1985 session of the Peninsula Annual Conference adopted the paper "Cross-Racial Appointments: Policy and Procedures (For Study and Implementation)," a task force was appointed by the cabinet to oversee the implementation of the resolution Appendix I.

The first meeting of the task force was held on October 20, 1985, to review the resolution and assign various responsibilities. It was also obvious that the timeline would be very difficult to meet. The task force decided that although the dates would serve as guidelines, the quality of programs such as the professional growth seminar would take precedence. The second meeting was held on March 20, 1986, to determine the progress made by the various groups in implementing their responsibilities. The following report will indicate the progress that has been made on each of the points in the resolution.

I. With the intent of educating and challenging local church leaders to understand the United Methodist Covenant of Open Itineracy we request that district conferences for this purpose be held no later than the end of March, 1986.

As of March 20, 1986, the Dover, Wilmington, and Salisbury Districts have held their district conferences. The Easton District conference is scheduled. Reports were given by persons who attended the conferences and the feeling of the task force is that the conferences began the process of helping local church leaders understand the United Methodist Covenant of Open Itineracy. Future intentional events and processes need to be designed to continue the dialogue begun.

II. All pastors shall attend one professional growth seminar of 76 - 92 hours dealing with racism, inclusiveness, and cross-racial appointments to be developed by the Board of Ordained Ministry and offered annually through 1988.

The design of the seminar was assigned to the Board of Ordained Ministry, who assigned the Rev. Ms. Charlotte Nichols and the Rev. Dr. Tom McKelvey to work on the project. The following is a brief summary of their report to the task force:

> The design called for two seminars a year (instead of one), with an average attendance of 18 - 20. The first seminar will be held October 28 - October 30, 1986, and the second seminar will be held May 5 - May 7, 1987. The goals for these professional growth seminars are as follows: (1) To build better relationships and more friendships between black and white clergy of our Conference; (2) To provide a greater awareness and understanding of the black church and the white church, including differences that are rooted in theology, culture, and tradition;

(3) To provide very practical "how to" helps for ministry in a black congregation and in a white congregation; (4) To bring about a greater awareness by the clergy of our own racial attitudes and perspectives; (5) To bring about a greater awareness of the socio-economic realities for blacks and whites as found in the urban areas and the town and country areas of our Conference; and (6) To involve clergy in affirming and celebrating our unity in the midst of diversity as one body.

The seminars will begin on Tuesday and conclude on Thursday. Leadership for the seminars would be two seminary professors in the area of theology, two successful cross-racial appointment pastors from another conference, two interpersonal/interracial relations persons, Conference clergy and laity from both traditions, and the possible use of audiovisuals such as "Friendly Game" and "Sixteen Years Later." Other resources that could be used would be MATC, the Alban Institute, and a RAP program.

The task force commended the Board of Ordained Ministry.

One of several questions that needs to be answered is the source of the funding for the seminars. One possible source is for the seminars to carry continuing education credit. Local churches would be asked to pay their pastors' way through continuing education funds. Another issue raised is that the one-to-one relationships between black and white pastors be intentional and established before attending the seminar. The task force did suggest some names for possible leadership in the various categories already mentioned.

III. Each District Superintendent dedicate 20 - 30 minutes of each Charge Conference in 1985 to a discussion of steps being taken by each pastor and Pastor-Parish Relations Committee to prepare for cross-racial appointments.

Dr. J. Gordon Stapleton reported on behalf of the District Superintendents that this had been done on each of the districts and that the District Superintendents felt that the comments made by persons were very favorable and that definite steps were being taken by many pastors and Pastor-Parish Relations Committees to prepare for cross-racial appointments.

IV. Each District Superintendent begin dialogue by the end of 1985 with at least three charges in their district believed to be candidates for the development of cross-racial appointments.

The report, once again by the Rev. Dr. J. Gordon Stapleton, was that each superintendent had targeted the three churches mentioned and that they were beginning the necessary process.

V. Each District Superintendent with a Commission on Religion and Race shall, by June, 1986, begin training and preparing three charges per district to receive a pastor of a different race at the time of the next pastoral change.

The Commissions on Religion and Race, along with the superintendents, have prepared criteria for the selection of churches and criteria for the selection of pastors, and they are as follows:

1. The criteria for the selection of churches:

   A. Allow adequate time for training, possibly six months to a year.

   B. Churches should have history of creativeness and openness to new ideas and interracial projects.

   C. Characteristics that would support cross-racial appointments might include:

      a. Multiple staff experiences.
      b. Prior involvement with interracial projects.
      c. Mixed racial membership.
      d. Not overwhelmed with other problems.

2. The criteria for the selection of pastors:

   A. Should be best qualified person for appointment in black and white congregations.

   B. Should have adequate time for training and professional growth seminars, human relations labs, events at MATC and Center for Parish Exchange.

   C. Pastor and family should be able to cope with stress.

   D. E.M.L.C. should not be weakened as a result of appointments.

   E. Pastor should have comparable experiences in a rural or urban setting.

The actual training model has not yet been designed by the Commission on Religion and Race and the task force has requested that this be done no later than September, 1986.

VI. By June, 1986, the Board of Ordained Ministry shall develop guidelines for adoption by the Annual Conference to assure greater equity in cross-racial appointments with regard to compensation and status.

The Board of Ordained Ministry, in addressing this particular issue, raised several questions and several points that need consideration. The issue is to address salary inequities of black and white clergy. We will need support for some black clergy after cross-racial appointments so that salary will not be reduced in the next appointment. We need support for some white clergy during cross-racial appointments so that a salary cut will not happen in going to a cross-racial appointment. Where does the money come from? How much? In the total problem of black/white salary inequities being addressed by the Board of Ordained Ministry, how do we bring about the necessary changes that are required? The task force felt that the Basic Salary Structure Task Force, chaired by the Rev. Mr. Laurence Berry, would have a very definite impact on this, and discussions are now being planned between this task force and the Basic Salary Structure Task Force in order to address the very issue raised by this part of the resolution.

The Cabinet, with the Board of Ordained Ministry, shall develop by June, 1986, support processes and structures for pastors, their families, and congregations involved in cross-racial appointments.

