WESLEY THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY of the
UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

Wesley Theological Seminary is a graduate professional school preparing Christian men and women for the ministries of the church and for the work of Christian education with particular concern for adequate preparation for the parish ministry.

Enabling legislation for the school was passed by the Maryland Annual Conference of The Methodist Protestant Church in 1881. It was officially chartered in 1882, which was the first year of classes. Hence the Seminary is now well into its ninth decade of service.

With an enrollment of 278 students, Wesley today ranks sixth among the 14 theological schools of The United Methodist Church.

HEALTH AND WELFARE: The report of the Board of Health and Welfare Ministries was presented and adopted as amended including the following resolutions:

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Resolution passed at the 1968 Annual Conference and printed on Page 121 of the Official Journal of the Peninsula Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church, be rescinded and in lieu thereof this substitution:

RESOLVED, that the operations, functions and purposes of the Peninsula United Methodist Homes and Hospitals, Inc. shall be governed by Section VIII of the Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church.

Robert P. Whitlock, secretary of Report Section #2, Missions and Social Concerns, presented the following reports which included recommendations:

MISSIONS: The Pre-Conference report of the Board of Missions including recommendation was adopted by the Conference.

The following resolutions were presented by the Board of Social Concerns:

"Treatment of Offenders"

WHEREAS a large portion of the growing crime rate is caused by offenders who have been previously convicted and sentenced (recidivists); and

WHEREAS the primary goal of any effective prison system should be to redirect its inmates and hence, prevent such recidivism; and

WHEREAS effective rehabilitation is virtually impossible unless the prison system is able to tailor its treatment to the individual offender; and

WHEREAS conventional sentence and parole practices frequently impede accurate determination of an inmate's progress toward self re-direction; and

WHEREAS lay parole boards are often not equipped with adequate professional judgement to determine an inmate's readiness for release,

BE IT RESOLVED that we, the members of the Peninsula Annual Conference, urge the governments of our respective states to institute, without delay, prison programs and sentencing practices which will:

a. afford the criminal justice systems of those states the means for comprehensive diagnosis of each inmate's physical, emotional, mental, social and educational status upon his commitment to an institution;
b. provide a wide range of medical, psychological, psychiatric, and social casework therapy as well as educational and vocational training to remedy each inmate's particular problems;
c. permit frequent evaluation of each inmate's progress toward redirection to be made by a committee composed of those people who work with him in each phase of his treatment;
d. allow the prison system to detain any inmate for any period of time within the maximum term provided by law for his offense for purposes of completing treatment; and
e. provide parole boards with personnel from the behavioral sciences and legal profession as well as lay community members.

"Family Court"

WHEREAS an increasing portion of the growing crime rate is caused by juveniles (those under the age of 18); and

WHEREAS an overwhelming majority of juvenile offenders will benefit most from court and treatment programs that are separated from adult criminal procedures, and are oriented to treating juvenile offenders within the framework of their families whenever possible; and

WHEREAS adult criminal proceedings against juveniles often serve as an increase in peer-group status rather than a deterrent for juveniles; and

WHEREAS mixing impressionable juveniles with hardened adult offenders can often cause permanent damage to the behavior patterns of the juveniles; and

WHEREAS there is a small portion of juvenile offenders which is composed of hard-core and mature persons who are not amendable to usual family court proceedings; and

WHEREAS family courts, in general, are better equipped and staffed to make an accurate determination of any given juvenile's amenability to their own proceedings and alternatives of disposition than adult courts (if this is not the case, it should be);

BE IT RESOLVED that we, the members of the Peninsula Annual Conference, urge the governments of our respective states to institute, without delay, family court systems which will:

a. provide family courts with the means for comprehensive diagnosis of each juvenile's physical, emotional, mental, social and educational status, keeping such diagnosis relevant to the family situation of each juvenile whenever possible;
b. allow the family courts to determine, on the basis of each diagnosis and previous record, the amenability of any given juvenile to the processes of the family court;
c. provide legal means for the transfer to the appropriate adult court of those cases where the juvenile in question is found lacking in amenability to the processes of the Family Court.

On favorable recommendation of the Review Section of Missions and Social Concerns was adopted by the Conference.

"Capital Punishment"

WHEREAS there are grave doubts as to the constitutionality of capital punishment considering the "cruel and unusual punishment" clause of the Constitution of the United States; and

WHEREAS capital punishment has not been proven to have any deterrent effect on persons committing those crimes for which such punishment is given; and

WHEREAS no system devised by humans is so infallible as to assure that men found guilty of capital crimes are actually guilty; and

WHEREAS it is impossible to revoke death in the case of such human error, and

WHEREAS no state or government has the moral right to take human life without cause of immediate self-defense any more than private citizens possess such a right,

BE IT RESOLVED that we, the members of the Peninsula Annual Conference, urge the governments of our respective states to immediately and without qualification abolish the practice of taking human life as punishment for any crime.

On favorable recommendation of the Review Section of Missions and Social Concerns was adopted by the Conference.

"Use of Public Funds for Non-Public Schools"

RESOLVED that the Peninsula Annual Conference opposes the use of public funds for non-public elementary and secondary schools.

AMENDMENT: Moved that the word "state" be substituted for "public" in resolution for "use of Public Funds for non-public elementary and secondary schools"

The report was adopted by the Annual Conference as amended.

"Christians Committed to Peace"

BE IT RESOLVED that the Peninsula Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church as a concerned moral leader of the Delmarva Peninsula voice its opposition to the continuation of the war in Indo-China. As Christians committed to peace, we reject this war as a means to that end. We call on Congress to end the war. We recognize the deep concern of our nation's youth who are asked to fight this war, and we commit ourselves to provide them with draft information and counseling. We commit ourselves to open discussion in the local church on the issue of peace in Indo-China and in the world.

AMENDMENT: The following amendment was presented by R. Jervis Cooke and adopted by the Conference:

delete "we call upon Congress to end the war" and put in its place—"we call upon the leaders of the United States and the leaders of North Vietnam to end the war".

"Student Dissent"

WHEREAS it is a necessity that students in a democracy have the opportunity to study in secure surroundings and the freedom to express their dissent in non-violent ways, be it

RESOLVED that the Peninsula Annual Conference condemns the repression and killing of students by educational or civic authorities and also condemns the violent acts of students against property and persons.

AMENDMENT: The following amendment was presented by D. Bruce Roberts as an addition to the report on Student Dissent:

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we call on the various law enforcement agencies to develop effective ways of dealing with student protests without the use of firearms and other lethal weapons.

The report was adopted by the Annual Conference as amended.

"Project Equality"

The following request of Project Equality was presented by Missions and Social Concerns who recommended that it be referred to the Conference Program Council and the Commission on World Service and Finance:

"To the Members of Project Equality: In October of 1967 you were asked to support the establishment of Project Equality in the Delmarva area and your response was affirmative. In the following pages, a proposed program and budget for 1971 for Project Equality of Delmarva is presented and your consideration and endorsement are again requested.

A significant expansion of the program which provides for the hiring of a merit employment officer and a clerk-typist is proposed. The additional staff will enable us to fulfill our obligation to conduct effective and thorough technical assistance reviews. The positive response to the Project Equality program by the business community makes it impossible for our present staff to conduct a meaningful number of reviews. A description of the review process is given in the proposal.

The proposed budget for 1971 totals $58,700, an increase of $20,700 (54%) over 1970. We are requesting that each judicatory member increase its financial contribution for 1971 proportionately.

We realize that such a funding increase may require a reordering of priorities for some of our judicatory members. However, we feel strongly that Project Equality is effective and relevant and that a meaningful review program will justify the sacrifices necessary to fund it.

Our Director, Clyde Bishop, and the Board of Directors are ready to provide you with whatever information and materials you may require in order to make an informed decision. We request that you inform us of your decision before November 1, 1970."

The Conference, by vote, approved the request of the group to refer.

CHRISTIAN SOCIAL CONCERNS: The report of the Board of Christian Social Concerns was adopted by the Peninsula Annual Conference as amended.

PRESENTATION: Al Choin of the Methodist Publishing House was presented. Dr. Choin addressed the Conference and presented the annual check from the Publishing House to the amount of $13,495.12. The check was received with appreciation by the Conference.

MOTION: The following motion was presented by Everett C. Isaacs and adopted by the Conference: "To the President and Congress of the United States"

BE IT RESOLVED that we, the Peninsula Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church in session in Wilmington, Delaware, this date, are deeply concerned about the troubling issues before you, and our nation. We are not agreed among ourselves as to the courses of action that should be taken on all these issues. We confess in humility that we even lack the expertise to deal effectively with the troubling issues within our own church. But we are agreed that we shall unite in prayer to lift up you, our nation, our church, and our world before the God of the universe whom we know and experience through Jesus Christ, the King of Kings and Lord of Lords, that He will grant to you and to us the wisdom to know and the courage to do what is best.

ANNOUNCEMENTS were made and Conference adjourned.

FIFTH SESSION—THURSDAY MORNING, 9:00 A.M.

Devotions were conducted by Kendall McCabe.

Daniel Rich, Secretary of Study and Review Section #1, EDUCATION AND COMMUNICATION, presented the following reports which contained recommendations:

MOTION: The following motion presented by Charles Harris of Wesley Church, Dover was adopted by the Conference:

"I move that we accept the report of H. Perry Baldwin of the Board of Trustees of Wesley College with commendation to the Board of Trustees, Faculty and Student Body for their excellent performance in the light of what is happening on other college campuses throughout the nation. We are pleased with the physical changes and conduct of the student body during the past year."

MOTION: The following motion was presented by the Study and Review Section #1 and adopted by the Conference:

"We move to urge the Annual Conference to provide more complete financial support for our Board of Education, particularly concerning the hiring of a Co-ordinator of Children's Work and a Co-ordinator of Youth Work to reach our people educationally."

RESOLUTIONS: The following recommendations and resolutions relating to the Board of Education were recommended by the Study and Review Section #1 and approved by the Conference:

1. That the local educational needs for Conference Staff leadership be discussed in the Local Council of Ministries and local educational groups and then expressed to the Conference Director of Education.
2. That the Conference Program Council set up a Task Force to further study the matter of state aid to non-public schools and on motion of Harold Walton the Task Force was requested to report to the 1971 session of the Peninsula Annual Conference.
3. That we seek to implement an ecumenical campus ministry on each campus within the Peninsula Conference area.
4. That the Pastor and Chairman of Education as Secretary of Enlistment of the local church, send to the Director of Wesley Foundation and/or Campus Ministry a list of students who are enrolled in colleges both within and beyond the Peninsula Conference.

The report of the Board of Education as amended and the report of Wesley College Trustees were adopted by the Conference.

PRESENTATION: Walter H. Stone was presented by Daniel Rich and addressed the Conference. He especially emphasized the progress of the "BARN" project at PeCoMeth, stating that the project was made possible by assets received from the Delaware Conference at the time of merger. As a result of this generous gift, the BARN will have a new name in the future; it will be known as the "Delaware Conference Center".

COMMENDATION: On motion of Harold Walton, the work of Walter Stone and Howard Bailey was recognized by a rising vote of appreciation by the Conference.

Presentation: Dr. John Knight, President of Wesley Seminary, Washington, D. C. was presented and addressed the Conference.

COFFEE BREAK: Announcements were made and Conference recessed for a coffee break.

MINUTES OF THE CORPORATE SESSION OF THE MUTUAL RELIEF ASSOCIATION OF THE PENINSULA ANNUAL CONFERENCE, INC.

The Board of Directors of the Mutual Relief Association met on May 25, 1970 at Wilmington, Delaware and herewith submit its report to the Annual Conference, meeting in Corporate Session.

The record of the past year shows that four death benefits were paid and that 48 members are now on the rolls.

The following nominations are hereby presented to the Corporate Session:

Gerald A. Foster
Lawrence E. Wimbrow, Jr.
Abraham R. Carey

For President: Edwin C. Thomas, Jr.
Vice President: A. R. Carey
Secretary-Treasurer: George W. Goodley

The Board of Directors received in advance of its meeting a study of the status and claims on the Mutual Relief Association, made by the World Service and Finance Commission. The Board concurs with the findings of the study and herewith makes the following recommendation to the Corporate Session:

RESOLVED: That the Corporate Session request the World Service and Finance Commission to liquidate the obligations of the Mutual Relief Association to its present membership by paying the benefits as soon as feasible on an equitable basis as proposed by the study.

GEORGE W. GOODLEY,
Secretary.

WESLEY COLLEGE ANNUAL CORPORATE SESSION

Thursday, May 28, 1970

The Corporate Session of Wesley College was called to order at 10:40 a.m. at the Grace United Methodist Church, Wilmington, Delaware, on Thursday, May 28, 1970, by the Chairman of the Board of Trustees, Mr. O. H. P. Baldwin.

Mr. Baldwin proceeded to make the annual report of the Board of Trustees and called attention to the fact that the full report was printed in the booklet, "Program and Reports of the Peninsula Annual Conference," on page 15. He highlighted items from this report, pointing out the fine year at Wesley College and reporting that the enrollment for the fall of 1970 looked very favorable and it appeared that there would be a full enrollment. He continued with his report and referred to the activities on the Wesley campus during the year, the conduct of the students, and the full curriculum that was being presented at the College, including the nursing program, which is now in its third year. Upon the completion of Mr. Baldwin's report, he called for questions from the floor. Several questions were asked, and Mr. Baldwin gave satisfactory answers.

Mr. Baldwin then requested that The Reverend David W. Baker, chairman of the Nominating Committee, present his report. The following trustees were nominated by Mr. Baker and duly elected by the Corporate Session:

TERM EXPIRES IN 1974

Ministers

Dr. Ernest W. Lee
Dr. Roy L. Tawes
The Rev. Robert P. Whitlock

Laymen

Mr. O. H. P. Baldwin
Dr. Vincent O. Eareckson, Jr.
Mr. Thomas B. Evans, Jr.
Mrs. Avery W. Hall
Dr. Charles A. Henry, Jr.
Mr. S. Norman Holland

Term of The Rev. James R. Hughes, expiring in 1971—
The Reverend G. Wayne Cuff
Term of Dr. I. J. MacCollum, expiring in 1971—
Mr. Kennard W. Merrey

The next order of business was the report of the President of Wesley College, at which time Dr. Robert H. Parker made his report. In answer to a request from a person attending the Session, he reported at length on the conduct of Wesley students during the recent student unrest period on college campuses of this country. Dr. Parker mentioned the fine academic year that had just closed and reported that a large number of students graduated Cum Laude. He stated that there was a decrease in the number of students not returning because of academic standing. He spoke to some extent on the relationship of the College to the Peninsula Annual Conference and pointed out that there were various funds from the Conference being used to help the black students who enroll at Wesley. He continued with a report on the way in which Wesley students are becoming involved in the community and the fact that next year he expects the students and the faculty to participate in this work more actively since a new organization, known as "Volunteers for Community Action," has been established. Dr. Parker referred to the fine leadership of Mr. Baldwin and other members of the Board of Trustees. He stated that they were greatly responsible for the forward look of Wesley as a strong two-year institution.

A motion, commending the action of Wesley College students during the period of recent student unrest, was referred to by Dr. Parker. He thanked the members of the Conference for their vote of confidence in Wesley College. At the conclusion of his report, The Reverend Hayward Greene, pastor of the Whatcoat United Methodist Church in Dover, mentioned some of the work that was being done at Wesley and the fine relationship of the students and the administration to his Church and several programs of the community. The Reverend Richard Hicks, minister at Princess Anne Church, made a statement concerning the black students that had been killed on college campuses recently, reminding everyone that black and white are both suffering from campus unrest. Mr. Jerome Framptom moved that the President of Wesley College be commended for his continued leadership during the time of campus unrest this past year. The motion was seconded by numerous persons and unanimously passed.

Mr. Baldwin called for further business, and since there was none, a motion was made, seconded, and passed to adjourn the meeting at 11:15 a.m., and the Corporate Session was duly adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,

HERMAN T. MEINERSMANN
Assistant Secretary
Board of Trustees of Wesley College

PRESENTATION: Bishop Edgar A. Love and Mrs. Love were presented to the Conference and Bishop Love addressed the Conference.

BOARD OF MINISTRY: The report of the Board of Ministry was presented by David W. Baker and adopted by the Conference.

REGISTRAR: C. Edwin Lasbury, Registrar, was introduced and presented the report of the Board of The Ministry. (For report see Disciplinary Questions.)

MOTION: The following motions on Proposed Enabling Legislation were presented by David W. Baker and adopted by the Conference:

1. WHEREAS Felton Edwin May on June 19, 1970 will have completed eight years, the maximum time allowed as a Probationary Member of an Annual Conference, it is required that we take some further action at this time.

   WHEREAS Mr. May has met all the requirements for full connection and Elders Orders except ten hours of seminary credit which he expects to complete by September, 1970.

   THEREFORE, we recommend that he be elected to full connection and Elders Orders subject to completion of these requirements.

   IT IS FURTHER RECOMMENDED that Bishop John Wesley Lord, or another Bishop designated by him, ordain Mr. May when these requirements have been met.
2. WHEREAS Harold Eston Owens has met all requirements for full connection and Elders Orders except twelve weeks of summer program in clinical pastoral counseling, a requirement for seminary graduation, which he expects to complete by August 21, 1970.

   THEREFORE, we recommend that Mr. Owens be elected to full connection and Elders Orders subject to completion of these requirements.

   IT IS FURTHER RECOMMENDED that Bishop John Wesley Lord, or another Bishop designated by him, ordain Mr. Owens when these requirements have been met.

RECOGNITION OF RETIRING MINISTERS: The names of those who received Retired Relation this year were called and the Bishop presented them with certificates and they and their wives received badges for their loyal and devoted service to the church. Each retiring member addressed the conference.

ADMISSION IN FULL: The class to be admitted to full membership was presented to Bishop Lord who asked the required disciplinary questions. Proper answers were given. Bishop Lord addressed the group.

ANNOUNCEMENTS were made and Conference adjourned.

SIXTH SESSION, THURSDAY AFTERNOON, 2:00 P.M.

OPENING: Conference convened at 2:00 p.m. Bishop John Wesley Lord, presiding officer, addressed the Conference on "The Importance of the Church".

William Hudson, Secretary of Study and Review Section #3 "PROGRAM AND ECUMENICAL AFFAIRS" presented the following reports which included recommendations:

ECUMENICAL AFFAIRS: The recommendations of the Commission on Ecumenical Affairs were presented, amended and adopted by the Annual Conference:

1. That the Peninsula Annual Conference adopt the Plan for Creating a New Ecumenical Agency for the DelMarVa Peninsula, and that the Program Council appoint representatives from our Conference to work with others in the further development of this agency.
2. We urgently request each local church to have an in depth study, whenever possible on an interdenominational basis, of the Plan of Union given us by the Consultation on Church Union, and that an evaluation of the Plan of Union be sent to the Commission on Ecumenical Affairs of the Peninsula Annual Conference.

CONFERENCE PROGRAM COUNCIL

RECOMMENDATIONS: #1. On motion of R. Jervis Cooke, the following recommendation was adopted by the Conference:

"In keeping with the general conference action, I recommend that our Program and Statistical year be the calendar year".

#2. The following recommendation was adopted by the Conference: "That the Annual Conference direct that all charges pay the full cost of Parsonage Utilities and that the column entitled "Total Utilities Paid" be deleted from the Annual Conference statistical table (item 39).

#3. That if at all possible, future sessions of the Annual Conference be held at Wesley College in order that, through staying together in the dormitories and eating together in the dining room, members of the conference may become better acquainted with one another, thus improving the quality of the fellowship of the conference.

#4. That the Annual Conference adopt the 2% Ministerial Education Fund as a separate apportionment to the churches of the conference to become effective in the 1971 financial year.

MOTION: The following motion was presented by C. Edwin Lasbury and adopted by the Conference:

I move that this conference reaffirm its intention to meet the 2% Ministerial Education Fund by the end of the quadrennium.

I further move that we accept the 2% additional apportionment with the assurance it will be absorbed into the regular budget under "Administration-General Church" by 1972.

#5. That the Annual Conference adopt the following goals in regard to charge realignment and ministerial workload:

(a) a new realignment of churches to provide the following:
A minimum workload for full-time conference members, associate members, and lay pastors of 350 members.
A minimum workload for students and part time pastors of 200 members.

(b) Churches of less than 50 members go on a schedule other than every Sunday for a regular pastor. Supplement with lay speakers if a service is desired every Sunday.

(c) No pastor shall be required to preach more than three times a Sunday within his charge.

(d) The new Commission on Minimum Salary shall be elected at the Annual Conference session of 1970 and it shall be instructed to do an in-depth study of the entire minimum salary question by January 1, 1971.

#6. That the membership of the Program Council be enlarged as follows:

(a) That the Committee on the Lay Worker, the Annual Conference Board of Trustees, the Committee on Higher Education, be entitled to one voting representative each and that there be one voting representative of college youth, to be selected by the Committee on Higher Education.

(b) That the at-large members be expanded from 7 to 11 with the understanding that four of the eleven can be chosen in order that they might serve as chairmen of the four standing committees of the council.

(c) That the full time Wesley Foundation staff personnel be non-voting members of the council.

#7. That the Annual Conference establish the number of districts to be four, effective at the conclusion of the 1971 Annual Conference.

#8. That the Annual Conference request that the bishop and the district superintendents nominate a conference program director (Par. 841.7) at the 1971 Annual Conference session.

#9. That in view of the planned reduction in the number of professional staff persons of the Board of Education from two to one at the 1970 Annual Conference session, that the vacated parsonage be retained and rented until June 1, 1971.

MOTION: The following substitute motion was presented by R. Jervis Cooke and adopted by the Conference:

"I move that authorization be given to the Commission on World Service and Finance to sell the two residences in Dover, Delaware which have been occupied by the Conference Directors of Christian Education and that they be authorized to secure adequate housing for the new Associate Program Director."

#10. That following the 1971 Annual Conference session the Board of Trustees of the Annual Conference dispose of the district parsonage vacated by the reduction of the districts from five to four.

#11. That the Annual Conference adopt the following statement:

CONFERENCE RULES AND GUIDELINES FOR THE NOMINATING COMMITTEE

BE IT RESOLVED, first, that the Peninsula Conference once again record its firm faith in the Principle of Rotation and adherence to the provisions of the BOOK OF DISCIPLINE OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH.

SECOND: that the Nominating Committee be composed of the Cabinet, the Conference Lay Leader, and the Lay Leader of each District, a representative selected by the WSCS Executive Committee, a youth selected by the Conference Youth Council and one minister under appointment from each District to be elected by the respective District Ministerium.

MOTION: Motion to recommend was made to refer the following three items to the Program Council for future study:

a. Item 6 to count in the allotted two membership on Wesley College Trustees, Board of Directors of Wesley Foundation and Board of Trustees of Peninsula Homes and Hospitals, Inc.
b. Item 7—to delete the second sentence.
c. To add an Item 12: "That in every case the nominee to any board, commission or committee shall be notified before his name is placed before the Conference.

#12. It was recommended that we accept the remainder of the report and it was accepted by the Conference.

#13. The following motion to recommend was presented by Richard C. Stazesky and adopted by the Conference:

(1) That the Peninsula Conference reaffirm its firm faith in the goal of an inclusive church. There are those, both black and white, who would turn us away from this goal. However, we believe this goal is inherent in the Christian ethic itself.
(2) And that it adopt the following steps needed to bring about a Really Inclusive Church:

A. Intensify the assignment of pastors to individual charges without regard to race and those charges having more than one pastor establish a multi-racial ministerial staff. This has begun in Wilmington, Dover and Salisbury Districts, but is yet to happen in the Easton and Chestertown Districts. We urge that this become the official policy of our Conference not only in a clearly articulated mandate, but also in action and that our dual system be eliminated and assignment of pastors and alignment of churches regardless of race be in full operation by the Annual Conference session of 1974.

B. Ascending series of Workshops in an intensive attack on racism:

(1) Program Council and other top leaders
(2) Pastors
(3) Lay Leaders
(4) Districts
(5) Local

C. Set up normal situations on Conference, District, and local levels where fellowship and understanding could take place.

Examples:

(1) Conference—change session of Annual Conference to a place like Wesley College where we would stay in dorms, eat in dining hall, and hold sessions in same general area. This would do more in one year to build better racial understanding than years of the present situation.
(2) District—Have more District functions to involve racially inclusive groups of laymen. Very few at present. Could also be by cluster of churches such as counties, etc.
(3) Community—Black and white churches in the same community should make a deliberate effort to get to know each other through joint services on special occasions, WSCS, Vacation Church School, UMYF, etc.

D. Special training be started now to help prepare pastors to serve inter-racial charges and churches.

E. Parish and Community development in natural community.

QUADRENNIAL EMPHASIS COMMITTEE: Motion to amend the report of Quadrennial Emphasis Committee by adding first sentence before last paragraph: "We urge every church to give its members an annual opportunity to share sacrificially by giving to the Fund for Reconciliation."

The report of the Quadrennial Emphasis Committee was adopted as amended.

The following motion was presented by William Hudson, Secretary of Study and Review Group No. III and was adopted by the conference: "That the Peninsula Annual Conference diligently urge the Methodist Publishing House to become a sponsor of Project Equality."

The reports referred to Study and Review Section #3 on Program and Ecumenical Affairs were adopted by the Conference as amended.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE: Mrs. Orien E. Mangum, Conference President of WSCS and a member of the Annual Conference addressed the Conference on the subject of a more active participation of women in the program of the Methodist Church.

RESPONSE: Frank Chapman, Conference Lay Leader, responded by stating the number of women serving on the Board of Laity and their very helpful relationship.

BOARD OF MINISTRY: The following motion was presented by Richard R. Hicks and adopted by the Conference:

"I move that this conference direct the Board of Ministry to begin planning immediately an intensive recruitment program aimed at securing black men and women for the pastorate of churches within the geographical bounds of the Peninsula Annual Conference, and that the plan of recruitment be implemented beginning in September, 1970.

I further move that the Program Council be authorized to secure from any available source such funds as the Board of Ministry needs in order to carry out this recruitment program.

APPRECIATION: On motion of J. Wallace Watson, Conference expressed deep appreciation for the great service of R. Jervis Cooke to the Annual Conference.

ANNOUNCEMENTS were made and Conference adjourned, Kenneth R. Rose pronouncing the benediction.

COMMITTEE ON JOURNAL: Abraham Carey reported for the Committee on Journal, approving the Journal as corrected for former sessions. His report was accepted and the Journal was approved by the Conference.

MOTION: On the motion of Abraham Carey, the Conference granted permission to the Committee on Journal to approve the minutes of the remaining sessions without reporting to the Conference.

Gary Trail, Secretary of Study and Review Section #4 "Membership and Lay Activities" presented the following reports which included recommendations:

BOARD OF MINISTRY: The group recommended by unanimous vote that we accept the report of the Board of Ministry as appearing in the Pre-Conference Journal. The Conference accepted the recommendation.

BOARD OF EVANGELISM: The following motion of recommendation presented by John A. Irwin was adopted by the Conference as a substitute for the recommendation of the group:

"I move, that since Section 4 has recommended referral of the report of the Board of Evangelism as printed in the Pre-Conference reports that report of the Chairman of the Board of Evangelism and the Conference Secretary of Evangelism (which has been mimeographed for distribution) be substituted for the report printed in the Pre-Conference reports."

The revised report of the Board of Evangelism, with recommendation, was adopted by the Conference. The report of study section No. IV was adopted by the Annual Conference as amended.

John Simpers, Secretary of Study and Review Section #5 "Administration and Finance" presented the following reports which included recommendations:

Recommendation #1 in the report of the Board of Pensions was changed to read as follows:

1. That the annuity rate for the fiscal year 1970 be raised to $90.00 for retired conference members and associates with 75% of the above figure for full time lay pastors. That the annuity rate for the fiscal year 1971 be raised to $93.00 for retired conference members and associates with 75% of the above figure for full time lay pastors; 75% of the full rate paid to widows of full members and associates; 75% of the full time lay pastors rate to be paid to lay pastors widows; and 25% of the father's rate be paid to the surviving children.

Recommendation #2 in the report of the Board of Pensions was changed to read as follows:

2. That the interest rate on all delinquent accounts to the Endowment Fund (ministerial) be set at 8% instead of the present 6%, effective January 1, 1971.

Students under the Board of Ministry in college or seminary will be exempt from interest on the delinquency, but not from the assessment.

MOTION: (recommendation #4) David W. Baker made the following motion of recommendation to replace recommendation #5 of the report of the Commission on World Service and Finance, which was adopted by the Conference:

"That monies given by the local church for their pastor's continuing education be a deductible item from church expenses for calculating apportionments. Any continuing educational programs in excess of $250.00 must be approved by the Conference Board of the Ministry if such program is to be considered a deductible item."