The Board of Ordained Ministry has been working in this area. They have reviewed paragraphs 38, 39, and 40 of the paper. They have raised many questions about the assignment of a mentor and the district support group of clergy and laity in cross-racial appointments. They have also discussed and are looking for models of support groups for families of clergy who are involved in cross-racial appointments. They do not have, at this time, a final report for the task force. The task force did suggest a reevaluation of the district support group and also to build into the program flexiblity so that pastors who are asigned in cross-racial appointments will have a choice in the way in which they will design or implement their support group.

That representatives of the Missional Priority Coordinating Committee work along with the Task Force for Cross-racial Appointments for the purpose of evaluating the effectiveness of cross-racial appointments as they strengthen or weaken the ethnic minority in local churches.

The Missional Priority Coordinating Committee decided that they needed to work out some criteria that would serve in helping implement cross-racial appointments before they could begin the process of evaluation. The following criteria are recommended by the commission:

1. Preparing the minister for appointment.
2. Evaluation of the pastor.
3. Church in transition (may be changing to an ethnic church).
4. Do not move the pastor in his or her first or second year of ministry on a new charge.
5. Need to look at both the church and the pastor to be sure that their personalities are compatible.
6. Consider the stress on the family, especially if there are teenagers.
7. Do not consider sending a pastor from a majority congregation to a minority congregation as a demotion.

8. Simulation workshops should be developed to approximate the dynamics of the situation.
9. Pastors be identified for cross-racial appointments and that they have exchanges for a period of three months where they would take over the entire operaton of the cross-racial exchange. It is recommended that one of these be done on each district as soon as possible.

The task force then asked the Missional Priority Coordinating Committee to begin the work of evaluating the effectiveness of cross-racial appointments. Several cross-racial appointments in which ethnic congregations have had white pastors are to be evaluated to determine if cross-racial appointments strengthened or weakened the ethnic minority local church.

IX. The task force will report on the strengthening or other effects on all churches participating in these programs.

The task force has assigned to the Rev. Mr. Clifford Armour, chairperson, Ms. Darlene Webb, and the Rev. Dr. J. T. Seymour, the role of reporting on the progress of the cross-racial appointment at Silverbrook United Methodist Church, Wilmington, Delaware.

The task force is committed to seeing the implementation of the resolution and will remain committed to that until open itineracy does exist within the Peninsula Annual Conference.

The task force members are:

The Rev. Mr. Roland W. Dennis
The Rev. Mr. Dale Lantz
The Rev. Dr. C. Edwin Lasbury
The Rev. Mr. Edward Lee
Mr. Charles Mason
The Rev. Dr. P. Thomas McKelvey

REPORT OF THE AD HOC COMMITTEE
COMMISSION ON EQUITABLE SALARIES
PENINSULA ANNUAL CONFERENCE

The committee has approached the task of developing a policy on housing for the clergy of the Peninsula Annual Conference prayerfully and with deep concern for the churches and the clergy. We have tried to be sensitive to everyone's needs and to the mandate of the Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church.

We believe that it is the intent of the Discipline to make housing a neutral factor in the appointment process. Each clergy person's housing needs are to be met. Housing is a benefit, but it is not compensation, and is for the convenience of the church. Within the many and sometimes complex situations that exist in our appointment system, it is our intent that this resolution will be fair and equitable to all involved.

In regard to the future benefits of pension, current salary is not a factor in the computation of the amount of pension a person will receive. The way our plan is constructed, all clergy will receive equal pension for equal service. The portion of our pension plan that causes this to happen is the CPP. CPP makes contributions to each pastor who is below the Denominational Average Compensation figure for a given year. Also, contributions are made up to an amount based on the Denominational Average Compensation regardless of individual salary.

With regard to the Social Security contributions, while we have no definite ruling on this matter, we are led to believe that each clergy person can use a housing factor in computing their Social Security Tax payment. We believe that each pastor would be entitled to claim a minimum of twenty per cent (20%) of his/her salary; this would also apply to members of clergy couples.

REPORT OF THE AD HOC COMMITTEE
COMMISSION ON EQUITABLE SALARIES CONCERNING PENINSULA CONFERENCE HOUSING POLICY

WHEREAS, The Commission on Equitable Salaries has been requested by the bishop and cabinet to develop a policy on housing to be recommended at the 1986 session of the Peninsula Annual Conference; and

WHEREAS, The 1984 Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church (Paragraph 256, 3.f, page 139) requires the administrative board of the local church to provide for adequate housing for the pastor(s), and that housing shall not be considered as part of compensation to the pastor; and

WHEREAS, It is the intent of this commission to support the itinerant system of pastoral appointment which requires that adequate housing be provided for the pastor under appointment; and

WHEREAS, It is the commission's desire to act with fairness and equity to:

A. All clergy and their families.
B. Clergy couples and their families.
C. All charges and their ministry; and

WHEREAS, The commission is aware that persons who serve in the ordained ministry of the church are not motivated by a concern for financial gain, but rather by a desire to respond to the call of God; however, such persons must live in our present society and face family and societal financial demands; and

WHEREAS, It is the commission's desire to be consistent with all the provisions of the 1984 Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church,

THEREFORE, The commission recommends adoption of the following policy:

A. It shall be the responsibility of each charge to provide housing for its pastor(s) of a quality that is substantially consistent with the minimum housing standards adopted by the 1976 Peninsula Annual Conference (as printed in the 1976 Peninsula Conference Journal, pages 189-192), together with the payment of utility costs that are incurred with the use of such housing. The provision of such a parsonage and utilities shall be the norm for the Peninsula Conference and where an adequate parsonage and utilities are provided the charge shall have met the requirement; and the pastor shall not receive a housing allowance. This housing requirement applies solely to full-time clergy, recognizing that housing for student pastors, retired ministers, and part-time clergy is subject to variables which can be best negotiated by the district superintendent on a case by case basis.

B. When a parsonage is not provided, the charge shall pay the minister a minimum housing and utilities allowance equal to twenty per cent (20%) of the ministers's salary, but not less than twenty per cent (20%) of the Denominational Average Salary in effect. Such an allowance may not exceed the actual cost of providing housing and utilities, up to the cost of housing consistent with Conference parsonage standards. (In the case of a clergy couple, paragraph D applies)

C. If a parsonage is provided and the district Board on Church Location and Building determines that it is not habitable, the district superintendent shall instruct the minister to provide his/her own housing. In such case, the charge will be required to pay the minister a housing and utilities allowance based upon the formula in Letter B. above.

D. In the case of a clergy couple, the procedures to be followed are:

   1. If no parsonage is provided by either charge, the minimum housing and utilities allowance for the clergy couple shall be twenty per cent (20%) of the couple's individual salaries. No individual's allowance shall be less that twenty per cent (20%) of the Denominational Average Salary. This combined amount shall not exceed the actual cost of housing and utilities consistent with Conference parsonage standards. What each charge pays shall be proportionate to its pastor's salary.

   2. If there is no habitable parsonage, as determined by the district Board on Church Location and Building, the provisions of paragraph D. 1. above shall apply.

3. Where only one adequate parsonage is available, the charge that does not have an adequate parsonage shall make a contribution to the other charge for utilities and upkeep in proportion to the salaries of the pastors involved. The charge without a parsonage should provide office facilities within the charge, and should consider negotiating with its pastor to cover additional travel and expenses involved in dealing with the pastor's non-resident status.

4. Where there are two (2) adequate parsonages available, the choice of parsonage(s) to be used shall be made by the pastors in consultation with the district superintendent. If the choice is to occupy one parsonage, any savings and/or income accruing to the charge without a pastor in residence should be used in compliance with paragraph D. 3. above.

E. Any exceptions to these policies must be approved by the affected charge, the pastor involved, the district superintendent, the bishop, and the Conference Commission on Equitable Salaries.

THE REV. WILMER E. ABBOTT, SR.

Wilmer Earl Abbott, Sr. was born to Ida(Jess) and Edward B. Abbott on June 24, 1900, in Wilmington, Delaware. He was one of five boys and two girls, and was to experience the love and care of warm Christian parenting throughout the formative years of his life.

He began his education in the south Wilmington area, and then continued to junior high school in center city, and finally attended Wilmington High School.

The Abbott family was always a part of the Madeley Methodist Church, and took a vital leadership role in its life and mission. This, along with his mother's devout Christian life-style, was to have a tremendous impact on Wilmer's spiritual development and eventual conversion.

It was on March 1, 1937 that the Rev. Joseph B. Vaughn, Pastor of Madeley Church, presented Wilmer Abbott with his "Exhorters License", and then on February 12, 1940, during Madeley's Fourth Quarterly Conference, he received his Local Preacher's License.

Completing the Conference Course of Study at Westminister Seminary, Wilmer was ordained a Deacon in the Peninsula Conference of the Methodist Church on May 18, 1952, and subsequently received his Elder's Orders on May 16, 1954.

In 1917 Wilmer was joined in marriage to Pearl Hill Abbott, and together they became the joyous parents of Wilmer E. Abbott, Jr., Thomas G. Abbott, Luther H. Abbott(deceased), Paul C. Abbott (deceased), Betty P. Manley, and Edward A. Abbott (deceased).

The family members continued their relationship with Madeley Church until 1940, when they moved to Marshallton and transferred to the Marshallton Church. Here they carried forth service to their Lord in various areas of the work of their new congregation.

Previous to his call to the ministry, Wilmer Abbott was employed as a foreman at the Pusey and Jones Corporation, and additionally taught classes in electricity at Brown Vocational Evening School. Always, however, there was a tugging in his heart and spirit toward greater involvement in the life of the Church, and in 1946 he was asked to serve for a year in the Wye Mills, Maryland, charge.

This became the catalyst that moved him ever closer to his eventual summons to the ministry.

In 1950, his beloved wife Pearl passed away. At very nearly the same time, because of the illness of the Madeley Church minister, Wilmer was invited to "fill the pulpit " there. In 1951 he became the pastor.

And now, always open to the guidance of the Lord, Wilmer discovered a young lady in Madeley Church to whom he lost his heart, and in November 1952 he and Helen Conner began their journey together as husband and wife.

Among the churches served by the Rev. Wilmer Abbott, Sr., are Charlestown, Md., Felton, De., and Cedars, De., from which he retired in 1968.

Special interests enjoyed by Wilmer Abbott include photography, reading and travel. Indeed, for years he and Helen would vacation on a dude ranch in Colorado, where they rode horse together.

Wilmer Abbott lived a life of joyous fulfillment, both as a human being and as a child of God. He gave himself lovingly, willingly and effectively to the high and holy calling of the Church of Jesus Christ.

In later years he experienced much heart trouble and the resulting physical distress, and on November 17, 1985 at the Christiana Hospital he received his final call; his summons to the loving presence of his Heavenly father.

Funeral services for Wilmer Earl Abbott, Sr., were held at St. Mark's Church on November 20, 1985, with interment at Silverbrook Cemetery.

Those taking part in the service include the Rev. Dr. C. Edwin Lasbury, the Rev. Charles Covington, the Rev. Ronald Bergman and the Rev. Herman Lipsius.

Surviving Wilmer are his wife Helen, three children, fourteen grandchildren, twenty-seven great-grandchildren (including Wilmer E. Abbott IV) and two great-great grandchildren.

Discovered on the inside cover of Wilmer's Bible is the following notation:

> "On March 1, 1945 in Newport Methodist
> I surrendered my all to Christ my Lord > during a service conducted by Dr. Harry > Denman of the Board of Evangelism of the > Methodist Church.
> Wilmer E. Abbott"

And so we recall briefly the life and walk of a dear servant of God, who, above all loved the Lord and sought to serve the Church with grace and care.

Lovingly submitted,

Ralph A. Ellis

THE REV. HARTWELL FITCH CHANDLER

The Reverend Hartwell Fitch Chandler was born in Moores, New York on March 21, 1905, the son of Charles H. and Katherine Orr Chandler.

A graduate of Moores High School, he received his A.B. degree from Asbury College in Wilmore, Kentucky, in 1928 and was ordained into the ministry in 1929. He graduated from Wesley Theological Seminary in Washington, D.C. in 1930.

From 1935-1940 he served the Methodist Churches in Relay, Md., Browingsville, Md. and Clarksburg, Md. From 1940-1953 he was minister of Bethesda United Methodist Church in Bethesda, Md. Coming to the Peninsula Conference in 1953 he served St. Mark's United Methodist Church, Easton, Maryland and directed the movement of the new church to its present location. He was appointed Superintendent of the Dover District in 1963, leaving that position after six years to become minister of visitation at Grace United Methodist Church, Wilmington, Delaware. He retired in 1973.