RECOMMENDATION: (#6) The following recommendation was presented by the Study and Review Section #5 and adopted by the Conference:

"That we refer the recommendations relative to the basis of Apportionments as found on p. 66 and p. 67 of the Pre-Conference Journal to the Program Council with a mandate that the Program Council recommend to the Commission on World Service and Finance a system of apportionments, to be presented for adoption at the 1971 Annual Conference and to take effect in 1972."

RECOMMENDATION: (#7) On motion of recommendation of Kendall K. McCabe, the recommendation of the World Service and Finance was amended to read as follows:

"That beginning in 1971 churches pay lay members and pastors expenses at The Annual Conference. The Conference will pay for retired ministers and probationary members appointed to attend school and not serving a church. Further that a per diem be determined by the Commission on World Service and Finance".

RECOMMENDATION: (#8) On recommendation of the Study and Review Section #5, Conference approved recommendations #4 and #5 of the report of World Service and Finance, which read as follows:

4. That all benevolence items for 1970 be reduced 15% to bring the budget in line with expected income.
5. That the apportionment rate for 1971 be .49

The report of the Commission on World Service and Finance including the Budget was adopted as amended.

MOTION: At the request of John Kelso, the following motion of Thomas C. Roe was presented by O. G. Brewer and adopted by the Conference:

RESOLVED that the net proceeds of sale of real estate consummated by the Conference Board of Trustees beginning with the Conference Year 1969-70, where the funds for the purchase of such property were secured largely from Conference funds, be deposited in the General Fund of the Conference Treasury, and thereupon be applied directly to the reduction of any existing Conference indebtedness.

COMMITTEE ON NOMINATIONS: Dale Ruth, Chairman of the Committee on Nominations, presented O. G. Brewer, who in turn presented Frank Chapman, Lay Leader of the Conference, who gave the report of the Committee on Nominations. The report of the Committee on Nominations was adopted by the Annual Conference as amended. (See corrected report under Boards, Commissions and Committees.)

MOTION: The following motion was presented by Richard C. Stazesky and adopted by the Conference:

"I move that there be twelve members at large of the Program Council".

MOTION: The following motion was presented by William H. Hudson and adopted by the Conference:

"Be it resolved that a report of the Nominating Committee be printed in the pre-Conference Journal and that members of the coming annual conference session be permitted to submit nominations in writing to the committee for its guidance and/or change before the session convenes."

MOTION: The following motion was presented by Robert W. Helms and adopted by the Conference:

"That Pre-Conference Journals be sent to Alternate Members at the same time they are sent to members of Conference".

MOTION: The following motion was presented by Richard D. Bailey and referred to the Committee on the Conference Journal:

"As a means of encouraging United Methodists in the Peninsula Conference to express their views to elected representatives:

I, therefore, move that the names and addresses of state and national elected representatives from Delaware and the Eastern Shore of Maryland be printed each year in the Conference Journal, such names and addresses to be prepared for the Conference by the Commission on Christian Social Concerns."

CONFERENCE TREASURER: The report of the Conference Treasurer was presented by Theodore Briggs, Conference Business Manager and adopted by the Conference.

CHARTERED FUND: A check from the Chartered Fund to the amount of $160.00 was presented to the Conference.

CHARACTER: The disciplinary question regarding the character was asked by Bishop Lord. Dale Ruth replied that no charges were pending against any member of the Conference and the Conference in turn approved the character of the members of the cabinet.

STATISTICAL REPORT: The report of Perry O. Hill, Statistician was presented without reading and received by the Conference.

J. ALLEN WILKINSON: The following motion was presented by Daniel L. Ridout and adopted by the Conference:

"Mr. J. Allen Wilkinson, a lay member of this Conference, has served his charge faithfully in this capacity over a period of fifty years. He has told his church, St. Johns at Lewisville, Pa. that he will not seek, nor will he accept election another year.

I move that the Conference express its appreciation for this notable record of service by standing in salute to Mr. Wilkinson and that the presiding bishop and the secretary of the conference join me, his superintendent, in sending letters of recognition of the same."

MOTION: The following motion presented by D. Bruce Roberts was adopted by the Conference:

"I move that the secretary send the resolutions of the Peninsula Annual Conference to the various legislatures and other bodies that the resolutions affect and concern." On request of the conference secretary, said communications to be prepared by the author of this motion.

COURTESIES AND RESOLUTIONS—The report of the Committee on Courtesies and Resolutions was presented by Dale Pruett, Chairman and received by the conference.

REFERRAL: On motion of Howell Wilkins and by action of the Conference, the question of where the Conference shall meet next year was referred to the Committee on Program and Entertainment.

APPOINTMENTS: The appointments were distributed in mimeographed form and the new appointments were read by Bishop John Wesley Lord. Following the singing of a hymn and on motion of William Hudson, Conference adjourned, Bishop John Wesley Lord pronouncing the benediction.

John Wesley Lord,

Presiding Bishop.

Walter L. Beckwith

Secretary.

REPORTS

(a) District Superintendents

COMPOSITE REPORT - 1970

Presented by Dale L. Ruth

Bishop Lord, Members of the Conference, Friends:

Many are the temptations that come to mind in making this report. After the involvement in appointments, program, new structure, and mission of the church we are tempted to indulge in much thinking and expression. There is also the temptation to over-do the reminiscing, to over-indulge in the inappropriate, while trying to project the future, set goals and policy. Therefore, our effort will be, in this report, to reflect the stance and policy of the superintendents in relationship to local churches, appointments, Conference program, and local and Conference structure as each relates to the mission of the church. We shall not report here statistics or other facts that are reported in our individual district reports or by other committees. First, let me indulge, to express the mutual thanks for the Cabinet members for the good fellowship and the fine spirit of cooperation which has been evidenced during the year together. Bishop Lord, we are grateful for your leadership to our church, for your vision and Christian concern. May God richly bless you in the years ahead.

Our first major concern is the mission of the total church. It is now clearly indicated before us, as we look at this merged church, that is now a strong church, that the very reason for union was that we might more adequately fulfill our purpose and mission. We see the evidence of the excitement as the energies of even a few of the 10½ million United Methodists are released in the service of God and man in our world. What advances and gains were made in the eight months transition period, because we got excited and worked with a purpose. As we ask the question, what can the church do for people, we need to remember that people are the church, and need to be committed to Christ in such a way that they are open to respond to God's call. No action takes place apart from Christian discipleship.

A word needs be said here on program and structure, especially since we are becoming increasingly aware that these are only meaningful as they relate to flesh and blood people. We of the Cabinet are 100% committed to the idea of program council because we believe in the principle of wholeness. The unification of program rather than fragmentation; coordination rather than duplication. As we meet together as a Conference Program Council to establish priorities and set goals, we begin a line of communication that reaches into every work area of the Conference as well as into every geographical area. In this way we become aware of the other's needs and aware of his strengths. Christians in the early church found spiritual strength as together they faced a pagan world. In our own society many issues can only be confronted effectively and resolved through corporate concern and action. This we believe will be the effect of the Program Council.

A third major concern is that of integration. We have begun to reach out into all areas as we have attempted to integrate the church, so that one becomes aware of the other's needs and presence. It has been five years since merger, and we look forward to the development of an all inclusive fellowship and church by 1974, the realignment of churches, and the appointment of pastors on a geographical basis.

A fourth major concern is in the relationship of Annual Conference and District to local churches. The Conference and District exist to strengthen the local church. Under our now existing structure the program should develop from below, upward. The "Higher Authority" exists for the sake of local and regional endeavors, to coordinate and implement. We believe that Superintendents need inform the churches of the general procedures in making appointments and the role of Pastor-Parish relations committees in relation to superintendent and in relation to churches and pastors. In making appointments the aim is to suit the pastor to the church, that is to the task that needs to be done. We are just as interested in securing the right pastor for the church as is the church. The attempt is to appoint the man with the ability to do the job and not because of seniority or other reason. The Superintendent has the responsibility to share in local church programs as well as conduct or preside at official meetings. He needs be a pastor to all the people as well as the pastor to pastors.

It is encouraging to note that United Methodists are taking part in the dialogue taking place in the Christian community. The principle of ecumenicity gives a sense of participation, not in the uniting of churches but in the uniting of people to do the common tasks of discipleship that can better be done together.

Christ prayed for unity when he walked the earth (John 17:22-23), and yet twenty centuries later we can scarcely be impressed by the way we have carried out the intentions of Christ. It is no wonder half the people in our country have no church affiliation and that men have not recognized us as Christians. It is no wonder, too, that many have declined to accept the Christianity they see in us. The impact of Christianity has not made great strides against atheism and secularism that it should, perhaps because Christians haven't kept the basic command to love one another.

Before turning exclusively to the local church scene, it is our hope that the meetings on each District for pre-conference briefings, with what we have already done through monthly mailings and District newsletters, will serve to narrow the communications gap. These briefings were well attended, and the participation showed a renewed interest in the well-being of the church.

Let us say this final word about the Local Church which is the very life blood of the Whole. There is much uncertainty in the small local church as to its future. Costs are up. Pastors are scarce. Salaries are not commanding. We are seeking to help by realigning Charges; seeking to have pastors serve people rather than churches with the aim of each pastor serving at least 350 members; with a goal toward easing the financial burden. Also, we must be aware that there are situations where merger ought to take place. It isn't a question of realignment or of merger. The only question is, when? The Day of the 'Prestige Station Church' is gone. Small churches need your help, and you need theirs.

Stewardship is our final all-consuming concern. We are all aware of the financial burdens facing our Annual Conference and our churches. Many of our churches carry a great burden; however, a large proportion of our churches do accept and achieve their goals because they accept their responsibility as churchmen. We wish here to commend those pastors and people who walked with us during the past months, to the goal of 100% churches, and to others who worked hard but did not quite arrive due to circumstances beyond their control. The disturbing factor is the few who were able, but unwilling to support their Christ and His Church. Do we pay our fair share, or are we willing to let our neighbor church pay the bill?

Stewardship has another facet; that of doing what God wants us to do all along the line. If we have received our commission to be ambassadors; that is "speaking for Christ as though God himself were appealing to you through us", then let the people of God be the church of God. We have a commission here to invade our culture, our society, to get involved in local things. What can a church do for people? Come with us; enter a broken home, visit an orphanage, pass through a hospital entrance, offer yourself to an alcoholic, provide aid and guidance for the changing of society where it needs changing; to mention a few. Possibilities are here beyond our greatest dreams and fondest hopes. We know that the church with all her potential depends heavily upon an adequate development of stewardship responsibility. Christian stewardship is more than the 10% a man gives to his church. Christian stewardship involves a man in the manner he uses all his money, his time and his talents. The church needs be concerned with all of a man's life.

Here, we as churchmen need to remind ourselves of the vows we once took: Do you believe in God the Father Almighty, and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord, and in the holy Spirit, the Lord? We answered in the affirmative. Will you be obedient to keep God's holy will and commandments and walk in the same all the days of your life? We answered in the affirmative. Do you confess Jesus Christ as your Lord and savior and pledge allegiance to his kingdom? We answered, I do. Do you receive and profess the Christian faith as contained in the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments? We answered, I do. Do you promise according to the grace given you to live a Christian life? We answered, I do. Furthermore, we promised to be loyal to the church, uphold it by our prayers, our presence, our gifts and our service.

Turning to the local church structure with its many new features, which enlarges the creative possibilities of local congregations, let us recognize our relationship to the broader church of which we are a part—the church that is part of the Peninsula Annual Conference and the world. Let us also note that the pastor is a member of that Conference and not the local church which he serves, and is committed to the whole mission of the church along with his congregation. Under the new structure we are given a great degree of flexibility. This involves openness to meaningful change. When change comes, it calls for scrutiny of every program in order to determine how essential it is to the church's total ministry. The new order means shared leadership, clerical and lay, so it also means participation.

As we look at this strong church with her eye fixed on the foundation of the Gospel and her mission, a church inclusive, reaching out, a church recognizing problems in the areas of stewardship and commitment, yet with the solution within her grasp, when her laymen become responsible churchmen, there is much hope and many reasons to rejoice.

Let us continue to work with these words burning in our hearts, "Love must be completely sincere. Hate what is evil, hold on to what is good. Love one another warmly as brothers in Christ, and be eager to show respect for one another. Work hard, and do not be lazy. Serve the Lord with a heart full of devotion. Let your hope keep you joyful, be patient in your troubles, and pray at all times. Share your belongings with your needy brothers, and open your home to strangers."

SUMMARY REPORTS BY DISTRICTS

CHESTERTOWN DISTRICT

DANIEL L. RIDOUT, District Superintendent

The Conference Year 1969-70 has been altogether a highly successful one for the Chestertown District. There is concern in some charges over decline in Church School attendance, but in many churches, the Church Schools are holding their own or show some increases in attendance. Church attendance has generally shown encouraging gains.

Twenty charges—the largest in the five-year history of the District—paid their apportionments in full. These were: Cecilton, Centreville, Charlestown, Chester, Chestertown: Christ, Church Hill, Colora, Elkton, Elkton-East Cecil, Galena, (Golts) Sassafras, Millington-Pondtown, North East, North East-West Cecil, Port Deposit-Hopewell, Queenstown-Carmichael, Rising Sun, Rock Hall, Rock Hall-Fairlee, and Warwick.

Vital Statistics

Death invaded our ministerial ranks for the first time when on October 6, 1969, Ira E. Doyle of the Rock Hall Charge, one of our ablest and most energetic pastors, went to his eternal home. Funeral services were held at the Rock Hall Church on Thursday, October 9, the superintendent officiating. Mrs. Doyle and a son, Eugene, survive.

Marriages took place in two parsonage families. On May 3, 1969, Patricia Gail, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Edward Blevins of Sudlersville, was united in wedlock to Howard Wallace. The two daughters of the Rev. and Mrs. Eugene W. Spradling of Hopewell (Port Deposit) Charge were wed to two brothers of Baltimore: Elizabeth Adele to Edward James Cash on November 22, 1969, and Margaret Jean to Paul Cash in April 1970.

District Program Council

The District Program Council attempts to interpret and implement the program of the Conference Program Council. It is organized along the general lines of the new local church structure, with the seven Work Area chairmen, age level-coordinators, etc. The chairmen and co-ordinators presented an effective demonstration on how a local Council on Ministries should conduct its meetings and meet its community challenges, at the Galena School, on November 23, 1969.

Building Projects

The major building achievement of the year was the completion of the magnificent new church at Centreville. Opening consecration services were held on Sunday, May 17, 1970. Trinity, Chesapeake City has purchased a beautiful parsonage property, while new parsonages are planned for Colora and Kent Island (Stevensville). Zion, Cecilton has completed face lifting of its sanctuary and painting of its educational building. Other improvements in church properties are too numerous to be included in this brief summary.

180 Years

The Cokesbury church on the Elkton-Port Deposit Charge celebrated its 180th anniversary on February 22, 1970. The entire basement of this church has been renovated also. This is one of the oldest Negro churches in Methodism. We pray for hastening of the time, however, when racial designations will no longer be necessary or required!

DOVER DISTRICT

G. WAYNE CUFF, District Superintendent

Because much of the statistical data for the churches will appear in other sections of the Conference Journal, it seems quite unnecessary to duplicate the material with a statistical summary in the District Superintendent's report.

Bearing this in mind, I wish to make the following report on behalf of the ministers and laymen of the Dover District:

Births, Deaths, and Marriages:

There was but one visit of the stork to the Dover District this Conference Year. A daughter, Kimberly Harris, was born to Robert Lee and Lena Kay Harris of the Magnolia Charge on November 17, 1969.

Likewise, there was but one death and one marriage this Conference Year. Mrs. Zillah Townsend, widow of the late Rev. Mr. John W. Townsend, died at the Methodist Manor House in Seaford on February 13, 1970.

The Rev. Mr. Lee Elliott and Mrs. Eva Bapst of Baltimore, Maryland, were united in holy wedlock by The Rev. Mr. Ira Crum on April 14, 1970. The Rev. Elliott has served one Methodist Charge longer than any other minister in the entire United Methodist Church. He is currently completing his 42nd year as pastor of the Laurel Circuit Charge of the Dover District.

Payments on Debt:

Thirty-two Charges have paid a total of $203,600 toward the reduction of their debts.

Buildings and Improvements:

All the churches on the Dover District have spent a total of $104,918 for new buildings and improvements to existing buildings.

Present Indebtedness:

The total indebtedness for the churches of the Dover District amounts to a total of $544,342.

Increases in Pastor's Salaries:

Thirty-four charges have seen the necessity of raising their pastor's salaries in order to keep up with the cost of living that seems to keep spiralling ever upward. Together, they have given a sum total of $23,710 to their pastors in raises in salaries.

Other Pertinent Information:

Union United Methodist Church of Bridgeville, Delaware, is completing construction of its new sanctuary. They hope to move into their new edifice shortly after the start of the new Conference Year.

St. John's United Methodist Church of Seaford, Delaware, has razed its old church building and is making plans for the erection of a new church building on the old site. At the present time they are completing the financial arrangements for the new construction.

Whatcoat United Methodist Church of Dover, Delaware, is making plans for their relocation and the erection of their new sanctuary.

A number of churches on the Dover District have held Lay Witness Missions, Revivals, as well as other evangelistic services, all of which have been very successful.

As I complete my first year as Superintendent of the Dover District, I wish to thank God for this great opportunity to service, and the pastors and the churches of the Dover District for their continued, loyal support. While we have done an excellent job this year, we look forward to even greater successes next Conference Year, with the help of God.

EASTON DISTRICT

OTHO G. BREWER, JR., District Superintendent

It is in a spirit of deep gratitude to Almighty God that I make this first report for the Easton District. It has been my privilege during this past year to see the District work together to accomplish much for Christ and His Church.

I shall not clutter up this report with statistical facts and figures since they are contained elsewhere in the Journal and are exact records rather than the approximation I would give.

We were saddened during the year by two deaths in our parsonage families. Mrs. Winifred Beatrice Dennis, wife of the Rev. R. Wayne Dennis, died June 1, 1969, and the Rev. Theasdar Madison Murray died April 27, 1970.

We welcome into our fellowship a new minister's wife when the Rev. James H. Roberts married Miss Gwendolyn Cain.

Items of historical note took place around the District as follows:

St. Mark's-Easton purchased a new parsonage; Union-Federalsburg broke ground for their new educational building; St. Luke's-Denton will soon move into their new sanctuary and educational unit; Mt. Calvary-Preston broke ground for their new church.

There will be several Charge realignments on the District this year as we seek to make a more efficient use of our pastors. This is but one aspect of the tremendous change going on within and without the church. Our forefathers passed on to us a great future. We need have no fear of the future. We need only a willingness to be obedient to the leading of the spirit of God which dwells within us. Let us join together as a District in Faith and Prayer and Sacrifice, knowing that when we attempt great things for God we can expect great things from Him.

SALISBURY DISTRICT

DALE L. RUTH, District Superintendent

On behalf of the ministers and churches of the Salisbury District, I present this report:

So we are to use our different gifts in accordance with the grace that God has given us. If our gift is to preach God's message, we must do it according to the faith that we have. If it is to serve, we must serve. If it is to teach, we must teach. If it is to encourage others, we must do so. Whoever shares what he has with others, must do it generously; whoever has authority must work hard; whoever shows kindness to others, must do it cheerfully. Romans 12:6-8.

God in his mercy has permitted us to come to the close of this Conference Year, having represented Him to a people who have deep and sometimes untouched needs. He has permitted us to walk where our fathers have trod for generations; to light new flames on old altars.

We are often troubled, but not crushed; sometimes in doubt, but never in despair; there are many enemies, but we are never without a friend; and though badly hurt at times, we are not destroyed, said St. Paul.

Here is the story of our church and our religious faith.

We, as a church have been restructured, but let us not feel that this is the answer to all our ills. We still need to minister to people, families, children and to community needs and world needs. We have tried to explain the new structure to each church and to give reasons for the change, believing that under this new system we can better carry out the mission of the church.

I have attempted to develop a good working relationship with the people of the churches and the pastors, explaining the relationship of people to Church, Church to District and Conference; to bring to the people the 'Primacy of the Gospel', our reason for being, "our task of making the enemies of God into his friends"; the necessity of igniting the chain reaction, first in worship and then in servanthood. The attitude and response tells me we have in a large measure succeeded.

I wish to commend our people and pastors for their cooperation and response to the District and Conference Program. At the close of December we had paid $212,355 on our apportionments or 96%. Thirty-eight Charges of the fifty-six paid 100% or more; twelve paid 85% or more; with only six Charges, even though they tried to meet the goal, paying less.

We have completed in two years our four year pledge to the Lillestrom Church in Norway on Advance Specials of $4,095.

The churches have also responded by increasing the pastoral support in the amount of $14,605.

Advance Specials—$5,494; Board of Child Care—$4,777; Mother's Day—$1,420; Fellowship of Suffering and Service—$1,242; Youth Fund—$253; One Great Hour of Sharing—$275; Race Relations—$62; Student Day—$388; Christian Education Fund—$1,798; Reconciliation Fund—$1,266; Other—$3,892; Total contributions to benevolent causes for eight months $233,222.

For Capital Improvements we have expended $136,495 and on Debt Reduction $143,382.

Throughout the District there have been lay-witness missions, evangelistic services, fund crusades for new buildings and to amortize debts, renovation of old buildings, new buildings begun, both church and educational units, and buildings completed, and many other improvements too numerous to mention.

A new Educational Unit was begun at St. John's Church on the Berlin Circuit. An Educational Unit at St. Luke's Hebron on the Quantico Circuit is almost completed. Friendship Church on Berlin Charge has a new church under construction to replace the one destroyed by fire New Years Eve. New Church was begun at St. Martins. Calvary Church is completed on the Newark Charge. A new parsonage is under construction at Asbury Salisbury.

Additions to parsonage families: a daughter, Marjorie Louise, to Rev. and Mrs. Richard R. Hicks; a son, Charles Edward, to Rev. and Mrs. C. A. Lewis; and a wife, Patricia Pruitt, married to Rev. Donald Russell.

To all the laymen who have served their churches in an official capacity, and those who by their very presence made life a little better—to these persons I say thank you with pleasure in my voice. I rejoice in the warmth of the churches which has been extended to Margaret and me.

Finally, to the parsonage families I express my deep thanks and appreciation for your loyalty and cooperation.

WILMINGTON DISTRICT

HOWELL O. WILKINS, District Superintendent

It seems to me that much of the past year has been involved in confrontation, being exposed to new situations, and experiences for training to cope with the ever changing world in which we live. In my own life this could probably be best illustrated in the participation in the Christian Peace Conference meetings in Central Europe last fall. Here the work of this ten-year old association of Christians from different societies was crippled by the people from the Warsaw Pack countries who sought to gain control because the leadership of the Christian Peace Conference denounced the Soviet led occupation of Czechoslovakia. The dialogue between Christians of western countries, socialistic countries, and the Third World as well as their efforts toward peace has been disrupted because of this onslaught.

Another experience has offset this negative development. The formation of the DelMarVa Ecumenical Agency has brought together representatives of almost all of the Christian traditions on the Peninsula, and while diversity continues, the effort to bring together the energies and resources of the churches to provide a stronger witness and influence is bearing fruit. Likewise the development of the Conference Program Council with a sense of commitment and mission promises greater energy in our Annual Conference. The experiment with the new format in our Annual Conference session is a refreshing indication of the willingness to try new ways of involving the people of the congregations in the wider ministries of the church.

In the Wilmington District several efforts have been attempted to increase the effectiveness of the church in response to the need of the time. A good many of the pastors participated in a retreat at Drayton Manor which was organized by the Ecumenical Institute of Chicago. This exposure confronted us with some of the more dramatic attempts to revitalize the church. Many of the members of Councils on Ministry were involved in a program to help them see the possibilities for mission of this new part of the structure in our church. The Methodist Action Program has provided many resources for the churches of the district; perhaps the newest is the series of forums which have given people of the churches opportunities to know more about some of the controversial issues of our time, such as the views of Mohammed Kenyatta.

Perhaps the most significant and we hope the most influential and long-lasting new venture is the development of the Wilmington City Parish and the Wilmington District Assembly. Over 150 laymen and ministers were involved in the process which created these two organizations. This provides for a ratio of three laymen to every minister. In the District Assembly one of these laymen must be under 25. These two organizations came out of a consultation on the city which brought to focus the decline of the churches in the city, the problems of the metropolitan area itself, and the possibilities which our churches have as we work together in ministry in this setting.

We are pleased with the various congregations undergirding the world-wide work of the church through their support of apportionments. The number of churches not meeting their fair share in full dropped from 24 to 14. This helps provide much needed ministries both here and abroad, and it also illustrates a better understanding of the New Testament concept of the church.

Many churches and parsonages on the district have been renovated, repaired, and painted. Richardson Park did considerable refurbishing of their parsonage. Atonement improved grounds and parking lot. Mt. Carmel purchased a lot adjoining the church. St. Mark's completed their present sanctuary and a new social hall. Red Lion Church added new pews and carpeting. Marshallton Church has been covered with aluminum siding. Kingswood. Brookside, held a service for the burning of their first mortgage due the National Board of Missions, paid in full.

There was one birth in the District ministers' families. On April 2, 1970, a son, Charles Abraham, was born to Rev. and Mrs. Abraham R. Carey.

On August 16, 1969, William D. Pigueron and Judith Gibbons were married in Aldersgate Church, Wilmington. David Bruce Roberts and Penny J. R. Wright were married in Faith United Methodist Church, Akron, Ohio, on December 27, 1969.

While the names of those who have died are mentioned in other places, our lives have been diminished by those losses.

The cooperation of the ministers and leaders of the churches in making all our ventures and achievements possible is greatly appreciated. We have particularly enjoyed the relationships on a social level such as the gatherings of the ministers' families for dinner last summer.

(b) Boards, Commissions and Committees

COMMITTEE ON COURTESIES AND RESOLUTIONS

Bishop Lord and Members of the Conference:

In previous years we have attempted to thank as many individuals as possible for their contribution to the success of each conference session. Invariably someone has been overlooked.

This year we would like to change our procedure somewhat for two basic reasons:

First. It is humanly impossible to know of the contribution every individual has made to the success of this conference.

Second. Jesus made it quite clear that there are certain obligations which those serving him assume as a part of their duties as Christians. For the fulfillment of those responsibilities we deserve no accolades. In a sense we are all unworthy servants.

So, following that philosophy we wish to express our deepest gratitude to all who have actively participated in fulfilling the duties and responsibilities of this conference session.

We have been received well and treated graciously by our host church and district. It has been good to have been a part of an annual conference where discussion and debate could take place openly and honestly in the spirit of Christian love.

With deep appreciation we recognize the faithfulness of ministers and laymen throughout the year, and the promise of their continued faithfulness in the year to come.

In closing, we express our gratitude to God, whose love sustains us; to Jesus Christ, who saves and keeps us; and to the Holy Spirit, who leads and inspires us.

The grace of the Lord Jesus be with you all!

DALE R. PRUETT, Chairman.

I. EDUCATION AND COMMUNICATION

DRAYTON MANOR RETREAT CENTER

The Peninsula Annual Conference is most fortunate to have as valuable a resource as Drayton Manor Retreat Center. So many people have witnessed to the spiritual blessings which they have found at Drayton.

Your Committee is pleased to report that the Center continues to grow in use and in strength. Seventy-two groups used the Center this past year. Fifty-four of these were from our Conference. We find it interesting to note that the trend is toward groups planning for longer retreats now than in the past.

Several special programs have been held at Drayton this year: A Preaching Seminar for sixteen of our ministers was conducted for four days in June under the leadership of Dr. William F. Dunkle, Jr.; the retired ministers of the Baltimore Conference used the Center for three days in September and plan to return next fall. Dr. Norman Trott was the leader.

Our Program Council Retreat brought thirty-five persons to Drayton for three days in November. The Rev. Hilbert Berger of the Board of the Laity and the Rev. Charles Sorensen, gave inspired direction to the group.

The Wesley College Faculty held a two day workshop-retreat in January under the leadership of the Academic Dean, Dr. Raymond Carson.

The first in a series of Retreats, supported by the Fund for Reconciliation, was held in February with black and white churchmen from St. Michaels, Maryland participating. Dr. Haskel Miller of Wesley Theological Seminary, The Rev. Donald Howard of Washington, D. C. and Dr. Omro Todd were the resource persons. The second in this series of Retreats is to involve persons from Centreville, Maryland.