After a very brief retirement he responded to a request from Wesley United Methodist Church, Dover, Delaware. and served as its minister of visitation until his second retirement in 1982.

Hartwell served as a Trustee of Wesley College, a Trustee of Wesley Theological Seminary, Washington, D.C. and a Trustee of Peninsula United Methodist Homes. He also served as Chairman of the Board of Hospitals and Homes and as Vice-Chairman of the Board of Child Care for Peninsula Conference. He was a member of the Clergy Advisory Council of the Maryland Council of Churches, and was a member of Coats Lodge, No. 102, A.F. & A.M. of Easton, Maryland.

In 1933 he married Adelaide Ballenger, who survives. There are four children: Charles Matthew and Hartwell F. Jr., Corrine Chandler Taylor and Carole Chandler Lane.

Funeral services were held in St. Mark's United Methodist Church , Easton, Maryland. Officiating were the Reverends Howell O. Wilkins and George C. Godfrey and Drs. John E. French and Edward R. Wilkins.

THE REV. LOUIS REECH DENNIS

Louis R. Dennis, Methodist Missionary to China, Sarawak, Malaya and Singapore died at the Methodist Country House in Wilmington, Delaware on October 11, 1985. Louis was born in Salisbury, Maryland, May 30, 1906, the son of Norman and Hattie Lewis Dennis of Powellville, Maryland. Louis gratefully remembers his Christian home, where he grew up on the farm. In his late teens, he and his brother solved the conflict of where to go one evening, whether to a dance at a girl's home or to Claymont Methodist Church where a revival was going on, by flipping a coin; it flipped to go to church. That night Louis and his brother went to the altar and accepted Christ. This was under the pastorate of the Rev. Walter A. Hearn. Soon thereafter Louis heard the call to the ministry and to foreign missions. Rev. Hugh B. Kelso followed in that pastorate and Louis began a friendship with his daughter, Madeline, which culminated in their marriage eight years later.

Louis resumed his schooling after his call to the ministry and enrolled in Wesley Collegiate Institute in Dover in 1927. From there he attended Asbury College, graduating with the B.A. degree in 1933. Then he entered Asbury Seminary, was married in 1933 and received his M. Div. in 1935. He spent his summer vacations during college and seminary in school in order to complete his studies sooner. That year he was ordained in the Peninsula Conference. They applied to the Board of Missions for service, but the Board was feeling the effects of the depression and were not sending out new missionaries. While waiting for the door to open, Louis took the pastorate of Concord Charge, near Federalsburg, then four years later sailed to China in 1939. Louis was appointed to the Yenping Methodist Conference in Pukien Province. Travel was by riverboat or by foot. Frequently he went with a team of Asian workers to the mountain villages, evangelizing, discipling, and nurturing. These years were punctuated by air raids from the Japanese. The Methodist Primary school, two hundred yards from his home, was demolished and lives lost. This did not deter Louis from going ahead with his ministry.

He was privileged to participate in the celebration of the Hundredth Year of Methodism in China in 1947, when scores of ministerial and lay delegates converged on Foochow from the ten Conferences in China for a glorious celebration. It had taken ten years for the Methodist Episcopal Church to win their first convert to Christ back in 1847. Communist occupied China in 1949. During that persecution the church was growing. Louis was taken to headquarters for trial. His secretary testified for him and helped bring about his release. The Dennises stayed 18 months under them, then left because their presence as so-called "enemy-imperialists" endangered the church and the Asian Christians.

Sarawak was the Dennises' next appointment. The primitive Iban, not so long out of head-hunting, came to Louis seeking "The Strong Jesus Religion," saying their religion (Animism) was not good for them any more. Louis took this as God's open door. Many believed and were baptized and the Iban church took root.

Recruits for the ministry had to be prepared and Louis gave himself to establishing the Methodist Theological School. Louis then served in Malaya and Singapore. In 1962 he suffered a head injury from a car accident. Four years later, when he returned to America, the Board of Global Ministries found by his physical examination that he had sustained neurological damage from his accident and retired him on disability.

Furloughs had been spent in cultivation for the mission outreach of our United Methodist Church. A part of each furlough was spent in Seminary refreshing his mind and soul. He received a Masters Degree in Rural Church from Drew Seminary. Another furlough he was privileged to study under Reinhold Niebuhr in Union Theological Seminary, N.Y.C.

In May 1984, Louis fell backward down steps while carrying two suitcases up and received injuries causing him to be in a coma continuously for 17 months, ending in his death due to a pulmonary embolism.

Asia was "home" to Louis and he deeply respected and admired those who gave themselves with consecration and devotion to Christ and His church, some of whom lost their lives under the Communists.

Funeral services were held in Hillcrest-Bellefont United Methodist Church on October 15th, 1985 with the Rev. Alvin J. Willink officiating and Rev. Dr. C. Edwin Lasbury and the Rev. Thomas C. Short, and the Rev. Summers Clark assisting. He is buried in Chester Bethel United Methodist Church Cemetery.

Mrs. Li Ling Cheng Yang was present at his funeral. She had been Louis' secretary in China when the Communists took over. Louis says of her that she saved his life, and she says of him that he saved her life. Among her remarks, a tribute spoken at the funeral, she said: "I remember one time he was going to attend a service in Yu-chi, a small town where the bandits often attacked to rob and kill passersby. I tried to persuade him not to go, but he said, `this is my mission, I want to accomplish it, maybe it will give me an opportunity to help them or to convert them to become Christians. God is with me, I am not afraid of death. I will have no regrets.' So he went"

Mrs. Swan Choo Heard, his associate in the last 11 years of his overseas service when he was Promotion Secretary for the Methodist Church in Southeast Asia, was also at his funeral and gave her tribute. As part of her remarks, she said: "Louis meant a lot to me. He was like a father, a very kind, polite and gentle man. He was very Chinese--what I mean is that he had all the mannerism, personality and politeness of the old Chinese scholar. Never in my years of work with him did he raise his voice or lose patience with me. I had made many mistake in my lifetime and especially when I was taking photography lessons from Louis. Always he encouraged me when I lost confidence in myself. He helped me to overcome my fears and moments of discouragement. He was a source of strength and inspiration in my early life. Louis was truly a missionary for the people and of the people of Asia. He will be missed in our hearts."

He is survived by his wife, Madeline, and two daughters, Rosalie D. Sluss of Newark, DE., and Doris Dennis Hsu of Boston, MA.

THE REV. PHILLIP ARCHIE HENRY

Life is a journey! For Phillip Archie Henry it began on October 28, 1912 in Odessa, Delaware. Except for the high school years that Reverend Henry spent in Chester, Pennsylvania, this small town was his home base. His triumphant Home Going was November 5, 1985.

Reverend Henry was married on December 15, 1932 at the former Ezion Methodist Church parsonage to Lola Lavinia Hayes. Celebrating and sharing their fifty-three years of marriage are five children, Lavinia Gray, Phyllis May, Phillip, Jr., Donald and Stacey; a daughter-in-law Emma Henry, a son-in-law, Bishop Felton E. May, nine grandchildren, many nieces and nephews and a host of other relatives and friends.

Called to the Christian ministry under the leadership of Dr. Walter Hazzard, Reverend Henry received his first appointment in 1955, He served the Fairlee-Georgetown Charge, St. Paul's-Milford, Simpson-Newport, Ezion-Wilmington as associate, and the appointment from which he retired in 1983, Millington-Pondtown.

For Reverend Henry, the call to ministry was filled with exciting and challenging experiences. Opportunities to learn and grow were shared at Bennett College and Duke University. Serving on a district building and location committee, being a part of the Annual Conference, and functioning as a member of the district ministers' group were experiences that he thoroughly enjoyed. The gift of sharing with several different charges was spiritually enriching as so many people touched his life as he ministered to them. His thoughtful and practical sermons were well grounded in the Scriptures.

Perhaps you can join us in saying that he was truly called of God to ministry. Sharing his love and concern for all humankind, even beyond those whose lives he personally touched.

His word to us as we continue our journeys, would be to seek the abundant life and to always 'Go with God'.

THE REV. RALPH H. D. HUGHES

Ralph Humphries Delaney Hughes, son of the late Ralph E. and Anna E. Hughes (nee Grimes), was born in Wilmington, Delaware, on May 20, 1903.

He received his education in the Wilmington Public Schools and attended Goldey Beacom School of Business, completing a course in Real Estate on March 3, 1953, at which time he was awarded a Certificate of Achievement.

Ralph was reared in the Methodist Church, worshiping in the Trinity Methodist Church in Wilmington. He was very active in the church and his love for the church grew.

He worked for James T. Mullin and Sons for 32 years, beginning as a salesman in the Boys' Department. While working in the Boys' Department, Ralph also assumed the role of Master of Ceremonies for the Mullin's sponsored radio program beginning in 1927 and presented over station WDEL each evening at 7:00 p.m. Ralph soon became known to his audience as "Uncle Tim." Each night Uncle Tim ended his program with a song "That's a Sleepy Hollow Tune." As the program continued for several years, Ralph became known as "Uncle Tim" not only to children, but also to grown-ups as well. Later he became Credit Manager and Treasurer, finally being promoted to Assistant General Manager, a position he held until his retirement in 1956. Upon retirement, he was elected to the Board of Directors, serving in this capacity for several years.

Ralph was also a member of the Orpheus Club of Wilmington, Delaware.

In 1926 he became bass soloist in Union Methodist Church located at Fifth and Washington Streets in Wilmington, Delaware, serving in that capacity for approximately three years.

On June 23, 1928, he and Carrie Biddle also of Wilmington, Delaware, were united in marriage in the parsonage of the Cedars Methodist Church by the Reverend High Adams. Their son Ralph E. Hughes, born January 5, 1933, is married and residing in Deland, Florida, and has two sons, Ralph David and Earl Wayne.

During the years 1953 through 1955, Ralph served as minister of the Bellefonte Methodist church. Before this appointment he served as an Assistant Minister at Atonement Methodist Church in Claymont, Delaware, under the leadership of Rev. Dr. Essel P. Thomas.

During this time Rev. Dr. John Link, District Superintendent, offered him the position as full time minister of the Stanton Methodist Church. After many hours of prayer and persuasion, Ralph accepted and was appointed to that charge in 1956. On May 18, 1958, in St. Paul's Methodist Church, Wilmington, Delaware, he was ordained as an Elder in the Methodist Church. Ralph took a correspondence course in Theology and also attended Western Maryland College while serving as a full time minister at the Stanton Methodist Church. Ralph's life's dream started late in life, but through study and hard work his dream was fulfilled.

He worked hard to build a new church, now St. Mark's United Methodist Church, 17ØØ Limestone Road, Stanton, Wilmington, Delaware, which was completed in April 1962, the first service being held on April 15, 1962. This was a glorious day for Rev. and Mrs. Hughes, as well as for the congregation. This church grew from 163 members to approximately 116Ø, and Ralph made a pathway for future ministers at St. Mark's.

During his ministry he had many illnesses but would never give up; he loved his work and the people with whom he came in contact.

After his retirement from St. Mark's on May 24, 1968, having served there from 1956 through 1967, he became the Visitation Minister to the Reverend C. Edwin Lasbury of the Hockessin Methodist Church. He later became Associate Minister to the late Reverend Gerald M. Henderson of the Peniel U. M. Church in Newport, Delaware, but due to illness retired on February 14, 1984.

On September 28, 197Ø, the Administrative Board of St. Mark's U. M. Church named their Fellowship Hall "The Hughes Fellowship Hall." This was a great honor which was bestowed upon him for his years of love and devotion to the church. His ministry spent with St. Mark's was very rewarding and fulfilling.

Upon retiring from St. Mark's he and Mrs. Hughes resided at 9 Lindberg Avenue, Silview, Wilmington, Delaware. His wife, Carrie Biddle Hughes, died August 14, 1975, due to a heart attack.

Ralph was a 32nd Degree Mason and a member of the Delaware Consistory. He also was a member of Ionic Lodge #31 A.F. & A.M. of Newport, Delaware and served as Grand Chaplain of the State of Delaware for the year 1965-66. Also, on April 21, 1977, he became a 5Ø year member of Eden Lodge #34, I.O.O.F.

On June 29, 1985, God summoned Ralph to a higher sphere and he answered his call and somewhere in the great beyond he is experiencing a richer and fuller life.

At the time of his death he was a resident of the Leader Nursing Home, 7ØØ Foulk Road, Wilmington, Delaware, from February 8, 1985 to June 29, 1985, at which time he was rushed to the Wilmington Hospital, where he died at approximately 1:ØØ p.m. due to asphyxia. Before entering the Nursing Home he resided at 2Ø Miles Road, Radnor Green, Claymont, Delaware.