We are also happy to report that, as the use of the Center grows, Drayton is producing more of the money necessary to support itself. The Conference subsidy, which at one time was $40,000 per year, has been reduced sharply. Drayton income, exclusive of subsidy, has risen steadily from $16,961 the first full year of operation to $30,948 during the eight months of the last fiscal year. Drayton still needs Conference subsidy and still needs the special gifts and contributions of its friends, if it is to continue. However, each year through increased usage and more efficient management we hope to produce more of the money needed for operation.

The Committee and the Conference owe a special debt of gratitude to our Director, the Rev. Dr. Omro Todd and his wife, who have been so vital a part of the life and program at Drayton in these beginning years of its service to the Conference.

If your church has not yet used the facilities at Drayton Manor, we urge you to make a reservation now. We have 21 Conference groups and 13 non-Conference groups scheduled for the remainder of 1970. Several other reservations involve 1971 dates.

Respectfully submitted,

R. JERVIS COOKE, Chairman
Drayton Manor Committee

BOARD OF EDUCATION

The future of our United Methodist Church is being shaped today by many factors working for change. In the midst of change the basic concern of the conference board of education is to help persons in our churches to understand the Christian faith, commit themselves as disciples of Christ and follow Him in all of life's situations as a result of their experience of study. Because the importance of our teaching ministry cannot be overestimated, a sense of urgency has continued to characterize our efforts through the year.

A New President

At the last session of the Annual Conference Dr. Alton S. Miller, who had served as President of our board, accepted a new assignment with the National Division of the Board of Missions. In July, the Reverend Paul E. McCoy was elected president.

Changes in Staff Relations

We have been greatly handicapped this year by the lack of financial resources. This has necessitated changes in our employed staff as well as causing drastic alteration of our program. It became necessary during the year to request Mrs. G. Steele Phillips, our conference coordinator of children's ministries, and the Reverend P. Thomas McKelvey, our coordinator of Youth Ministries, to no longer serve as part-time workers. Out of a sense of dedication and great interest in the work, both of these loyal persons have, in a limited way, continued to serve on a voluntary basis.

Leadership Education

1. Children's Ministries. The new church structure requires that the leaders in children's ministries see their work expanded beyond formal educational concerns. All of the ministries with children in the church are now the concern of leaders of children. To be sure, education will be their major ministry, but this is no longer to be viewed in isolation from the other work with children. Much of the program of our children's staff has been directed toward helping local church school leaders to become at home with this enlarged concept of the children's ministry. To this end, the following programs have been projected under the leadership of Mrs. G. Steele Phillips: (1) Courses in children's ministries were offered in Christian Workers' Schools in Dover and Salisbury Districts. (2) Children's coordinators participated in District Interboard Workshops exploring new church structures. (3) Two Vacation Church School Workshops were held in the Wilmington District. (4) The Conference Coordinator participated in leadership training and day camping experiences for ages 5 and 6 at St. John's United Methodist Church, Seaford. (5) Observation classes for kindergarten teachers were also organized at St. John's Church, Seaford. (6) The Conference Coordinator participated in the School of Mission weekend and week of mission studies at Wesley College. The theme was enlarged around a lab experience for teachers of 4-6 age group. (7) An annual overnight planning session was held for coordinators of children's ministries at Drayton Manor, September 7-8. (8) The Conference Coordinator participated in leadership training experiences in the following churches: Peniel, Camden, Wesley-Dover, Peninsula, St John's-Fruitland, and Hockessin. (9) A Conference on Ministries to Children was held March 14, 1970, with the theme "Love in Human Relations." Dr. Edith Grotberg, professor of educational psychology at American University, was the leader.

2. Youth Ministries. Rev. P. Thomas McKelvey, conference coordinator, reports: The youth council has given leadership to our youth under the theme, "Involving Youth in Being the Church in Today's World." Following are some of the highlights of the year's program: (1) Fall Conference which was held over a 2 day period at Camp PeCoMeth focusing on "The Migrant Labor Problem." (2) Two New York Trips were taken under the leadership of Rev. A. Jason Blundon. Youth from Maryland and Delaware churches were privileged to visit East Harlem, Emmaus House, which ministers to the ghetto area, and the Phoenix House, a drug rehabilitation center. (3) A Youth Coordinator's Conference was held in the spring for district and subdistrict coordinators. Here an honest look at the youth ministry in our conference was taken with a view to designing a more effective ministry. (4) The Spring Conference, like the Fall Conference, was held at the camp. This was likewise a 2 day event. The focus was on the theme, "Youth Can Make a Difference." The urgent social issues of our day were faced frankly with some guidelines for action considered. (5) A Youth Leadership Consultation was held in conjunction with the Spring Youth Conference at PeCoMeth. Concerned adults were able to join with youth in their program. They also had special sessions where they considered their own tasks as leaders in the ministry with youth. (6) Youth are involved in the camping program in the following special areas—The Migrant Program, the Ocean City Ministry and they are looking forward to the Mexico Work Camp this coming summer.

3. Adult Ministries. The development of a total ministry with adults of the church is a major task facing our education staff. Since adults are largely the leaders in the church, our task for the past year has been one concerned with the area of leadership training. The special task has been in helping adults to become acquainted with their role as leaders in the new church structure. Our staff worked with the district superintendents and their district program councils in setting up and conducting workshops on the new church structure. 868 persons participated in the seven workshops held on all districts between May 1969 and January 1970. Other adults have participated in such training enterprises as The Adult Convocation at Buck Hill Falls, Pa., and the Regional Seminar on New Church Structure held at Camp Aldersgate, the conference center of the Northern New Jersey Conference. Adults have likewise participated in Christian Worker's Schools and local church workers' conferences. There remains much to be done in the ministry with young adults, as well as a more adequate ministry with our senior citizens.

4. Family Ministries. We have been able to have persons serving as family life coordinators on all districts. The staff has had one conference-wide planning meeting. The details for holding a conference on Family Life on April 11, have been completed. Dr. Leon Smith of the General Board of Education will serve as our resource person on that occasion. Task forces are at work on each district in an effort to make this conference a most significant experience. One of our goals is to help each local church to have a meaningful ministry with the families in the church and community. Rev. Donald J. Hurst, chairman of Family Life Committee, reports that a successful marriage enrichment experience was held at the Salisbury District Lay School of Religion.

5. Music Ministries. Rev. Ralph A. Ellis, chairman of the Music Committee, reports that two major undertakings have had attention this year. (1) The Youth Arts Festival was held January 25, 1970 at Wesley Church, Dover, with an approximate attendance of 350-400. This festival emphasized contemporary music while stressing use of the Methodist Hymnal. "Whom Shall I Love?" was the theme of the concluding service of worship. Mr. Thomas Mowbray, Director of Music at Wesley Church, Dover, was the resource leader and coordinator. (2) The Children's Choir Festival is scheduled for Saturday, April 18, at the auditorium of the new Centreville, Md., High School. The resource person will be Miss Virginia Cheesman, instructor at Westminster Choir College. Beyond these functions, definite plans call for a Music Workshop for choir directors, organists, and choir members to be held September 26, 1970, at Aldersgate Church, Wilmington. The resource leader will be the nationally known musician, composer, and Methodist minister, Dr. Austin Lovelace.

6. A Confirmation Laboratory School for District Superintendents and ministers was held at Chestertown and Drayton Manor, March 2-6. This venture sponsored by Peninsula, Southern New Jersey, and Wyoming Conferences in cooperation with the General Board of Education was one of 26 such enterprises held throughout the nation during the winter of 1969-70. There were 21 ministers and one district superintendent enrolled in the laboratory from the 3 participating conferences. The lab experience was conducted at First Church in Chestertown where 23 junior highs were present to form the class in Confirmation from the 3 Chestertown Churches; First, Christ, and Janes. The respective host pastors were the Reverends Walter L. Beckwith, A. Jason Blundon, and Kenneth G. Green. By this approach, supported by new teaching resources and manuals on Confirmation, a whole new beginning in youth ministry is being opened by the leaders of youth of our church. By this means, leaders of youth are seeking to bring to fulfillment, all that has gone before by way of Christian nurture in the home, the church, and the church school. It would make Confirmation the focal point of our ministry with youth. The plan is to be developed throughout the nation in four phases: (1) Confirmation—The Pastor, (2) Study Sessions on Confirmation for Pastors, (3) Regional Confirmation Laboratories, and (4) Annual Conference and District Follow-up Program. Phases 1 and 3 have already received attention; Phases 2 and 4 are yet to be launched.

7. Church School Leaders' Weekends were held in October and November. The focus of the program was on the new church structure with the theme, "New Ways for a New Day." The 60 delegates were ably led by selected leaders from churches of the conference which are having successful experiences with the new church ministries.

8. Local Church Ministries. Our staff has participated in a variety of local church settings such as workers' conferences, observation classes, counseling with local leaders, and other ways of responding to the calls of pastors.

Camp PeCoMeth, Wallace P. Smith, Director

1. Registration. Total attendance for this year—5,887. Number using picnic area—2,871. Number attending weekends during "off Season"—1,581. Number attending summer programs—1,435. Juniors—818, Junior Highs—421, Senior Highs—89, and Family Weekends—107. Forty-one percent (41%) of the summer campers came on part or full scholarships. 265 children and youth were sent by agencies such as the Neighborhood House and the Methodist Mission and Church Extension Society.

2. Types of Camping Programs. Ten different types of programs were offered for children and youth. They were: Main Camp, Barn Area, Pioneer Site, Athletic Camp, CIT, Canoe Trips, Sailing Cruises, Trip Trailer Camping, Back-packing, and the Migrant Ministry. Staff: PeCoMeth employed 58 persons for the summer. 32 staff members were college students, 4 in seminary, 9 were teachers or nurses, and 9 in high school served as Junior Counselors. All of these people were paid on the basis of "need" rather than on a pre-determined pay scale. This "step in faith" has proven to be most successful and meaningful to those involved. Some of the workers received no remuneration, while others were paid quite a liberal amount. In addition to the regular staff, the services of these leaders were supported each week by a visiting minister or Director of Christian Education.

3. A New Name For the Barn. Near to many who love PeCoMeth is the building known as The Barn. In 1960 the Conference Youth Council undertook to raise funds to adapt this building for use as a youth retreat center. For nearly ten years, reservations have had to be made a year in advance in order to have use of the premises. For some time the Barn has been in great need of renovation. Two years ago an architect, Mr. Norman H. Byar of Philadelphia, related to our National Board of Missions, was consulted. Many helpful suggestions were made, but the question was how to find the necessary funds? At the time of merger of the Delaware and Peninsula Conferences, the Delaware Conference brought assets for camping purposes in the form of a campsite near PeCoMeth of 60 acres, 40 of which is woodland, and $14,882.00 in cash. How best to use these funds has been a matter of concern on the part of the Board of Education. After much study and consultation, these funds were authorized to be used to renew "The Barn." At this writing the renovations are well underway, the actual work being done at cost, by one of our dedicated laymen, Mr. Ross Dukes, contractor and builder and a member of Epworth Church on our Blades Charge.

The Barn will have a new name. In the future, it will be known as The Delaware Conference Center, in appreciation of the contribution made by the members of the former Delaware Conference, who have provided the funds for this achievement and especially to Rev. Howard A. Bailey, under whose leadership these funds were raised. Dedication ceremonies are planned for Saturday, Sept. 12, 1970, at 3:15 P.M.

Religion and The Public Schools

Members of our staff have participated in an informal, unofficial study of the possibility of objective teaching of religion in the public schools of Delaware. The study committee is composed of public school administrators and church leaders representing the member churches of the Delaware State Council of Churches.

Christian Education Fellowship

Ministers and Directors of Christian Education, who serve as the employed staff in our local churches, are now holding informal sessions in which areas of vital concern in the field of Christian Education are discussed. The fellowship has a relationship to the national body of Christian educators which gives overall guidance to conference groups.

Campus Ministries

Under the general direction of our Committee on Higher Education, of which Mr. Ermon Foster is the chairman, we have sought to minister to the students enrolled in four of the colleges and one university within the bounds of our conference. We also serve the Christian Center at Morgan State College in Baltimore, Md. Lack of funds has greatly limited the program of the directors of these student ministries. We are grateful for the labors of these ministers serving at the following Wesley Foundations: W. Hayward Greene, Delaware State College; Richard R. Hicks, Maryland State College; John Clinton, Salisbury State College; A. Jason Blundon, Washington College; and David Riffe, the University of Delaware. Howard L. Cornish serves at the Christian Center, Morgan State College, Baltimore, Md. Space will not permit the inclusion of the reports of these Wesley Foundation Directors. These reports are, however, available in booklet form in the office of the Conference Board of Education.

Audio-Visual Library

Under the supervision of the Program Council's TRAFCO Committee, the Audio-Visual Library has continued to grow and expand. In July 1969, the new Audio-Visual Guide was provided for the churches. This guide, done with high excellence, represents diligent work, wide knowledge and contains all such resources now available to the people of our conference. The Board of Education provided more than ¾ of the funds for this project in addition to the actual preparation of the guide which was made possible through the unfailing dedication of Mrs. Miriam Shepard of the Board of Education Office. Currently, TRAFCO is supplying a part-time librarian to help in this area of service. More than 1,189 single requests have been mailed out to the churches during the year, with the volume of audio visuals actually handled exceeding 2,000.

Christian Education Sunday Offering

During 1969 an important decision was reached, which had been under consideration for a number of years. It was decided that all funds received on Christian Education Sunday would go directly to the maintenance and development of Camp PeCoMeth. The wisdom of this decision was justified when the offering in 1969 increased from $6,468 to $8,465, an approximate gain of $2,000.

Project Equality

After due study on the part of the Board of Education, it was recommended that our board make application to become a member of Project Equality of Delaware. Favorable action on this recommendation was taken by the board, September 1969.

Certification of Workers, William H. Revelle, Committee Chairman

During the year the conference board, through the office of the General Board of Education, has granted certification to the following: Rev. Frederick C. Seyfert, Jr., Minister of Education, and Mr. Thomas Mowbray, Director of Music. Both are from Wesley Church, Dover, Delaware. The following persons are continued in their present status: Ministers of Education—Rev. Clifford A. Armour, Duke University, Durham, N. C., and Rev. Fred Bruner, Asbury Church, Salisbury, Md. Directors of Christian Education—Miss Doris Hoover, Newark Church, Newark, Del.; Miss Jessie V. Stevens, Mt. Olivet, Seaford, Del.; Mrs. Felton E. May, Wilmington, Del.; and Miss Olive A. Cook, McCabe Church, Wilmington, Del. Educational Assistants—Mrs. Conrad Travers, Avenue Church, Milford, Del.; Mrs. Wallace Smith, Centreville, Md.; Mrs. Carolyn Thompson, Salem Church, Pocomoke, Md.; and Mrs. Virginia Allendorf, Christ Church, Federalsburg, Md. Directors of Music—Mrs. Wanda L. Ewing, Union Church, Federalsburg, Md.; Mrs. Genevieve R. Palmer, St. Luke's Church, Denton, Md.; Mrs. Ralph Lewis, Laurel, Del.; Mr. Joshua Tyler, St. Stephen's Church, Delmar, Del.; and Mrs. Evelyn D. Swensson, Aldersgate Church, Wilmington, Delaware.

"With Grateful Hearts"

In bringing to conclusion another report of a conference year, it is with the realization of much more, which might well be written. Space does not permit much that could be written concerning the dedicated sacrificial services rendered by many faithful persons throughout the conference in the interest of our teaching ministry. Yet, to that great number of volunteer persons who make possible the work of Christian education, we would express our thoughts and feelings of affection and appreciation.

With the conclusion of the conference year, the Reverend Howard A. Bailey and the Reverend Walter H. Stone will conclude their services to the Board of Education in their present responsibilities. In gratitude for their many opportunities of Christian service they take their leave, confident that He who came as a teacher, will continue to guide the future of the teaching ministry of our conference.

Respectfully submitted,

HOWARD A. BAILEY
WALTER H. STONE

ENLISTMENT FOR CHURCH OCCUPATIONS

Our concern this year has been the needs of district and local secretaries of enlistment. Our District Superintendents have given us fine and capable men to serve as District Secretaries who have applied themselves to gaining an understanding of the work of local secretaries. This has led to a program of training for workers on both district and local levels.

We also appreciate the District Superintendents and local ministers who have worked to secure secretaries of enlistment in local churches, as well as the men and women in the local churches who have accepted these positions. The possibilities of competent vocational guidance on the local level, and adequate enlistment throughout the Annual Conference, are now enhanced by the training of these officials.

Accomplishments of the past year include, in addition to the training of district and local secretaries set forth above, the development of a record system which makes vocational information readily available to the Bishop, District Superintendents, Annual Conference Boards, and others who might share this concern. A working relationship with the Board of Ministry has been developed which insures a cooperative system of guidance for youth interested in a career in the ordained ministry as well as the other vocational opportunities open in the Church.

Long range program plans include the following four goals:

1. presentation of the call to a church vocation to all youth and young adults in the Annual Conference.
2. understanding of a Christian philosophy of vocation by all our people and a commitment to it.
3. an active program of United Methodist Voluntary Service.
4. extension of the church's ministry of vocational guidance beyond the program of the local church.

We call on local churches to continue to select secretaries of enlistment who have a rapport with youth and young adults, and who will give their time, thought, and effort toward being effective recruiters and counselors.

We call on the Annual Conference for guidance in indicating the kind of program of enlistment and guidance that is desired, and for adequate financial support.

We call on local churches and Annual Conference Boards and Agencies to consider immediately the formation of task groups in reconciliation that can meet specific needs of this nature and can challenge young adults to satisfying service as volunteers for periods of several months or a year.

We appreciate the trend toward larger financial support. While the amount granted is less than fifty percent of the estimated cost of the program envisioned, we will move ahead as limitations permit and serve the Annual Conference to the best of our ability.

HAROLD E. WALTON, Chairman

THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF WESLEY COLLEGE

For my first report as Chairman of the Board of Trustees of Wesley College to the Peninsula Annual Conference, I wish to encompass the Religious, Academic, Student Life, and Development aspects of the College.

1. RELIGIOUS LIFE

In the midst of an era in which traditional values and ideals are under fire in every segment of society, it is heartening to know that among the faculty and administration of the College, there is a deepening concern and determination to preserve and strengthen the College character as a Christian and Church-related institution. And this without any sacrifice of educational excellence. Such concern is also shared by many students, and the Trustees have been made sharply aware of this fact by the vocal presence of two student representatives sitting at our meetings this year.

Chaplain Edward Wilkins is, of course, the key figure behind the religious programming. The Peninsula Conference has every reason to be proud of him and his effort. Under his direction, there are sixteen chapel services for the entire student body and College staff. Personal interviews with students, small group discussions, the Lenten devotional series, the Faith and Life winter Dialog (this year with Ira Zepp, Dean of the Chapel at Western Maryland), a new faculty faith and life discussion group, and a program of social concern are all part of the picture. Very helpful to the spiritual emphasis is the outstanding sacred musical work of the Chapel Choir. Courses in Bible are required of all students as part of the curriculum.

At present there are six men students and one woman committed to the ministry or Christian Education as a life work, with a score of others seriously considering the challenge. To help increase the number of students interested in the ministry as a career, we urge the ministers of the Conference to request the services of the Chaplain, or others on the Wesley staff qualified to speak, to visit your youth groups. Dr. Parker and Chaplain Wilkins are also very interested in discussing Church-College relationships with groups of ministers in area gatherings.

2. ACADEMIC

When asked about academic changes, Dean Raymond Carson replied, "The hardest job the faculty has had to face is getting used to the new Academic Dean." Indeed, he is a dynamic man. Every idea or proposal, his own included, has to muster up to a penetrating "Why?"

A mid-winter weekend retreat at Drayton Manor, at which nationally-known specialists in two-year college teaching methods and innovation worked with the faculty, made a tremendous impact. Wesley has also arranged the first Delaware college consortium in a federally supported institute slated for this summer. Notable, too, is the scheduled appearance of two state governors, Governor Peterson at the Library dedication April 18, and Governor Shafer as the Commencement speaker, May 31.

New courses, especially in the science and mathematics fields, geared more generally to the non-science major have been added. The students are doing very well indeed, with more than 10% achieving the Dean's List, and less than 5% failing at the end of the first semester.

The Nursing program continues to prove itself. Mrs. Elizabeth Roeder, chairman of this program, reports that all of the first graduating class have passed their State Board Examinations to become registered nurses. Half of them are at work in some aspect of their profession in the State of Delaware.

The new Robert H. Parker Library is serving the students even more effectively than anticipated. For example, in February of 1969, 378 books were taken out, in February of 1970, 1,358; in 1969, there were 1,079 users of the old Library, in 1970, 8,374 in the new. The Friends of Wesley, Inc., have secured $15,000.00 of their projected $20,000.00 gift for new books. The Alumni Association is currently seeking to raise $20,000.00 to help defray the cost of the new and innovative Dial Access system in the Library. The students, at their own request, are seeking funds to pay for a portrait of Dr. Parker to be hung in the Library which bears his name.

With the opening of a new 176 capacity dormitory next fall, an enrollment increase to 800 is anticipated. Seven or eight additional faculty will be required. All new faculty and staff of last year have lived up to expectations, and all contracts are being renewed for 1970-71. In the President's office, Herman Meinersmann, formerly assistant business manager, is Administrative Assistant to Dr. Parker. Elvin Cavanagh has been re-attached after his retirement on a part-time basis in the area of development.

The schedule of groups for the use of College facilities in the summer should be filled by the time this report is printed. Day-session summer school, an experiment of the past five years, has not proven to be self sustaining and will be discontinued. An eight-week summer evening session will be held.

3. STUDENT LIFE

Generally, the tone of student life has been the best of recent record. The dormitory society program initiated by William Wright, Dean of Students, is proving of great value, but will need continuing refinement as anticipated. In this program, each dormitory floor constitutes a society with its own elected officers. All student organizations are active, and the sports teams have performed well.

Enrollment for next year is considerably higher already than last year at this time, and capacity occupancy of dorms should be realized.

4. PHYSICAL DEVELOPMENT

The Library was completed in January and fully funded by Foundation grants, individual gifts, and government money. The new dormitory is being financed by the C. I. T. Corporation, with full funds provided under a fifteen year self-amortizing loan. Government money of nearly a half million dollars originally assigned to the dormitory is conditionally available for the projected College Center if the balance of the two and a half million needed for the Center can be secured this year. This goal is the key development effort at the present.

Under the astute management of Mr. William R. M. Osborne, Treasurer and Business Manager of the College, a balanced accounting is anticipated at the end of the fiscal year, June 30. The budget for 1970-71 is $2,224,660 and should be met through normal channels of income.

The coordinating committee of the Centennial Committee (that year is 1972-73), again by popular urging of faculty and students, determined that the College Chapel will be the building adopted as the project for the opening of a new century of service by Wesley in Christian higher education. The Trustees Centennial Committee is chaired by the Rev. R. Jervis Cooke, with Harry J. Jaeger, Jr., Wesley's Public Relations Director, as executive secretary.

In conclusion, let me say it has been a real privilege this year for me to serve as Chairman of the Board of Trustees. Wesley College is a truly fine institution and has a significant role to play in future years. We commend your College to you for your continued prayers and interest.

Sincerely yours,

O. H. PERRY BALDWIN
Chairman of the Board of Trustees of Wesley College

II. MISSION AND SOCIAL CONCERN

THE BOARD OF CHILD CARE

The year past has been one of heightened activity at the Board of Child Care. Unwed mothers have come, seeking help with traumatic personal problems—and asking that adoptive homes be provided their infants. From United Methodist Churches of the Baltimore and Peninsula Conferences, couples have sought children for adoption and have been thrilled at the joy little ones bring to a family. Boys and girls have been given residential care in foster homes—and in our Child Care Center in West Baltimore. The Swartzell Assembled Family program is off to an excellent start.

Highlights at the Child Care Center included:

A two-day hike on the Appalachian Trail for eight boys.
Camping throughout summer and winter by all our children.
Part-time jobs at Social Security, in the community and elsewhere.
One group of boys and girls was hired to help prepare a new school building for opening day.
Softball, track, basketball games.
A six-week summer time educational venture—"teaching" other children, but learning more than they could ever teach. This program received national attention in the journal AMERICAN EDUCATION.

We are indebted to service clubs, League of Maryland Horsemen, The Commodore's Club and others for their interest and help in providing activities for children at the Center. Residents of Manor House, Seaford, Delaware, provided uniforms for the basketball team.

Activities are fun, but more than mere pleasure; through working and playing together with others, children develop more positive attitudes. As one young lady writes, "I learned things at the Home: the most important was self-control."

Three Swartzell Assembled Family homes have been opened during the past year. This program, begun just a year ago, and financed through reimbursement by Public Welfare as well as by Swartzell Trustees, provides the Board of Child Care an opportunity to develop homes for District of Columbia children now in Junior Village—the largest institution for dependent children in America. Three couples, the Bradfords, Parkers and Campbells have responded to the need these children have for substitute parents. These people have agreed to receive four or five children each and to provide those children with long-term care. The wife receives a salary; the husband continues his regular, full time employment. Home, utilities, food and clothing allowance for the children are provided through the Assembled Family program.

Couples who would like to be considered as Assembled Family parents are urged to contact the Board of Child Care.

The Woman's Auxiliary, in addition to numerous fund raising projects, performed many services for children. They sponsored a trip to Mitchell 4-H Camp in North Carolina, planned the annual Christmas party, bought furniture and curtains for cottages. Theirs is an outstanding organization.

The Board of Child Care was granted full CERTIFICATION in October of 1969 by the Health and Welfare Certification Council of the United Methodist Church. Of sixty-five agencies for children and youth listed in the 1970 Directory of that Council, Board of Child Care is one of four granted this recognition. Certification attests to high professional standards of Christian service, to adequacy of facilities and financial structure, and to relationship with Annual Conference.

Services rendered during 1969 include:

28 adoptions completed
58 unwed mothers served
38 babies in foster homes
15 children in foster home care
8 children in Swartzell Assembled Families
89 children in residence at Child Care Center

Harold M. Davis is president-elect of Board of Child Care and will assume the office of president June 1, 1970. For the past five years Mr. Davis has been a representative of the Peninsula Conference on this Board. He has served on numerous committees including Christmas Offering and Executive. He is vice-chairman of the Board.

Mr. Davis is well known throughout the Peninsula Conference, where he is pastor of St. Mark's Church, Easton, Maryland.

Strong leadership provided by laymen and ministers of the Baltimore and Peninsula Conferences is appreciated. You have shown your concern by visits to the Center, by your promotion of the annual offering at Christmas and by many warm wishes. For all the boys and girls, "Thanks".

DONALD E. LEWIS, President
CLAUDE F. LIBIS, Executive Director

HOMES AND HOSPITALS, INC.

Concerned compassionate leadership in service to elderly persons continues to be prime objective of our Corporation. To allay the fears and frustrations of old age, to give companionship and understanding, to minister to their physical and spiritual needs, is a noble task and one which has the blessings of Almighty God. We are grateful, that, through the efforts of our Board of Trustees, the staff, and many volunteers, we have been successful in performing this great ministry for over 500 people in the past conference year.

In an attempt to help our ministers understand more clearly the myriad problems of the ever-increasing population of retirement age, two very fine workshops were conducted last year. The leadership of the Health and Welfare Ministries of the United Methodist Church, specialists in the field of aging, along with our own expertise gained through ten years' experience, made it possible to share this experience—not only with our ministers, but with all interested community groups.

Good fiscal controls and the continued support of many faithful friends have allowed us to perform a high quality service in spite of a run-away inflationary trend. Food costs, competitive wage costs and higher service costs of every description have made an impact upon operations, but we are confident that the Master will not only continue to guide those of us charged with direct responsibilities, but also those who are in sympathy with our ministry.

Both of our Homes are filled to capacity and the waiting list has grown to over 500. The average age of all residents in our Homes is 81.1 years-82.7 years at The Country House and 79.5 years at The Manor House. Even at this age level, our statistics point out the possibility that many will never enjoy the pleasures of our present homes, due to lack of space.

We are justifiably proud that the life span of our residents continues to defy all national statistics. Our level of care is unsurpassed; an interest in the total person and his every need is the thing that makes the Homes unique. This, of course, is a part of our Methodist heritage and the vision of our founding fathers.

We are happy to report that the town house project (24 homes) was completed this year, and twenty-four families are grateful for our assistance. This project did, in every sense of the word, create a climate of concern for a group of persons who, under normal circumstances, could not have become the owners of very fine homes. We are grateful for those who made it possible for us to subsidize each home in excess of $2,500.

The growing concern for the elderly continues to be a positive force in directing our attention toward community services. The needs of the elderly are varied and complex, and the affluence of the individual has little bearing on how well or to what degree his needs are fulfilled. The answer to this problem lies in the hearts of man. We are dedicated to the Christ-like approach in helping solve their problems, by seeking out and ministering to them. Our "outreach" program in the communities surrounding our Homes continues to grow. We are ministering to over 100 persons who need nursing services, companionship, housekeeping, counseling and other para-medical needs. This not only supplies individual needs, but it builds Christian involvement in our churches and volunteer members of the community.