Funeral services were held from St. Mark's U. M. Church on July 3rd with the Reverend C. Edwin Lasbury, District Superintendent, the Reverend Ralph Ellis of St. Mark's U.M. Church and the Reverend James Riley of Peniel U.M. Church officiating. Burial was in Riverview Cemetery, Wilmington, Delaware.

Those who remember Ralph Hughes know he not only lived a good Christian life, but "touched so many hearts."

THE REV. NELSON CORNELIUS STANLEY, SR.

Nelson Cornelius Stanley was born into time June 23, 1918 at Madison, Maryland in Dorchester County, the son of the late Hanson and Julia (Nichols) Stanley.

Nelson was educated in the Schools of Dorchester County. He received his Ministerial Training at the School Prepared for Ministry at Duke University, Durham, North Carolina.

At the age of fifteen, he was converted and joined the Mt. Zion M.E. Church on the Golden Hill Charge under the leadership of the Reverend Pearl Brown. His first message was delivered on Children's Day. After this experience, he became active in his church. He served as a Trustee, Class Leader, Band member, Delgate to Conference, Janitor and Local Preacher.

In 1949, he was nominated a member of the "Old Delaware Conference" at Tindley Temple Church, Philadelphia, PA by the late Reverend W. T. Harewood, Easton District Superintendent. He was appointed to the Williston Charge. Nelson remained there for eight years.

During his ministry at Williston, the parsonage was burned (totaled) in the year of 1951. The Administrative Board selected him to build the parsonage for them. He was a Certified Carpenter. The building was erected for the three-point charge. It was six rooms, study and bathroom.

January 17, 1952, he was married to the former Margaret Virginia Jackson of Denton, Maryland. To this union, three children were born, namely,

Nelson, Jr. - East New Market - born 1953
Diane Stanley Baltimore - Easton - born 1955
James O. Stanley - Cambridge - born 1958

His second appointment was East New Market/Linkwood Charge. He served for 29 years at this 5-point charge.

April 29, 1985, he was admitted to Easton Memorial Hospital, Easton, Maryland for an operation. It was terminal cancer. Mr. Stanley's life as a cancer patient was one to be remembered. He never complained or questioned God but encouraged everyone that God is able.

His funeral was held on December 28, 1985, 1:ØØ p.m. at Mt. Zion U.M. Church, East New Market/Linkwood Charge with interment at Mt. Pleasant U.M. Church (Salem). The officiating clergy was the Reverend Howell O. Wilkins, District Superintendent of the Easton District.

MRS. MARY ELIZABETH BUNDICK

Mary Elizabeth Gillespie was born on November 4, 1913 in the town of Mappsville, Virginia. Stricken with polio when she was a baby she spent thirty years of her life walking with the assistance of an iron and leather brace on one leg. She was a beautiful, intelligent girl who enjoyed a rich family life with her mother, father, and two older brothers. There were activities in the Baptist Church, picnics on the beach, Sunday dinners of fried chicken, evenings of popular and religious music around the piano, and overnight visits with nearby relatives. During her first year at Bloxom High School she met William Brantley Bundick, a slender, thoughtful young man who lived a few miles away in Bloxom. Their relationship developed into one of mutual love and trust that was to continue through a marriage of forty-six years.

After high school, Mary Elizabeth attended and graduated from Goldey Business College in Wilmington, Delaware on October 28, 1932. She married Brantley on July 25, 1933 and a few years later became instrumental in his decision to enter the pastoral ministry of the Methodist Church. She also became the mother of a daughter, Maubra Jane.

Due to her affliction in one leg, Mary was fitted with braces in Baltimore, which occasioned annual visits to a doctor there. One rainy night in 1946, while driving back from Baltimore to their parish in Ellendale, Delaware, Brantley was stopped by a policeman at an intersection several miles from Ellendale. The policeman said that the car had not stopped completely at a stop sign. Brantley explained that he had not been aware of this, but that it was certainly possible after a tiring trip to Baltimore. He went on to explain the circumstances of the trip. The policeman thought for a moment and said, "I know someone who can fix your wife's leg so that she will be able to walk without a brace". He pulled out a notepad and wrote the name of Dr. Irwin Flinn in Wilmington, Delaware. He tore out the paper and gave it to them saying, "Call this doctor!" Then he turned and left.

In the next few weeks the operation was performed that enabled Mary to walk normally. That which was thought to be impossible became possible on a dark rainy night through the hand of a policeman who worked as the hand of God.

Mary contributed to her family and church for thirty-nine years after this event. She was a church secretary for many of those years, retiring from the Bethel and Groome United Methodist Charge where she had been a church secretary for fourteen years.

Her life was characterized by devotion to her husband and daughter, and, for the last ten years of her life, to a beautiful relationship with a grandson, John Thomas Randolph II. Mary's life was hallmarked by a love of God and an appreciation of the ordained ministry. Indeed she felt that to live one's life in a parsonage was a "special blessing." She supported this belief through an active role as minister's wife during eight pastoral appointments.

Through her warm and bright personality, her love of husband and family, her devotion to Christ and His church, and her sense of gratitude for life, she was herself a "special blessing" to the world.

Her death came on March 30, 1985.

MRS. RUTH MEREDITH BRANFORD

Ruth Meredith Branford, daughter of the late Walter H. and Ruth Catherine Hewitt Meredith, was born at Fairmount, Maryland on June 17, 1893. She received her early education at the Fairmount Academy and The University of Virginia where she was trained for the noble profession of nursing. Her actual service in that field proved to be short-lived, however, and she transferred her life's work to a new service and calling when on December 1, 1915 she became the wife of a young Fairmount man who was soon to become The Reverend Charles W. Branford. Together they began an itinerancy that was to cover three states, serving Methodist Charges in Maryland, Delaware and Virginia for a period of more than thirty years, cut short by illness and retirement, and the death of Mr. Branford on December 3, 1962.

Following her husband's death, Mrs. Branford continued to reside at their Rehoboth Beach residence until she became a resident at The Methodist Manor House, Seaford, Delaware in October 1969. In addition to being a faithful helpmate who shared the work and pastoral life of her husband, Ruth enjoyed the extra-curricular work of community life and served as a member of Henlopen Grange No. 20 and as Worthy Matron of Frankford Lodge No. 12 of The Order of Eastern Star. She remained a member of Epworth United Methodist Church and its U.M.W. until the time of her death at the Methodist Manor House at age ninety-two.