The benevolent ministry of our Homes constantly expands, even in the absence of new residents being accepted on scholarship agreements. We are forced to hold this ratio to the 25% level for monetary reasons. Over one-third of the original residents at The Country House (who were admitted either on scholarships or at the prevailing monthly fee at the time of $150.00) are still enjoying the comforts of our Homes. The attached schedule shows that pure scholarships—those who did not have the full entrance fee or sufficient income for monthly fees—cost $144,000. This is the figure that is always presented to our Annual Conference for support of our operations, but this is only one-third of our total benevolence costs of $475,000.

The life span of many of our residents has exceeded the years projected by actuarial tables; thus, many who were deemed to have sufficient funds for lifetime care have outlived their resources. This condition does not point up poor fiscal controls, but rather a fact of life that was non-existent ten years ago. No one knew the effect that tender, loving care, lack of decision-making, lack of responsibility and renewed interest would have on the life of the individual. Statistical information gained through ten years of operations has shown us the necessity of contract changes, which would allow us to use supplemental state and federal funds. But more importantly, we believe that what we are doing, and have accomplished, is good for mankind and right in the sight of God our Father.

The mortgage of The Manor House at Seaford continues to decline in a very satisfactory manner. We were able to reduce the mortgage by $245,000 since our last conference report, and are grateful to those who have contributed for this purpose.

Both our properties are in excellent condition. The relatively low cost of maintenance points up the wisdom of our trustees in building the type and quality homes we now enjoy. Those who visit the Homes are amazed when they see their condition, knowing the normal wear caused by the daily use of the homes by over 300 people.

We are proud of the fact that our Conference, through its programs, serves the total Methodist communion. Education, social concerns, the local church, and retirement is almost a "cradle to the grave" approach to full commitment for mankind in general, but the population change which is rapidly taking place makes it mandatory for us to give serious consideration to placing additional emphasis on providing for the elderly. There are presently in excess of 60 million persons over 65 years of age, and it is estimated that this figure will grow to 80 million in ten years. United Methodists—through 300 health and welfare agencies—cared for over 55,000 persons daily last year. United Methodist Church Agencies, such as our Homes, provided more than 50 million dollars in free and part-pay services. Naturally, all this is not provided by Methodist Church support alone, and would indicate that other denominations and people in general, have compassion for what Methodists are doing for the aging population. We should not, therefore, allow ourselves to be content with what has been accomplished, because of the ever growing need.

The programs in our Homes are designed to help our local churches, and the staff would be delighted with the opportunity to serve. The task which lies ahead is far too large to be handled by individuals, but working together, our ministry can be a meaningful contribution to mankind. A great deal of misunderstanding of the purpose and operations has existed in the past. We are most anxious to correct this and invite inquiry from the churches we represent. Full disclosure of our successes, our problems and projections will continue to be made to our Annual Conference.

The Board of Trustees, at last December's meeting, appointed Mr. J. Wallace Watson as Executive Director of this corporation. Mr. Watson had served as acting Executive Director since the death of the Reverend George H. Pigueron, Jr., and has demonstrated leadership ability and understanding of the needs for good fiscal controls. We are well pleased with his accomplishments during this period of adjustment.

We are grateful for the help and encouragement of the Cabinet and Conference Council during the past year, and will strive to merit the continued support of our entire Conference.

BROOKS E. REYNOLDS, President
Board of Trustees

Notes:

1—46% of our residents either do not have an escalation clause or cannot have monthly fee increased due to hardship. Annual loss due inflation $331M. (Scholarship performed $475M—benevolence granted $144M.)

2—Total Fees received is 72% of cost of resident care. This means 28% of monies necessary to operate (not including capital expenditures—new or replacement) must be raised from sources other than resident fees. Benevolence equals about 9% of our total costs.

3—Cost of resident care per month ($285) does not include depreciation. If such costs were included, the fee would total $335 per month and total scholarship performed would approximate $746M. Also excluded are mortgage interest payments.

4—Average monthly fee received from all residents is $198. The average scholarship resident pays $93 per month representing 46% of the full pay amount at entrance. This means the church is assuming 54% of the average scholarship's costs.

METHODIST MISSION AND CHURCH EXTENSION SOCIETY, INC.

A.

The basic program and policies of the Methodist Mission and Church Extension Society, Inc. of the Wilmington District, commonly referred to as the Methodist Action Program or MAP, have been outlined in previous Annual Conference reports. I shall point out, however, developments of particular interest or importance that have occurred since the writing of the 1969 report.

(1) Old Asbury Renovation. In 1967 the Society purchased for $15,000, Old Asbury Church, Third and Walnut Streets, Wilmington, the oldest Methodist church in Wilmington; it had been sold in 1957 to the Christian Methodist Episcopal Church. In September, 1968 a major renovation project was begun with the costs being underwritten with funds provided through the Greater Wilmington Housing Corporation. This project, costing $150,000, involved extensive renovations, but did not include the complete renovation of the church; $30,000 more was needed to accomplish this. Aldersgate United Methodist Church, under the leadership of the late Rev. James R. Hughes, obtained pledges from its members to give this amount over a three year period. On the basis of these pledges, a loan was obtained and the renovation completed. The church is now in excellent physical condition to house a significant program of service, outreach and worship. The Society is deeply appreciative of the assistance it has received in this endeavor from the Greater Wilmington Housing Corporation (Mr. James A. Grady, president; Mr. Henry B. duPont, board chairman; Mr. James H. Gilliam, executive director) and from Aldersgate United Methodist Church.

(2) Operation Leaven. This educational-action program, designed to bring about greater racial understanding and justice, has had a successful year under the leadership of its full time director, Miss Nancy J. Osgood. Its multi-session RAP course (Racial Attitudes and Perspectives), which seeks to sensitize white people to what it means to be black and live in this white dominated society, has been given to twelve groups in eleven churches. Feedback indicates that attitudes are being changed for the better through this course. Five MAP Forums have been presented which have explored through drama, lectures, and panel presentations, subjects pertinent to the problem of racism: the nature of prejudice, the Black Manifesto, Black Power, the effects of racism and the effects of the conference merger. In the summer of 1969, a vacation church school was held involving children, youth and teachers from both city and suburban churches. It was a successful venture in this ministry of reconciliation and will be repeated this summer, 1970. A project is also being carried on to encourage people of good will and understanding to call in on radio talk shows. Operation Leaven is partially underwritten through a grant received from the Fund for Reconciliation.

(3) Operation Rescue. The Society now has underway a program designed to motivate high school drop-outs to return to school or enter into vocational training. Six young men have been employed and trained to do this difficult work of relating alienated, drop-out youth to various kinds of educational and job training opportunities. It is this drop-out group, growing larger, which causes a great deal of the unrest, petty thievery and mugging in the city. The church through MAP is seeking to reach them.

(4) Campership. In the summer of 1969, MAP provided scholarship aid totaling $4,333 to send 145 children and youth to Camp PeCoMeth.

(5) United Stewardship Campaign. MAP worked with six Wilmington churches (Brandywine, Ezion, Harrison Street, Haven, Mt. Carmel and Mt.

Joy) in carrying out a united stewardship campaign. This joint program was a successful effort in terms of money raised, morale lifted, the development of a greater sense of unity among the churches, the recruitment of new members and the development of leadership.

(6) Community Developer. MAP helped Ezion Church obtain funds from the Community Developer program of the Division of National Missions for the employment of a man to work with Ezion in its effort to relate more creatively to various community problems, and to people who are not churched. He is one of seven Methodist Community Developers in the nation.

(7) Church and Community Consultations. On February 21, a conference was held of the ministers and three laymen from every City of Wilmington Methodist church to consider the problems of the churches and the city, and how the churches can work together to meet them. Out of this, grew a desire to involve all churches of the district and so, on April 4, a conference was held with ministers and three laymen from every church on the district. These conferences have resulted in the establishment of priorities in regard to church programs, the development of clustering arrangements of churches to facilitate their working together and the restructuring of the operation of the Methodist Action Program, so it can more effectively serve throughout the Wilmington district. Preliminary meetings have also begun with clergy and laity of the Middletown-Odessa-Townsend churches in terms of developing a more united ministry in that area.

(8) Local Church Programs. MAP continues to work with local churches in the development and, sometimes, the financial support of community oriented programs. These activities involve about 1,200 persons as participants and entail the employment of a number of community people as part time aids.

(9) Agency Participation. The professional and non-professional staff people, who are related to the Methodist Action Program, are involved in over 25 social-service, civic or other type of urban oriented agencies. Through such participation they bring the perspectives of the Christian faith to bear on many significant decision making processes. It should also be noted that the Methodist Action Program, as an agency, cooperates with many other church and secular groups.

B.

In all these and other activities MAP is seeking to realize its three goals.

(1) To strengthen the local churches in their ministries of outreach, evangelism and service in order that individuals might come through them to a fuller life in Christ and the churches may become stronger forces for justice and Christian fellowship in the local communities.

(2) To meet human needs as they are manifested in the communities where the churches are located.

(3) To work for social change toward the goal of a more just and humane society in which each person will be free and able to find the resources to realize his full potential as a child of God.

The Society also seeks to carry on its planning and work in view of the policies of the Department of Urban Ministries of the Division of National Missions. The following quotation from a document of the Division serves as a guideline for planning:

"During the seventies the Department of Urban Ministries will be deeply involved with planning and strategy and how these relate to program and finance. This will mean that we will want to be engaged with you in a more effective means of evaluating priority needs facing you and financial resources available to you.

"Within this context we call your attention to what we consider to be priorities in metropolitan missions; minority empowerment; metropolitan enabling structures (both denominational and interdenominational); action training; community organization; specialized action and issue-centered ministries. We would urge you to evaluate your program in the light of these priorities."

C.

Reference was made above (A-7) to a conference held for the United Methodist Churches located in the City of Wilmington. Factual information worked up for that conference clearly indicated the critical situation of Methodism in Wilmington. There are now 14 churches on 13 charges. Unless there is a dramatic reversal of present trends, at least several of these churches will be closed within a few years.

The facts are these: (1) Since 1955 the total membership for these churches has decreased 2,651, from 9,571 in 1955 to 6,920 in 1969. This is a 28% decrease. The city population decreased 15% in this period. (2) Sunday School attendance has decreased from an average of 2,026 per Sunday in 1955 to an average of 1,108 in 1969 or a 40% decrease. (3) Baptisms have decreased from 364 in 1955 to 99 in 1969 or a decrease of 73%. (4) In terms of age, the median age of the church members is much higher than that of the median age of city residents. (5) Racially, the city is about 55% white and 45% black; the church membership is 80% white and 20% black. (6) In the white churches (10 of the 14 churches) 51% of the leadership and 54% of the total membership live outside the city. Only a small percentage of the leadership and membership of the black churches live outside the city.

These figures, taken together, have a serious message. They indicate that the churches are declining in membership at twice the rate of the population loss of the city, that they are not getting new people from the city and particularly young, black people and that the Sunday Schools are not attracting neighborhood children and youth. Urban church history and experience reveal that there can only be a few churches of any denomination that can rely on a metropolitan area for their membership; most churches must have a high percentage of neighborhood people in attendance or they will perish.

The causes of this critical situation are multiple, but a fundamental one was the failure of the white, middle class oriented churches to encourage membership from their communities when these communities began to change racially and socially. Then, when it became apparent that survival depended upon getting community people as members, the image of the church had already been established as a non-hospitable one and the condition was further aggravated by the racial polarization that began to grow throughout the nation.

Through realignment of churches, group ministries, aggressive programming, willingness to accept new people into leadership positions, active solicitation of people to become part of the church family, there may be some churches that can survive. It may be necessary, however, for some congregations to vacate their buildings entirely and allow new congregations to be started from scratch.

In short, the nature of the crisis will demand radical changes, large financial subsidies, willingness to try approaches on which we have not yet ventured. The work done in the city in the last five years has helped to serve human needs, has created a fairly good image for the United Methodist Church, and has resulted in some changed lives, but it has not had the effect of causing many people to become members of local congregations. Whether or not that happens is largely dependent upon the attitudes of the members of the various congregations and the images the ministers have in the communities.

If the United Methodist Church wishes to maintain a Christian witness in Wilmington, it must be willing to continue for some time to subsidize efforts there and even to increase its financial support. It must also be willing to allow various kinds of experimentation to go on. It is the most urgent mission field we have, for here are found not only thousands of people who do not know Christ, but also here are found the conditions that can throw this nation into even more violent urban disturbances that will be costly to all people, no matter where they live.

D.

The total income in the calendar year 1969 was $138,097.18. Of this amount 26% or $35,904.85 came from the Peninsula Conference Board of Missions. A total of $87,123.67 or 63% of the money had to be raised by the Society from various persons, churches and foundations. The Division of National Missions contributed 5% of the total, the Reconciliation Fund 4.3% and 1.7% came from miscellaneous sources.

Although the amount allotted from the Board of Missions' budget for this work has been increased for 1970 to about $50,000, it will still cover only about 25-30% of the cost of the total program. The rest must be raised by the Society. As pointed out in previous reports, this puts the continuance of this work on a very fragile basis. Greater support from the Annual Conference must be forthcoming or the urban oriented ministry in which MAP is engaged will be severely curtailed, while the demands for it will continue to grow.

Christ leads us into a difficult ministry in the streets and alleys, slums and ghettoes, schools and shops, parks and pool rooms of the city to bring release to the captives, sight to the blind, healing to the sick, good news to the poor, salvation to all. May we have the courage and will to follow Him there.

Respectfully submitted,

RICHARD C. STAZESKY, Executive Director.
HOWELL O. WILKINS, President.

THE BOARD OF MISSIONS

The Eastern Ecumenical Conference on Christian Mission, which was attended by eleven official delegates of the Peninsula Conference, provided inspiration and guidance for the Board of Missions during the past Conference Year. We have reorganized the Board, in accordance with the 1968 Discipline, to emphasize Promotion and Cultivation, Mission and Church Extension, and Parish and Community Development.

During the year, three general meetings of the Board were held, plus five meetings of the Executive Committee. Your Chairman served on the Conference Program Council, attended the Consultation on Goals for the proposed new Delmarva Ecumenical Agency, and served as an ex officio member of the MAP Board of Directors and of the Neighborhood House Directors.

Following the action of the 1969 Annual Conference the former Town and Country Committee work was made a part of the Board's responsibility. As directed by the 1969 session, we worked together with the District Superintendents in helping churches to raise their Conference and World Service Apportionments. The reports to the Annual Conference will show a considerable advance in the percentage raised, and for this we are most grateful.

The Board of Missions labored diligently to live within the budget limitations of the Conference to meet the financial obligations and Commitments to carry out our mission. We were able to meet all salary items, but some loan commitments to churches for building projects had to be deferred. We were embarrassed and we share our concern with the churches of the conference as we face the commitments of the present Conference year.

Promotion and Cultivation: The Conference Missionary Secretary and the five district secretaries did an excellent job in Education and Cultivation. District seminars and local Church Schools of Christian Mission were promoted, and good imagination was used to tell "the story" and to help reach our people. We plan to make "The Night of World Vision" an annual occasion. The promotion of Advance Specials was an important emphasis. The Missionary speakers who itinerated on the districts during the month of Cultivation were able and well received.

Mission and Church Extension: The Committee on Missions and Church Extension was organized and has begun its work of evaluating MAP and other Mission and Church extension programs in the Conference. A distinct need is felt that we should make a survey of developing and changing areas of population within the Conference boundaries, with a view to making projections of new churches, consolidations and relocations over the next several years. The Committee is in the process of studying the Conference area, district by district, in consultation with the District Superintendents.

Parish and Community Development: This is the area of seeking to relate the Church to the Community and to enable the churches to assess their resources and to work together with one another and as groups in meeting community needs. We envision increasingly greater involvement with other denominations on an ecumenical basis. We expect to work closely with the National Division in the Community Developer Program. The Committee urges the Conference to support a Parish and Community Development emphasis during the immediate year.

Urban Work: See the report by the Methodist Mission and Church Extension Society, as it relates the work of Methodist Action. The Board has maintained a close working relationship with MAP, and commends it for its excellent program. The urgency for Christian Mission and involvement in the urban crisis cannot be emphasized enough. Especially we call the attention of the Conference to the need for greater financial support of MAP, thru the Mission budget, rather than dependence on local financial support by churches and individuals.

Neighborhood House: We commend the Directors and Staff of Neighborhood House for the leadership in involving community participation in its program. It is noteworthy that so many volunteers from inner city and suburban churches are giving regular weekly service in tutoring, recreation, and craft work.

Migrant Ministry: The Conference has continued to give a small amount to the Migrant Ministry Program in Delaware and the Eastern Shore of Maryland. We commend churches for their support thru direct gifts and services.

The Blue Hen Mall Ministry and Other Specialized Ministries: The Blue Hen Mall Ministry was launched last year and has been establishing a significant experimental ministry in the Dover Area. We would call attention to the need of exploring and meeting the challenge of Christian Ministry in the growing seashore resorts within our Conference boundaries. The St. Matthews By The Sea Summer Church at Fenwick Island has been growing significantly each year.

Recommendations for Action by The Conference:

1. That Richard D. Bailey be reappointed Conference Missionary Secretary for the 1970-71 Conference Year.

2. That the month of February be designated as Missionary Cultivation Month.

3. That the Conference continue to move toward a Conference-wide Parish-Community type ministry, and that the services and resources of MAP be made available to churches and groups of churches in communities throughout the Conference.

4. That, in pursuance of the above, the Conference embark on a Parish and Community Development emphasis in 1970-71, to assist and enable individual churches and groups of churches to evaluate themselves and to come to grips with Community problems and needs. It is envisioned that we will become involved with other denominational groups on an ecumenical basis.

5. That a continuing review be made of current and prospective church extension projects to develop long-range strategies, including new projects, consolidations, and specialized ecumenical ministries.

6. That the Board of Missions be authorized to take advantage of the Community Developer Program as offered by the National Division, to strengthen the ministry of the local church, thru relevant involvement in the community.

In Conclusion, we wish to express appreciation to so many who make possible the many-faceted program for which The Board of Missions is responsible. We trust that the members of the Annual Conference will by their support help the Board to go forward to meet the challenge of Christian Mission in the world today.

Respectfully submitted,

GEORGE W. GOODLEY,
Chairman, Board of Missions

THE BOARD OF CHRISTIAN SOCIAL CONCERNS

"Social Concerns are not, of course, some 'extra' tacked on to the real business of the church. Instead, they are the context within which mission and evangelism take place."

The changing times seem to have affected our board's style and effectiveness of operation. Our continued task, however, is to understand and break down those barriers which thwart the healing of human needs, development and equality. To this end we must examine ourselves and our institutions and challenge the causes of human ills and bring them before the judgment of the Christian Gospel. We believe that Christ died for all men. God sent His Son for all mankind. The implicit meaning of this is that as followers of Christ our concern must be directed toward the welfare of all men. Does our Christian Witness reflect His truth?

During this past conference year one of our concerns has been that of strengthening the employment of minority groups through Project Equality. Presently our deeds have not followed our words. The Peninsula Conference Churches are not supporting this program as they should. In fact, we are at a very low percentage in commitment to the project. Our Conference Agencies have committed themselves to this affirmative plan of encouraging businesses to up grade the employment of minorities. While there are other pressing issues, they must not become excuses for noncommittal of our churches to this effort. Our board will seek to help our churches accelerate the rate of participation in the project so that it will become an effective force in employment practices.

Racism remains a root cause of many social ills. Racism may be viewed as "any attitude, action or institutional which subordinates a person or group because of his or their color." In America it is the visibility of skin color that often marks one as a target for subordination. It is not to be seen as an excuse for the behavior of Blacks but as a factor which curtails full humanity. Racism is a social evil plotted against human development. It is both conscious and unconscious. The unconscious type is the more dangerous. Our conference must both recognize and expose the traces of racism in its churches and institutions and seek to eradicate its cancerous sores.

Housing, both adequate and open, still remains to be a grave problem in our conference area. The church must use its power to urge that decent housing be constructed and made available to all citizens. The greater need exists in the low income ranges. The system of housing has direct relationship to the school and education system. The oneness of people will be greatly affected when housing patterns become changed to a free and open market style.

The Welfare system of our Country leaves something to be desired. The church has a particular task to constantly examine and forge a changed approach that will humanize rather than destroy humans. Support of good and improved legislation is a key way in which churches can help.

A new area of concern is that of ecology. This is a must in terms of study and action since man has a responsibility to the Creator and creation. Environmental pollution has become a grave problem locally as well as nationally. We must take precautions as individuals, churches, and communities not to contribute to the growing gravity of this problem if we desire to live in health on this planet.

Alcohol and drug abuse is an alarming problem in our society. A record shows a New York City statistic where 900 deaths were attributable to heroin. Of the 900, 240 victims were teenagers including 20 under age 15. Teenage death (heroin) toll has risen 300% in the last year and will continue to rise say medical officials. The Delaware and Maryland statistics are only smaller or unwritten. We have a tremendous need for education and action in this area. Help must be given to youth who are not yet involved as well as those who are caught with this animal. Support to good legislation will help with this problem which is the cause of much crime.

This report does not seek to answer all the problems but rather to bring some areas to our attention. Often, in looking at the problems which confront us we become overwhelmed. No board or agency can force a church to do a task. What we do ask is for churches not to ignore the social issues of our day, but to do that which has high unselfish priority and to cooperate as a connectional church for support of conference and universal goals.

We recommend: (1) that the special Calendar Emphasis be observed as follows: Church and Economic Life Week, Race Relations Sunday, Rural Life Sunday, Labor Sunday, UN Week and World Order Sunday and Drug and Alcohol Concerns Sunday.

(2) that all United Methodists live out the faith as Christians in regard to the social issues of our day.

Respectfully submitted,

ABRAHAM R. CAREY, Chairman.

WOMEN'S SOCIETY OF CHRISTIAN SERVICE

This year has gone by all too quickly. We began this administration in May 1969. In June all of the Conference officers and District Presidents attended the Upper Atlantic Regional School of Christian Mission held at Albright College, Reading, Pennsylvania. In July we co-operated with the Annual Conference Board of Missions and Board of Education in a School of Mission at Wesley College, Dover, Delaware. A weekend session was held to accommodate the employed people with only 57 in attendance . . . mostly women. A five-day session followed with 103 in attendance . . . mostly women. Literature sales for both sessions amounted to $826.64.

The Women's Society is co-operating in a similar School this year. A week-end session to be held July 10-12 and a five-day session to follow—July 13-17. We are hoping that more men will attend this year. We would also like to have a good representation from the youth groups of our churches. All the ministers and local district Commissions of Education and Missions have received full information.

In September the Wesleyan Service Guild met for a week-end at Drayton Manor. Mrs. Sylvanus Browne, Jr., Conference Guild Chairman, was in charge of the program which included an informal, inspiring and informative session with Mrs. Kenneth S. Barto, Northeastern Jurisdiction Women's Society/Guild President.

A Conference-wide meeting was held in Asbury United Methodist Church, Salisbury, Maryland in November. There were approximately 350 women and men in attendance. This was a truly inspirational gathering. Rev. Howard L. Gordy, pastor of Silverbrook United Methodist Church in Wilmington spoke on the subject "The Inner Life." His words and the music furnished by two young people from Silverbrook Church will long be remembered by all who heard them.

In March of this year—1970—45 women attended the Northeastern Jurisdiction Annual meeting in Atlantic City. In May a large delegation will attend the General Assembly of the Women's Society of Christian Service and the Wesleyan Service Guild to be held in Houston, Texas. In June all of the Conference officers and Deans of the Conference School of Christian Mission will attend the Regional School of Mission at Albright College.

In spite of all the difficulties of church mergers and changes in procedure and programs which we have experienced the past few years, the women in our churches have studied and sought to understand and accept them. Many hours of work have gone into interpreting these changes and while there may still be some rough spots, we are not worried. Our women can be counted on to do their very best. Women's Society and Wesleyan Service Guild members are to be found working on the Boards and Commissions of the local churches, serving as members of District and Conference committees and many are also engaged in activities apart from the church on local, state and national levels. They are contributing the Christian leaven so badly needed in our political, social and economic life today. Their sincere interest in the church is reflected in their pledge of $95,000.00 to the Women's Division of the Board of Missions for the year 1970.

To conclude this report, I would paraphrase some words of the Apostle Paul: "Friends, we had to tell you about the grace of generosity God has imparted to the women of Peninsula Conference. The troubles they have been through have tried them hard. Yet, in all this, they have been so happy to share what they have with others, going to the limit of their resources (as I can testify) and even beyond that limit. Their giving has surpassed our expectations, for they first gave of themselves unto the Lord. What has been done has not been merely a contribution towards the needs of God's people; more than that, it overflows in a flood of thanksgiving to God for the richness of His grace."

The women of Peninsula Conference join with me in saying "thanks be to God for His gift beyond words. We rest not upon past achievements but press on toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus."

(MRS ORIEN E.) LUCILLE MANGUM, PRESIDENT.

III. PROGRAM AND ECUMENICAL AFFAIRS

THE DELAWARE COUNCIL OF CHURCHES

In its eleventh year, the Delaware State Council of Churches continued to be an instrument of its member judicatories for working together in activities which were important to them. By action of the Executive Board of the Delaware Council, these included co-operation in planning and carrying out a Consultation On Goals for the Mission of the Seventies On Delmarva. Held at Drayton Manor in February, 1969, this led to the adoption of specific goals and action to consider an inclusive agency for the peninsula by which these goals could be implemented. As a result, a second consultation was held at Easton in September, 1969. Out of this has come a definite proposal for a new ecumenical agency to be open to all "Christian communities called to work on the Delmarva Peninsula." The Peninsula Conference has been represented on the committee preparing the preliminary draft proposal. Besides the other member churches of the Delaware and Maryland Councils of Churches, the Catholic Diocese of Wilmington and the Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod have also had representatives on this drafting committee.

Besides the work involved in this paving of the way for a possible regional ecumenical agency, the Delaware Council has been carrying out the following chosen from a larger list:

1. Spearheaded the collection in Delaware of the largest amount of clothing for Church World Service in eight years—17,500 pounds.

2. Doubled the amount given in Delaware—$1,535—for Church World Service processing costs, blankets, and food.

3. Through its Department of Church Women United, acted as host for the national evaluation of Christian Causeways—Latin America.

4. Authorized its Department of Christian Education to set up an A-V Evaluation Panel to review filmed material at the invitation of the Department of Educational Development of the National Council of Churches.

5. In cooperation with the Wilmington Council of Churches set up a Task Force on a Joint Radio Ministry on Delmarva.

6. Continued its Migrant Ministry program and expanded its work among Spanish-speaking seasonal employees in Sussex County; also, for the first, had a chaplain during the fall months among the Spanish-speaking in the Dover area.

a. Through its sponsorship of the Delaware Migrant Health Project, by means largely of a $23,000 grant from the United States Public Health Service, provided a broad range of health services to the state's seasonal workers. Close cooperation from the State Board of Health and donation of "in kind" funds from the Board and the Migrant Ministry made continuance of this project possible.

At its October, 1969, Eleventh General Assembly, the Council elected the Rev. Raymond C. Best, pastor of St. Andrew's Lutheran Church, Dover, President. The Rev. J. Gordon Stapleton of Avenue United Methodist Church, Milford, was elected Vice-President. As the Delaware State Council of Churches looks forward to a possible new life in the proposed Delmarva ecumenical agency, it is grateful for the continued cooperation of the Peninsula Conference in its work and witness.

Respectfully submitted,

SAMUEL A. SNYDER, JR.
Executive Secretary

THE COMMISSION ON ECUMENICAL AFFAIRS

Our Commission has had several meetings during this conference year, and these have enabled us to provide leadership in several areas of ecumenical work. We were instrumental in encouraging local churches in our conference to participate in service during the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity.

The Rev. Thomas C. Short represented our conference at the National Workshop on Christian Unity, which was held in Kansas City, Kansas, and sponsored by the Roman Catholic Church. We plan for our conference to continue to be represented at meetings such as these.

Consultation on Church Union

Members of our commission were very much involved in planning and executing the C.O.C.U. Services which were held in Dover, Wilmington, Chestertown and Easton on C.O.C.U. Sunday, April 12th.

A Plan of Union for The Church of Christ Uniting has been commended to the Churches for study and response by the Consultation on Church Union. This Plan of Union is, or soon will be, available for all pastors through your District Superintendent. Local churches are encouraged to purchase their own copies for study within their community. It is imperative that we study this Plan of Union with other Christian Persons of other judicatories.