Mrs. Branford died on March 26, 1986 and was buried beside her husband in Bethany Methodist Cemetary, Pocomoke City, Maryland on March 29. Graveside services were conducted by the Reverend Dr. John E. French, Chaplain at The Methodist Manor House, and the Reverend Thomas Wall, successor to her husband in the pastorate at Bethany United Methodist Church. None of their five children survived infancy. Three nieces are the only immediate survivors. Funeral arrangements were made by the Watson and Melson Funeral Home in Pocomoke City, Maryland.

MRS. MIRIAM DRYDEN CARPENTER

Miriam Dryden Carpenter was born in Crisfield, Maryland, July 17, 1906, the daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Frank Dryden. She received her education at Towson State University and Western Maryland College where she received her degree as Bachelor of Arts. She became a member of the faculty at Western Maryland College teaching English and Dramatics. She earned a Master of Arts degree from Columbia University in 1928.

While a student at Columbia she met and married Charles I. Carpenter, then a ministerial student at Drew University. They began their service in Peninsula Annual Conference at Epworth Church, Rehoboth Beach, Delaware. In 1937 she joined her husband in the ministry of Military Chaplaincy, a ministry that would last for 33 years. In 1961 the Carpenters returned to Peninsula Conference to serve Avenue United Methodist Church until retirement in 1968.

In her early career Miriam Carpenter was deeply interested in the theater. While in New York she was affiliated with the then famous Players Club and was associated with many of the best known names in the New York theater and Hollywood studios. As a pastor's wife she was a teacher and confidant to many, often sought out for personal counseling. In the Washington years, as the wife of now Major General Charles I. Carpenter, she was associated with many of the nationally known leaders of the World War II era.

Death came quietly on July 19, 1985 after a long illness. Funeral services were held at Avenue United Methodist Church, Milford, Delaware. Drs. Charles Moyer, Edwin Ellis and Gordon Stapleton and Maj. General John Collins, Chief of Air Force Chaplains officiated. Burial was at Barratt's Chapel Cemetery.

She is survived by her husband Chaplain (Maj. General) Charles I. Carpenter, and two sisters, Mrs. Serena Ashburn of California and Mrs. Eva Coleman of Ft. Meyers, Florida.

MRS. MARGUERITE WAGNER (GOODHART) TINGLE

Marguerite Wagner Goodhart was born in Cumberland County, West Pennsboro Township, near Carlisle, Pennsylvania, on April 14, 1914. She was next to the youngest of ten children born to Isaac P. and Sara (Wagner) Goodhart. She was educated in the Carlisle public schools, later taking some college and correspondence courses without credit toward a degree.

At an early age she started working as a sales person in retail stores. Later she held various position in postal and other civil service jobs. However, Marguerite excelled as a homemaker, and was a meticulous housekeeper, exercising her many fine talents in various crafts and cooking.

On September 11, 1941, Marguerite was married to Sergeant Melvin E. Tingle, who was stationed at Carlisle Barracks. The wedding was performed by retired Methodist Minister the Rev. F. G. Coleman at Hagerstown, MD. Twc weeks later, Sgt. Tingle was sent on a military mission to Chungking, China.

In her childhood and youth, Marguerite attended the Lutheran Church in Carlisle, learning the catechism and taking all the courses necessary to join, but never did join that church. In 1946, after WW II, Marguerite and husband Melvin dedicated their lives to Jesus Christ in the Glen Burnie Methodist Church, Glen Burnie, MD and joined that church. The pastor was the Reverend E.T. Kirkley. It was while working in civil service jobs at Ft. Meade, MD, in 1948, that Marguerite and Melvin disposed of practically all their possessions and went to South Carolina to prepare for full-time Christian service in answer to a divine call. Early in college work at Bob Jones University, Marguerite and Melvin began working in a Methodist Mission Church in the slums of Greenville, S.C.

For the next thirty some years, Marguerite made the necessary and sometimes difficult adjustments to be a very good minister's wife. In addition to serving in the churches in various ways, she was a superb help-mate, counselor, companion, friend and strong supporter of her husband. She was an excellent church school teacher and well liked in all the various appointments in three conferences: South Carolina, Baltimore and Peninsula.

At the 1979 Conference, due to Melvin's health problems, sabbatical leave was taken, to be followed by retirement in 1980. Lewes, Delaware was chosen as the place of residence in retirement. In 1984, after two serious operations, Marguerite's doctor discovered cancer of the liver. After a long, difficult and painful struggle, Marguerite was called home to be with the Lord on February 7, 1986. With the great help of the Hospice nurses and aides during the last two weeks, she was given the best of care and able to die at home.

Marguerite had joined Epworth U. M. Church in Rehoboth Beach, DE in retirement. The Reverend Jonathan Baker and his father, the Reverend David Baker, conducted the memorial services at Melsons Funeral Chapel in Millsboro, DE on February 11, 1986. Interment was at Henlopen Memorial Park, Milton, DE. She is survived by her husband, Melvin Tingle, three sisters and two brothers.

Marguerite had an amazing memory and knew the words of all the verses of most all the old familiar hymns, as well as scores of scripture passages. One of her favorite Bible passages was from Proverbs: "Trust in the Lord with all thine heart, and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge Him, and He shall direct thy paths." (Proverbs 3:5-6) With much diligence, self-discipline, strong convictions, and a constant striving for perfection in every endeavor, Marguerite lived by faith and died in the faith. We shall meet again.

With love,

Melvin E. Tingle,
Husband

MRS. BARBARA CATHERINE (SHIMEK) TURNER

Barbara was born August 6, 1915 at Secretary, Maryland (Dorchester County) to Frank and Florence (Sanders) Shimek, a second child of four.

She attended public school at Secretary, Maryland and East New Market, Maryland. She was offered scholarships for college, but due to poor health, she was unable to finish the eleventh grade.

She became a member in the Church School and youth work at Secretary Methodist Church, at a very early age. At the age of twelve, she joined the church and shortly afterward became the pianist for the Church School and Worship Services. Her interest increased in church activities and youth work as the years passed.