Delmarva Ecumenical Agency

The greatest responsibility our commission has had this year has been to help develop and interpret the plan for creating a new ecumenical agency for the DelMarVa Peninsula. As a result of the Consultation on Goals for the Mission of the Church in the 70's on the DelMarVa Peninsula, held at Drayton Manor on February 4 and 5, 1969, and a Second Consultation held at Easton, Maryland, September 24-25, 1969, this plan is now presented to our Annual Conference for adoption.

A Plan For Creating A New Ecumenical Agency For The Delmarva Peninsula

PREAMBLE

We, Churches, which accept Jesus Christ as Lord and Saviour and which work on the DelMarVa Peninsula, do covenant together to create an ecumenical agency. The purpose of the agency is to provide a vehicle for sharing and implementing our ministries, and to invite the cooperation of all other religious and secular agencies.

BASIC ASSUMPTIONS

1. That the units of membership shall be the Christian communities called to work on the DelMarVa Peninsula.
2. Of primary importance is membership of judicatories chief executive officers on the Administrative Board along with an over-all balance of clergy and laity including women, youth and minority groups.
3. That the geographical area shall include the entire DelMarVa Peninsula—the three counties of Delaware, the nine counties of Maryland, the two counties of Virginia.
4. That there will be designated divisions (functional and/or geographical) for purposes of planning and program development.
5. That the agency be seen as an arena in which the member judicatories can identify issues and concerns and determine ways and means to implement necessary programs.

6. That the new agency will employ a full-time staff.
7. That the new ecumenical agency will replace the Delaware State Council of Churches and the Council of Churches of Wilmington and New Castle County and will, as soon as possible, assume the conciliar work on the Peninsula now carried on by the Maryland and Virginia Councils of Churches, and that new liaison and cooperative relationships between the new agency and continuing Councils of Churches and other ecumenical agencies will be developed.

STRUCTURE

1. The policy is set by an Administrative Board, which meets not more than twice a year. Each member judicatory, by its own process, selects its representatives to the Administrative Board according to this formula:
   (a) Representation is based on Baptized membership resident on the DelMarVa Peninsula.
   (b) Under 15,000 Members—2 representatives, plus Chief Executive Officer; 15,000-50,000 Members—3 representatives, plus Chief Executive Officer; Over 50,000 Members—5 representatives, plus Chief Executive Officer.
2. The Chief Executive Officer is the head of each Judicatory Delegation.
3. The term of office of each Judicatory Delegation is determined by the Judicatory, but for a period not less than one year.
4. The officers of the Administrative Board are selected by the members of the Board.
5. The continuing work of the Administrative Board is conducted by the Executive Committee selected by the Administrative Board; each Judicatory being represented on the Executive Committee.
6. The Administrative Board appoints the Executive Director. He is supervised by and reports to the Executive Committee.
7. For the purpose of staff operation, the Executive Director co-ordinates two functional divisions: Metropolitan and Peninsula.

FINANCES

The following tentative budget was approved for the first year's operation of the New Ecumenical Agency: Note: This Budget, for basic administration, is prepared with the thought that there will be two separate offices. Additionally, it should be remembered that Task Forces will be developed for specific projects. The budget for those Task Forces is not included in this document. Rather this is a possible budget for the basic organization, and all member religious bodies will share in meeting this budget.

The tentative Administrative Budget for the DelMarVa Ecumenical Agency, which does not include program costs, is $75,250.00.

The following is a summary of the 1968 income for all purposes for the following organizations for work on the DelMarVa Peninsula:

Wilmington and New Castle County Council of Churches: $60,600.00
Delaware State Council of Churches: $17,139.00
Maryland Council of Churches: $20,273.00
Total Income for all purposes from these organizations for the year 1968: $98,012.00

It is recommended that each Judicatory and local church continue to give the same amount in the first year of the Ecumenical Agency as they have been giving in the past, and that additional sources of income be sought.

1. The Judicatory and the local churches are encouraged to send the money through their own accounting systems.

2. Each Judicatory is urged to reach out to those local churches that have not been contributing to the Councils of Churches and urge them to contribute.

In the future, it is recommended that all Judicatories contribute on the basis of the total current expenditures of the Churches.

MEMBERSHIP AND PARTICIPATION

A. Membership

Membership in the DelMarVa Ecumenical Agency is open to the Judicatories of the several religious communities which have units on the DelMarVa Peninsula. Local Units of Christian Communities on the Peninsula who wish to affiliate with the DelMarVa Ecumenical Agency may be admitted into membership on such basis as approved by the Administrative Board.

B. Participation

Each member unit, as well as non-member unit, is free to participate in any project or program which develops as a result of the Agency's work, upon satisfying the requirements for participation in that particular Program. Each member unit is likewise free not to participate in any program developed as a result of the Agency's work, without prejudice to its basic membership, and without participating in the funding of the specific program.

C. Statements

Statements which bear the implication of agency sponsorship are to be arrived at only by unanimous vote of the Administrative Board. On such items, each Judicatory has one vote. On all others matters, each representative is entitled to one vote.

Recommendations:

1. That the Peninsula Annual Conference adopt the Plan for Creating a New Ecumenical Agency for the DelMarVa Peninsula, and that the Program Council appoint representatives from our Conference to work with others in the further development of this agency.

2. That we encourage each local church to have an in-depth study of the Plan of Union given us by the Consultation on Church Union.

Respectfully submitted,

THOMAS C. SHORT, Chairman.

THE MARYLAND COUNCIL OF CHURCHES

The Peninsula Conference, as a member of the Maryland Council of Churches, has supported this ecumenical agency by being a member, giving financial support and having both lay persons and clergymen participating in projects and programs.

Those projects which closely relate to the nine counties of Maryland on the Eastern Shore include the following:

The Migrant Ministry continued the Day Care Center at Westover for the 10th year and, helped by funds from the Conference, opened a Day Care Center in Jonestown for children of migrants. These centers recorded over 2,000 child care days. Chaplains and coordinators also were active in the counties.

The State Park Ministry included services in 4 state parks on the Eastern Shore last summer. The Martinak Park services began because laymen became interested in the project and, working within the guidelines established by the Maryland Council of Churches with the Maryland Department of Forests and Parks, initiated the services. The Elk Neck Park had the largest attendance at services, 2,225. Assateague and Shad Landing Parks also expanded their programs. This summer the National Park at Assateague will be included in the ministry. Success in this work depends largely on local churches responding to the opportunities made available through the Council Guidelines with the Department of Forests and Parks.

State legislation had a prominent place in church concerns this year. The Annual Legislative Seminar, sponsored by the Council in Annapolis, had attendance from every county in Maryland. Governor Marvin Mandel was so impressed with this program, that he commended the Council: "I want to congratulate the Maryland Council of Churches for its deep and continuing interest in the operation and function of government in Maryland." . . . (It) "has publicly demonstrated its concern for good government by sponsoring the Annual Maryland Churchmen's Legislative Seminar." . . . "I assure you that you will have my continued support in your future endeavors."

The publication of The Communicator by the Council kept the clergy and others apprised of the legislative issues, progress of bills and important hearings during the 70 day session.

Other involvements included: the bi-annual collection of clothing and blankets for Church World Service; cooperation in the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity with many offerings being directed to help feed the hungry in Maryland; Audio-Visual Library use by churches; communication through the mass media by the radio and television programs encouraged by the Council.

It is also the purpose of the Council to encourage the formation of ecumenical groupings of churches for the purpose of making possible the involvement of more local churches with other Christian churches in the needs of their community. It is with this in mind, that full cooperation has been given to the formation of a Delmarva Ecumenical Agency. It is assumed, however, that the Maryland Council of Churches will continue to help relate Maryland state-wide issues to all churches and their ecumenical agencies in Maryland.

The support of laymen, clergymen, churches and the Conference has enabled the Maryland Council of Churches to make possible more effective cooperation between Christian Churches. May your involvement in the ecumenical movement continue and increase.

DONZEL C. WILDEY,
Executive Director.

PROGRAM COUNCIL

A. Meetings

The Program Council has met five times since the last Annual Conference session. The June, 1969 meeting was the organizational meeting, and the following officers were elected: Rev. R. Jervis Cooke, chairman; Dr. Joseph Dickerson, vice chairman; Rev. Richard C. Stazesky, secretary and Mr. Benjamin Waters, treasurer. At the September meeting the council dealt with a number of matters referred to it by the Annual Conference and established its standing committees and a number of task forces.

The November meeting was the final session of a three day Program Council retreat at Drayton Manor. The retreat, attended by 34 people, centered on the theme of stewardship and was led by Dr. Hilbert Berger of the General Board of Laity and Rev. Charles Sorenson of the Wilmette Methodist Parish, Wilmette, Illinois. During this retreat the Program Council came to understand its function and also learned various group process techniques to facilitate its work. Ground-work was also laid for a continuing program of stewardship education within the conference. At its meeting, which concluded the retreat, the Program Council adopted for study and action, in regard to future programs, many ideas which were developed in the retreat discussion groups.

The January meeting centered on the formulation of the 1971 Annual Conference budget. All the boards and agencies submitted their budget requests to the council and after a process of study and discussion, carried on in small groups, the council arrived at a consensus agreement on a proposed budget for 1971. It was then forwarded to the Commission on World Service and Finance for its consideration.

The March meeting theme was the 1970-71 Annual Conference program. Again, the boards and agencies submitted their suggestions to the council and after a period of discussion in small groups the council arrived at an overall theme and specific programs for 1970-71.

B. Referred Items

A number of matters were referred during the 1969 Annual Conference session to the Program Council for consideration.

(1) Racial Discrimination in Hiring Practices. The Program Council studied the allegation of racial discrimination in hiring practices by Wesley College, the Conference Business Office, the Board of Education, and Peninsula Homes and Hospitals, Inc. The Council concluded that the accusation was not accurate and that, in fact, the four agencies had sought to employ and in most cases did employ black people. The council, however, stressed to the agencies that they should utilize black newspapers and other media that had a black clientele when they are advertising for help. The council also stated that it will continue to check on the hiring practices periodically.

(2) The Methodist Publishing House and Project Equality. Inasmuch as the Methodist Publishing House joined Project Equality as a supplier and inasmuch as the 1970 General Conference will review the situation in the light of the guidelines laid down at the 1968 General Conference, the Program Council decided to delay a final recommendation to the Annual Conference in regard to any position it should take on this matter.

(3) $7,500 Minimum Salary. The Council established a Task Force to study the subject. The study resulted in a call for the setting up of the new Commission on Minimum Salaries, a recommendation that no change be made in the minimum salary scale until after this commission has made its study, and that several specific policies be adopted by the Annual Conference which would result in an improvement in the salary situation. The council concurred with these suggestions (see E-7 for the recommendations for adoption by the Annual Conference).

(4) Apportionment Listing By Categories. The question of listing the apportionments to the charges under three categories—world service, conference benevolences and conference administration—is still being studied by the Board of Missions and the Commission on World Service and Finance and, therefore, the Program Council has no recommendation on this for 1970 Annual Conference session.

(5) Nominating Procedures. The Program Council established a task force to study the nominating procedures of the Annual Conference. After a very extensive study, it set forth a new set of policies which the council adopted for recommendation to the Annual Conference (see E-13 below).

C. Actions

During the year the Program Council took the following actions that are listed here for the record.

(1) Standing Committees. The following standing committees were set up and the persons listed here designated as chairmen of the committees: TRAFCO (Television, Radio and Film Communications), Rev. Robert W. Helms; Publishing Interests, Rev. Ralph A. Ellis; Interpretation, Rev. Richard D. Bailey; Public Relations, Rev. Olin J. Shockley, Jr.

(2) Task Forces. The following task forces were established and the persons listed here, designated as chairmen of them. Those marked with an * have fulfilled their tasks and have been dismissed. Basic Salary, Rev. William H. Hemphill; * Structure of the Annual Conference Session, Rev. Howell O. Wilkins; * Nominating Procedures of the Annual Conference, Rev. Robert P. Whitlock; Continuing Program of Stewardship Education, Rev. Richard D. Bailey; Priorities, Mrs. Louise Conner; Evaluation of the Merger, Rev. O. G. Brewer; Conference Staff and the Program Council, Rev. R. Jervis Cooke; Theology of Mission for the Local Church, Rev. J. Gordon Stapleton.

(3) The Council adopted the suggestions of the Task Force on the Structure of the Annual Conference Session and directed that they be implemented at the 1970 Annual Conference.

(4) A proposed Annual Conference budget for 1971 was developed, adopted and forwarded to the Commission on World Service and Finance.

(5) Adopted the recommendation of the Committee on Interpretation to send the "Conference Capsule" to the chairmen of the Council of Ministries of all the local churches of the conference and directed that this be done.

D. Committee Reports

There are four standing committees of the Program Council. Following are reports on their work for the year.

INTERPRETATION

The Committee on Interpretation is the arm of the Program Council which helps to interpret the mission of the United Methodist Church to local churches. Its task is to promote the program of World Service and other benevolences and the work of the Program Council throughout the Annual Conference to ministers and local churches. The chairman of the committee is the Reverend Richard D. Bailey. During the eight-month year, May 1, 1969—December 31, 1969, the committee did the following:

(1) Benevolence Bulletin. Prepared monthly and included in the Minister's Coordinated Mailing. This interprets monthly the financial status of Administrative and Benevolence giving.

(2) Minister's Coordinated Mailing. All mailings of boards and agencies are coordinated, indexed and mailed monthly to ministers.

(3) CONFERENCE CAPSULE. A capsule version of the Minister's Coordinated Mailing is prepared and mailed to all Council on Ministries Chairmen. The first CAPSULE was published in January 1970. However, the planning, procedure, and format were prepared during the eight-month year.

(4) Fund for Reconciliation. The promotion of the Fund for Reconciliation is handled by the committee. From the on-set of the Fund until December 31, 1969, pledges were $90,196 and cash receipts $39,300.

(5) Stewardship Education. Program Council Retreat. The planning and promotion of the Program Council Retreat, Nov. 10-12 at Drayton Center were under the guidance of the committee.

(6) The committee attempts to work with all boards and agencies that request help and guidance in the area of Interpretation.

Requests received are as follows:

(a) MAP for Conference-wide interpretation of its program.

(b) One local Church. The Chairman of the committee spoke on the Fund for Reconciliation.

(c) The Baltimore Annual Conference where the chairman spent an afternoon and evening meeting with district superintendents, the Baltimore Conference Committee on Interpretation, and Conference Cultivation team of the Board of Missions, speaking and sharing ideas on the area of stewardship and interpretation in an informal workshop setting.

(d) A request to assist a local church in developing a program of stewardship education has been received. The chairman is to meet with church officials this Spring.

(e) Request from Conference Lay Leader to assist in training and involving the Conference Director of Stewardship and his associate in a program of stewardship education.

PUBLIC RELATIONS

Through the expertise of Mr. Ted Schiller, the Conference Director of Public Relations, and the five able District Directors, Rev. Jicha, Chestertown; Rev. Dale Pruett, Dover; Rev. Gary Trail, Easton; Rev. Willard Robinson, Salisbury; and Rev. Frank Lucia, Wilmington; the work of this committee in the area of communications, promotion, and public relations for the Annual Conference has been performed.

This committee considers itself to be a supportive agent in the area of public relations to the Bishop, Cabinet, Program Council, boards, and agencies and local churches in the Peninsula Conference. It stands ready to assist any who request its assistance.

Mr. Schiller, during the year, has worked closely not only with conference agencies, but with numerous local churches sharing with them his expertise in public relations. Many of the District Directors are actively involved in District Newsletters and in workshops on public relations held throughout their districts.

We shall continue developing our District Public Relations Committee and hopefully, the local church Public Relations Committees, in an effort to reach more effectively the grass root segment of the Conference.

OLIN J. SHOCKLEY, JR., Chairman.

COMMITTEE ON PUBLISHING INTERESTS

The following report is an attempt by the liaison committee to summarize what appear to be the significant aspects of the work and actions of the Methodist Publishing House with regard to the needs and concerns of the total church and our conference.

Project Equality

A. First, we remind you that in mid-summer, 1969, MPH through the General Board of Publication, applied for "supplier" membership in Project Equality. This action thus places MPH in the fold of PE's philosophy and program for fair employment practices for all people. Let us suggest that the article "Project Equality Today," by Mr. Michael Stone, found in the January 21, 1970 issue of Christian Century, may be helpful in clarifying the struggles and creative thrust of Project Equality.

Publishing House Investigation

B. Next, we comment briefly concerning the response of MPH to the 70 page "Report To The Council Of Bishops" by the General Conference Committee To Study The Methodist Publishing House, dated November, 1969.

In an article published in the March issue of The Interpreter, it is indicated that MPH president and publisher Lovick Pierce of Nashville, Tennessee, and general Board of Publication chairman Bradshaw Mintener of Washington, D. C., have "declared that a 'constructive and positive approach' will be taken" to this investigation.

"The two publishing leaders announced in their statement that Mr. Mintener had appointed a committee 'to study and review the report,' and that the committee is already at work. 'It will make its report to the general Board of Publication,' they said 'hopefully prior to the meeting of the General Conference in St. Louis in April, 1970'."

While the full report of this General Conference Committee is not available for general distribution, copies of a summary of it may be secured from

United Methodist Information
P. O. Box 871
Nashville, Tennessee 37202

Services

C. Turning now to a rather terse review of MPH services, we indicate that Abingdon Press, the book publishing department of the House, produced 107 new titles in 1969, and was honored by the American Booksellers Association in receiving the John Barnes "Publisher of the Year" award. This is the first time a church-owned publishing house has been so honored.

Cokesbury, the retail services division, reports that while there was an increase in December, 1969, of almost 30% in regional merchandise sales over the previous December, this must be measured against a total sales decrease for the year of about $500,000.

Several factors seem to be part of this. Among them, the declining market for the Hymnal, and considerable confusion in a number of areas affecting use of curriculum materials. In an effort to analyze the problems, Graded Press (curriculum publishing) is making extensive surveys.

Book Clubs are increasingly being sought by individual conferences, and the Cokesbury regional centers are available to work toward creation of such upon request.

Another area of emphasis by MPH is in the establishment of local church libraries. This is a constantly expanding service, and can be an important asset to the program of Christian education at the local level. "How to" steps for getting a library started are easily available from Cokesbury's Library Department at this address:

Library Department
Cokesbury
201 Eighth Avenue, S.
Nashville, Tennessee 37202

Reminder

D. Finally, let us remind you that your Committee on Publishing Interests exists to serve the Conference and the local church in their relation to the total operation of the Methodist Publishing House.

TELEVISION, RADIO AND FILM COMMUNICATIONS

The purpose of TRAFCO is to help boards and agencies present their message to the public in the most interesting and attractive way possible. This is done through television, radio and film.

In June, I attended a most exciting and informative conference—a communications seminar held in New York City by the Broadcasting and Film Commission of the National Council of Churches. I attended as a delegate from the Council of Churches of Wilmington and New Castle County.

As a result of my participation in this seminar, a DelMarVa Task Force on communications was set up with representatives on it from each denomination on the Peninsula. Through its work, an effective and efficient method has been worked out for channelling into every available broadcast outlet on the Peninsula the excellent material that is being produced by the various denominations. The Task Force members meet regularly, assign a particular person to present a program to a certain station and by this method cover the whole Peninsula. This process is ecumenical, efficient and productive.

On April 4th a workshop will be held in Dover for all who have volunteered to act as station liaison with the DelMarVa Task Force; more volunteers are needed. An important question that has not yet been settled is whether the Task Force will remain independent or will become part of the proposed Delmarva Ecumenical Agency. If this ministry is to be really effective, a staff person will be needed. It is hoped that the churches will realize that television and radio are "the" communications media and will support this ministry.

The new TRAFCO audio-visual library came into existence in January, 1969. Due to lack of funds, a result of cuts made in expected allotments from the Annual Conference budget, the audio-visual librarian had to be let go, causing great hardship on the one secretary in the Board of Education office. Another librarian has now been employed, but because the audio-visual orders are skyrocketing, her fifteen hours a week is not sufficient to handle the workload.

In 1968 there were approximately 900 requests for films; in 1969 there were 1,189 and in the first three months of 1970 there have already been 522 bookings! This demonstrates that the new audio-visual library is performing a very real service.

ROBERT W. HELMS, Chairman.

E. Recommendations

(1) In keeping with the general conference action our Program and Statistical year shall be the calendar year.

(2) That the Annual Conference direct that all charges pay the full cost of parsonage utilities and that the column entitled "Total Utilities Paid" be deleted from the Annual Conference statistical table (item 39).

(3) That if at all possible, future sessions of the Annual Conference be held at Wesley College in order that, through staying together in the dormitories and eating together in the dining room, members of the conference may become better acquainted with one another, thus improving the quality of the fellowship of the conference.

(4) That the Annual Conference adopt the 2% Ministerial Education Fund as a separate apportionment to the churches of the conference to become effective in the 1971 financial year.

(5) That the Peninsula Annual Conference adopt the Plan for Creating a New Ecumenical Agency for the DelMarVa Peninsula, and that the Program Council appoint representatives from our Conference to work with others in the futher development of this agency.

(6) That the Annual Conference adopt the following goals in regard to charge realignment and ministerial workload:

(a) A new realignment of churches to provide the following:

A minimum workload for full-time conference members, associate members, and lay pastors of 350 members.
A minimum workload for students and part time pastors of 200 members.

(b) Churches of less than 50 members go on a schedule other than every Sunday for a regular pastor. Supplement with lay speakers if a service is desired every Sunday.

(c) No pastor shall be required to preach more than three times a Sunday within his charge.

(d) The new Commission on Minimum Salary shall be elected at the Annual Conference session of 1970 and it shall be instructed to do an in-depth study of the entire minimum salary question by January 1, 1971.

(7) That the membership of the Program Council be enlarged as follows:

(a) That the Committee on the Lay Worker, the Annual Conference Board of Trustees, the Committee on Higher Education, be entitled to one voting representative each and that there be one voting representative of college youth, to be selected by the Committee on Higher Education.

(b) That the at-large members be expanded from 7 to 11 with the understanding that four of the eleven can be chosen in order that they might serve as chairmen of the four standing committees of the council.

(c) That the full time Wesley Foundation staff personnel be non-voting members of the council.

(8) That the Annual Conference establish the number of districts to be four, effective at the conclusion of the 1971 Annual Conference.

(9) That the Annual Conference request that the bishop and the district superintendents nominate a conference program director (Par. 841.7) at the 1971 Annual Conference session.

(10) Authorization was given to the Commission on World Service and Finance to sell the two residences in Dover, Delaware which have been occupied by the Conference Directors of Christian Education and secure adequate housing for the new Associate Program Director.

(11) That following the 1971 Annual Conference session the Board of Trustees of the Annual Conference dispose of the district parsonage vacated by the reduction of the districts from five to four.

(12) That the Annual Conference adopt the following statement:

A.

Be it Resolved, first, that the Peninsula Conference once again record its firm faith in the Principle of Rotation and adherence to the provisions of the Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church.

Second, that the Nominating Committee be composed of the Cabinet, the Conference Lay Leader, and the Lay Leader of each District, a representative selected by the W.S.C.S. Executive Committee, a youth selected by the Conference Youth Council, and one minister under appointment from each District to be elected by the respective District Ministerium.

Third, that, since the quadrennial system is an established part of Methodist economy, all boards, commissions, and committees shall be elected for a term of four years unless restricted by disciplinary, charter, or other legal requirements. In the event of such legal restrictions, the Principle of Rotation is to be observed.

Fourth, that the date of election to any board, commission or committee be clearly indicated in the Journal.

Fifth, that no member of any board, committee, or commission shall serve more than two consecutive quadrennia on said board, committee or commission and shall be ineligible to be re-elected until after one quadrennium has elapsed, except members of boards, committees or commissions elected for three year terms may serve three consecutive terms and shall be ineligible to be re-elected until after one term has lapsed and except that, when a member is elected to fill an unexpired quadrennium or term, he may complete the unexpired quadrennium or term and serve not more than one additional consecutive quadrennium or term.

Sixth, that no member of the conference, lay or ministerial shall serve on more than two boards, commissions, or committees, concurrently. Ex-officio membership on conference boards or agencies shall not count toward the total of two unless such membership exceeds two. In cases where a member is an ex-officio member on more than two boards or agencies, all excess of two shall count toward the total of two. The following shall not be under the conference rotation system nor counted in the above total: district committees or secretaries, Wesley College Trustees, Boards of Directors of the Wesley Foundation, Board of Trustees of the Peninsula Methodist Homes and Hospitals, Inc. In the case of the Board of the Ministry, the Nominating Committee is to request the courtesy of the bishop informing them as to those persons who will be named to the Board of Ministry, in order to assist the Nominating Committee in equal distribution of responsibility on the part of conference ministry members. The Nominating Committee will consider membership on the Board of Ministry as one of two memberships permitted to each minister. It is to be understood that this is not a legal requirement, rather a requested courtesy, the purpose of which would be to seek the broadest amount of leadership in the total Conference organization. (Ref. to Program Council.)

Seventh, that an age limit of 72 shall be established for both ministers and laymen. If a ministerial member shall retire before the age of 72, he shall then relinquish his privilege to serve on conference boards and agencies. (Deletion of second sentence ref. to Program Council.)

Eighth, that a conscientious effort shall be made to distribute membership geographically. No fixed number shall be assigned, however, to any one district, since this could become artificial and impractical. The Conference Nominating Committee should be dedicated to the principle of the best leadership, keeping in mind the geographical concept of the Conference.

Ninth, that ministerial membership on Annual Conference boards and agencies shall be limited to active full-time conference members and associate members. Ministerial members of conference boards and agencies shall be members of the Peninsula Annual Conference in order to serve on conference boards and agencies; laymen, in order to be eligible to serve on the conference boards and agencies, shall be members of a local church within the conference; the Conference Nominating Committee may select other persons as affiliate members.

Tenth, that it is the intention of the Cabinet to select only one representative from the Cabinet to serve on conference boards, committees and agencies as an ex-officio member.

Eleventh, that, recognizing again the belief in the principle of rotation in order to involve greater leadership, all district committees and offices shall be elected to two-year terms with a maximum of four years, and persons shall be ineligible for re-election until after a two-year term has elapsed.

Twelfth, every case of a nominee to any board, commission or committee shall be notified before his name is placed before the conference. (Ref. to, Conference Council.)

B.

Concerning the report of the Nominating Committee and the securing of talent:

First, that the report of the Nominating Committee at the Annual Conference session will reflect a complete adherence to all the guidelines established by the Annual Conference.

Second, that new nominations shall be circulated prior to the Annual Conference session, in order to be studied by all conference members previous to the opening of the session. If possible they should accompany the mailing of the pre-conference reports.

Third, that forms prepared by the Conference Program Council shall be circulated for both ministers and laymen in local churches to indicate areas of interest, thus creating a Talent Bank. In addition, the same form shall be sent to members of the Cabinet, Board of Lay Activities, Conference W.S.C.S. Executive Committee, and Conference Youth Council in order to obtain names that might otherwise be overlooked. These forms shall be reported to the secretary of the Conference Nominating Committee.

Fourth, that a complete file of all ministers in the conference should be kept indicating where each man is serving in terms of conference boards and agencies. Laymen should likewise be listed on a similar file. A third file would be divided between ministers and laymen as part of the Conference Talent Bank.

C.

Miscellaneous.

First, that failure to attend the particular board or agency to which one is assigned for at least one called meeting during the year, without written explanation or statement of intended activity to the chairman of that board or agency, will be subject to automatic removal in the next nominating report. A report of the board or agency chairman to the secretary of the Conference Nominating Committee by March 1st will include the attendance record of his board, committee or agency.

Second, that a minimum of four meetings per year should be held by the Nominating Committee (it may be advisable that the committee meet more often, since its influence is so broad; whenever the committee approaches a new quadrennium, this latter need for additional meetings may be more evident).

Third, that the above adopted guidelines for the Nominating Committee of the Annual Conference shall become a printed part of its report at each Annual Conference session.

D.

Implementation. Stage 1

First, The above Guidelines shall be implemented as soon as they are adopted by the Annual Conference at its 1970 session.

Second, Where it is determined that a member is serving on too many boards and agencies, a statement shall be sent indicating the same and requesting, in the order of preference, where the member would choose to serve. This order of preference shall be kept in mind by the Nominating Committee, but the committee shall not be bound to follow the wishes of the member.

Stage 2. At the beginning of the new quadrennium (1972) a complete and open look at membership on all boards and agencies shall be initiated by the Conference Nominating Committee.

First, All personnel shall be eligible for re-alignment. The exception would be that any member with a total of two quadrennia of service or three 3-year terms shall be ineligible to serve on that board or agency until the expiration of either a quadrennium or a 3-year term.

Second, Quadrennial boards shall have two even classes; triennial boards shall have three evenly divided classes.

(14) That the Annual Conference adopted the following as the 1970-71 Program of the Peninsula Annual Conference: "Stewardship—Man's Relationships and Responsibilities."

Foreword

The Peninsula Annual Conference Program Council recommends the following program emphases and goals for the 1970-71 Annual Conference year under the inclusive theme of "Stewardship—Man's Relationships and Responsibilities." The proposal is the result of several months of thinking and planning by the Program Council.

The development of this program was based on several assumptions. (1) There should be an over all conference emphasis to give focus and direction to all aspects of the Annual Conference programs for the year. (2) The suggested theme and programs should come from the Program Council and be adopted by the Annual Conference. (3) The implementation of the program emphases will be the responsibility of the Program Council with the various boards and agencies of the Annual Conference working as task forces of the Program Council. (4) The various boards and agencies have the right to develop and carry out other programs, whether or not related to the conference theme. But, it is hoped that the boards and agencies will not do this without first consulting with the Program Council. It is expected that the boards and agencies will carry out those programs or tasks assigned to them by the Discipline or general boards and agencies. However, it is expected that priority will be given to the theme and programs adopted by the Annual Conference and to tasks assigned by the Program Council.

In the following outline of the overall program, "Stewardship—Man's Relationships and Responsibilities", it will be noted that responsibility for carrying out various aspects of the program is assigned to specified boards or agencies of the conference. It must be stressed again, however, that they will operate as task groups of the Program Council and not independently of it. Overall planning, supervision and evaluation will come from the council.

The Program

A. Spiritual

1. Goal: Understanding man's relationship to God in terms of partnership or co-workership so man's relationship to and responsibility for all aspects of God's creation, such as, other people, ourselves, the church, the community, the natural environment can be seen.
2. Method: retreats, workshops for clergy and laity on the spiritual life, Bible study, lay witness missions, preaching missions.
3. Responsibility: Board of Evangelism, Board of Ministry in continuing education.

B. Personal

1. Goal: Gaining personal commitment to God through Jesus Christ time, talent, money, influence, etc. - in the light of what God is which will involve the total use of all that we are and have - work, doing in His world with people as His co-workers.
2. Method: study groups, retreats, lay witness missions, church school.
3. Responsibility: Board of Evangelism, Board of the laity.

C. Human

1. Goal: Becoming aware of and seeking to correct (a) the personal attitudes, beliefs and behavior patterns and (b) the institutional practices which are racist in nature and which create and maintain the racial problems that plague the nation.
2. Method: A series of consultations on religion and race involving (a) conference leaders, (b) clergy and local church lay leaders, (c) the Methodist Action Program, the Board of Education.
3. Responsibility: Task Force on Merger. Operation Leaven of the membership in every local church.

D. Church

1. Goal: (a) Study the situation of the church school and make recommendations, (b) study situation in regard to Bible related courses in the public schools and make recommendations for action and (c) establish an aggressive program of enlistment for church vocations.
2. Method: formal surveys and studies; establishment of an action program on church vocations, enlistment involving workshops, conferences, interviews, etc.
3. Responsibility: Board of Education, Committee on Enlistment.

E. Community

1. Goal: Every local church, as part of a larger group of churches, preferably ecumenical in nature, will take part in a parish-community consultation to study in depth (a) its understanding of the mission of the Church, (b) the nature of its own community - its problems, resources, future trends, needs, (c) what the churches together should do in view of the situation and (d) what structures are needed to carry out the adopted tasks.
2. Method: the holding of parish-community consultations under skilled leadership.
3. Responsibility: Methodist Action Program and the Committee on Parish-Community Development of the Board of Missions, Board of Health and Welfare Ministries, Board of Christian Social Concerns.

F. Ecumenical

1. Goal: (a) the establishment of the Delmarva Ecumenical Agency, (b) an in-depth study of the Plan of Union devised by the Consultation on Church Union and (c) the carrying on of planning and programming, as much as possible, on ecumenical bases.
2. Method: action of the Annual Conference on the new agency, study sessions on the districts and in local churches on the Plan of Union.
3. Responsibility: Commission on Ecumenical Affairs, Commission on Worship.

G. Environmental

1. Goal: to understand more clearly the nature and extent of the environmental problems that plague society (air, water, and noise pollution; ecology; waste disposal, etc.) and to devise action programs for helping to solve these problems.
2. Method: educational programs at conference, district and local church levels; action programs with other churches and agencies.
3. Responsibility: Board of Christian Social Concerns with other religions and secular agencies.

The above outline is not meant to be exhaustive. It will be expanded, refined and in other ways changed as the various task groups work out the details of each emphasis and their interrelatedness.

It is meant to be a unified program of the Annual Conference involving all the boards and agencies under the direction of the Program Council

R. JERVIS COOKE,
Chairman.
RICHARD C. STAZESKY,
Secretary.

QUADRENNIAL EMPHASIS COMMITTEE

The Quadrennial Emphasis Committee is charged with the responsibility of administering the Fund For Reconciliation. The following monies were expended May 1 through December 31, 1969.

Promotion & Administration	$ 375.12
Paid to General Church	5,341.23
Wesley College Scholarships	3,000.00
MAP—Operation Leaven	6,000.00
Delmar Youth Center	500.00
Loan to Program Council	260.00
Balance	9,302.22
Repayment of Loan	260.00
Held for Drayton Confrontation Retreat	2,000.00

The Fund For Reconciliation is intended to bring people together in a society that is being torn in many ways. Your Committee has deliberated every request and the allocations that have been made are in keeping, we believe, with the basic purpose of the Fund. The response, however, to the Fund indicates that the Peninsula United Methodists have not yet taken full advantage of the opportunity that is theirs to use this instrument of expressing Christian love.

EVERY LAY MEMBER OF THIS ANNUAL CONFERENCE SHOULD MAKE SURE THAT THE RECONCILIATION FUND IS CONTAINED IN THE PROGRAM OF YOUR CHURCH THIS COMING YEAR AND THAT IT IS ADEQUATELY PROMOTED. We urge every church to give its members an annual opportunity to share sacrificially by giving to the Fund for Reconciliation.

Respectfully submitted,

EDWIN C. THOMAS, JR.

COMMISSION ON WORSHIP

The Commission on Worship has met four times as a full Commission in the past year in order to plan its Program and Emphasis. The execution of those plans have resulted in the following:

I. District Seminars

There has been a team which conducted a seminar on worship in each of the District Ministeriums during the year. The seminars included a brief worship service, a presentation entitled, "An Attempt to Define Principles of Christian Worship", which had been prepared by Kendall K. McCabe, and then four different Discussion Groups, the Sacrament, Sunday morning Worship, Funerals, and Weddings. There was then an opportunity, with the total group together, for dialogue to take place with the panel of the morning.

The response in all five Districts was one of warm acceptance and appreciation and an unsolicited response from those participating, that additional training experiences were needed.

II. Funeral Brochures

Our secretary, Jerrold W. Knotts, reports that at this writing, we have distributed over fourteen thousand of our brochures, which were first presented to this Annual Conference in its 1969 session. It is gratifying that sixteen hundred of these went to the New York Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church; four hundred and fifty went to the United Methodist Church in Torrington, Connecticut; and two hundred went to the Lucien Memorial United Methodist Church in King's Park, New York; other groups of few copies went to individuals in New York and West Virginia. The Brochure is still available to those who have not secured it at $2.25 per hundred.

III. Annual Conference Worship Services

There has been significant work done in recommending to the Program Committee of the Annual Conference, the Worship Services which are being used in the Annual Conference this year. The Commission on Worship has used, as a basis for its suggestions, the stated services of the United Methodist Church, as they are found in the Methodist Book of Worship and the principle that everything done at Annual Conference in the area of worship, should be something that could be worked out in the smallest local church. This, we believe, we have done and we encourage the Conference to be aware of the methods and procedures of the services in which the total conference participates.

The Commission will seek to develop plans in 1970 to provide an opportunity on the District level for a growth in understanding on the part of both laymen and ministers of the worship within our church.

Respectfully submitted,

EDWIN C. THOMAS, JR.,
Chairman.

IV. Membership and Lay Activities

THE BOARD OF EVANGELISM

The work of the Board of Evangelism is to promote, cultivate, and plan Conference-wide programs and projects of Evangelism as set forth by the General Board of Evangelism, Jurisdictional and Annual Conferences. Also to integrate these with the total Conference Planning of the Program Council and to be an instrument of the Program Council to serve the spiritual needs of the Conference.

The awareness that we live in changing times should influence us to realization and acceptance of new ideas and methods. There needs to be cooperation between and extended to persons, agencies, and Churches desiring our support. A change of heart giving new direction and depth to human existence, should be our uttermost goal.

The Board of Evangelism conducted under the able leadership of Mr. Vernon Downs and others a retreat for Laymen at Drayton Manor which was a great spiritual help to a number of our laymen, many of whom have testified to reality of Jesus Christ in their lives because of these retreats.

The Board was instrumental with the good help of John Irwin to initiate talks with the Wilmington Council of Churches and Ross Whetstone and several other denominations as to the possibility of a metropolitan telephone ministry known as Contact. A number of cities now have this outreach and is proving very helpful.

Representatives from the Board attended the School of Evangelism held in Drew University in July, the Congress on Evangelism in Minneapolis in September, the Northeast Jurisdictional Christmas Convocation in Harrisburg in December, and Council of Evangelism sponsored by the General Board in Cincinnati in January. Thus not only was the Peninsula Conference represented across the nation in evangelistic endeavors, but valuable learning and sharing opportunities were made possible. We appreciate the fine leadership our Conference Secretary, Hayward Green has given in these areas.

This past year saw many churches experience the power of the Holy Spirit, the fire of commitment, and the surging of new life through lay witness missions. We heartily endorse lay witness missions as one way for local Churches to have their laymen feel the breath of God upon their lives, and hope that many more churches will consider this rapidly growing idea. The Board hopes that a retreat can be held each year for Laymen and Ministers to nourish our spiritual roots and train our minds in the great work of Evangelism. We also suggest that those nominated to the Board be willing to attend training opportunities provided by the General Board of Evangelism, the Jurisdictional and Annual Conferences. We also feel it is right to cover as much of the expense involved in these meetings as is prudent and available from the Board's budget.

We recommend that Evangelism be a main concern of the Conference in many areas especially Campus Ministries, and Resort Ministries and that STEM (Short Term Evangelistic Mission) be of great use in fulfilling the roll of the Board this coming year.

Respectfully submitted,

IRVIN R. PUSEY,
Chairman.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE LAY LEADER

Your Conference Board of the Laity has had a challenging year. Many of you remember the capacity crowd that attended our first Annual Conference Lay Banquet last May. Those of you who did not hear Dr. Hilbert Berger speak on STEWARDSHIP are the losers.

Last September, our weekend men's retreat at Camp PeCoMeth was led by the Reverend Mister Larry Eisenberg of the Board of Evangelism in Nashville. This year, Dr. Hilbert Berger has agreed to return to our Conference for our weekend men's retreat in September. Based on his previous performances, we laymen can expect an informative and entertaining weekend—as well as real spiritual food.

At the Northeast Jurisdiction Lay Assembly in Atlantic City in October, Ben Johnson and Ross Freeman were the resource persons. The subject concerned the Lay Witness Program. We sensed a deep stirring among the laity not only in our Conference, but elsewhere, too. Perhaps the clergy will wish to encourage this movement. Our small Conference had the largest number of attendees of any conference in the Northeast Jurisdiction at this Assembly.

In December, at Drayton Manor, your Board of the Laity sponsored a timely retreat on EXTREMISM. Dr. J. Allen Broyles, author of "The John Birch Society" and pastor of the Crawford Memorial United Methodist Church in Winchester, Massachusetts, proved to be a very effective leader of the retreat. We laymen learned that a person with Christian love in his heart is not an extremist, be he a liberal or a conservative.

A new dimension has been added to our program for next year. Your Conference Board of the Laity will be responsible for a Sunday afternoon service at historic Barratt's Chapel this summer. We believe that our laity should become more aware of our United Methodist heritage.

In autumn, our district Boards of the Laity were involved in the annual Ministers and Laymen's banquets. These were, in general, well attended. The Men's Communion breakfasts were held in the spring. Several of the districts had after breakfast speakers who were very well received. Some districts conducted Lay Speakers' Training Courses for men wishing to become Certified Lay Speakers.

Your Conference Board of the Laity is organized according to the 1968 Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church.

Let me present several questions for discussion by the Conference section which will receive this report:

1. Are you satisfied with lay work in a. Local church
   b. District
   c. Conference
   What would you change? Why?
   Do you attend Conference and District lay functions?
   If you do not, why don't you?
2. How would you implement our lay work from the meeting and retreat stage? Talk at meetings is easy. Action is more difficult.

Your Conference Lay Leader wishes to thank Bishop Lord, the Cabinet, the Clergy, our Board of the Laity, and all laymen who contributed to this year's program.

Respectfully submitted,

A. FRANK CHAPMAN

THE COMMITTEE ON THE LAY WORKER

The Committee on the Lay Worker has spent a major portion of its three meetings this year in becoming oriented to the responsibilities assigned by the church to this newly authorized committee.

Before we could fulfill our responsibilities, it was felt that we needed to come to a clearly defined understanding as to who is a lay worker, the steps to becoming a lay worker, the relationship of ones certification and former consecration to requirements now for certification and consecration as a lay worker, and relationship to the Annual Conference and local church. We are still in this process of defining and clarifying.

Presently, we are working on an up-to-date listing of all persons in the Peninsula Conference who are making a career in the employed status of the church or a church related agency. It is the hope that these persons will investigate the Lay Worker relationship in the Annual Conference and the benefits which accompany this relationship.

By next year, you should see this committee in action with some recommendations supportive of the Lay Worker's role in the church.

JESSIE V. STEVENS, Chairman.

BOARD OF THE MINISTRY

"So You Want To Become A Minister"

No decision could offer a greater satisfaction nor a greater challenge to any person. It has not been an easy decision for you, we are sure. Such a decision is never easy. Any decision that affects the whole of a man's life, including his friends, his family, his total activity, takes deep commitment to make and strong determination to fulfill.

The Call for Ministers

The church must be renewed and updated in all its parts. Since the key part is the ministry, enlarged emphasis must be placed on the recruitment and training of persons for church vocations. The Church, being responsible for its ministry, must present to young men and women the significance of the work and witness of the ministry, through preaching and teaching, ministerial service and social action. It must encourage and sustain those who respond to this calling.

It is the feeling of the Board of the Ministry that each pastor must set as one of his goals in life the recruitment of his replacement in the Christian Ministry. Ministerial recruitment and guidance begins in the local church, and no conference program of enlistment can take the place of a minister actively seeking out a young person for the ministry.

Your Board of the Ministry has been very active this year, and we are proud of the progress made in some of our areas of responsibilities. It would simply be impossible to report the full activities of our Board through its committees.

Some of the highlights and plans for the future are:

1. The Committee on "Steps Into The Ministry" is proud to present the new brochure "So You Want To Become A Minister". We are indebted to Richard L. Hamilton and his committee for the preparation and distribution of this attractive brochure. We have already received complimentary comments from the General Board of the Ministry and other Conference Boards of the Ministry.

Copies of this printing have been mailed to each minister in our Conference. Additional copies can be secured from The Conference Board of Education Office, 217 N. Bradford Street, Dover, Delaware.

2. Recruitment Committee Chairman, Robert P. Whitlock, is seeking out the "potential minister" within each local church. Each minister must take seriously his role of a Recruiter.

The Committee sent a request to 265 ministers in the Conference for names of potential candidates. At this printing less than 40 responses have given us 37 committed candidates and 22 potential. We desperately need the cooperation of each minister with this type of program. If you do not have a committed or potential candidate, at least return the form.

A Bishop's Dinner, involving all senior high, college youth and other interested persons who are committed to or are potential candidates for the ordained ministry, will be held January 2, 1971.

The Committee plans to keep in touch with each potential minister by letter and personal visits.

The Committee on Recruitment works very closely with our Conference Commission on Enlistment for Church Occupations.

3. Committee on Continuing Education, Howard A. Bailey, Chairman, has been busy making plans to challenge the laity of our churches to see the need of their pastor pursuing further education and encourage him to make use of every available opportunity.

A questionnaire was sent to the clergy of our Conference. Fifty-eight percent was returned and from the summary an active program will be arranged for the clergy to participate in an educational venture in the fall of 1970. The place is Drayton Manor. The type of program will be seminar and a basic laboratory in Sensitivity Training.

The Committee solicits the assistance of the Conference lay leaders and those of each charge in challenging the local churches to include annually in their budget a minimum of $250.00 to be used by the minister for his participation in a continuing education program.

4. The Loan and Scholarship Committee, Harold M. Davis, Chairman, is responsible for the program explained in another part of our report under the heading "Scholarship and Student Loan Funds".

5. We call attention to the clergy of the Board of the Ministry responsibilities to each in reference to one's relationship in our Conference.

Charles E. Barton, Jr., former chairman of The Conference Relation Committee, now works under the Board of the Ministry. As one considers a change in Conference relationships pertaining to Sabbatical, Disability Leave, Supernumerary, Superannuate, Voluntary or Involuntary Location, one should contact the Board of the Ministry. One letter is all that is necessary. Through this Committee other Boards and Agencies will be informed.

Par. 665.24 provides for a Joint Committee on Disability. Through the efforts of the Board of Pensions and the Board of the Ministry, such a Committee has been organized.

The Board's activity is not just confined to the work of the various committees. We have had this Conference year, six meetings, during which time not only have we conducted the regular business, but have had the privilege of interviewing thirty-six men. The length of interviews are 30 minutes plus.

One of the encouraging aspects of our work is that we can report having the largest group of probationary members, 29, in the life of our Conference. These candidates have expressed their intention of seeking full membership within two years and serve as full time pastors when they have met all requirements.

As Chairman, I would like to express my sincere appreciation to each member of the Board for their participation in the challenging work with candidates for the ministry. A very sincere thanks for the cooperation received by each candidate in fulfilling appointments and other requirements requested of them.

The matter that must be of concern to both laity and clergymen is how such a program is financed. I trust the following summarizes our responsibilities as a Board and how the support is provided.

The Ministerial Education Fund

Recognizing that the education of ministers is vital to the Church, that the entire Church is responsible for the enlistment and training of its ministers, and that financial support for this endeavor needs realistic expansion, the 1968 General Conference of The United Methodist Church, meeting at Dallas, Texas, established a national Ministerial Education Fund to be supported by all local churches starting with the 1970 fiscal year. The apportionments will be 2% of net expenditures.

Of the money received for the Ministerial Education Fund, 25% will be retained by the Annual Conference for its own Board of Ministry, 75% of the money received will be administered by the Department of Ministry for current operations of the 14 seminaries and for ministerial enlistment, continuing education and study courses.

The Theological Schools

The three United Methodist theological schools of the Northeastern Jurisdiction are located strategically in three metropolitan centers. They are fully accredited by the American Association of Theological Schools. Each has an impressive record of academic excellence and a long history of faithful service to the Church.

These schools are graduate professional institutions, responsible for training young men and women for ministry. This training is Methodist in tradition, ecumenical in context, relevant to the urgent needs of this new age. The Church looks to its theological schools for a ministry with skill to match commitment.

The Theological Seminaries within our jurisdiction are:

Boston University School of Theology—Boston, Mass. 02215
The Theological School of Drew University—Madison, N. J. 07940
Wesley Theological Seminary—Washington, D. C. 20016

The Board of the Ministry

An important segment of the total duties of each Annual Conference Board of the Ministry relates to ministerial recruitment, training, and nurture. The Board of the Ministry is also charged with the responsibility of providing support, guidance, and programming for the education of ministers, including Conference Members, Associate Members, Lay Pastors, and students. To make it possible to accept these tasks, 25% of all money received for the Ministerial Education Fund in each Annual Conference will be retained by the Annual Conference for support of the work of its Board of the Ministry.

Each Annual Conference Board determines how it shall use this money in the promotion of its own plans and program, in particular relationship to:

ENLISTMENT. To challenge the finest youth of our congregations to consider the ministry through recruitment programs within the Annual Conference and in high schools and colleges.

SCHOLARSHIPS. To provide scholarship assistance to needy seminary students in order to give encouragement and support to young men in training, and scholarship aid to those attending a Lay Pastors School.

CONTINUING EDUCATION. To study plans for the continuing education of the pastors of the Annual Conference, and to enable pastors to participate in enrichment and continuing education programs.

EXPLORATION. To provide for workshops, internships, and research to keep pace with the development of new modes and forms of ministry.

It would be very inappropriate for a report of this Board to be printed without expressing my personal appreciation as Chairman to—

The Cabinet for keeping an open line of communication between themselves and our Board, the Registrar, the Reverend C. Edwin Lasbury, through whose dedicated efforts we are able to keep close contact with the candidates during their schooling; the Assistant Registrar, The Reverend E. C. Hackshaw; the Secretary, The Reverend Richard L. Hamilton.

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. That the Commission on World Service and Finance, when it sends the apportionments for 1971 and each succeeding year, list on the apportionment sheet the item "Ministerial Educational Fund". The amount to be 2% of Net Expenditures.

DAVID W. BAKER, Chairman
C. EDWIN LASBURY, Registrar
E. C. HACKSHAW, Assistant Registrar
RICHARD L. HAMILTON, Secretary

V. ADMINISTRATION AND FINANCE

COMMISSION ON ARCHIVES AND HISTORY

The 200th Anniversary of Methodism on the DelMarVa Peninsula and the 189th Anniversary of Barratt's Chapel was recognized by a special service being conducted at Barratt's Chapel on Sunday, November 9, 1969. Dr. Frederick E. Maser, a historian and Public Relations director of the Philadelphia Conference, was our guest speaker. The service was structured according to Worship Services conducted in the Methodist Episcopal Church prior to 1850, including a Class Meeting which was held preceding the Worship Service.

A program which included a display of materials, books, pictures, and artifacts, was presented at a historical church in each district to stimulate interest in our Methodist heritage and the unique contribution of the DelMarVa Peninsula in the development of American Methodism. We sincerely request both churches and individuals to place items of ecclesiastical and historical value in Barratt's Museum for posterity.

Rev. Charles E. Covington represented our Conference Historical Society at the Bicentennial commemorating the appointment of Joseph Pilmore and Richard Boardman by John Wesley as the first Methodist Missionaries to America and their arrival at Gloucester, New Jersey, on October 21, 1769.

During the year there have been numerous visitors to the Chapel and Museum, including school groups, church school classes, youth groups, confirmation classes, and tourists from all parts of the U.S. and several foreign countries. Also, the Chapel has been the site of several weddings, funerals, and baptisms. Special services are conducted throughout the summer season.

As noted in our last report, a very serious crack had developed in the South-East corner of the church building and immediate action was necessary to prevent more serious damage. We employed the services of Pope, Kruse and McCune, architects, Wilmington, Delaware, who are competent builders and experienced in the preservation and restoration of historical buildings to examine the chapel and to render professional evaluation of present state and correction needed. Their recommendation of remedial work to prevent further damage to our chapel amounts to about $5,000.00. We will proceed according to their schedule of repairs as funds are available and all donations will be greatly appreciated.

The film, "Methodism's Living Heritage," was purchased to add to our Conference's film library. While primarily centered around Old St. George's, Philadelphia, it presents a general history of Methodism in Colonial America as it spanned the Revolutionary War and the Nation.

The Baltimore Conference United Methodist Society is scheduling a Heritage tour of 18th century Methodist sites in England from October 12-21, 1970, with Dr. Frank Baker serving as the tour guide. The cost from Friendship Airport is $325.00. Reservations may be made through Rev. Frank Wanek, 3408 Garrison Boulevard, Baltimore, Md. 21215.

Our hope for the future is to have a record of the Peninsula Conference written and published for sale; to collect a complete set of Conference Minutes for each segment of the Church which now composes the Peninsula Conference of the United Methodist Church; and to receive endowments and memorials sufficient to protect and to insure excellent care and keeping of Barratt's Chapel, one of the shrines of Methodism.

CHARLES E. COVINGTON, President.

THE FEDERAL CREDIT UNION

Our credit union continues to grow. Last year we reported assets of $2,589.14. As of February 28, 1970 we have assets of $6,133.66. At this time last year we were making loans up to $250.00, now we are making loans in excess of $600.00 and expect to be making loans up to $750.00 by summer and loans up to $1,000.00 by the end of 1970.

To date we have made loans totaling $8,820.00. Our experience of repayment of loans has been excellent. Most loan payments are made on time with no urging from the treasurer. Some are late and reminders have to be made. At this point not a single dollar has been lost on bad loans and not one of our loans is seriously delinquent.

In spite of the small size of our credit union, we were able to declare a 4% dividend on money saved in 1969. We expect to be able to pay a larger dividend in 1970. Our biggest dividend has been in our ability to help members with financial problems. We have made 32 loans; we have made loans to pay income taxes, hospital bills and educational expenses; we have been able to help with the cost of auto repairs and to help with problems of retired men. This has been done in spite of our low loan limit.

The need is for more members and for members who are interested in saving money. Two years ago some members started saving $10.00 each month. They now have over $250.00 per account and are building insurance benefits. For information on joining the credit union see any one of the following:

Pres. Nathaniel Miller
Vice Pres. Jason Blundon
Sec. Henry Schauer
Credit Committee Chairman, Howard Bailey
Education Committee members: John Irwin, Gary Trail or William Staten.

For information on loans contact the treasurer at 302-734-5118.

In a most tangible way the Peninsula Methodist Federal Credit Union is helping many of our pastors and full time lay employees. The help is through financial self-discipline for those who are saving. It also can help when a man needs to borrow.

C. E. BARTON, JR., Treasurer.

BOARD OF PENSIONS

Your Board of Pensions is happy and proud to present the following report for the conference year ending December 31, 1969.

All communications from all sources have been carefully considered, most of which have been cared for by personal contact. The necessitous cases have been cared for to the best of our ability and resources.

The total assets of the Pension Fund as of December 31, 1969 reveal that the book value of the fund is $2,050,000, and the market value is $2,217,000. This is a slight decrease in the market value due to a depressed market. This conference year, May through December of 1969, we have paid in pensions to our retired ministers in full connection and to our associates members $129,920; to widows $116,872; to our retired lay pastors $21,435; to widows $15,195; to all children $2,066; and to the Clearing House of the General Board of Pensions $48,771; for a grand total of $334,259. In addition to this total, your Board has distributed $5,885 from the Necessitous Fund.

The income to pay pensions for the current year was derived from the following sources: Peninsula Annual Conference $278,000; Investments $82,000; N. E. Jurisdictional Equalization Fund $57,500; others $16,000; for a grand total of $443,500.

Lionel D. Edie and Company continue to serve as the investment counselors for the Endowment Fund of the Board of Pensions.

For the conference year 1970 the Board of Pensions requests that the Peninsula Conference allocate for pensions the sum of $412,000 and that the amount for necessitous cases be continued at $10,000.

Your Board of Pensions recognizes that it is one of many conferences still functioning with a discrepancy in pension benefits paid to full members and lay pastors. The percentage rate is currently 75%. In light of this, a special committee has been named to study the possibility of changing the percentage rate to a higher figure. The results of the study will appear in next year's report.

Following each annual conference our treasurer is deluged with various questions concerning pension rates and payment thereof, hospital benefits, and social security. With this in mind, your Board is planning to hold annual briefing periods whereby we would bring the retirees and their wives together with resource leaders to aid them to make a smoother transition from active service to the retired relationship. The first of the sessions is scheduled to be held at Drayton Center on April 28 and 29, 1970.

We urge all ministers who are delinquent in their financial obligations to the Board to make every effort possible to bring their payments up to date and to keep them current. Our ministers are in the arrears to the extent of nearly $90,000. Currently we are charging 6% interest against the delinquent accounts. This charge is levied only against a minister's failure to pay, not the church.

We cannot overstress the need for legacies to increase our Endowment Fund. We urge all ministers, laymen, attorneys and others arranging for the disposition of personal estate affairs to keep the church and church institutions in mind.

We offer two recommendations for conference approval:

1. That the annuity rate for the fiscal year 1970 be raised to $90 for retired conference members and associates with 75% of the above figure for full time lay pastors: That the annuity rate for the fiscal year 1971 be raised to $93 for retired conference members and associates with 75% of the above figure for full time lay pastors; 75% of the full rate paid to widows of full members and associates; 75% of the full time lay pastors rate to be paid to lay pastors widows; and 25% of the father's rate be paid to the surviving children.

2. That the interest rate on all delinquent accounts to the Endowment Fund (ministerial) be set at 8% instead of the present 6%, effective January 1, 1971.