She married William A. Turner of Germantown, Pennsylvania, formerly of Betterton, Maryland, September 6, 1932. From this union a son, William F. Turner, of New Paltz, New York, and twin daughters, Barbara Ellen and Bonnie Lee Turner (deceased). An adopted daughter joined the family in 1957 - Bonnie Lee (Turner) Black, Gray Court, S.C.

When her husband entered the ministry in the Peninsula Conference in 1945, she continued her efforts in music and youth work at the charges they served. She was an active counselor at Camp Pecometh for several summers.

Barbara had many serious operations, several heart attacks and strokes, diabetes, kidney infections, and other illnesses that eventually claimed her life on November 15, 1985, at the Methodist Manor House in Seaford, Delaware.

Funeral services were conducted on November 18, 1985 at the Windsor-Disharoon Funeral Home, Laurel, Delaware under the direction of the Reverend Karen Moore, Reverend Dr. Edwin Ellis, and the Reverend George Moore. Burial was in Unity-Washington Cemetery, Hurlock, Maryland.

Rule 6: A motion to amend shall be in order, and a substitute for both amendments may be received which substitute may be amended only once, and if a substitute be accepted, it shall operate as an amendment to the original proposition.

Rule 7: When a member is about to speak in debate, or to deliver any matter to the Conference, she/he shall rise and respectfully address the President, but shall not proceed until recognized by her/him.

Rule 8: No member shall be interrupted while speaking except by the President to call her/him to order when she/he departs from the question, or uses personalities or disrepectful language; but any member may call the attention of the President to the subject when she/he deems a speaker out of order, and any member may explain when she/he thinks herself/himself misrepresented.

Rule 9: When a member desires a question of privilege, she/he shall briefly state the question; but it shall not be in order for her/him to proceed until the President shall have decided it a privileged question.

Rule 10: No person shall speak more than twice on the same question, nor more than ten minutes at one time, without leave of the Conference; nor shall any person speak more than once until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken.

Rule 11: When any motion or resolution shall have been acted by the Conference, it shall be in order for any member who voted with the prevailing side to move a reconsideration; but a motion to reconsider is a non-debatable motion and shall be decided without debate.

Rule 12: No member shall absent herself/himself from the sessions of the Conference without leave, unless she/he is sick or unable to attend.

Rule 13: No member shall be allowed to vote on any question who is not within the bar of the Conference at the time when such question shall be put by the President, except by leave of the Conference when such member has been necessarily absent.

Rule 14: Every member who is within the bar at the time a question is put shall give her/his vote, unless the Conference, for special reasons, shall excuse her/him.

Rule 15: It shall be in order for her/him to move that the question be taken without further debate on any measure pending, except in cases in which character is involved, and if sustained by two-thirds, the question shall be taken.

Rule 16: The motion to adjourn shall be taken without debate, and shall always be in order, except, (1) when a member has the floor; (2) when a question is actually put, or a vote is being taken; (3) when the question is pending or seconding the demand for the previous question; (4) when the previous question has been called and sustained, and is still pending; and (5) when a motion to adjourn has been negatived and no business or debate has intervened.

Rule 17: All reports of the Boards, Commissions, and Committees shall be published and mailed to the members of the Annual Conference ten (10) days prior to the date of meeting of the Annual Conference. Reports to be included in this mailing must be in the hands of the Secretary by the date set annually by the Conference Council on Ministries.

Rule 18: No report shall be received or adopted by the Conference until a copy has been placed in the hands of the Secretary.

Rule 19: These rules shall not be suspended or amended except by a vote of two-thirds of the members present and voting.

Rule 20: All materials to be published in the Journal shall be in the hands of the Conference Secretary not later than 14 days following the adjournment of the Annual Session or they shall be excluded, the date to be part of the Organizational motion of the Annual Conference.

Rule 21: The Nominating Committee shall distribute copies of its reports to the Annual Conference on the day before the report is to be voted on by the Annual Conference.

Rule 22: Recommendations as to change in policy regarding data to be included in the Journal shall be determined by the Journal Committee and submitted to the Annual Conference for action.

Rule 23: With the exception of the Board of Ordained Ministry, no member of any Board, Division, Committee, or Commission shall serve more than two consecutive quadrennia on said Board, Division, Committee, or Commission, and shall be ineligible to be re-elected until after one quad-rennium has elapsed except members of boards, committees, or commissions elected for three-year terms may serve three consecutive terms and shall be ineligible to be re-elected until after one term has lapsed and except that when a member is elected to fill an unexpired quadrennium or term she/he may complete the unexpired quadrennium or term and serve not more than one additional consecutive quadrennium or term. Persons elected to the Board of Ordained Ministry may serve eight (8) years regardless of what year in the quadrennium they begin serving. No member of the Conference, lay or ministerial, shall be elected to serve on more than two Boards, Divisions, Committees, or Commissions concurrently, except the committees elected or appointed for the Annual Conference session only, district committees whether or not elected by the Annual Conference and the quadrennial committee of the local church. The distribution of membership shall be according to districts, three lay persons and three ministers as nearly as possible to each district.

Rule 24: Lay members of the Annual Conference will be elected quadrennially. A lay member may be re-elected for another quadrennium but must wait one quadrennium before being eligible for election for a third term.

Rule 25: In order to achieve balanced membership in the Annual Conference, the Conference Secretary shall report quadrennially the number of lay persons required to preserve equality of membership, and that the Peninsula Conference achieve the desired equality of membership, by (1) the associate lay leader of Lay Life and Work, the four District Lay Leaders, the four District Presidents of the United Methodist Women, all United Methodist Deaconesses active and retired within the bounds of the Peninsula Annual Conference, all certified Directors of Christian Education employed by churches of the Peninsula Annual Conference, and all other voting lay persons of the Conference Council on Ministries, shall be members in the Annual Conference with vote; (2) each pastoral charge enrolling more than 500 members, but having only one clergy member appointed to it, may elect one additional lay member, and further, that a pastoral charge having more than one clergy member appointed to it may elect one additional lay member, provided that more than 1,500 members are enrolled; and (3) the Conference Council on Youth Ministries shall elect as many youth members as are needed to maintain a balance, divided equally among the districts.

Rule 26: All budget requests must be referred to the Council on Finance and Administration prior to Annual Conference action.

Rule 27: All statistical material for inclusion in the Statistical Tables to be printed in the Annual Journal must be in by January 30 or it will not be included.