Students under the Board of Ministry in college or seminary will be exempt from interest on the delinquency, but not from the assessment.

The Board of Pensions wishes to express its appreciation for the courtesy and generosity of Wesley College and its president, Dr. Robert Parker, for making available one of its fine rooms for our monthly meetings.

The Board is also deeply appreciative to all its members for their interest and help during the year.

WILLARD F. HEISLER, Chairman
HAROLD M. DAVIS, Secretary

THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES PENINSULA CONFERENCE

The officers of the Board are: Chairman, Mr. K. Thomas Everngam; Vice-Chairman, the Reverend John R. Shockley; Secretary-Treasurer, the Reverend W. H. Revelle, Jr.

All funds of the Board are administered through the Conference Business Office. All investments are administered by the Trust Department of the Bank of Delaware.

The function of the Board is to hold title to and dispose of property as directed by the Peninsula Annual Conference. During the Conference Year 1969-70, this Board has disposed of or abandoned church property and the Wesley Foundation property at Salisbury, Maryland. Negotiations are in process to dispose of the Wesley Foundation property in Chestertown.

K. T. EVERNGAM, Chairman
W. H. REVELLE, JR., Secretary

COMMISSION ON WORLD SERVICE AND FINANCE

During the past year the following actions were taken by this Commission:

1. Board of Ministry—granted $3,360 supplemental request for tuition to send 21 students to Duke University.
2. Commission on Ecumenical Affairs—granted $50 for 1969 and $500 for 1970 for the work of their Commission.
3. Board of Education—$2,415 supplemental request for 1969 not granted.
4. Wesley Foundation at the University of Delaware—$1,783.95 supplemental request for 1969 not granted.
5. That monies given by the local church for their pastor's continuing education be a deductible item from church expenses for calculating apportionments. Any continuing educational programs in excess of $250.00 must be approved by the Conference Board of Ministry if such program is to be considered a deductible item.
6. That payments to all agencies be administered in strict accordance with budget and approved formula and no overdrafts be allowed except for payment of salaries of clergy under appointment by the Annual Conference. (Ref. to Program Council.)
7. That the unified budget and apportionment be continued.
8. Elected Thomas C. Roe as secretary.
9. Northeastern Jurisdiction Pension Equalization Fund—granted $1,624 to pay our 1969 apportionment in full.
10. That the Board of Christian Social Concerns be requested to assist agencies of the Annual Conference in locating applicants from minority groups for jobs.
11. That Weymouth and Smith of Greenville Center, Wilmington, Delaware, be engaged as the Conference insurance agent.
12. Committee on the Lay Worker—granted $100 for 1970 for the work of the Committee.
13. Board of Christian Social Concerns for Project Equality—$865.33 supplemental request for 1969 not granted.
14. That names of pastors of those charges which did not pay minimum apportionments be given to the Board of Pensions for pro-rating.
15. That travel reimbursement by all Conference Boards and Agencies be set at 10¢ per mile. All persons traveling must submit expense reports giving a detailed record of their reimbursable expenses. Voucher to be used to report expenses can be obtained from the Business Office. It is suggested that the members of Boards, Committees, and Commissions not be reimbursed for expenses such as travel or meals incurred in attending any regular or special meetings of their Boards, Committees, or Commissions held within the geographical bounds of the Peninsula Conference.
16. A letter went to all churches asking that they consider paying their lay member's and pastor's expenses to the 1970 Annual Conference and not collect per diem from the Conference.

This Commission makes the following recommendations for consideration and adoption:

(All recommendations of the Apportionment Committee were referred to the Conference Council by action of the Conference, Pages 66 & 67 Pre- Conf. report.)

Report of

Apportionment Committee

For many years the Commission on World Service and Finance has become increasingly aware of a lack of uniformity in the understanding of ministers and laymen regarding the basis of the Annual Apportionments. This situation prompts certain recommendations, the adoption of which is intended particularly to accomplish the following:

1. Serve as a point of reference from which a common understanding of the origin of Apportionments may develop throughout all Charges of the Conference.
2. Give the Charges greater freedom to financially develop their own projects without feeling "penalized" by subsequent Apportionments.

Recommendations of

Apportionment Committee

I. That beginning with the present Conference fiscal year all disbursements authorized by the Administrative Board for the local church or for any local church Agency, be divided into two classes to be designated as "Basics" and "Non-Basics". Lists of "Basics" and "Non-Basics" have been established and are listed below under Supplement A and Supplement B. Disbursements not included under "Basics" will be treated as "Non-Basics".

II. That the Annual Pastor's Report of the Peninsula Conference:

A. Provide spaces for all categories of "Basics" and "Non-Basics" for the local church, allowing the Pastor to identify the nature of any category not listed under Supplements A and B below.

B. Be filed with the Business Office on or before January 15 of the following year.

C. Be prepared by the Pastor and the Committee or Committees on Finance, and that space be provided for at least one chairman to sign the Report along with the pastor.

III. That the annual Apportionments be computed on the Pastor's Report of the preceding year, applying a pre-determined factor to the total of the following:

A. Disbursements for all "Basics". (Supplement A)

B. That portion of the total "Non-Basics" (after deducting principal and interest on indebtedness, building and capital expenditures, and Conference Apportionments paid) which exceeds 25% of the total "Basics".

C. The excess of the Conference Apportionment over the amount actually paid on the Apportionment.

IV. That some type of "Communications" meetings be held each November at the District level when members of the Conference Program Council and/or of the Conference Commission on Finance will be available for discussion and education.

Supplement A

Basics

Ministerial Support

Salary: Pastor under Appointment
Salary: Assistant Pastor under Appointment
Salaries: Other Ministers
Travel Expenses: All Ministers
Fringe Benefits
Cash Allowance for Parsonage Rental
Reimbursements for Personal Expenses
Parsonage Utilities
Parsonage Repairs

Salaries and Wages

Other Church Personnel

Maintaining Local Church Functions

Upkeep, Utilities, Insurance, etc.: Physical Facilities Church School: Literature and Other Supplies. Supplies: Other local church Agencies and Office. Special Costs: Worship Services and Other Programs.

Supplement B

Non-Basics

Principal and Interest on Indebtedness
Buildings and Capital Expenditures
Independent Kindergartens, Day Care Centers, etc.
W.S.C.S. Payments to District or Conference Treasurers Conference Apportionments World Service Gifts
General Advance Specials
One Great Hour of Sharing Fellowship of Suffering and Service

United Methodist Student Day
Youth Service Fund
Race Relations Sunday
Fund for Reconciliation
Christian Education Sunday
Higher Education
Conference Advance Specials Hospitals
Board of Child Care
Homes for the Aged
District Office
Methodist Action Program
Other Benevolences
(This list may be up-dated annually.)

2. That beginning in 1971 churches pay lay members and pastors expenses at The Annual Conference. The Conference will pay for retired ministers and probationary members appointed to attend school and not serving a church. Further that a per diem be determined by the Commission on World Service and Finance.
3. That all benevolence items for 1970 be reduced 15% to bring the budget in line with expected income.
4. That the apportionment rate for 1971 be .49.

The following shall be the World Service Conference Benevolence ratio for:

	1971		1970
World Service	$238,338	33.0%	$202,587	32.5%
Conference Benevolence	482,931	67.0%	420,117	67.5%
	$721,269	100.0%	$622,704	100.0%

The 1970 and 1971 budgets are a part of this report, and their adoption is recommended.

Respectfully submitted,

OTIS F. FIGGS, President.

Rev. William O. Hackett, Vice President.
Thomas C. Roe, Secretary.

Peninsula Conference
of the United Methodist Church

Gentlemen:

Pursuant to instructions we have made an audit of the cash received and disbursed by the Treasurer of the

OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

for the period May 1, 1968 to December 31, 1969 and present herewith our report as contained in the following:

Comments
Exhibit "A"—Statement of Condition—Board of Pensions Endowment Fund
Exhibit "B"—Statement of Fund Balances
Exhibit "C"—Cash Receipts and Disbursements Statement—Endowment Fund Principal Exhibit "D"—Cash Receipts and Disbursements Statement—Endowment Fund Income

Respectfully submitted,

COE, LUKENS & BUMPERS

Dated at Wilmington, Delaware
May 8, 1970

BOARD OF PENSIONS

COMMENTS

CASH—All cash receipts, as recorded in the record of cash received, were traced to their deposit in bank. Checks issued were examined for signatures, endorsements, etc. and traced to their entry in the disbursements records. Cash balances shown were reconciled with amounts reported by the bank as of December 31, 1969. We did not test the ministers' 1½% contributions to the Endowment Fund, nor did we inspect the individual record of payments to annuities.

MORTGAGES—The details of mortgage transactions during the period under audit are presented in Schedule No. 1. We have made a physical examination of the mortgages and other related documents and satisfied ourselves as to their overall accuracy with the exception of the following:

Emily Potts	No insurance policy
James A. Halter	No insurance policy
John W. Tunstall	No insurance policy

OTHER INVESTMENTS—The changes in the investments of the Endowment Fund during the period under audit are shown in detail in Schedules No. 2 and 3. All securities were either examined or confirmed by direct correspondence with custodians of items in safekeeping. Dividends and interest income for the period of our examination were verified by reference to accredited financial publications.

ACCOUNTANT'S OPINION—Our examination, subject to the comments contained herein, was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

The accompanying statements present fairly the financial position of the Board of Pensions Endowment Fund as of April 30, 1969 and December 31, 1969 and the results of its operations for the period then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the prior years.

COE, LUKENS & BUMPERS,

MEMOIRS

FRANK A. BAKER

One of the joys of the Christian Ministry is the fellowship of its brotherhood. It is in the warmth of that fellowship and as "laborers together with God" that Frank A. Baker was known. In the warmth of the Christian Ministry, it is an honor, as his son in the ministry, to write his memoir.

During the years of his ministry, he served the church that he loved, well. Full proof of his dedication was evident in his tireless and energetic labors, never satisfied until he brought results to the church, thus advancing God's Kingdom. Fidelity to pastoral work endeared him to those whom he served as a shepherd of the Good Shepherd.

The following words, often sung by him, speak of the inward drive that produced outward deeds of love.

"To love someone more dearly every day,
To help a wondering child to find his way,
To ponder o'er a noble thought, and pray,
And smile when evening falls, this is my task.

"To follow truth as blind men long for light,
To do my best from dawn of day til night,
To keep my heart fit for His holy sight,
And answer when He calls, this is my task.

"And then my Savior by and by to meet,
When faith hath made her task on earth complete,
And lay my homage at the Master's feet,
Within the jasper walls, this crowns my task."

Such were the blessings given his people to endure them to God and His church. He was friendly, cheerful, sympathetic. He loved people and life. He possessed a marvelous sense of humor. He could converse easily on all subjects. He was at ease with people in all walks of life. He was never too tired or too busy to listen to one's troubles with interest and understanding and to offer comfort and encouragement. He knew no strangers and when leaving his presence, one smiled again and felt renewed. A dedicated man — sincere, genuine, humble — he was truly a man of God.

Frank Augustus Baker, born December 23, 1890 at Chester, Pa., was the son of David W. and Mary Golt Baker. At the age of three weeks his family moved to Wilmington, Delaware. His active life in the church started as a "Class Leader" in the present Union United Methodist Church. At this time he worked for the Pennsylvania Railroad (now Penn Central) as foreman of its Wilmington shops. He was licensed to preach by the Union Methodist Church and received his ordination in 1925.

On April 21, 1913, he married Louise S. Reybold, also of Wilmington. Their 56 years together in the Christian Ministry brought many rich rewarding experiences.

During his 32 years of active ministry he served many churches in the Peninsula Conference. These included Edge Moor and Bellefont in the Wilmington area; Bayside charge, Millington, Newark, Fruitland, Dagsboro-St. Georges charge, Union-Federalsburg, Mt. Salem-Wilmington, Hillsboro-Queen Anne, Grace-Salisbury, Asbury-Crisfield.

After retirement he served pastorates at Deal Island and Riverside-Salisbury. He also served as assistant pastor of Asbury-Wilmington and Grace-Salisbury.

During his lifetime he believed in taking the church out of its walls and into the life of the community. He gained the reputation of deep involvement in community activities that were for the betterment of society. As a clergyman he was a retired Captain in the Civil Air Patrol of the Eastern Shore. During his years of ministry he was Chaplain of the Senate in the State of Delaware, Delmarva Fireman's Association, and Deers Head Hospital in Salisbury. He was an active sponsor of the Alcoholics Anonymous and instituted a Daily Devotion program over a radio station in the lower part of the Peninsula.

After a life of devotion to the needs of others and faithfulness to his Lord and Master, Frank A. Baker departed on August 7, 1969, in the Peninsula General Hospital in Salisbury, Maryland. A memorial service was held from the Grace United Methodist Church on August 9 with The Reverend Willard Robinson, pastor, conducting the service, assisted by The Reverend Dale Ruth, Superintendent of the Salisbury District, The Reverend Alton S. Miller, former Superintendent of the Salisbury District, and his son, the Reverend David W. Baker, a member of the Peninsula Conference. Interment was at the Spring Hill Memorial Gardens, Salisbury.

He is survived by his widow, Louise S. Reybold and four children: The Reverend David W. Baker; Mrs. Frances B. Robinson, Frank A. Baker, Jr. and Paul T. Baker, all of Salisbury; a sister, Mrs. Edith Grimes, ten grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

"For us who knew you, dread of age is past;
You took life, tiptoe, to the very last;
It never lost for you its lovely look;
You kept your interest in its thrilling Book;
To you, death came, no conqueror in the end—
You merely smiled to greet another friend."

Proud to be his son
DAVID W. BAKER

LAWRENCE C. BROWN

The Rev. Lawrence C. Brown served as assistant pastor at Mt. Zion Methodist Church in Philadelphia from 1930 to 1947. He was founder of the Emanuel United Methodist Church, 17th & York Streets, Philadelphia, and served there from 1947 until 1957, when he was appointed pastor of the Middletown Circuit in Middletown, Delaware. He retired in May 1969 but was called out of retirement to become pastor at Peniel United Methodist Church, 20th & Jefferson Streets, Philadelphia.

At the time of his death, Mr. Brown was 67 years of age and lived at 3339 N. Uber Street in Philadelphia. He married the former Esther Preston, who survives him, and they have a son, Ulysses, and a daughter, Mrs. Margie Young. He is also survived by a step-daughter, Mrs. Shirley Selder; two brothers, Daniel and Henry; and five grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at Mt. Zion Church and burial was in Eden Cemetery in Darby, Pa.

ADAH WILLIAMS COFFEY

The Rev. Adah Williams Coffey, born February 5, 1897 in Revana, Ohio, departed this life Sunday, January 25, 1970 in the Peninsula General Hospital following a lengthy illness. She was the only child of the late Howard C. and Beatrice Ann Gasby Williams.

She received her public and high school training in Cleveland, Ohio. The beginning of her third year, she registered as a student nurse in the Lakewood Hospital of Lakewood, Ohio.

She was joined in Holy Wedlock to the late Rev. William H. Coffey, Jr. of Philadelphia in 1917. No children were born to this union.

She was a member of the former Delaware Conference, serving with her husband. It was requested by the Quarterly Conference and approved by the District Conference of Easton, Md. that she assume the duties of her husband for the remainder of the year. This was the beginning of her ministry, serving three churches. After completing the required courses, she was ordained as a minister in 1946. Her appointments included five years as pastor of the Marion Station Circuit; serving four years under Rev. Oliver Spence, District Superintendent; and fourteen years as pastor of the Stockton Circuit, serving six years each under District Superintendents Rev. Cyrus W. Derickson and Rev. Ralph B. Thompson. She retired in 1961 under District Supt. Rev. John Elbert.

She moved to the Germantown area of Berlin, Maryland and became a member of the New Bethel United Methodist Church, affiliating with the Senior Choir. She held office in the Woman's Society of Christian Service and occasionally giving her services to other churches.

Her survivors include several nieces and nephews and a host of relatives and friends.

Precious Lord take my hand,
Lead me on let me stand
I am tired, I am weak, I am worn,
Through the storm, through the night
Lead me on to the light,
Take my hand Precious Lord Lead me on.

Sorrowfully submitted,
THE FAMILY

IRA EUGENE DOYLE

The Reverend Ira Eugene Doyle was born in Baltimore, Maryland, on June 23, 1914. Death came suddenly and unexpectedly while he was a patient in Kent and Queen Anne's Hospital in Chestertown, Maryland, on the morning of October 6, 1969. He is survived by his widow, Mildred Louise, and a son, Ira Eugene Jr. The funeral service was held in Rock Hall United Methodist Church at 2:00 p.m. on October 9th. Burial was in Wesley Chapel Cemetery, Rock Hall, Maryland. The participating clergymen were Dr. Daniel L. Ridout, The Reverend William B. Bundick, and The Reverend Bernard Hepbron.

Mr. Doyle received his AA degree from Wesley College in Dover, Delaware. He attended State Teachers College in Salisbury, Maryland; Washington College in Chestertown, Maryland and the University of Delaware in Newark, Delaware. He received his AB degree from Washington College. He earned his STB degree from The Temple School of Theology in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. He was a member of the Zeta Rho Chapter of Phi Theta Kappa, a national scholastic fraternity.

Mr. Doyle had many interests and served the local church, the district, and the conference in a commendable manner. He knew people, loved them all, and excelled as a visiting pastor. The charges he served were Kenton-Hartly, Mt. Pleasant, Camden, Rehoboth Beach, Georgetown Grace, and Rock Hall. He was pastor of Rehoboth United Methodist Church when the new church was built and it stands today as a monument of his untiring efforts and dedicated leadership. He was a member of Franklin Lodge 12 AF & AM, Georgetown and past grand chaplain of the Delaware Grand Lodge of Masons. At the time of his death he was chaplain of the Rock Hall Volunteer Fire Company.

Those who knew Ira will remember his moral influence, his ethical values, and his religious zeal. He had a keen interest in human beings, an unfailing friendship, and a faith that did not falter. He believed in the continuity of Christianity and was happy to be a part of the lengthening line of witnesses who laboured for the church. His influence was for good and he has left us a noble example.

From the beginning of his life, God placed His hand on Ira and never took it off. The two lived and worked in close companionship. Now we treasure the abiding presence of one who lived in the center of God's will and we believe that he is not very far away. Since we do not doubt God's tender love, we believe that Ira lives a new and larger life. When he left, he did not go into darkness, but rather into the light of ever-lasting love.

Ira's death reminds us that no one can make all his dreams come true. The timetable must be in God's hands. One can pray and work and then hope that when he is done others will continue with unflagging zeal and deeper devotion. A name may fade from the written page but continue to live on in the mind and heart and life. Ira leaves us precious memories of his faith and his faithfulness. The Light within was the source of his joy and strength. He understood his relationship to God and to people. His contributions to the church cannot be measured as he went about with a smiling heart bringing comfort to the troubled and peace to the perplexed. He fought the good fight, endured to the end, and has won the crown. "Thou dost show me the path of life; in thy presence is fulness of joy, in thy right hand are pleasures for evermore."

WILLIAM B. BUNDICK

JAMES RICHARD HUGHES

James Richard Hughes was born in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, September 11, 1922, the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hughes. He was educated at Stoneybrook Preparatory School, graduating Cum Laude in 1940. His education was interrupted by service in the armed forces. He served as a Lieutenant in the U.S. Navy. In 1947 he graduated from Houghton College in Houghton, New York. On March 22, 1947, he was married to Betty Louise Slade of Ardmore, Pennsylvania. In 1949 he graduated from Eastern Baptist Theological Seminary in Philadelphia. In 1951 he was awarded the STB and STM degrees from Temple University, and did graduate work in the field of pastoral care and counselling.

He served two charges in the Peninsula Conference. In 1948 he was appointed to the Queenstown charge in Queenstown, Maryland, and in 1955 he was appointed to Aldersgate United Methodist Church in Wilmington, which he served until his death. His civic activities played a prominent part in his work throughout his ministry. While at Queenstown he served as chairman of the Queen Anne County Recreation Committee. He was president of the Queen Anne County Mental Health Association and also president of the Queen Anne County Health Association.

In Wilmington his civic activities included membership on the Board of Managers of the Brandywine YMCA, and president of the Mental Health Association. In 1967 he was appointed to the Board of Trustees of the Department of Mental Health by Governor Charles E. Terry and elected its president.

His Conference activities were many and varied. For four years he was a member of the Board of Directors of the Wilmington-New Castle County Council of Churches. He has served as president of the Peninsula Conference Board of Education and a member of the Board of Trustees of Wesley College, Dover, Delaware. He served four years as chairman of the Conference Board of the Clergy. This is only a partial listing of the many areas in which he served the Conference.

Mr. Hughes was a man of many talents with which he served his Church and his fellow man. He was an excellent preacher and able administrator. It was largely through his leadership, vision, and faith that Aldersgate United Methodist Church grew to be a Church of over 3,000 members at the time of his death. He excelled in pastoral counselling and countless people will remember him with gratitude. His training in this field led to the wide use of his talents in the field of mental health. The Conference and the communities in which he served are deeply indebted to him for the leadership he gave to causes for the common good.

It was the writer's good fortune to be numbered among his close friends and he writes out of a sense of indebtedness for many blessed memories for his friend's abiding faith in God, his courage and good cheer in the face of long suffering, and his utter devotion to the things which he believed to be right and true. His health gradually failed and he died on November 15, 1969. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Betty Louise Hughes, and his mother, Mrs. Jean MacCorkle. The funeral services were held in Aldersgate United Methodist Church on November 16, 1969, and were conducted by the Reverend J. Robert Mackey, and Bishop John Wesley Lord. He is buried in Lower Brandywine Cemetery, Wilmington, Delaware.

ERNEST J. JOHNSON

Ernest J. Johnson, son of the late John and Priscilla Bratten Johnson, was born July 11, 1889 in Girdletree, Maryland and departed this life Tuesday morning, June 10th, 1969, in Deers Head Hospital.

He was 79 years and 11 months old. He had a long illness.

He was converted at St. Matthew United Church in his youth, and served in his church as a member of the Trustee Board, Class Leader, Steward and Church School Superintendent and as a Local Preacher also. He was a dedicated worker, loved by all — children, youth and adults.

He finished his courses of study at Temple University, Philadelphia, Pa.; Bennett College, North Carolina; Morris Town, Tennessee; and Maryland State College. He entered the Delaware Conference, and served as Pastor of the following charges, Cottage Grove, Maryland; Wachapreague, Va.; Crisfield, Maryland; White Haven, Maryland; and Greenwood, Maryland. He retired in 1961 and then served one year at Powellville and Hutts Memorial, Maryland. He served faithfully for 21 years. His favorite hymns were, "Nothing Between My Soul And My Saviour", and "Jewels From Youth To Old Age."

He was united in holy wedlock to Miss Nettie B. Hayward in 1911. To this union 12 children were born. He was a faithful and loving father, and a devoted husband, a christian leader to the family. We loved him dearly, and words cannot express how we shall miss his smiling face. But knowing that he was loved by people, will help us to bear what time will be.

Surviving are his wife, Nettie; five daughters: Dorothy Parker of Girdletree, Md., Lillian Bishop, Snow Hill, Md., Cleola Unthank, Wenonah, New Jersey, Thelma Hudson, New Rochelle, New York, and Alnora Allen, Philadelphia, Pa. Six sons, Ernest J. Johnson, Jr., and Gilbert Johnson, Wesley and Irving Johnson, all of New Rochelle, N. Y.; Leon Johnson of Snow Hill, Md.; 19 grandchildren; 3 sisters — Miss Ollie Johnson, Frances Waters both of Snow Hill, Md., Virginia Young of New Rochelle, N. Y.

There's an open gate at the end of the road
Through which each must go alone
And there is a light we cannot see,
Our Father claims His own.
Beyond the gate our loved one finds happiness and rest
And there is comfort in the thought that a loving God knows best.
Yes, God loved him best.

DAVID T. LEWIS

J. EDWARD LAYTON

The Reverend Joshua Edward Layton was born at Concord, Delaware on February 23, 1892. He grew up near Seaford, attended the public schools of Sussex County and in young manhood moved to Wilmington where he met and married the former Elsie Warrick. At first he became associated in business with The Phillips-Thompson Company, but then his real calling began to assert its demands and he found himself answering the call of his church and beginning a ministry at Edgemoor, which was to grow into the work of a lifetime and cover a period of forty-seven years. After four years he moved to Holly Oak where he spent nearly two decades. Then he began an itineracy which was to take him back to Greenwood and to Mt. Pleasant in his native Sussex where he would spend the remainder of his active career. On retirement in 1959 he returned to Wilmington and after a years rest began another decade of active work as minister of visitation at St. Paul's, Asbury and finally Peninsula Church. He had often expressed a wish that when his time came to die he should be found in the active service of his Lord. On Saturday, November 22, while solemnizing a wedding he was stricken, and early on Sunday morning, November 23rd, he died.

Ed Layton, or Josh as he was sometimes affectionately called, had a host of friends throughout the conference. He was a Mason, a member of Washington Lodge No. 1 and The Masonic Club of Delaware; had been active in Kiwanis and other service organizations including those related to the military. He was a veteran of World War I, a former director of The Anti-Saloon League and The Temperance League of Delaware. Friendly and outgoing in all his ways and always willing to be of service, he was sometimes referred to as "everybody's preacher".

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Elsie Warrick Layton; a son, Edward W. and a daughter, Mrs. Gertrude Daniels, all of Wilmington. There are two grandchildren and a sister, Mrs. Ida Collins of San Diego, California.

Services were conducted on November 26th by the Rev. Howell O. Wilkins, District Superintendent, and The Rev. John E. French, Pastor of Peninsula United Methodist Church. Interment was in Gracelawn Memorial Park, Wilmington. As I left the cemetery that day I recalled something I had read about another preacher. It said that when Dick Sheppard died a certain famous newspaper had a cartoon. It showed a pulpit, and on it an open Bible, and beneath it the sentence: "Here endeth the reading of the first lesson."

JOHN EDWARD FRENCH

ANDREW McFARLAND

Rev. Thomas Andrew McFarland was born June 22, 1890 at Drumdull, Ireland. He came to America in 1915. On May 6, 1916 he arrived in South Dakota to join the Dakota Methodist Episcopal Annual Conference. He was admitted on trial in 1919; into full membership in 1921; ordained Elder in 1925. He attended Dakota Wesleyan 1919-21; Nebraska Wesleyan 1923-4; Garrett Seminary 1924-5.

After coming from the West in 1938, he took membership in the Wilmington Annual Conference, and after the merger of our conference, he continued and finished his ministry in the Peninsula Conference. During his stay in the East, he served the following charges: Millington, Oriole, Federalsburg, Ebenezer at Easton, Calvary at Wilmington, Delaware, and then his final pastorate, while in the active service, at Mt. Pleasant, Crisfield, Maryland, where he had seven most successful years.

However, for the last twelve years, though officially retired, he continued to preach and kept many small churches from closing their doors. At the recent Annual Conference he was relieved of a three church circuit but retained St. Martins Church. Under his leadership this church grew and took on new life. So, in this church his activities continued until the day of his departure. On Friday, Oct. 24, while he was waiting for a cup of tea, his spirit slipped over into the next life.

Surviving is his faithful widow, Mrs. Anna T. Seymour McFarland, married April 13, 1914 while still in Ireland. He and she made a great team for kingdom building wherever they served.

During the last few months of his ministry at St. Martins, the church had a dream and saw a vision; it was the erection of an annex or the renovation of the entire church. Under the leadership of the new pastor the church is going to make the dream come true.

Rev. McFarland was of deep sincerity and devotion to his holy CALLING. He preached the gospel with conviction and power. His reward was to see many souls saved, their lives transformed and brought into the service of the Lord. One could not be with Mac and Anna long without hearing of their spiritual achievements back across their ministry.

Yes, he had a passion for souls and he preached a passionate gospel. He felt, as someone has said:

"Set us afire Lord, stir us we pray
While the world perishes we go our way
Purposeless, passionless, day after day
Set us afire Lord, stir us we pray."

As we have indicated, death came Friday, October 24, 1969. The funeral was held on Tuesday at 11 a.m., following, with Rev. Dale Ruth, his District Superintendent, conducting the service in St. Martins Church, assisted by Rev. F. H. Truitt and the writer. He was buried in the beautiful Gracelawn Cemetery, Wilmington, Delaware, awaiting the glorious resurrection.

"I know not what the future hath
Of marvel or surprise,
Assured alone that life and death
God's mercy underlies."

THEASDAR MADISON MURRAY

The Reverend Theasdar Madison Murray, devoted son of the late Rufus and Rachel Murray, was born at McDaniel, Maryland on October 8, 1912, and departed this life suddenly on Monday, April 27, 1970 at Claiborne, Maryland. Rev. Murray had one brother and one sister who have also preceded him in death. He attended school at McDaniel, Maryland. For four years he attended the Pastor's School of the Delaware Conference. Last summer, he attended Duke University in Durham, North Carolina.

On August 1, 1932, he was married to the former Miss Bertha Plater of Claiborne, Maryland. To this union, no children were born.

The Rev. Theasdar Madison Murray served for 19 years in Talbot, Dorchester and Caroline Counties. He served the Miles River Charge, the Cambridge Circuit, and the Ridgely Circuit.

He leaves to mourn his sudden passing his beloved and devoted wife, Mrs. Bertha Plater Murray, one sister, one brother, twelve cousins, 4 nephews and 1 niece, Carlton Murray, Dallas Murray, Michael Murray, Bryant Wells, Denice Wells, and a host of other very close relatives and friends. Faithful servant, take your rest.

Beyond life's golden sunset
Lies a city bright and fair;
In the land of God's tomorrow
And our loved one awaits us there . . .
'Tis a place of wondrous beauty
Where they know not grief or fears,
And where God Himself in tenderness,
Shall wipe away . . . all tears.
So, rejoice today in knowing,
That our loved one has found peace . . .
In the land of God's tomorrow,
Where His blessings never cease.

Sorrowfully,
THE FAMILY

EARL M. SHOCKLEY

The Reverend Earl M. Shockley was born on November 30, 1887 in Townsend, Delaware. His parents were Lemuel B. Shockley and Annie C. Shockley. A brother, Clyde Shockley, of Townsend; a sister, Mrs. Naomi Morgan of Wilmington, Delaware; and his widow, Mrs. H. Julia Shockley, survive him. His schools were Goldey College of Wilmington, and Drew University of Madison, New Jersey.

On January 22, 1913, Earl M. Shockley and H. Julia Wells were married in the McCabe Parsonage by The Reverend Frank C. McSorley. This was no ordinary marriage, for here began a team whose able consecration enriched all their churches, causing us to remember them with personal and professional admiration.

His appointments were Bayside, Still Pond, North East, Brandywine Wilmington, Selbyville, Wesley Dover, Harrison Street Wilmington and Ebenezer Easton, Maryland, where a most noteworthy pastorate was abruptly halted by an illness, which caused his retirement.

Earl's Conference kept him busy in connectional responsibilities throughout his thirty years ministry. He was Secretary of the Conference Board of Education, a member of the Board of Ministerial Training and served as one of the Assistant Conference Secretaries for several years.

This remarkable Christian minister linked pulpit power with pastoral concern in all his parishes. He was sought after by local church leaders and district superintendents because his record revealed that he neglected no phase of a pastor's vocation. His churches increased in Christian influence and numbers under his leadership. On Thursday, April 23, 1970, our friend of many years was promoted to his heavenly reward, at the Methodist Country House, Wilmington, Delaware, where he and Mrs. Shockley had been living for several years.

The funeral service was conducted by Reverend Willard Robinson, on April 27, 1970, at the McCreary Funeral Home, Wilmington, Delaware. Rev. Curtis Smith directed the interment at the Townsend, Delaware Cemetery. Here indeed, was one of God's choice gentlemen.

EMMA HESS BARRETT

"Friendship is in loving rather than in being lov'd, which is its mutual benediction and recompense . . ." (Robert Bridges)

Emma Camille, daughter of Francis Wesley Hess and Mary Elizabeth (Atwell) Hess, was born November 19, 1885, in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Her childhood was spent in Townsend, Delaware, where she was baptized and received into membership in Immanuel Methodist Episcopal Church in 1899.

She early showed her gift for homemaking as she spent some time as a nursemaid for two young sisters living in Philadelphia and in New England. She spent several years in Ohio caring for an elderly invalid aunt.

Later, while making her home with a sister, Mrs. Benjamin H. Spence at Christiana, Delaware, she met the Rev. Thomas S. Barrett, who was then pastor of Christiana charge. They were married in Wilmington, Delaware, on March 22, 1915, by the Rev. E. L. Hoffecker.

Thomas and Emma shared twenty-four happy years of married life. The last years he spent as an invalid, following a stroke, she was a loving, faithful nurse who never left his side. These years were in Piney Neck and Mardela Springs, Maryland, where Mr. Barrett passed away in 1939 at the age of 82.

Soon after this, Mrs. Barrett returned to Townsend to live with Mrs. Thomas Lattomus and to care for Mrs. Lattomus' failing mother. She stayed on as friend and companion to Mrs. Lattomus until 1967, when she entered the Masonic Home of Delaware. Her months there were filled with Christian faith and witness and with enjoyment of friends old and new. She died at the Home on March 2, 1969, aged eighty-three.

A funeral service was held for her near Elsmere on March 6, with her pastor, the Rev. Curtis W. Smith of Townsend, officiating. Her body was buried in Townsend Cemetery.

(This memoir was not received in time for publication in the 1969 Conference Journal.)

ANNA ELIZABETH CUMMINGS

Anna Elizabeth Winkler, daughter of James Richard and Margaret Brown Winkler, was born April 27, 1899, in Wilmington, Delaware. Educated in the Wilmington Public Schools, she was employed in the office of a well-known Wilmington Company until she married T. Vernon Scarborough on July 3, 1920.

Much of their very happy life was dedicated to Peninsula Methodist Church from its early years. Their home was a House of Rare Hospitality, enjoyed by many, but especially by all the Pastors of Peninsula Church. Vernon, a Veteran of World War I, was an official member of Peninsula Church through all his years. He served in many capacities with sacrificial devotion until a long illness was terminated in the Veterans' Hospital, Elsmere, in 1952.

On April 25, 1953, Anna Elizabeth was united in marriage to the Reverend J. Earl Cummings, D. D., her former pastor, in Peninsula Methodist Church by its current Pastor, the Reverend John N. Link, S.T.D.

With her distinguished husband, she served Salem Methodist Church, Selbyville, Delaware, for seven years, 1953-1960. Then with Dr. Cummings, she served the Richardson Park Church until his retirement on April 30, 1964.

Throughout her life, Anna was a devoted and dedicated Christian. Beautiful and charming, gifted with many talents, loving people and loved by them, her life was spent in unselfish service for others. Whatever she was asked to do, she did well with grace and graciousness.

In Peninsula Church, she served very successfully two terms as President of its Woman's Society of Christian Service. For many years she was a dependable member and soloist of the Choir, also Church Visitor. In 1950, she was elected the first president of the United Church Women of Delaware. She also served as the Chairman of the 1965 Annual Fall Festival of The Methodist Country House on Kennett Pike, Wilmington, Del.

During her eleven years as a Pastor's wife, she was always a charming hostess. Her ever-present smile, pleasant conversation, quiet and sincere speech won the appreciation, affection and confidence of the children, youth and adults in the Churches to which her husband was assigned. Her Christian character, thoughtfulness, deeds of kindness and wise guidance will live on in the hearts and lives of those who knew and loved her.

Early in the morning of February 27, 1970, after a long illness and many months in the Infirmary of The Methodist Country House, she went Home to be with her Lord, and with loved ones and friends who had preceded her.

Funeral services were at 2 P.M. on Monday, March 2, 1970, in Richardson Park United Methodist Church. They were conducted by her friend of a quarter of a century, the Reverend John N. Link, S.T.D., assisted by the Reverend Olin J. Shockley, Jr., Pastor of the Richardson Park United Methodist Church, and the Reverend John E. French, D.D., Pastor of Peninsula United Methodist Church. Interment was in Gracelawn Cemetery, Wilmington, where another long-time friend, the Reverend Guy E. Leister also assisted.

In addition to her husband, the Reverend J. Earl Cummings, D.D., she is survived by a niece, the former Kay Winkler, now the wife of Dr. William C. Blase of Amsterdam, New York; and by Mr. and Mrs. J. Earl Cummings, Jr., and their three children, Carol, Jeannine and Mark of Wilmington, Delaware.

JOHN N. LINK, S.T.D.

WINIFRED BEATRICE DENNIS

Winifred Beatrice Dennis departed this life, Sunday, June 1, 1969 about 7:30 A.M. She was born June 24, 1889 to Thomas E. and Alice King Polk.

She joined Allen Methodist Church at an early age and remained a faithful member, worked in various organizations and was also a member of the choir.

In the year 1915 she was joined in Holy Matrimony to Robert Wayne Dennis. She followed her husband in his ministry and was a great help to him.

She had a lovely personality and was loved by all. She took a special joy in being with her children and always wanted them to live close to God.

She leaves to mourn a husband, Rev. Robert Wayne Dennis; three daughters: Mrs. Anne Jones, Mrs. Lorraine Dorman of Allen, and Miss Winifred Dennis of Philadelphia. Eight sons: Rev. Nathaniel Dennis of Allen; Rev. Roland Dennis of Wittman; Robert, Albert, Alfred and Elmer of Allen; and Carroll and Jerome of Philadelphia. Two sisters, Mrs. Lelia Hayman of Baltimore and Mrs. Celestina Church of Allen, Maryland; two brothers, Mr. Thomas Polk of Philadelphia and Everett Polk of Washington, D. C. Twenty-five grandchildren, two great grandchildren and a host of nieces and nephews, other relatives and friends.

We cannot change the Divine Laws, but we can face the days ahead with courage and with hope, thankful for the joys that we have had with those we love.

THE FAMILY

LOLA ELLEN DONOWAY

Lola Ellen Donoway, the devoted wife of Walter A. Donoway, was born in Whiton, Maryland, on April 30, 1901, the daughter of James P. and Susan Given Jones. Lola and Walter were married on April 6, 1927, and were privileged to share nearly forty-three happy years together.

In her quiet and unpretentious way, this gracious lady of the parsonage labored beside her husband with a steady loyalty and a constant concern that richly blessed the people of their parishes. She was loved and respected from the beginning to the end. Even in the retirement years at Bethesda Church, Salisbury, where her husband serves as Minister of Visitation, her friendliness and faithfulness won her a very large place in the affection of the members.

Lola was called to the Father's House on January 23, 1970, following hospitalization at Peninsula General. Funeral services were conducted in Bethesda Church, Salisbury, on January 26, 1970, by the Rev. Dale Ruth, Dr. John French, the Rev. W. Daniel Rich and the writer of this memoir. Interment was in Wicomico Memorial Park, Salisbury.

Surviving in addition to her husband and mother are: her son, Walter J. Donoway, two granddaughters and five brothers.

KENNETH RAY ROSE

MARY E. HOLLAND

Mrs. Mary E. Holland, widow of the late Rev. John R. Holland, died on Wednesday, October 22, 1969 in the Layton Home where she had been a guest for two years.

She was born in Norbeck, Maryland, where she attended the public schools before pursuing further education in Washington, D. C.

She was active in church work, having served as president of the Delaware Conference Ministers' Wives Association, and as a pioneer in the Delaware Conference Home Missionary Society.

After the death of her husband, she lived with her daughter, Mrs. Helen V. Crippen, and joined the New Bethel United Methodist Church in South Berlin, Maryland. Before retiring to the Layton Home for Aged Persons, she lived with another daughter, Mrs. Esther C. Porter of Wilmington, and again became associated with Ezion United Methodist Church. She is survived by these two daughters, one son, Merrill W. Holland, Esquire, of Philadelphia, six grandchildren, ten great-grandchildren, and many other relatives.

Mrs. Holland was a patient, loving, wife and mother, and a conscientious worker in her church and community. The beautiful life she lived exemplified these words, "Let me live in the house by the side of the road and be a friend to man." This spirit prevailed until the very end. Some of her last words were, "I love everybody."

Servant of God, well done! Thy glorious warfare past,
The battle's fought, the race is won,
And thou are crowned at last.
With saints enthroned on high, Thou dost thy Lord proclaim,
And still to God's salvation cry, Salvation to the Lamb!
O happy, happy soul! In ecstacies of praise
Long as eternal ages roll, Thou seest thy Savior's face.
Redeemed from earth, and pain, ah! when shall we ascend,
And all in Jesus' presence reign, through ages without end?

THE FAMILY

EVANGELINE J. HUGHES

Evangeline J. Hughes, a daughter of the late Thomas and Mamie McCorkle Dula, was born November 21, 1907, in Hickory, North Carolina, and departed this life September 21, 1969.

She received her high school diploma from the Ridgeview High School, Hickory, North Carolina, and graduated from Clark University, Atlanta, Georgia.

Mrs. Hughes professed Christ at an early age and joined Hartzell United Methodist Church, Hickory, N. C. She worked faithfully in the church as church organist and a teacher in the Sunday School until she moved away. On December 22, 1952, she further dedicated her life to the work of God when she married the late Rev. Royal C. Hughes. She was known for her beautiful singing and she was loved by all with whom she came in contact in the churches and communities where she lived and worked.

After her husband retired from the ministry, he and Mrs. Hughes joined Ezion United Methodist Church. After his death she continued to serve the church in whatever capacity she could until she became incapacitated by ill health. Before her illness, she was employed on the staff of the Neighborhood House in charge of the Choir. She was a former president of the WSCS, chairman of the Sunshine Committee, member of the Elks, Interdenominational Ministers' Wives Alliance, Beauticians' Association and Choir #2. Mrs. Hughes bore her illness bravely with a smile, never complaining, saying, "My time is in His hands." She was a lover of life and living.

She leaves to mourn her passing, one sister, Miss Katherine Dula of the home; one brother, Thomas Dula of Washington, D.C.; three step-daughters, Mrs. Vivian Pretlow, Smithfield, Va., Mrs. Lois Caphart and Mrs. Sylvia Carter, Cape May, N. J.; and a host of other relatives and friends.

JOHN WESLEY COLEMAN

REVA JUSTIS POWELL

Reva Justis Powell, daughter of the Rev. E. Carroll Justis of Parsonsburg, Maryland and the late Mrs. Justis, was born May 7, 1909 in Bloxom, Virginia.

In 1929, she was married to the Rev. Lucian L. Powell. She labored faithfully with her late husband in the ministry until an automobile accident claimed his life on October 2, 1953 while they were serving Christ Methodist Church in Federalsburg, Md. She was also a loving and faithful mother. Three children survive her.

Reva did not enjoy the health that many of us have; however, she was not given to complaining. She bore her afflictions, not as a cross, but as a challenge.

After a long illness, she departed this life on May 7, 1970 to be at home with the Lord. Funeral services for her were held on May 9, 1970 at the Wallace Funeral Home, Salisbury, Maryland. She had made her home in Salisbury since the passing of her husband. Interment was in the family burial plot in Parksley, Virginia.

Requiescat (John Ellerton)

Now the laborer's task is o'er; Now the battle day is past;
Now upon the farther shore lands the voyager at last.
Father, in Thy gracious keeping leave we now Thy servant sleeping.

GERTIE HAMILTON ROBERTS

Neath the greensward on a gentle slope in Pine Grove Cemetery, midst the lovely rolling hills surrounding Mt. Airy, Maryland, lie the mortal remains of one of the loveliest and most gracious ladies ever to grace a Methodist parsonage.

Gertie Hamilton Roberts, known affectionately by so many as Gertie, was born September 27, 1885 near Morgantown, West Virginia. Death came to her April 7, 1970.

Her parents were Dr. and Mrs. Hamilton Young. He was a minister in the former Methodist Protestant Church in West Virginia.

Her Christian training as the daughter of a Methodist minister shone through during the years she presided over many parsonages as the wife of the Reverend Doctor Winfred P. Roberts, one of the stalwarts of the Methodist Church. They were married October 4, 1905 and from then on together they served many churches in Maryland and Delaware, also one in Philadelphia, Pa. and another in Seattle, Washington.

After Dr. Roberts retired in 1949 they made their home at a beautiful cottage in Mt. Airy, Md. It was not long thereafter when she found it necessary to begin nursing her husband through the agonizing months and years until his untimely death from cancer November 23, 1952. God's grace was with her and gave her strength for that ordeal.

It is comforting for those of us who remain to know that they are now together again in their heavenly home where suffering is no more and where they are receiving from their Lord the "Well done good and faithful servants" which they so richly deserve.

Mrs. Roberts is survived by two children, Maurice Roberts and Mrs. Dorothy Etzler, a twin sister, Mrs. Grace B. Farr, 6 grandchildren, 6 great grandchildren, and a great great grandchild.

Funeral services were conducted in Calvary United Methodist Church, Mt. Airy, Md. by the Rev. C. Roger Elgert on Friday, April 10, 1970.

The following lines were used in concluding Dr. Roberts memoirs and Mrs. Roberts requested that they also be used in concluding hers.

"On any morning,
Think of stepping on a shore and finding it Heaven.
Of breathing new air and finding it celestial.
Of feeling invigorated and finding immortality.
Of passing from storm and stress into perfect calm.
Of waking up and finding it home."

CLINTON H. BROWN

CAROLYN BENDLER STERLING

Mrs. Carolyn Bendler Sterling, widow of the Reverend George E. Sterling, entered the Church Triumphant on January 8, 1970. The daughter of Charles F. and Emma Loockerman Bendler, Mrs. Sterling was a native of Port Penn, Delaware. On March 25, 1911, in New York City, she married the Reverend George E. Sterling, a Methodist minister. For almost a half century Mrs. Sterling shared the pastoral ministry of her husband in several communities in Maryland, Virginia, and Delaware, and, therefore, was well-known throughout the Delmarva Peninsula.

In 1949 the Sterlings assumed the pastorate of Silverbrook Church, where they came to be greatly loved by the families of this congregation. The gothic altar, pulpit, lecturn and reredos created and erected by the Reverend Mr. Sterling are appropriate symbols of the beautiful relationships enjoyed by these two servants of the Lord among the people of Silverbrook.

After the sudden death of her husband on January 17, 1958, Mrs. Sterling moved back into the former parsonage at 608 Harrington Street, Union Park Gardens, and continued to grace our presence with her faithfulness and peace. Although in declining health recently, she was able to enjoy the loving care of her daughter, Mrs. Marguerite S. Benthall, at her home until just before the Lord welcomed her with "Well done, good and faithful servant! Enter into the joy of thy Lord."

In addition to Mrs. Benthall, who is principal of the Alexis I. du Pont High School, Mrs. Sterling is survived by a son, G. Rodman Sterling of Wilmington, and his daughters, Deborah and Sandra; also by a sister, Mrs. Lina D. Moore of Port Penn.

Services were conducted in Silverbrook Church on January 10, 1970, by the Pastor, with the Reverend Richard Stazesky delivering the Memorial Meditation. Interment was in Gracelawn Memorial Park.

BESSIE BELL BRIDDELL SUTTON

Bessie Bell Briddell Sutton, daughter of John W. and Mary Olivia Briddell, was born February 18, 1890, in Princess Anne, Maryland. On October 7, 1907 she married one of her school techers, John W. Sutton. A year later Mr. Sutton left his teaching career and entered the Methodist Ministry on a full-time basis.

Bessie and John Sutton had a family of three children: Paul Weldon (deceased), John Wilmer, and Dorothy E. Collins. Mrs. Sutton not only faithfully fulfilled her wifely and maternal roles but also dutifully and enthusiastically labored with her husband in the ministry of the Methodist Church from 1907 until Mr. Sutton's retirement in 1937. Following retirement, the Suttons returned to Princess Anne where Mr. Sutton died on April 11, 1939. Mrs. Bessie Sutton continued to maintain her home in Princess Anne until her death August 14, 1969.

Funeral services were conducted in the Hinman Funeral Home, Princess Anne, on August 17, 1969 by her pastor, the Reverend Howard Evans, and this writer. The interment was in the Manokin Cemetery, Princess Anne, Maryland.

One of Mrs. Sutton's favorite poems, part of which she was fond of quoting when I visited her was:

"For, though from out of our bourne of time and place
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have crossed the bar."

OMRO M. TODD

ZILLAH ELIZABETH TOWNSEND

Zillah Elizabeth Townsend, nee Munroe, was born on December 1, 1891, in Baltimore, Maryland, the daughter of Henry Randolph and Anna Matilda Munroe. Mrs. Townsend was the third of six children, three of whom preceded her in death.

On June 18, 1919, in Wilton Heights Methodist Church, Baltimore, she was united in marriage to the Reverend John William Townsend. They began their ministry in Cannon, Delaware. Together they served faithfully a number of appointments, the last being First Church, Delmar, from which they retired in 1958. The Townsends made their home in Delmar. Soon after the death of her husband in 1968, Mrs. Townsend went to live in the United Methodist Manor House in Seaford, Delaware. Mrs. Townsend was known, as a very sympathetic, understanding, and compassionate person, rising to the occasion when she could be of service to mankind. As one person has stated, "Her life could well be called a life of service to others." One instance, when a crippling disease confined a mother to a hospital, Mrs. Townsend took the infant daughter, caring for her for nine months. One of Mrs. Townsend's talents was that of needlework and sewing, from crocheting afghans to the finest of laces, from millinery to dressmaking. She made a tremendous contribution to the Annual Bazaars at the Manor House. She was busily engaged in making beautiful lace and other handwork for the last bazaar when the final illness overtook her.

She finally passed on to her eternal reward on Friday, Feb. 13, 1970. Funeral services were held Monday, February 16, 1970 in St. Stephen's United Methodist Church, Delmar. The Reverend Maxwell J. Roberts was in charge, the Rev. T. C. Short gave the message. Interment was in the St. Stephen's Cemetery.

Mrs. Townsend is survived by a son, James Munroe Townsend, Plantation, Florida; two grandchildren, Stephen and Mrs. Sandra Street, one great grandson, all in the south. She also leaves a brother, Lowell Munroe and a sister, Maxine Munroe Penn, both of Baltimore, Maryland. A daughter, Shirley Ann Townsend parted this life on September 29, 1946.

Servant of God, well done!
Thy glorious warfare's past;
The battle's fought, the race is won,
And thou art crowned at last.
With saints enthroned on high,
Thou dost thy Lord proclaim,
And still to God salvation cry,
Salvation to the Lamb!

MAXWELL JAMES ROBERTS

EMMA J. WINDSOR

Emma J. Windsor, widow of the late Lester E. Windsor, died on Sunday, March 15, 1970 in the Milford, Delaware hospital, after a long illness. Funeral services were conducted at the Watson-Gray Melson Funeral Home in Frankford, Delaware, on March 18, 1970 by the Rev. Elmer Bennett. Interment was in the Bridgeville, Delaware Cemetery by the side of her first husband, A. C. Jones.

Mrs. Windsor is survived by two sons, David G. Jones, Harrington and James C. Jones, Delmar, Delaware. The third son, Nelson, died in a car accident in 1959. Several grandchildren and a brother, Walter Carmean, Frankford, Delaware and two nephews also survive.

Mrs. Windsor, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Carmean, was born in Virginia on November 13, 1900. She graduated from Virginia Schools and William & Mary College. She later married A. C. Jones. She taught school for many years in Delaware, after the death of her husband. She later married Rev. Lester E. Windsor in January, 1959. After their retirement they lived at Frankford, Delaware, and Ocean City, Maryland where she continued until death. Her late sister, Mrs. Ester Carmean Windsor, died in an accident at Orangeburg, S. C. in 1957, the first wife of Rev. Lester E. Windsor.

"There is a destiny that makes us brother and sister
None goes his or her way alone.
All that we send into the lives of others
Comes back into our own."

MISCELLANEOUS

(a) CONFERENCE RULES OF ORDER

Rule 1. The Conference shall meet at 9:00 A.M. and adjourn at 12:30 P.M. But the Conference may, in its discretion, alter the time of meeting and adjournment.

Rule 2. The President shall decide all questions of order, subject to an appeal to the Conference; but in case of such an appeal the question shall be taken without debate, except that the appellant may make a simple statement of the grounds of his appeal.

Rule 3. All resolutions, motions, amendments and substitute motions presented to the Annual Conference shall be submitted to the Secretary in writing at the time they are made or as soon thereafter as possible.

Rule 4. When a motion is made and seconded, or a resolution is introduced and seconded, or a report presented and read by the Secretary, or stated by the President, it shall be deemed in possession of the Conference; but any motion or resolution may be withdrawn by the mover, with the consent of the Conference, at any time before amendment or decision.

Rule 5. The motion to Lay on the Table, or to Take from the Table, and for the Previous Question, shall be taken without debate.

Rule 6. No new motion or resolution shall be entertained until the one under consideration has been disposed of, which may be done by adoption or rejection, unless one of the following motions shall intervene, which shall have precedence in the order in which they are placed, namely:

(1) To fix the time to which the Conference shall adjourn.
(2) To adjourn.
(3) To take a recess.
(4) To lay on the table.
(5) For the previous question.
(6) To postpone to a given time.
(7) To refer.
(8) To substitute.
(9) Amendment.
(10) To postpone indefinitely.

A motion to amend shall be in order, and a substitute for both amendments may be received, which substitute may be amended only once, and if a substitute be accepted, it shall operate as an amendment to the original proposition.

Rule 7. When a member is about to speak in debate, or to deliver any matter to the Conference, he shall rise and respectfully address the President, but shall not proceed until recognized by him.

Rule 8. No member shall be interrupted while speaking, except by the President to call him to order when he departs from the question, or uses personalities or disrespectful language; but any member may call the attention of the President to the subject when he deems a speaker out of order, and any member may explain when he thinks himself misrepresented.

Rule 9. When a member desires to a question of privilege, he shall briefly state the question; but it shall not be in order for him to proceed until the President shall have decided it a privileged question.

Rule 10. No person shall speak more than twice on the same question, nor more than ten minutes at one time, without leave of the Conference; nor shall any person speak more than once until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken.

Rule 11. When any motion or resolution shall have been acted upon by the Conference, it shall be in order for any member who voted with the prevailing side to move a reconsideration; but a motion to reconsider it a non-debatable motion and shall be decided without debate.

Rule 12. No member shall absent himself from the sessions of the Conference without leave, unless he is sick or unable to attend.

Rule 13. No member shall be allowed to vote on any question who is not within the bar of the Conference at the time when such question shall be put by the President, except by leave of the Conference when such member has been necessarily absent.

Rule 14. Every member who is within the bar at the time a question is put shall give his vote, unless the Conference, for special reasons, shall excuse him.

Rule 15. It shall be in order for him to move that the question be taken without further debate on any measure pending, except in cases in which character is involved, and if sustained by two-thirds, the question shall be taken.

Rule 16. The motion to adjourn shall be taken without debate, and shall always be in order, except, (1) when a member has the floor; (2) when a question is actually put, or a vote is being taken; (3) when the question is pending on seconding the demand for the previous question; (4) when the previous question has been called and sustained, and is still pending; and (5) when a motion to adjourn has been negatived and no business or debate has intervened.

Rule 17. All reports of the Boards, Commissions and Committees, shall be published and mailed to the Members of the Annual Conference ten (10) days prior to the date of meeting of the Annual Conference. Reports to be included in this mailing must be in the hands of the Secretary thirty (30) days prior to such Session.

Rule 18. No report shall be received or adopted by the Conference until a copy has been placed in the hands of the Secretary.

Rule 19. These rules shall not be suspended or amended except by a vote of two-thirds of the members present and voting.

Rule 20. All materials to be published in the Journal shall be in the hands of the Secretary not later than three (3) days after adjournment of the Annual Session or it shall be excluded.

Rule 21. The Nominating Committee shall distribute mimeographed copies of its report to the Annual Conference on the day before the report is to be voted on by the Conference.

Rule 22. Recommendations as to the change in format and policy regarding data to be included in the Journal shall be referred to the Committee on Journal for study and recommendation before action by the Conference.

Rule 23. Only such motions as are carried and/or passed by the Conference shall be included in the Journal.

Dollar reasons for buying PMF! Life Insurance

Inflation hits clergymen at a weak point—their annual salaries

Clergy salaries on the average remain low as compared with salaries of other professions and vocations. Clergymen—especially those with families—don't have many extra dollars to trifle with. Every penny has to count.

Through its very low premium rates, Presbyterian Ministers' Fund makes substantial savings possible.

Clergymen would do well to look closely at the Ordinary Life policy not simply as a means of protection, but also as an investment. Ordinary Life is always the basic, low premium, permanent policy, providing excellent cash value plus rock-sure insurance protection. Your premium dollars invested in Ordinary Life will net you a very favorable return. Isn't this an investment worth considering? How better could you spend your money?

Here are some PMF Ordinary Life policy examples. At age 25, a $100 annual premium will buy $7,968 worth of insurance; at 27, the same amount will buy $7,468 insurance; at 30, $6,757; at 35, $5,656; at 40, $4,675. We cordially urge you to compare these offerings with those available from other life insurance companies.

We invite you to join the thousands of your brother clergymen who are enjoying complete insurance coverage through Presbyterian Ministers' Fund. Write today!
